☞ The Plymouth Rock, whose editor was the democratic candidate for Congress in his district at the recent election, says of Gov. Banks's address, "we should publish it in full, did our limits permit, for we consider it to be the ablest state paper which has ever emanated from a Chief Magistrate of the Commonwealth."

☞ Prof. Steiner, the aeronaut, has designed a screw propeller balloon, in which he thinks he can cross the Atlantic in sixty hours! The cost of the gigantic air ship would be about $40,000, for the construction of which he desires the aid of Congress.

☞ The Suez Canal, it is said, will be commenced next year. A writer in the London Chronicle heard a shrewd American observe:—"If the French and Russians begin to make that canal, I guess England and the United States must take their shovels and go and fill it up as fast as they dig it out."

FROM WASHINGTON.—The Tribune correspondent writes:

The resolution of Mr. Sherman of Ohio, for the appointment of a select committee to investigate the political corruption of the navy yard, causes much consternation among the New York and Philadelphia Democratic members. It is probable that if the Navy Department had been apprised of Mr. Sherman's resolution, an objection would have been made to the introduction of the resolution.

Secretary Toucey is said to have expressed fears of its effect on the Connecticut election.

☞ Gov. Banks has accepted an invitation from the Mercantile Library Association of Boston to deliver an address in commemoration of the anniversary of the birth-day of Washington on the 22d of February next. The Music Hall has been engaged for the purpose.

☞ The police of New Orleans have entered into a mutual agreement not to drink in a coffee house nor a public bar room during the present year. A very sensible agreement.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 19.

SENATE.—Mr. Hunter, of the Committee on Finance, brought up the invalid pension bill. This appropriates about $836,000; also provides that after July first of the present year, the pension agencies shall be abolished, and that their duties shall be performed under the sub-treasury regulations with a view to save the cost of such agency. The bill was laid aside until tomorrow.

On motion of Mr. Hale of New Hampshire the joint resolution authorizing the President to restore the naval officers detached was referred to the Naval Committee.

The Pacific Railroad Bill was then taken up.

Mr. Brown's motion to lay it on the table was negatived—38 against 19.

The House passed a bill confirming to the Mobile and Ohio Railroad Co. the land granted by Congress to those States along the routes for railroad purposes, and extending the time for the completion of the road to 1865.

A bill was reported amendatory of the preemption laws.

Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania offered an amendment that no public lands shall be offered for sale by proclamation of the President, until the surveys thereof shall have been filed in the land office for at least ten years.

An unsuccessful motion to table the bill resulted—yeas 44, nays 120.

Further proceedings were stayed by the expiration of the morning hour.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Consular Diplomatic bill.

Mr. Keitt of South Carolina made a filibuster speech.

On motion of Mr. Colfax of Indiana, the appropriation for a salary to our Minister to Persia was stricken out.

Mr. Lovejoy of Illinois, moved to strike out the appropriation for the salaries of all ministers and commissioners.

At the request of Mr. Clark of New York, he excepted the Minister to Spain.

Mr. Lovejoy's amendment was rejected by twelve majority.

Mr. Garnett of Virginia moved to strike out the mission to Rome, like that proposed to Persia, a job or pleasant place to be disposed of by the administration in power. The imports from Rome were essential oils and rags. France and England have no minister to Rome. The amendment was carried. Switzerland was stricken out.

This bill and the president's message, were debated through the afternoon and evening.

GETTING ABOARD IN A HURRY.—A laughable incident occurred yesterday morning, at the Lincoln Square station on the Worcester and Nashua Railroad. A traveler bound to Burlington, Vt., where he had business of importance to transact, had rested over night, with his wife, at the Nashua Hotel, immediately opposite the station, in order to hit the morning train, which leaves at an early hour.

Yesterday morning the traveler was sleepy. His lady had arisen, awakened him, dressed herself, and gone down to breakfast, expecting her lord to follow her without delay. While eating hastily, and scolding mentally, in view of her husband's tardiness, she heard the ringing of the bell. Rushing frantically up stairs, her horror may be imagined, when on opening the bedroom door, a snore from the conjugal sluggard saluted her ear.

A slight scream and a rough shake awoke him. He heard the bell! Pulling on his boots he hastily gathered in his arm the rest of his attire, and pushing the lady before him down stairs, put for the train at a 2:40 gait, dressed only in boots and a flannel shirt! The twain reached the train. Throwing all but his shirt upon the platform, the lady hurriedly sought to obtain tickets at the office, while the husband struggled to indue himself with his No. 1 garment. While it was yet fluttering over his head, the bell again rang maliciously, and off started the train.—The unfortunate entered the car, his flesh having a pimpled, goose-like appearance, while his blushing lady, speading out her crinoline like the sacred veil of Charity, converted herself into a screen, that his nakedness might be hidden from his fellow travelers.—Worcester Spy, 14th.

SHOOTING AFFAIR AT BIDDEFORD.—A special dispatch from Biddeford yesterday spoke of the shooting of a man in that city by the name of Willey, and that a Mr. Noble was taken in custody for committing the act. We have since learned that Noble has been discharged. The facts as we learn them are that Willey was quite intoxicated—that he had a pistol in his bosom, and that probably in the attempt to draw it the pistol was discharged. This seems probable from another fact, that there were no holes in his coat or vest, and that the wound in his breast was very large and the flesh was discolored with powder. He first charged Noble with the act, but when he became sober he told a different story. We learn that he was alive yesterday, but could not possibly survive.—Portland Adv.

☞ Mr. John Bard, of Red Hook, New York, has expended the sum of $60,000, within six years, in erecting and supporting chapel schools, and night schools, &c., and in other kindred works.

☞ The Postmaster General reports that there will probably be this year an excess in the expenditures over the recipts of the Department of about six millions of dollars.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ULCERS.—There is no surer sign of deterioration of the vital fluids, and of a general debilitated condition of the system, than the occurrence and persistence of ulcers in various parts of the body. The PERUVIAN SYRUP improves the tone of the stomach, causes the preparation of a purer blood, and of course must repair the unhealthy loss of substance, which is generally so difficult to fill up.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Des. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only,—he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three hundred perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It can be removed in a few hours. Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

Put up in quarter, half, three quarts, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'—NOSE ORNAMENT IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st; R. LOCAL.

A Rich Local Item.—We cut the following rare piece of telegraphic news, from a Detroit paper.

New York, Dec. 11.—The U. S. steamer Arctic, from Washington, arrived at Nashua, N. H., on the 25th ult., for coal.

Somebody who knows, will please to explain by what passage an ocean steamer could reach Nashua; and whether when she got there, coal would be plenty and cheap.

Such a steamer might come in to Portsmouth, N. H. which is generally considered the only seaport in the State.

She might go into Nassau, N. P., or into a dozen other parts where the name begins with N.

☞ The three gentlemen chosen at the Sewing Machine Concert, to award the Machines among the ticket-holders, have furnished us with the following list; the holders of tickets bearing which numbers, the committee authorize us to state, are entitled to receive the Machines—which will be ready for delivery, as before announced, on Tuesday, Jan. 25th. 112—179—187--263—498—517—556—569—662—705.

Eastern Railroad.—Capital paid in $2,853,400. Funded debt, $2,105,500. Floating debt, $172,218. Total, $5,131,118, represented by road equipment, and $540,376 of property not necessary for railroad purposes. The gross earnings were $616,000, expenses $332,267, interest $129,000, net earning $155,483, or about 2 1-4 per cent on stock. There has been charged off, however, for loss on Grand Junction stock and for filling up bridges &c., $172,038, so that the year shows a loss of about $6,500. The present surplus is $77,844.

☞ Mrs. Bishop's Literary Entertainment at the Temple this Evening invites the notice of our citizens. She is said to be a lady of superior talent and elocutionary power.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times says:—

The charges by which Mr. Sherman yesterday obtained a Committee of Investigation, are specific and very serious. Corruption is distinctly charged in the awards of machinery contracts; and it is further charged that a certain member of Congress has received $5000 for influencing a contract, Affidavits from different parties declare that they have been obliged to pay a per centage of their wages to master mechanics in the Navy Yard to get employment.

Lost Overboard—Suffering at Sea.—New York. Jan. 20.—Schooner Luther Childs of Dennis, Capt. Nickerson, was struck on the 26th ult., off Bermuda, by a heavy sea, and Capt. N. washed overboard. Mr. Chase, the mate, and a seaman named Clark, went in the boat to his assistance, but were unable to save him.

Meantime the schooner drifted away so that the boat was unable to overtake her. Chase and Clark remained in the boat five days without food or water, and were finally rescued by the barque Holbrook, from Portland for Havana. There were only two boys, who knew little of navigation, left on board the schooner, but as she was in the track of numerous vessels, but little fears are felt for her safety. The Luther Childs was from Philadelphia for St. Kitts, with a cargo of lumber.

A Scottish writer complains that none of his countrymen ever attained the British accent. He says that he once prided himself on his success, but was undeceived before he had been in London a day. A man was lying on his back overpowered by liquor. "Come, my good fellow, 'I will help you up.'" "Bless you," he exclaimed, "you're a good 'un. I always liked the Scotch." This detection by a drunken man lying on his back took the conceit out of our friend.

American Gentleman (playfully)—Do you know, Madam, that next year I shall have the pleasure of calling you a fellow citizen of mine?

Cuba Lady (indignantly)—Never! was there ever so unprincipled a nation? Because a thing suits you, you think you have a right to steal it.

American Gentleman—Oh, no, Madam! We don't mean to steal it; we propose to buy it.

Cuban Lady—Ha, ha! What, you buy Cuba? Why, you cannot buy your own Mount Vernon!

A Liquor Case.—At the term of court now in session at Machias, Judge Rice presiding, Thomas Gilpatrick was prosecuted for the value of three tons of hay destroyed by fire, by persons intoxicated with liquors sold by him—and the jury gave a verdict for the plaintiff. The cause of action occurred it is stated, under the law of 1855. In another case of the same kind the jury did not agree.—Port. Adv.

Savannah, Jan. 19.—The barque Angelita was detained to-day by the Collector on suspicion of fitting out for the slave trade. She arrived here Oct. 30 from Matanzas, and has been in port ever since.

$3000 Worth of Clothing WHICH MUST BE SOLD!!

E. GREEN & CO.,

Take the pleasure of returning their sincere thanks to their patrons and the public generally, for past patronage, and hope for a continance and increase of favor in future. Now as it is a well established fact how cheap we have let clothing slide during the past month, the public will be satisfied that it is no humbug, if we hold out still greater inducement in offering Clothing without regard to cost. Therefore, for your advantage we call your attention.

Come to see us soon, while the Stock is large; we assure you that if you are a judge of Goods, you'll not leave our place without buying, on account of the quality and price. This inducement, corresponding well with the present season, we expect this enlightened community will give us as great a rush for Gent's Wearing Apparel, as last month.

☞ Those indebted to us, we wish to "call at the Cap'n's office and settle." We are ready to meet all demands against us as soon as presented

Indian Physician.

Dr. R. S. GOODWIN

Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.

ADVICE FREE.

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

The following are some of the Diseases successfully treated by Dr. Goodwin. Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters!

Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their Celebrated Family Machines, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;

PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

1838 - - - January 6th. - - - 1859

Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.

But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller e er returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.

To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

Particular Notice.

The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and it has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public or their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from Italy, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" as a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use this Salve will agree that it performs wonders at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ills, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck, BURRILL & HUNTING, SOLE PROPRIETORS,

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertible fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the delicate nerves the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Waiter Spots, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the tone which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which is always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorates the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BEADLEY—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BEADLEY—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told HE COULD NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely walk. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say! in a few months he was a strong man, and as he believes, permanently cured.

Yours resp'y. H. G. O. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

A Revolution in the Hunting World.

Reuibe's Patent Spring Gun Animal Trap.

More certain of its prey than the most perfect Rifle in the hands of the most accomplished marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins as is the case in ordinary mode of shooting, it effects the capture of the animal either dead or (if preferred) alive: the barrels discharging themselves, simultaneously with a hooks imbedding themselves in the mouth.

It is simple, yet strong and perfect in its construction neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange.

There are three different sizes, which will effectually operate on Mink, Woodchucks, Otters, Wildcats, Lynx, Foxes, Wolves, Deer, Panthers, Tigers, Bears, Buffaloes, etc.; in fact, on all animals which repay hunting.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished it, and used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used none. I now confidently believe the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before, for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above statement I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to prevent the misery of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally believed. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; it has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasant or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large, holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in place thereof a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing bodily health, and well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures constipation.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial of its merits, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and fire-express, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by regular practitioners, under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter. Letters addressed Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claim of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL, AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made numerous selected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 22, 1859.

SECRETARY TOUCEY IN A BAD PREDICAMENT.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press presents Mr. Secretary Toucey in a position which must be anything but comfortable for him. It is in regard to the construction of the machinery of the sloop-of-war now building at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. In September last, Gen. Norris, an engineer of Philadelphia offered proposals for furnishing the machinery. At a subsequent period he found that a competitor had drawings of the same. He demanded an explanation, and Mr. Toucey assured him that it was untrue—that no engineer of the Department would do so disgraceful an act. Two Boards of Engineers of the Navy were appointed by the competitor to vote against Norris; although they came to no direct disposal of the contract. Another Board, appointed by Mr. Toucey, reported for Norris, Mr. Toucey, however, did not give him the contract, but obtained from him, on pretence of a change, a schedule of prices, which he furnished to Norris's competitor, who at once made an undertid and of course took the contract.

Norris protests against this and brings forward abundant evidence to sustain the charge. An interview was had between Mr. Norris and Mr. Toucey the other day and the Secretary was so cornered that he could not reply to the questions put to him. But to make his duplicity complete, he said that "the furnishing of copies of Norris' drawings was of no moment, as he himself had authorized the Engineer-in-Chief to do so!" He ignored Norris' evidence on other points and gave the contract to his competitor. But before the award was made, the Attorney General and the President interfered, and the matter is now in Mr. Buchanan's hands, who, it is said, will institute a board of inquiry.

SUPPOSED LOSS OF THREE FISHING VESSELS WITH TWENTY-FOUR LIVES.—A slip from the Provincetown Banner gives the following melancholy intelligence:—"We are at last reluctantly compelled to admit that there is little or no hope for three missing 'Bankers'—the 'Mountain Wave,' 'James Porter,' and 'Palestine'—of Provincetown, will ever return. They must have foundered in the severe gales of October and November, as otherwise something would have been heard from them ere this. By this disaster a half dozen families in Provincetown are bereft of husbands and fathers. In one vessel there are three brothers by the name of Kilburn. In all, some twenty-four persons are supposed to be lost, belonging in various parts of the country. These vessels were good and staunch, and would have accumbed to no ordinary storm or sea.—There was but little insurance on the vessels. It is common to lose one vessel a year from a given town, but to lose three is a calamity of an unusual character."

BURDELL ESTATE EATEN UP BY LAWYERS. One of the most distinguished and learned men of the age, both in law and literature, has defined a lawyer as a "gentleman who saves your estate from your enemy, and keeps it for himself." The litigation concerning the estate of the late Dr. Burdell has aptly illustrated the truth of the definition. One of the parties to this case, Mrs. Cunningham, has spent her entire property and reduced herself and family to poverty by litigating her claims to Dr. Burdell's estate. On the other side, the fees of the counsel who disputed the title of Mrs. Cunningham for the heirs, has swallowed up the entire personal property left by Dr. Burdell, and last week the lawyers came into court and asked for an order authorizing the payment of additional counsel fees, amounting to about $4000, from moneys derived from sales which have been made of the real estate. An order had been made by the Surrogate at the time the case was decided, that these fees be paid from the personal property of the estate. But the lawyers, having used this up, now ask to pitch into the real estate, which will probably be all used up before the case is finally settled.

FROM CHINA.—Letters received at Washington from Hong Kong, Nov. 24, state that the U. S. steam frigates Powhattan and Mississippi were there, and the Minnesota daily expected from Shanghae with Minister Reed on board. Business was generally dull, but reviving. Many American vessels find difficulty in getting freight, although the rate to New York was only $8 per ton. The allies were still in possession of Canton. The Commissioners had not yet arranged the tariff under the recent treaties.

SPEAKER ORR AND THE PRIESTS.—The Boston Atlas says:

Occasionally the priests carry matters with a high hand. Of such a character is their recent dragooning of Mr. Speaker Orr into putting a studied insult upon several of the most respected Protestant clergymen of Washington. The House of Representatives voted to invite all the resident clergy of the city to attend and officiate in rotation as chaplains in the House. They were requested, such as desired to officiate, to hand their names to one of their number that they might be arranged in alphabetical order. The Catholic priests refused to do this. The list was read, the first half of it announced, and the clergymen, as called upon, officiated. But now, when the second half of the list is read, it appears that Mr. Speaker Orr has taken the liberty of striking out the names of several Protestant clergymen, among them the Rev. Byron Sunderland, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church; Rev. G. W. Samson, D. D., of the Tenth street Baptist Church; Rev. F. Swentzel, of the Methodist Protestant Church, and Rev. Dr. Nadal, of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and in their places has substituted some Roman Catholic priests, the Rev. Fathers O'Toole, McGrath, Sestini, and Stonestreet, and, worse than this, has assigned to them a place for every remaining week of the session, to the entire exclusion of the Protestant ministers.

In this Mr. Orr has put a gratuitous insult on the Protestant clergymen who were invited and who complied with the request, has violated the rule of the House as fixed by its resolution, and gone out of his way to put, in the place of officiating chaplains, Irish and Italian priests who did not show respect enough for Congress even to accept its invitation, and who own and acknowledge an allegiance, temporal as well as spiritual, to the Pope of Rome, which they regard as superior to that they owe to this government. We don't know how this conduct may strike the public, but it seems to us to indicate a pretty rapid progress of the Democratic politicians in their servility to the Romish priests and a state of things that bodes no good to the government of this country.

☞ The funeral of the late John Ball, at Salem, was attended by the benevolent and christian men of the city, on Sunday noon—and his remains have come to rest with the loved and lost in this city, his native place. The Salem Register contains an honorable tribute to his memory and his works:

In March, 1847, the late Mrs. Eliza L. Rogers, wife of Hon. Richard S. Rogers, and her brother, Wm. D. Pickman, Esq., called him to Salem to labor for the poor—a work in which he had for many years previously been interested in other places,—and, with extraordinary munificence, paid him, from their own private means, an annual salary of one thousand dollars, besides liberally furnishing him with funds, in connection with others, to supply the wants of the destitute. The principal object at first was to reclaim the neglected boys and girls of the city, withdraw them from their degrading associations, and place them in a way to become useful members of society. How well and successfully he performed this duty, many of the rescued are now in a position to testify from their own experience. He continued his labors of this kind, in connection with supplying the wants of the poor, until the winter of 1852, when the Salem Provident Association was formed, and he was appointed the General Agent, the same generous donors still giving him their confidence and support, and he has remained in that station ever since.

THE FATE OF A ROWDY.—The complaint in Baltimore is that it has been under the government of its rowdies, but a jury has just given a verdict which will probably tend to check violence, by showing those who are guilty of it that there are laws above their wills and passions, to which they are subject. In a trial recently in that city, of a member of one of the confederate gangs which got the upper hand of the administrators of the laws, a police officer was called upon to testify against the prisoner. He did so, the prisoner was convicted, and, a few evenings after, the officer was shot dead while standing at the fire-place in his own house, the act being committed by one who kept up the ally, while a confederate in crime kept the officer's wife engaged in the shop which she kept. In the fear of summary justice on the spot from an excited crowd, he confessed the name of the real author of the crime, who was arrested. This man, whose name is Marion Cropps, has been tried, and, on Tuesday, the jury convicted him of Murder in the first degree, which fortents his life unless the Executive should unwisely interfere with a pardon. Under the circumstances, this would certainly be an abuse of the power lodged in his hands. His confederate in crime will be tried immediately. Both these persons are young men scarcely of age.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"MISSING."—Nothing has yet been heard of the missing schooner Margaret of Marblehead, and it is now supposed that she has been lost. Her crew consisted of seven men and a boy, the most of whom are married and have families, who have now to depend on their own labor in order to support themselves. The Margaret was a new schooner, of ninety tons burden, and was owned by Dixon and Prime. This was only her second voyage.

☞ Horace Greeley lectured at Quincy Ill., Christmas day, on "Great Men." The editor of the Lagrange, Mo., American, who went over to see him, says:—"It appears that he greatly admired that city; so much was he charmed that while gazing upon many of its lofty edifices he actually ran against a lady and knocked her down sprawling in the mud. At night he delivered a lectured at the City Hall on great men. The hall was crowded, and the lecture was considered a very good one for Horace Greeley. On Sunday he attended the new Unitarian Church, which was dedicated on that day, with highly interesting ceremonies; but notwithstanding all this, Horace slept most of the time during the sermon."

☞ A Washington letter in the New York Journal of Commerce says:—"Senator Douglas will not be led, as I know from some of his particular friends, to make an open war against the President at this session. There are not wanting men among his friends who would urge him to this course. Therefore the supposition that he is coming out with a formidable speech against the President is incorrect. But there is no doubt he will have occasion to explain and defend his own position and course on the Lecompton question.

OLD SAM HOUSTON.—The recent speech of this gentleman in the United States Senate, in reply to the attack made on him by Mr. Iverson of Georgia, appears to have been a very great success. The report in the Intelligencer says:

Mr. H. concluded his remarks by alluding to Mr. Iverson's attack upon him yesterday, as reminding him of the old fable of the dead lion, who, being espied by a certain animal, the latter took advantage of his defenceless condition to plant his heels in the lion's face. Mr. H. would not name the animal, but it was the same one from which Samson took the jawbone!—[Great laughter, both on the floor of the Senate and in the galleries.]

Mr. Iverson, instead of taking offence at this allusion, apologized for having said anything calculated to wound the feelings of the Senator from Texas, with whom he had always been on terms of personal friendship.

Arkansas and Michigan were both admitted into the Union, in 1856. The latter is half the size of the former, is, as compared with her rival, cold, foggy and shaky; can't raise either cotton, rice or the "peculiar institution;" but now, at the end of twenty-two years, while the former has neither railroads or telegraphic lines the latter has long lines of both and of the best order; has three time, the population, five times the assessed value of farms, farming implements and machinery, and eight times the number of public schools of her more genial sister of the "sunny South." We say nothing here of the cause of this disparity, neither do we insist that any "domestic institution" "peculiar" to any section of the country, "is the corner stone of our republican institution," or that the people of the North, would be beggars but for the forbearing spirit of the southern brethren.—Bath Times.

☞ The wealth of Gen. Cass is the result of the rise of real estate in Detroit. A portion of his original farm is now in the very heart of the city. Twenty years ago he offered to sell it for $7500; now it is valued at $3,000,000. Notwithstanding his great wealth, he permits this winter, two parcels of real estate to be sold to pay taxes. Perhaps the old gentleman is getting negligent.

☞ A man who took a barrel of liquor from Palmer on Monday of last week, to carry to Ware, found that it had frozen solid before getting half way there. He stopped on the road to thaw it, fearing that the barrel would burst. It must have been awful cold that day!

☞ Signora Mario—Miss White that was—the admirer of Mazzini and friend of Italian liberty, according to the N. Y. Tribune, has gathered up from the streets about two hundred and fifty organ-grinding, image-vending Italian lads, and is striving to educate them into good men patriots.

☞ The Great Republic, Monthly, for February, by Oaksmith & Co., New York, is just received—fully illustrated, beautifully printed, and full of interesting matter.

☞ The robbery of Harnden & Co.'s express office, at Providence, is not as large as at first supposed. The Journal of that city says the amount of the robbery will not exceed $1500.

☞ The Maine State Temperance Convention met at Augusta, Jan. 19, and was well attended. Gov. Morrill presided, and the tone and manner of the speeches was mild, but firm and decided.

AN IMPROMPTU.—The Charlestown Advertiser says:—A blind man was some time ago travelling in the cars, where he became acquainted with a lady. They entered into conversation, each endeavored to entertain the other, and each succeeded. At length the lady asked the gentleman if he could see only for one hour, what object in all nature would most engage his attention? He turned to a friend and immediately dictated the following lines, which he handed to the lady:

Oft have I wished in vain to view
The earth, the sea, the sky,
The pretty flowers, the lovely stars,
That gladden every eye.

But oft'ner far I've yearned to see,
That home of truth and grace,
Where beauty ever sits enshrined—
A pretty woman's face.

And now if I could see one hour,
You ask what I would do—
I'd turn from all the world beside,
And gaze alone at you!

VERY GOOD.—The following rich joke is related of the eccentric Lord Fairfax, who was a Swedenborgian:

He was once crossing the Potomac in a ferry-boat, and during his passage the ferryman heard him muttering to himself and talking with the air of one who was carrying on a conversation with others; curiosity prompted the man to ask an explanation of his singular proceedings, whereupon Lord Fairfax, with great politeness and serenity, replied that he was "conversing with Peter and Paul." Upon reaching the bank he offered the ferryman the amount demanded of a single passenger, but that worthy demurred. As Peter and Paul had been in the boat, he said that it was no more than right that his Lordship should pay for his friends, inasmuch as circumstances did not permit him, the ferryman, to demand of those gentlemen what they owed him. To this Fairfax readily assented; no doubt it pleased his eccentric taste, of which a species of grim humor was a marked characteristic. He paid for Peter and Paul, his friends.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

Henry Bowen, Librarian of Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association Rooms, School street, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters are a very valuable medicine—the best he ever used.—All medicine dealers sell them.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ULCERS.—There is no surer sign of deterioration of the vital fluids, and of a general debilitated condition of the system, than the occurrence and persistence of ulcers in various parts of the body. The PERUVIAN SYRUP improves the tone of the stomach, causes the preparation of a purer blood, and of course must repair the unhealthy loss of substance, which is generally so difficult to fill up.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Des. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only,—he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the obstinate Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic disease from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—this causes the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveilance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'. Cordial Gin IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. THE NEW ORGAN.

Messrs. Editors;—Why were not some of the Chroniclers in attendance at the recent exhibition of the new organ at the Stone Church, so that those who were not so fortunate as to hear the very fine playing on that occasion, might at least hear of it. As the Chronicle maintains a profound silence upon the subject, I am led to conclude that neither of its editors were present, and furthermore the horrible suspicion that they might not have received an invition thereto flashed upon my mind, filling it with consternation! The injury done the public by this unaccountable neglect, it shall be my endeavor to repair as far as possible.

Messrs. Hayter, Long and Harris were the gentlemen chosen by Mr. Hook, the builder of the instrument, to display its best points. The mere fact of his doing so, would be sufficient to stamp them organists of more than ordinary merit. Mr. Harris—who is an amateur performer—first tried the organ, and especially charmed every one by the most exquisite combinations. I think I never heard an organ played with more expression—it came from the soul, and it was there it made itself felt. This gentleman made his own selections, which the others did not; but obligingly played such pieces as were requested. It may be presumptuous, but I think, that musicians of their repute, might safely be left to their own judgment in such matters—at any rate, the selections might have been in better taste. But this is digression.

After Mr. Harris had fully displayed the sweetness and peculiar tone of each stop by itself, and, it seemed to me, in almost every possible combination, Mr. Hayter took his place, gving us an example of the pure organ style. With the grand old Cathedral music he is emphatically at home—and it was refreshing to see as well as hear him—with his frosty head and dignified presence—sitting at the organ, and drawing out its full power, with no visible motion, save that of the hands, though it was evident from the rich and heavy Sub-bass, that the feet had as much to do as they. With him, as with the others, there was no rattle of the wood-work, which always detracts from the merit of a performance; while much motion of the body denotes poor taste, or—short legs.—We were sorry to see Mr. Hayter leave the instrument, even though it was to give place to the brilliant Lang, who begun with a little more flourish than the others, which was forgiven him in consideration of the fine music he produced. After getting more into the spirit of the thing he became as quiescent as could be desired, and with many of the audience he was the favorite performer. The gift of prophesy is not needed to perceive for him a brilliant musical career. His many personal attractions, and among them diffidence of his own powers, his youth and talent, win the interest of all who hear him. Each gentleman played twice, which arrangement certainly indicated no wish, on the part of any, to outshine the others, but evinced harmony of feeling as rare as delightful. As to their respective merits, 'twould be difficult to come to a conclusion, as throughout the whole, it was evidently the aim of these gentlemen to exhibit the organ, and not themselves. But even under other circumstances, it would not be easy to decide between three such widely differing styles,—each one so excellent of its kind.

Since listening to Morgan,—the king of organists—at Tremont Temple, I have heard no organ playing to compare with that of the Unitarian Church, last Friday evening.

The Society for whom the organ was built were evidently much gratified, and with the builders, have a right to be proud of so noble an instrument. AUDITOR.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

FRIDAY, Jan. 21.

Arr sch James Freeman, Freeman, Tangier, Va., with oysters to W. Freeman.
Cld Br Steamship North American, M. Master, for Portland, Me.

Ship Charger, Hurd, San Francisco, arr at Calcutta Nov. 26.

FROM CALIFORNIA — OVERLAND. — St. Louis, Jan. 20.—The overland mail, with San Francisco dates of the 27th ult. has arrived. The train brought two through passengers.

The President's Message reached San Francisco at 3 o'clock on the morning of the 26th, in 19 days and 12 hours from St. Louis. The Message hardly came up to public expectation, especially on the subject of the Pacific Railroad.

The Christmas holiday's were being observed with extraordinary unanimity.

Dates from Victoria are to Dec. 18.—There was great suffering at Frazer River from cold.

The steamer Enterprise left Fort Hope for Fort Langley on the 9th, with 125 passengers. She was frozen in on her way down. There were no provisions on board, the passengers attempted to go to Fort Langley on rland.

Snow was falling and they lost their way, and after three days of inexpressible suffering, during which five or six were frozen to death, the weather moderated, and the steamer got free from the ice, and took the survivors to Fort Langley.

A petition was being circulated at Victoria, for the removal of Gov. Douglas.

Mining had almost entirely ceased at Frazer River.

At San Francisco business was stagnant. Considerable rain had fallen.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:

It is confidently asserted, on Democratic authority, that great dissension exists in the party in Washington, on the subject of Cuba.

The more prudent leaders are beginning to be startled at the wildness of the projects which their less cautious associates are broaching. They may want, and the President wants, to have thirty millions to dispose of. That sum, or a portion of it at least, would be of great service in the approaching Presidential contest; but they are not quite ready for a crusade against Great Britain, France and Spain.

The Speaker has still under consideration Sherman's Committee to look into corruption in the Navy Yards. It is understood that the Committee will consist of two Republicans, two Democrats, and one American. The Democrats evidently have no appetite for the investigation to which they have been invited.

The debate on the diplomatic bill shows that a strong inclination exists in the House to suppress all foreign missions except half a dozen first class ones like those of England, France and Spain.

LYNN, Jan. 21.—About 12 o'clock last night fire was discovered in a storehouse situated on Sea street. Building and contents consumed. Supposed to be incendiary.

Also, at 5 o'clock this morning, the grammar school house in Ward 3 was discovered on fire, and in a few minutes was totally consumed. The engines were on hand, but were unable to render any effective assistance.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Barque Laurens, belonging to this port, was seized yesterday in New London, on suspicion of being about to proceed on a slave voyage to Africa. The Laurens formerly belonged to Kennebunk, and has been in the whaling business.

Advices from Venezuela of Jan. 2 state that Gen. Santana had been chosen President of that republic.

Advices from Kingston, Jamaica, of Dec. 27, state that a shock of earthquake, was felt there on the 22d, causing some injury to property.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 29.—About 4 o'clock this afternoon, one of Dupont's powder mills, in the Hagley yard, exploded, killing James Gibbons and John Grant. The shock was very severe, and felt for miles around.

CONGRESS.—On Thursday, the Senate passed the invalid pension bill. A substitute was reported for the bill authorizing the President to use the forces of the United States; the principle of the new bill is essentially the same. The Pacific Railroad bill was discussed at length, but no conclusion was reached.

The House rejected the homestead preemption bill, and went into Committee of the Whole on the President's message. An evening session was held.

On Tuesday, J. Henry Lewis, from Portsmouth, forged the name of M. M. Sullivan, shoe dealer, to an order for a week's board at Mrs. Florence's, but being detected he was arrested, and brought before Judge Robinson, by whom he was bound over, in the sum of $300, to the Court of Common Pleas at Cambridge, on the 2d Monday of February.—Charlestown Adv.

He will probably get at least 6 months' board by the operation, in prison or the House of Correction.

E. GREEN & CO.,

Take the pleasure of returning their sincere thanks to their patrons and the public generally, for past patronage, and hope for a continuance and increase of favor in future. Now as it is a well established fact how cheap we have let clothing slide during the past month, the public will be satisfied that it is no humbug, if we hold out still greater inducement in offering Clothing without regard to cost. Therefore, for your advantage we call your attention.

Come to see us soon, while the Stock is large; we assure you that if you are a judge of Goods, you'll not leave our place without buying, on account of the quality and price. This inducement, corresponding well with the present season, we expect this enlightened community will give us as great a rush for Gent's Wearing Apparel, as last month.

☞ Those indebted to us, we wish to "call at the Cap'n's office and settle." We are ready to meet all demands against us as soon as presented

Indian Physician.
Dr. B. S. GOODWIN

Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.

ADVICE FREE.

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN.
Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters!
Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;
PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

1838 - - - January 6th. - - - 1859

Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.

But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller e er returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.

To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

Particular Notice.

The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES. It has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportion, to several times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ills, rub on the rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A.M.Beck.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood deranges the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES

are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by prolonged abuse, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam has been one of the most fortunate things I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. Our little children were also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Mo., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but said they could SEE CLEARLY NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He sent a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as he believes, permanently cured.

Yours resp'y, H. G. O. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

More certain of its prey than the most perfect Rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without leaving the value of Pelts or Skins as is the case in ordinary mode of shooting. It effects the capture of the animal either dead or (if preferred) alive; the animals in charging themselves, simultaneously with the hooks imbedding themselves in the mouth.

It is simple, yet strong and perfect in its construction neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange.

There are three different sizes, which will effectually operate on Mink, Woodchucks, Otters, Wildcats, Lynx, Foxes, Wolves, Deer, Panthers, Tigers, Bears, Buffaloes, etc.; in fact, on all animals which require hunting.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before the twenty five years, I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am sure that all those who will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and have resided here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, and I wish it may be blessed in nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, JAN. 22, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood (Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from being quite flaxen, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BAGGS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion than the small, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying their place with a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to keep both the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken a preventive each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose and two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headaches.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Roof and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious mirage of certain dangerous maladies who will suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by others, have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and inclosing a fee will convince the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 18 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL PEMALE REGULATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superiority over regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MAGON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

Ex-Purser S. V. Hunter, late of the U. S. Navy, now lies dead in the city of Boston, where he was killed by one Roach, or Roch, a rumseller, at his rum hole and dance house, by a blow from a bottle, and other injuries.

Hunter is a native of Kentucky, and was possessed of fine talents, having but one failing—an unquenchable appetite for intoxicating drinks. He was formerly clerk in one of the departments at Washington, from which he was transferred to the Pursership, which he was soon obliged to relinquish, as in consequence of his intemperate habits he was Court-Martialed and dismissed the service. He has been for several weeks past, boarding at the Webster House, and on Wednesday was found, early in the evening, intoxicated in the streets, and was conveyed home. It was supposed that he had gone to bed, but unbeknown to persons in the house, he again left and entered the house of Roach, and there had some trouble with the occupants. Finally Roach undertook to put out Hunter, because, as he alleges, he vomited over the floor. He acknowledged having pushed him, and that he fell upon the sidewalk, but denies any other violence.

A girl living in the house states, however, that he was struck over the head with a glass bottle, and it is evident from the indented appearance of the skull, that he had received a severe blow upon the head. He was found in an unconscious condition in the street, and taken to the First Police Station, where it was at first supposed that he was not seriously injured. As he did not recover consciousness, however, a physician was sent for, and he was finally sent to the Hospital. Here he never afterwards spoke or recognized any one, but continued to sink gradually until he died.

Roach, who is charged with causing his death, is now in jail, and will probably be held on a charge of murder or manslaughter. The chief evidence against him is that of one of the girls in his employ, who states that the deceased was struck over the head with a glass bottle, while at the shop. Roach in the first place fled, but on the circulation of the rumor that Hunter was not much hurt, he returned, and was arrested. The girl who is a witness against him is also in custody.

Some girls who lived next door, at first declined to say anything of what they saw for fear of Roach,—but when they found he had fled, they disclosed.

Most of those nuisances called dance houses, are kept by men who would not scruple to strike a deadly blow—every one of them sells liquor: without it there would be no such houses.

A Morning Dog.—The Boston Transcript states that a handsome Scotch terrier has for two or three weeks past watched beside a grave in the King's chapel burial ground, night and day, without cessation, save only occasional intervals of short duration, when obliged to absent himself in quest of food to prevent actual starvation. During the late severe snow storm a police officer first discovered the dog at his devoted duty, and endeavored to call him away for the purpose of giving him shelter; but the faithful animal would not leave the sacred spot, and responded only in wailings deeper and more melancholy than those of the storm. Even the subsequent intense cold weather, with the thermometer at 14 degrees below zero, did not drive him from his post of watchfulness over the remains of some beloved human being whom he has enshrined in his affections.

The Reflux Tide of Emigration.—The Liverpool Albion says that last year 14,876 emigrants returned voluntarily or have been reshipped from the United States to that port, being equal to one-third of the entire emigration during the year from Liverpool to Yankee ports. The persons who returned in this manner included a considerable number of paupers, and not a few lunatics, who have become a temporary, and in some cases a permanent, burden upon the ratepayers of Liverpool. To this important phase of Irish American emigration the attention of government has been called, and it is to be desired that speedy measures should be adopted to correct an injustice of so serious a character.

☞ Mr. Philip Jesse, aged 120 years, died in New Garden, Russell county, on 1st of December. A short time before his death he was able to attend to his household affairs, and one day while in his hundredth year he cut and split one hundred rails.

WHO SUPPORT THE UNION.

For many years, says the Newburyport Herald, the opponents of slavery allowed themselves to be denounced as disunionists and scarcely denied the accusation.—When they attempted to reply, instead of charging home that the real fanatics and disunionists were of the South, they hesitated, trembled, doubted, and consequently grew weak and almost died. They suffered severely in this way on several occasions; and when they should have been holding mass meetings in favor of the Union, allowed themselves to be drawn off into nice calculations about the value of the Union, and what they could do if it was dissolved. As well might a man calculate the value of existence, and talk about what he would do if he did not exist. The union of the States is a necessity, and must be maintained at all hazards or any price.

All this time that Northern men were denounced as disunionists by the South, it was the thief crying— stop thief. There were never any disunionists in New England or the free States; all that were to be found in the country were in the South, and finally this truth is becoming evident. Look now at the debates in Congress; who talk of disunion? The South. Where are the conventions that talk disunion? At the South. Where are the newspapers that favor disunion? At the South. Where are the governors whose messages recommend the people to prepare for separation: All at the South. Where are the fillibusters who look for new empires from fragments of the Union, conjoined with neighboring territories? At the South. All this fanaticism, madness and treason originates south of Mason & Dixon's line, and is fostered there; while of the seventeen millions of free people at the North there are not so many men who would consent to a division of the States as there are inmates of the insane asylums. In another general election these facts are to have weight.

Many men have gone with the democratic party because they said they preferred the Union and slavery to disunion and emancipation, as much as they abhorred oppression. Now they will see that if they would support the Union, they must crush out the fire-eaters;—if they would not sacrifice the noblest republic the world ever saw, and the best government the genius of man ever conceived, for a few negroes and an oligarchy of negro breeders and woman whippers, they must act for a united Northern sentiment in politics.—Nothing can be plainer than that the safety of our government lies in the prevalence of anti-slavery opinions, and the restriction of the slave power to its legitimate limits within the constitution, for if events continue in the same current as in the last half dozen years, those anti-slavery men who were so long called disunionists that some almost began to think they were so, at the cost of blood even will have to defend the union as it is, whipping back some Southern States to prevent their committing political suicide, which to them would be the first fruit of dismemberment.

☞ Dr. Wyne, in a recent lecture before the New York Medical Society, said that the deaths from the heart disease were extremely rare. Of twenty-six cases of sudden death examined by one physician, not one was by heart disease, but thirteen by pulmonary congestion. When a man is said to die of heart disease, it usually means only that the cause of death is not known.

Douglas.—The alacrity with which the Senator from Illinois went in for seizing or stealing Cuba at the Senatorial caucus on Saturday, must embarrass his particular friends, Messrs. Buchanan and Slidell.—He goes for stealing and fighting more earnestly than they. The probability is that all parties will back down from the $30,000,000 proposition when it comes to the test.

☞ Rev. Theodore Parker has so far recovered as to be able to walk out in pleasant weather. It is possible that with proper attention to his health he may live for years, though the report of the physicians on his case does not warrant the belief that he will ever regain his former health.

☞ The precarious nature of the fruit trade is manifest in the cargo of the Ocean Spray, just arrived at New Haven, from Porto Rico. She took in 300,000 fine oranges at that island, but lands not over 90,000 in good condition—the rest being worthless.

☞ Capt. Samuel Hopkins, of Bowdoin, Me., while driving a load of hay to Bath on the 13th inst., fell from the wagon, and dislocated his neck. His dead body was subsequently found lying in the road.

The Teeth and their Treatment.—Who is the fortunate possessor of a set of fine teeth, and would not take pains to preserve them? Who is under the necessity of having a tooth drawn in order that the remainder of the set may be made perfect for use and appearance and would not employ a skillful operator to remove the offender? Who require a full set of artificial teeth, and would not prefer that an educated dentist would replace the molars and incisors that are gone, with such as may be useful, handsome, and permanent? We are led to ask these questions before furnishing our recommendation of the complete establishment of Drs. Cummings & Flagg, because we have seen the systematic arrangement of the business of these gentlemen, and feel no ordinary surprise that persons who have to call to their aid, the art and science of dentistry, should place themselves in the hands of unskilful or amateur operators, when for similar expense they might be treated by accomplished Surgeon Dentists.

The very beautiful rooms, (seven in number,) of Drs. Cummings & Flagg, No. 25 Tremont street, have recently been refitted and refurnished, and at all hours of the day the most experienced and faithful operators are in attendance, to answer the calls of their numerous patients. We believe that no improvement in the dental art is suggested, that is not carefully invested by Drs. Cummings & Flagg, and if worthy to be adopted they are the first to aid in its general introduction. There own inventions and preparations for the diseases, and the proper preservation of the teeth, are numerous and efficient.—The Nerve Anodyne, a most useful and now world renowned antidote for toothache, is the invention of, and solely used by Drs. Cummings & Flagg. This foe to the toothache, although it effectually and instantly removes the pain, does not in anywise injure the teeth themselves there are other preparations, as Dentrifices for cleaning them, and Wash for hardening the gums, to which these gentlemen claim an exclusive right. On every side we hear great credit given to Drs. Cummings & Flagg, by those who have been their patients, and such testimony coming from the parties most interested in having work well peformed, must be allowed to supersede all other.

We may add that our best wishes for a continuance of their success will ever attend them.—Boston Daily Bee.

☞ Perley, of the Boston Journal, writes from Washington:

The French Spoliation bill passed the Senate by five majority, although ten of its friends were absent, and—Deo volente—it will be passed by the House during the first week in February. If necessary, Stephens of Georgia, Winter Davis of Maryland, and other Southern men, will advocate its passage, and Mr. Buchanan cannot refuse to sign it—as other Presidents have—because the records of the Senate show that he has approved the justice of the claims, and has advocated their payment.

Well: if it be so;—The claim is just—has been long deferred—will doubtless be paid some time. We wish it might be paid this year—for we know at least one son of an original claimant, who needs the money. That claimant was an old Republican, one of Paul Jones's crew, as honest a merchant, as kind a ship-master, and as honorable a Counsellor as ever lived in New Hampshire. And yet two Presidents vetoed a bill to pay this honest claim after it had passed both Houses of Congress!

We wish President Buchanan would avoid their footsteps and sign the bill. We shall gladly record the fact when he does it.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly for February, has for its first article a capital essay on the question, Ought Women to learn the Alphabet? The Professor at the Breakfast Table, and the Minister's Wooing, are fine chapters.

☞ Harper's New Monthly, for February, is received by A. Williams & Co., Boston, and J. H. Foster, Portsmouth.—The Follies of Fashion, with illustrations, is worth more than the price of the number.

☞ E. Merriam's record shows that the use of camphene, burning fluid, and kindred preparations for the purpose of illumination last year, caused the deaths of 54 persons, and resulted in the serious injury of 90 others, 11 of whom were not expected to recover, besides which, fires involving a loss of $58,945 arose from the same cause.

All Right.—Gen. Caleb Cushing has finally concluded that this glorious Union is in no immediate danger of dissolution. He has so stated in a moral long letter written to a Cincinnati committee. As this settles the matter, we suppose there is no further occasion for the publication of the Courier—it may safely be discontinued, [illegible] be may postpone the organization of his Mississippi Army.—Atlas.

Jenkins, the brilliant personal paragraph writer of the newspaper press, now calls Miss Hosmer, a "sculptress." For the benefit of those who do not understand the Jenkins vocabulary, we will say that a sculptress is one who "sculps."

Emancipating a Slave.—A man named Campbell, from Lousiana, brought with him to the city, yesterday, a good-looking female slave, which he had purchased in Vicksburg, for the purpose of executing a deed of emancipation. She had a child in her arms, of which he acknowledged himself the father, and not exactly relishing the idea that his own progeny should be in shackles, he emancipated the mother to give freedom to the child.—Cincinnati Gazette, 18th.

☞ A provision boat was sunk a few days since, by the wave of a passing steamboat, opposite Memphis, Tennessee, and six men, all on board, were drowned.

THE NEW YORK PRESS
—ALL—
WRITING FOR THE LEDGER.

In addition to the MOUNT VERNON Papers, by the Hon. EDWARD EVERETT, the New York Ledger, dated Feb. 5th, to be issued next week, will contain original contributions from the editors of the three leading Journals of New York City; James Gordon Bennett, Esq., the veteran editor of the Herald; the Hon. Horace Greeley of the Tribune; and Lieut-Gov. Raymond of the Times. From the pen of Mr. BENNETT, we have four original poems, entitled, respectively,

"LINES TO A LADY," an apostrophe to "MARY ANN," "AN ANGEL'S SMILE," and "A FRAGMENT."

From Mr. GREELEY we have a characteristic article, addressed to "YOUNG MEN IN THE COUNTRY, WHO DESIRE TO SEEK THEIR FORTUNE IN THE CITY"

And from Mr. RAYMOND we have an interesting account of "A VISIT TO THE HOME OF JANE EYRE."

Also, a vast amount of interesting matter by the Ledger's regular corps of popular contributors; and the beginning of

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PILES.—All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the Bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness, which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

An Enemy Conquered.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Foxtonl Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

Testimony.—Drs. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only, —he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impoverished and with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. These have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. The cause is easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

The Original and Only London Gin Improved, PURIFIED, DISTILLED in Holland from pure Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable medicinal properties of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of the harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, SEDENTARY HABITS, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at one dollar each, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is genuine.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. R. Parker, 319 Hanover st.; J. Morse, 118 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st.; Hyland & Snow, 31 Union st. Sold by other druggists in Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. Mitchell & Son.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.—We are informed that the exercises which took place on Thursday evening last, on the occasion of this Association's taking possession of its new rooms, were of an interesting character.

Mr. E. A. Stevens, on behalf of the committed who superintended the fitting up of the rooms, delivered the keys to the President, Mr. E. N. Mathes, who responded, and gave a brief but very interesting of this and the several kindred associations that are now, or have been in existence in this city.

Rev. Dr. Peabody, an Honorary member, followed with congratulatory remarks upon the evidences of increased energy and prosperity of the Association, and made suggestions and gave some advice which, if acted upon, cannot but be of great practical beneft to all its members.

Rev. Dr. Lamson was also present, and made remarks of a highly interesting and instructive character.

Several of the active members of the Association were called up, and made brief addresses.

It was stated that Mr. Albert Laighton, a member, had been invited to deliver a Poem before the Association, and that he would do so at no distant day.

The new rooms are very pleasant, and even elegant; and the hall, designed for the meetings of the Association, is an honor to its members and an ornament to the city.

WASHINGTON AT CHURCH.

Messrs. Editors:—In the Portsmouth Journal of Jan. 15, under the head of Rambles about Portsmouth, the fact of General Washington's attendance on public worship at the old North Meeting House in Portsmouth, is mentioned in such a way that the reader might suppose he went to meeting in that house and no other But as you like to "set history right," please to say that the General, who was an Episcopalian, attended public worship at the Episcopal Church in the morning, and at the North in the afternoon of the same Sunday.

It is somewhat important, in writing history, or furnishing materials for future history, to be accurate in statement, so as not to mislead, either by elips of the pen, or by the suppressio veri.

A FRIEND OF THE CHURCH.

☞ On Saturday last, a drunken man, in his erratic course across Market Square, brought up against the window of Mr. William P. Walker's clothing store, entirely demolishing a large and valuable pane of glass. The cost of replacing it will be $5.

☞ The steamship North American, having completed her repairs, sailed from this port on Saturday noon, for Portland, where she will load and be ready for her voyage to Liverpool by Wednesday or Thursday.

☞ There is a keel laid, and other work done, of a ship, at the South End ship yard of Messrs. Marcy and Pettigrew; so that the ship on the stocks at Raynes's yard is not quite alone, as we supposed.

☞ Stone continues to be received almost daily for the new Custom House—so that with the opening of spring, the walls will go up to their proper height, with all due dispatch.

☞ Wood is plentiful enough now to give eight feet for a cord, whether sawed or not, at Davis's Wood Yard; and he warrants to give more wood and of better quality, for less money, than can be bought on the Parade. 3t

BONNER STILL LIVES.—By reference to his advertisement, it will be seen that Mr. Bonner has a very singular and and attractive new feature in the New York Ledger. Articles contributed by James Gordon Bennett of the Herald, Horace Greeley of the Tribune, and Henry J. Raymond of the Times, are in one paper.—This is laying the press under contribution in a novel way—and we doubt not the Ledger will be the more valuable for it.

☞ The city of Portland is about to purchase steam fire engines to take the place of the common machines. Within five years this will be done by all the cities, and it would be well for those superintending fire departments to keep their eyes open to this fact.

☞ The Manchester, (N. H.) Literary Society will celebrate the centennial anniversity of the birth of Robert Burns.—Moses A. Cartland, Esq., is to deliver an address on the occasion.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—As Hon. Geo. Taylor, of the House of Representatives, was passing one of the halls of the Capitol this afternoon, he overheard a highly offensive remark from Mr. Waldron of New York, made to the latter's companion.—Approaching Mr. Waldron, Mr. Taylor asked whether the language was directed against him. On receiving, after hesitation, an affirmative response, Mr. Taylor resented the insult by hitting Mr. Waldron with his fist. Mr. Waldron struck back with an umbrella, of which Mr. Taylor obtained possession after it had passed from Mr. Waldron's hand, and struck him with it, and then threw it at him, Other parties interposed, and prevented further difficulty. It is said that Mr. T. presented the charges on which Mr. Waldron was removed from the office of Deputy Collector of the Custom House at New York.

The petition presented by Senator Wilson to-day from the Society of the Cincinnati of Massachusetts, asks for a settlement of their claims for the half-pay for life, promised by the act of October, 1783, to the continental Army. They do not ask this a matter of bounty or pension, but that Congress redeem its plighted faith.

Secretary Cass has applied to Congress for an appropriation for the salary of Townsend Harris, Minister Resident to Japan.

The House to-day was opened with prayer, for the first time by a Roman Catholic priest in full dress.

The President, to-day, sent to the Senate a message, in reply to the resolution calling for copies of any correspondence in relation to the purchase of Cuba, which has not yet been made public. He says that no such correspondence has taken place, which has not already been communicated to Congress, and adds,

"In my last annual message I stated that the publicity which has been given to our former negotiations on this subject, and the large appropriations which may be required to effect the purpose, render it expedient, before making another attempt to renew the negotiations, that I should lay the whole subject before Congress.

"I still entertain the same opinion, deeming it highly important, if not indispensable to the success of any negotiations which I might institute for the purpose, that the measure should receive the previous sanction of Congress. The message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

LATER FROM HAYTI.—New York, Jan. 21.—We have received advices from Port au Prince of Jan. 4. The Emperor was moving against the insurgents. He had inspected the army, and was taking other preliminary measures; but, in a bulletin, issued on the 4th, treats the insurrection as a mere temporary riot.

A party of insurgents had occupied a position on the river Mont Reins, but, on learning the approach of the Emperor, they precipitately fled, leaving their ammunition. The Imperial troops then occupied the evacuated position.

The army exhibited no signs of disaffection.

Soulouque had issued a proclamation, calling his subjects to his aid, and announcing his determination to lead the army in person.

Gonaives is believed to be in a state of blockade.

New York, Jan. 22.—A letter from Port au Prince, dated Jan. 5, states that great excitement existed in consequence of the disturbance at Gonaives. Trade was stagnant, and stores closely watched. British frigate Melbourne, from Jamaica for England with over 400 troops, had reached the harbor, and would remain there for the protection of foreigners. Soulouque, in company with the Minister of State and Generals of the Army, had gone to Gonaives.

☞ By the steamer Europa, at New York, we have Liverpool dates to Jan. 8.

Napoleon's remarks to the Austrian Minister still exercise a depressing influence, notwithstanding a soothing paragraph in the Moniteur.

Accounts from Italy indicate a rapidly approaching crisis.

The Paris Bourse had at one time declined 2 1-4 per cent since New Years, but afterwards slightly improved.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—In executive session of the Senate to-day an exciting discussion arose between Messrs. Douglas and Fitch. The latter twice charged the former with uttering untruths. It is feared a duel will follow.

THE SLAVER BARK LAURENS.—Hartford, Jan. 21.—District Attorney Shipman has caused the bark Laurens, Capt. Curtis, of New London, to be seized as a slaver.—She is owned by James N. Hannum of Boston, and was about to sail on a pretended whaling voyage. Suspicious circumstances have caused her to be closely watched for a month past.

Indian Physician.

Dr. B. S. GOODWIN

Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.

ADVICE FREE.

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN.

Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters! Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO.,

18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;

PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular, which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

1838 --- January 6th. --- 1859

Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.

But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller e er returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.

To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

Particular Notice.

The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is such a powerful, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use, great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes on the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it do affectionately recommend it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, it is best to use it warmed with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. BURRILL & HUNTING, SOLE PROPRIETORS,

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

THIS well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all habitual users of the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and scrunge, giving healthy sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon obstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorating the entire system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and thereby cut off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told he COULD NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured one bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as healthy, to appearance, as ever cured.

Yours truly, H. G. O. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

A Revolution in the Hunting World.

Beuthe's Patent Spring Gun Animal Trap.

More certain of its prey than the most perfect Rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without marring the value of Pelts or Skins, as is the case in ordinary modes of shooting. It effects the capture of the animal either dead or (if preferred) alive: the barrels discharge themselves, simultaneously with the hooks imbedding themselves in the mouth.

It is simple, yet strong and perfect in its construction neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange.

There are three different sizes, which will effectually operate on Mink, Woodchucks, Otters, Wildcats, Lynx, Foxes, Wolves, Deer, Panthers, Tigers, Bears, Buffaloes, etc.; in fact, on all animals which repay hunting.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old, my color left at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly read and follow directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the benefits of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 22, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 11, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, REV. J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid matter from the system, supplying their place with a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving a healthy tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Billous Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night relaxes the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will cure severe Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor, 545 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. au31 ly

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters; believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do not strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles at 3 c. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendered by their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated at a distance by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE'S REGULATING PILLS are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 d1y

American and Foreign Patents.
H. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. H. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1859.

A Bad Adventure.—In Liverpool (England) on the 20th ult., a fellow named Egham was brought before the Police Court for polygamy. He was shown to be a most desperate character among the women — marrying all who were fools enough to listen to his proposals. He commenced his career in that line about ten years ago, by marrying, under a fictitious name, a Miss Gee of Turnhamgreen. He next married Miss Celia M. Wye, a girl with considerable property. Either the lady or the property fixed his affections for some time. At last he strayed off, and on the 3d of January, 1858, he married (changing his name again) Miss Lydia Murch. On the 3d of May last, he married Miss Sarah Drewite. On the 13th of July, Miss Martha Gover, and on the 17th of August Miss Fanny Farrell—making four in about one year, and six in the ten years. All these deceptions were proved upon him. How many more credulous girls were imposed upon, (if any,) does not appear. He managed to excuse his absences to some of them, by pretending to be the mate of a ship. Miss Wye always thought him to be the collector for some large mercantile house, and was not, therefore, surprised at his frequent absences.

One would suppose he must have been a "perfect love of a man," to have succeeded in deceiving so many foolish damsels.—But his description shows anything but that. The prisoner gave his age as 35, but looked older, as well he might under the circumstances. "Is slight built, with a sinister cast of countenance, and wears large whiskers and a large moustache, which are of a light or sandy color. He had one arm in a sling, and walked with a stick, or rather limped, which he said arose from a recent attack of paralysis." The Judge committed him, till all the evidence could be got together.

☞ When we read Gov. Morrill's address to the Legislature of Maine, we were struck with the boldness of the frauds there charged upon certain federal office holders and office seekers in relation to the election of Representatives to Congress. Now, as we see by a letter in the Boston Journal,

The French settlements of Aroostook county, Maine, are proved to have been the theatre of frauds committed at the last election, under the influence of federal office-holders, as gross as those more openly perpetrated by the Border Ruffians of Missouri. Thus, at one place the votes were counted by a Custom House officer residing a hundred miles distant, and colored Democratic votes were received, in violation of the law of Maine, which allows votes only to be printed on white paper. At another place, the constable drove everybody out of the room before the counting of the votes was begun. At another, a forty gallon keg of rum, gratuitously furnished, produced the utmost confusion. The records cannot now be found. 319 votes were returned, whereas only 119 voters belong to this district, and but 133 can be found who voted! Such are but a few of the evidences of the frauds practiced on the ignorant French settlers of the Madawaska region, who are said to be generally honest. These facts appear in a report to the Legislature of Maine, made by Hon. F. A. Pike of Calais, a man of unimpeachable integrity and a lawyer of high reputation. These frauds came near transferring the Sixth District from the Republicans to the Democrats.

Good Gunning.—Thomas Hammond, of Eliot, Me., on Thursday of last week, hearing his dog barking in a little clump of pine trees, not far from the house, most of the afternoon, concluded just at night to take his gun and see what attraction he had: on getting into the wood he saw tracks which resembled those of a cat, which by the aid of his dog he succeeded in following about a quarter of a mile, when to his surprise, he saw sitting up in the top of a tree, a wild cat of the largest size; he immediately brought his gun to his shoulder, and with one charge of buck shot killed the animal instantly, but was obliged to climb to the top of the tree to get him down. The Wild Cat measured three feet in length.

☞ In Paint Township, Madison county, Ohio, on Thursday last, the wife of Patrick Ryan, while insane from the effects of liquor, drowned herself in a cistern, while her husband, who had been carousing with him, ran from home half clad, and was found frozen badly by the roadside. He is not expected to recover.

☞ Mr. Robert Chambers contradicts the statement that he is the author of the "Vestiges of Creation."

☞ Mrs. Chloe Turner, a venerable colored woman, died at Beverly Farms last week, at the great age of ninety-six years.

Honors to Victims of the Yellow Fever at Norfolk.—Funeral services were held at St. Stephen's (Episcopal) Church, in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, in commemoration of the removal of the remains of the physicians and nurses who left that city to render assistance during the prevalence of the yellow fever at Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va., and who fell victims to the epidemic, which have been taken up and conveyed to Philadelphia for re-interment. A funeral sermon was preached to a crowded audience by Rev. Dr. Ducachet, who paid an eloquent tribute to the deceased for their heroic and self-sacrificing labors in the cause of humanity. In illustration of the suffering which prevailed at Norfolk during the epidemic, he stated that $25 was offered for a loaf of bread, and it could not be had at that. A beloved friend of his had been buried in a piano frame, so great was the scarcity of coffins, the stock of which had been exhausted.

The preacher also spoke of the services of "Bob Butt," a colored man, who sat facing him in the front pew. Bob, he said, nursed the sick, and buried 1159 with his own hands during that fearful period. He slept in the church there and performed the most unceasing labor by night and day. He was a slave, but ought to be made free, and his wife and children, as a reward for his noble efforts in the cause of humanity. This slave had taken up all the bodies of the Philadelphia victims, and had come on to see them re-interred, and is to go back again to his master. The Doctor appealed strongly to the liberality of his hearers to purchase freedom for the slave, which it is believed will be accomplished.

The remains of the deceased Samaritans, fifteen in number, were placed under a fine monument at Laurel Hill Cemetary. Appropiate inscriptions, together with the names of those benevolent deeds it commemorates, are emblazoned upon the monument.

A Humorous Legislative Report.—The committee of the New York Legislature, on Medical Societies and Colleges, to whom was referred a petition of Herkimer Sternburg, asking the Legislature to print his book, giving the means to cure intemperance, diabetes, nervous debility, &c., have reported—

That they have had under serious consideration the subject referred to them, and have become satisfied, if the prayer of the petitioner be granted, that the result of the scheme proposed by this Herkimer Sternburg, if successful, will be the annihilation of the medical profession, and thus the five or six thousand doctors of our State will be turned out upon the cold charities of an unfeeling world; that it will introduce the millenium several hundred years before its proper advent in the regular order of business; that it will dislocate every joint in the system of the moral universe; and therefore the committee ask to be discharged from its further consideration.

Propeller for Boston.—We are informed that Capt. N. H. Macomber of Bowdoinham has a substantial propeller of about 100 tons, now in Boston, nearly ready to be put upon the route between that city and this river. Capt. M. has the whole thing in his own hands, and being a man of go-ahead, economical qualities, he is bound to put it through, and we hope he may find the speculation a profitable one. The vessel will be rigged like a three-masted schooner, prepared to take advantage of the wind when fair, and face it unretarded when adverse. Such a vessel, managed by its owner, with all things kept in order, and no deadheads to support, must, it seems to us, prove a paying enterprise. We are glad it is to be tried, at any rate.—Bath Times.

Small propellers, owned by the captains, might do well on many parts of the coast.

☞ We find in the Portland Advertiser, the following item, indicating a crowded house.

All those persons who have been unable to obtain Pews, or sittings in the Union Church—Rev. H. D. Moore, Pastor—and who still desire to attend upon the ministry there, are respectfully informed by the Parish Committee, that every effort will be made to accommodate them, as comfortably as possible with seats; and the gentlemen who have charge of the aisles, will attend to providing them with these seats.

☞ The Concord Democratic Standard of Jan. 22 says,—speaking of the Second Congressional District:

Mr. Tappan is the nominee of the Black Republicans, and will be elected, for which he may thank the Butterfield clique in this city. The Democracy of New Hampshire are powerless, and always will be, until they come out and squarely defend the doctrines upon which the party was instituted, and which were powerful enough in the past to defeat Federalism, under whatever garb it appeared. We are sorry to see Republicanism again triumphant in New Hampshire.

☞ The citizens of Gratiot county, Michigan, are again in a suffering condition for want of food, and have appealed to the Legislature for assistance. The crops failed again last year, and of one thousand families living in the county, it is estimated that not more than one-quarter of them have the means of subsistence till next harvest. Every year or two there is a famine in this county. The inhabitants should quit the barren region.

From Washington.—The correspondent of the Tribune says:

"The report that Messrs. Seward, Halo, Giddings, Chase, Wade, and other distinguished Republicans, are in favor of the stealing of Cuba is a stupid fiction, starting the silly hope that it will have some political effect at the North. Republicans here all look upon the Cuban movement as a transparent humbug, which will result in nothing. The only foundation for the stories about the secret negotiations with the Spanish officials is a rumor that the President is trying to bribe the Governor General and the Spanish military commanders in Cuba to betray the island into his hands. This is alleged to be the object of the thirty millions. But it is also suspected here that a large share of the money, if the President gets it, will be used with the mere prospect of success to carry the next Presidential election.

☞ It is stated that Senator Hammond remarked to Governor Seward the day following the delivery of the speech, that he thought Iverson was unusually severe upon him. 'By no means, sir; on the contrary, I thought he was highly complimentary to me, and severe upon you, for he was kind enough to say, that with "northern security," I could "borrow any amount of money in Wall street at from four to six per cent; while you, with the popularity of your 'Barnwell speech,' with all your plantations' and 'niggers,' couldn't get a dollar!'" This not only turned the tables, but the laugh, upon the Senator from South Carolina.

Pitts Street Lectures.—Clergymen of several denominations are to give lectures this winter in Pitts street Chapel, Boston. The first of the series, on successive Sabbath evenings, in pursuance of the course introduced last winter, was delivered to a crowded congregation, by Rev. Prof. F. D. Huntington, for the Unitarian denomination, in answer to the question, "How can we best Christianize others?" which is to constitute the theme of the present series of discourses.

Rev. Dr. Neale (Baptist) will deliver the second lecture of the course on Sunday evening next.

Ice Accident.—On Friday morning Messrs. John H. Bancroft and Luther Sargent were passing the Merrimac river at Amesbury Ferry on the ice, when the horses broke through, and allowing the men scarcely time to escape, horse, sleigh and all went down and were seen no more. The ice was supposed to be two feet thick, and before this accident teams had gone over that morning, on one of which was Mr. Bancroft's brother and mother.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ The introduction of crinoline has had a disastrous effect on the starch trade. A starch factory in Buffalo, recently put in operation with a capital of $80,000, finds no demand for its manufactures, and factories at Oswego and other places have been compelled greatly to reduce their operations.

☞ The shock occasioned by the explosion of Dupont's powder mills, at Wilmington, Del., on Thursday afternoon, was felt at Philadelphia, thirty miles distant. Window sashes rattled violently.—The peaceful descendants of William Penn supposed it to be an earthquake.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PILES.—All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the Bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness, which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

An Enemy Conquered.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

Testimony.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. 624

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only,—he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, nourish, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand sanitary tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending opera and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the genuine "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Blites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

The Original and Only London Gin Imported.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restorives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-seven cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imnitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—Note Orders to Imported Agent.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Fecker, 1 Cornhill; J. Marsh, 121 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by W. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth, and by Druggists in every town in the United States.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada JOB MOSES,
(late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

LOCAL.

☞ A valuable young horse, belonging to a Mr. Ladd, of Epping, was seriously injured between Greenland and Portsmouth Plains on Monday about noon. The horse was attached to a heavy old-fashioned sleigh; and when he was crossing the track of the Concord Railroad at Greenland, one of the traces broke, and the horse ran with the sleigh at his heels. The sleigh was soon overturned, and the driver left in the road unhurt; but the horse ran on, dragging the sleigh upside down, with one shaft between his legs. He was at length brought up at Portsmouth Plains, terribly cut to pieces.

SKATING.—This is certainly an agreeable and healthy pastime, and all that seems wanting is a suitable place to enjoy it without interruption from the weather.—In order to accomplish this desired end, it is proposed to form a "Union Skating Club," and erect a building in such a manner, that the cost would be comparatively trifling, but at the same time amply spacious to accommodate all who would encourage this project. A paper has been left at Mr. N. P. Thacher's apothecary store, on Market Square, for those to sign who wish to become members of the above Club.

☞ We perceive by the Portland Advertiser that the steamer North American, which was repaired here, at the Navy Yard, and which came out of dock Saturday afternoon, arrived in Portland on Saturday afternoon, and sailed thence, at 4 o'clock P. CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 22.

The Senate is not in session.

HOUSE.—Mr. Morris of Pa., presented the resolutions of the Legislature of that State, he said, on a subject now attracting the attention of the country.

Mr. Jones of Tenn., said he did not want to hear them read.

Mr. Florence remarked that the Legislature wished to express its opinion here.

The Clerk commenced reading the resolutions when Mr. Garnett of Virginia objected.

Mr. Barksdale of Miss. said that when a State asks to be heard, the request should be granted.

Mr. Florence insisted that gentlemen could vote intelligently as to the disposition of the resolutions, only after hearing them read.

Mr. Curry of Ala. asked whether this was a contest between the Pennsylvania Democrats and Republicans.

Mr. Florence replied that he had nothing to do with the Pennsylvania Republicans as such; he was a Democrat, and was responsible for his acts to no one else, as his vote and speeches would show.

The resolutions were read, instructing the Senators, and requesting the Representatives of Pennsylvania, in Congress, to advocate and vote for such a bill as will not only tend to increase the revenue, but afford ample encouragement to the productive interests of the country, more especially in coal and iron, and expressing hearty approval of the President's recommendation of specific duties.

Mr. McQueen of S. C. inquired whether these things are in the Cincinnati platform.

Mr. Montgomery of Pa. replied they are substantially.

The resolutions were ordered to be printed and laid on the table.

The House adopted a resolution calling on the President for information concerning the importation of slaves in Georgia and elsewhere.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill to indemnify the citizens of Alabama and Georgia for losses by Creek hostilities. The bill was rejected. It involved more than a third of a million of dollars. The private calendar was taken up, and the House adjourned.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.—New Orleans, Jan. 22.—The steamship Quaker City is below with 112 passengers, and San Francisco dates to the 5th inst. The Pacific Mail Steamer Golden Age had on board 250 passengers and $1,290,000 in treasure for New York, and $468,000 for Europe.

Business at San Francisco was stagnant and money scarce.

The California Legislature organized on the 4th inst. W. C. Stratton was elected Speaker of the House. The Lecompton Democrats have a large majority in both branches.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Secretary Cobb's proposed revenue collection bill cuts off seventeen New England Custom Houses and many minor officers. Edgartown and Nantucket are to be annexed to Barnstable, Plymouth to Boston and Marblehead to Salem.

Passamaquoddy district absorbs Machias; Belfast absorbs Penobscot, Frenchman's Bay and Waldeboro': Bath absorbs Saco and Kennebunk; Portsmouth absorbs York.

The bill also abolishes Inspetorships at Quincy, Scituate and Kingston; the naval office at Salem, and the Gloucester Surveyorship.

The Commitee on Ways and Means will meet on Tuesday. So far as is known, no majority report concerning the revenue can be presented from the Committee.—Messrs. Letcher, Dowdell and Crawford oppose any change in the tariff. Mr. Phillips has a scheme of his own. Mr. Maclay's position is uncertain. Messrs. Howard, Davis and Morrill are in favor of a bill, the details of which have not yet been divulged. Mr. Montgomery has given notice to Mr. Phelps, on behalf of the Pennsylvania Democrats, that he will resist the consideration of any more appropriation bills until some scheme concerning the tariff is presented. The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, by a vote of 4 to 3, have agreed to a report, written by Slidell, advocating the $30,000,000 appropriation, and reporting a bill for the same. The report is an elaborate argument in favor of the acquisition of Cuba. Mason, Douglas, Slidell and Polk agreed to the report; Seward, Crittenden and Foot disagreed.

The Committee on Commerce will report in favor of States levying tonnage, and other duties for the improvement of harbors and rivers within their limits.

☞ The slaves in Cuba are very restless. They may have heard that we are coming to reign over them, and are preparing to celebrate the 5th of July.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

C. C. WHITTEMORE, d24 Agent in Portsmouth.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S $50 SEWING MACHINE ON EXHIBITION AT ROOM NO. 1 FRANKLIN HOUSE.

This Machine takes a stitch that cannot be pulled out, and is the best machine before the public.—The people of Portsmouth are requested to call and examine the machine and its work, whether they wish to purchase or not.

Being the sole Agent for New Hampshire and Vermont, I can sell you a machine at the same price you will have to pay in Boston or New York, and save all the expense of going to purchase one, and also the expense on the same.

Any lady having stitching to do, will please call and have it done on the Machine free of charge. IRA MITCHELL, Agent for New Hampshire and Vermont. Portsmouth, Dec. 24, 1858. tf

1838 - - - January 6th. - - - 1859 Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of "A NEW APOTHECARY STORE," a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.

But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller e er returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.

To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

William R. Preston, APOTHECARY. No. 2 Congress Block, Congress Street, who keeps constantly on hand a full and complete assortment of DRUGS AND MEDICINES, PATENT MEDICINES, TRUSSES & SUPPORTERS, SHOULDER BRACES, LEECHES, and every article usually found in a FIRST CLASS APOTHECARY STORE, all of which are of the best quality, and will be sold at the lowest prices. jy10

Particular Notice. The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment. Portsmouth, Dec. 28th, 1858. G. N. CARLETON, 15 Daniel St.

A Card. The Subscriber, who has been Foreman of the Stove Manufactory of Mr. Carleton and his predecessor, Mr. Morrison, for more than twenty years past, would inform his friends that he may be hereafter found at the Store of Mr. E. A. Stevens, No. 46 Market Street, where he will endeavor to execute all orders in his line of business promptly and faithfully as in times past. Dec. 31, 1858. ISAAC DOW.

STEVENS' House Furnishing Establishment. The Subscriber having purchased MR. G. N. CARLETON'S entire Stock of Stoves, &c., and removed the same to his own Store, NO. 46 MARKET STREET, offers to the public a complete assortment of Furnaces, Ranges, Parlor Grates, Stoves, Tin Ware, —AND— KITCHEN FURNISHING GOODS Of All Kinds, AT GOOD BARGAINS FOR CASH.

Repairing pieces for all Ranges, Furnaces, and formerly sold by MR. CARLETON, kept constantly on hand.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper. This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep,

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world-wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the lacerated parts, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in pneumonia. In any disease of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A.M.Beck.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertible fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood change the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritations and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by their tonic tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEY—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite benefit to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also cured to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEY—SIR—Mr. Clark of Belfast, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who pronounced for him—but was finally told HE COULD NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely walk. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as he believes, permanently cured.

Yours truly, H. G. O. WASSERSON, Bookseller.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the wonderful powers of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what it had wished. I used it twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy t an it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that your fame will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last five years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the health of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, JAN. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1853, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and in words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that it has been used in my family for removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; it has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ¼ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

E. P. RUSSELL'S

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay consequent upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the closest attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a trial of not many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 18 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions, remember the number—18 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and succesful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

BOB BUTT.

This euphonious name belongs to a negro slave, who was at once a nurse of the sick, and the undertaker to bury the dead, in the time of the yellow fever at the cities of Portsmouth and Norfolk, Virginia. He buried, it appears, eleven or twelve hundred people who died with that disease. And now, when the white nurses and white doctors, who fell at his side in that sad hour, have their remains disinterred, and carried to Philadelphia, he assists and goes with them.

An eloquent orator, the Reverend Dr. Ducachet, pronounces a funeral oration over their remains, and in it pays a proper tribute to the services and faithfulness of Bob, who sits there among the honorables, the observed of all observers. And the Rev. Dr. proposes a reward! What is it? It is that somebody in a free state should give money, not to Bob, but to his master, so that Bob may own his own body and soul, and may have the privilege of keeping his wife and children from the auction block, whenever that master dies!

"Well, don't you approve of that?" says one. Yes, indeed, says Uncle Toby, it is very good as far as it goes. But we must remember that Judge Taney of the Supreme Court, has told us in his obiter dictum about Dred Scott, that negroes have no rights which a white man is bound to respect;—that our venerable President bows his head in approval of that owl-like document; and thousands of people, even in New England, swallow down this stuff as if it were law and gospel, or a compound of both, instead of being, as it is, a concentration of stupidity and wickedness.

Make the man free!—Yes, says Uncle Toby, by all means. But can he take care of himself? Won't he run to the North, when he is let loose? Is not slavery the proper condition of the laborer, of the mud-sills generally, and especially of black sextons and nurses?

Uncle T. will not answer these questions; he leaves them for those who can acquiesce in Lecompton swindles, bow to Taney's dicta on Dred Scott, and see great wisdom in a parcel of old grannies who try to bolster up slavery by pretended judicial delusions, political shams, and silly pretenses of a popular right to do wrong.

One look at Bob Butt and his history in this yellow fever business, upsets all their fine spun theories: and he stands before the world to-day as an honored man, and an honorable man.

And then looking back a moment at the unjust Judge, we see him and the unholy cause for which he perverted justice for black men, sinking down, down, into the bottomless pit of shame and everlasting contempt, which must be piled open them by all lovers of justice and equity.

☞ Russia is making rapid use of her small breathing space accorded by Alexander the Second. One hundred and eighty papers are issued daily in St. Petersburgh. A society has been organized for the circulation of cheap books and the diffusion of knowledge. Printing presses and type foundries have been established: and lectures are to be delivered in various parts of Russia, to be illustrated by apparatus of every possible kind, furnished by English, French and German mechanicians. For those of St. Petersburg, men of the first reputation have been secured. The Academician Lenz in Natural Philosophy, Professor Sagozski in Physiology, Professor Zenkowski in Botany, and Professor Chodrijew in Chemistry. The prices of admission to various parts of the lecture hall are to be two-thirds less than those to corresponding places in the theatre.

☞ In the city of Lowell, Mass., as it appears by the report of the Missionary, Rev. Horatio Wood, for the year 1858, it was a hard year for the poor, and Mr. Wood's labors were much increased. His long experience renders his judgment of great value. "We are called upon, it appears to me," he says, "to minister less of substance and more of light, more of kind advice as to self-dependence, management, habits, disposition, care and training of children, improvement of opportunities, the keeping of the Sabbath, and obedience to the commands of God. This is the best way to serve the poor, a thousand times better than to give only material food and raiment."

The cause of three-fourths of the imprisonment, poverty, quarrels, wretchedness and ruin of men, women and children, Mr. Wood attributes to the sale and use of intoxicating liquors.

DR. LIVINGSTONE.—Letters have been received in Glasgow from Dr. Livingstone to the 6th of October, when all the persons forming the expedition were well.—The war between the Portuguese and their rebel slaves, who were making a sort of Canada, or land of refuge, of their encampment, had added greatly to the difficulties of the party; but, as the Glasgow Herald remarks, the grand fact has been established that the Zambesi affords a navigable passage into the interior of Africa, through which Dr. Livingstone and his party moved onward into the heart of the land, without the loss of a single man, and with very little sickness.

At the date of the last advices the headquarters were at Tete, from which the expedition intended to push on further up the river. They had tried in the steam launch the coal discovered by Dr. Livingstone in his downward passage, and found it to be of good quality, while there were immense quantities of it.

The Doctor, in one of his letters says: "For six months a steamer drawing five to six feet water would run from the sea to Tete in a straight line. During the other six months a steamer, drawing thirty inches would run with very few turnings."—The expedition set up the little engine and the sugar mill above Tete. Mr. Thorton, the naturalist, and Mr. Tae, the engineer, report well of the coal. It approaches more nearly to the Welsh than any other coal, having very little sulphur. "With abundance of coal and iron," says Dr. Livingstone, "surely the Great Architect designs something else for Africa than it should always be a slave market." The Portuguese Governor, ill of fever, was encountered at the scene of strife, and the Doctor took him on board the steamer and cured him.

MAN OVERBOARD.—Just before 10 o'clock on Saturday evening, as a young man was wending his way homeward from Newburyport, Mass., he being drunk, by some means he walked off the bridge into the Merrimac river. He went over by the first pier on the farther side of the draw—he knows not how, but probably through a narrow pass that lends to the pier. The man could not swim, and was not in a condition, on so cold a night, to help himself, nor does there seem to have been anybody near at hand to help him. He was fortunate enough, however, to grasp one of the piles, and the sudden change of temperature exciting his lungs, he screamed first "murder," and then, "oh, dear," so that he could be heard half the length of the town. People ran to and fro for the cause of alarm,—says the Herald,—not knowing where to look. Happily, Mr. Wm. C. Colby, in engine house No. 1, with Messrs. Edward Bass and Gayton P. Ross, understanding the case, and seeing the remedy, seized a boat and paddled to the spot in time to save him, and a crowd collecting on the bridge, he was quickly passed up, but not until he had lost all animation, and his hands and feet hung like a dead man's.

The people placed him in an engine house, where a doctor was called, and where in the course of an hour the man returned to life, though he could not be moved till after midnight, and did not come to himself till morning, when he was in bed at the Ocean House.

Much credit is due to the persons who rescued him from the river, where he would not have lived two minutes more, and to others who aided and sympathized with a brother, fallen in more respects than one, and who cannot be too grateful that he escaped with life.

☞ The Washington correspondents say that the difficulty between Senators Fitch and Douglas has been referred to friends, and a correspondence opened. The Newburyport Herald suggests that, if it is true that Douglas means to go back to the Buchanan democracy, it won't hurt him any to fight a duel, even if he should be shot; and as to Fitch, it would only make vacant a seat to which he has no more just claim than any other man in the country.

☞ The Bath Times says that the Manchester Union Democrat very truly remarks that "upon all present issues, the democratic party was never so essentially a unit, and we can think of nothing more absurd than to quarrel upon a bygone question, which at most was only a matter of expediency." This, says Uncle Toby, is a very great joke, and a very nice one.

☞ The New York Herald says of Senator Sumner—"If his sufferings are half as acute as they have been represented, he ought to have learned the virtue of resignation by this time." A very stupid joke that, says Uncle Toby, and as cold as stupid.

IMMORTELLES.

SELECTED FOR THE CHRONICLE,

BY ALBERT LAIGHTON.

TOLERATION.

I could never divide myself from any man upon the difference of an opinion, or be angry with his judgment for not agreeing with me in that from which within a few days I should dissent myself.

THE POMP OF DEATH.

Take away but the pomps of death, the disguises, and solemn hug-bears, and the actings by candle-light, and proper and fantastic ceremonies, the minstrels and the noise-makers, the woman and the weepers, the swoonings and the shrieknigs, the nurses and the physicians, the dark rooms and the ministers, the kindred and the watchers, and then to die is easy, ready, and quitted from its troublesome circumstances. It is the same harmless thing that a poor shepherd suffered yesterday, or a maid-servant to-day; and at the same time in which you die, in that very night a thousand creatures die with you, some wise men and many fools; and the wisdom of the first will not quit him, and the folly of the latter does not make him unable to die.

LIBRARIES.

Libraries are as the shrines where all the relics of the ancient saints, full of true virtue, and that without delusions or imposture, are preserved and reposed.

BOOKS.

Some books are only cursorily to be tasted of; namely, first, voluminous books, the task of a man's life to read them over; secondly, auxiliary books, not to be repaired to on occasions;—thirdly, such as are mere pieces of formality, so that if you look on them you look through them, and he that peeps through the casement at the index, sees as much as if he were in the house.

CENSORIOUS PEOPLE.

Such as are still observing upon others, are like those who are always abroad at other men's houses, reforming everything there, while their own runs to ruin.

Anger is one of the sinews of the soul; he that wants it, hath a maimed mind.

Scoff not at the natural defects of any, which are not in their power to amend. Oh! 'tis cruelty to beat a cripple with his own crutches.

Is there no way to bring home a wandering sheep, but by worrying him to death?

☞ On a late visit to Boston, we were under special obligations to our old friend S. R. Niles, of the pioneer Advertising Agency, for various courteous attentions; and to Mr. Poole, chief librarian of the Boston Atheneum, for gentlemanly permission to visit the library, and revel in its rich attractions for an hour—not least among which, to us, were copies of Hogarth's paintings, from original plates, and Audubon's immense illustrated work on the Birds of America, which we had long desired to see. Publishers visiting Boston will find Mr. Niles amply able and willing to serve them; and it is certainly for the interest of the press that they have personal acquaintance with their agents. Among the best looking men whom we met, Mr. Rice, of the American House, himself bespeaks the character of the large and excellent hotel under his supervision, in his own cheerful, intelligent and gentlemanly demeanor.

Weekly Chronicle Correspondence.

WOLFBOROUGH, Jan. 24.

I notice that you say you intend to stop all papers at the expiration of the time for which payment is made; and fearing you mean what you say, I am somewhat alarmed, as I think mine may come under that head;—and not wishing to dispense with it,—as I consider it the very best paper I take, out of twelve which come to me weekly, I enclose the amount you claim for one year's subscription—which I should readily do, if it was double.

The Chronicle comes the nearest to what constitutes a good, family Newspaper, in my judgment, of any one we get hold of, and, in fact, is the only one that we read entire. J. M. D.

☞ Died, in Nottingham, N. H., Jan. 17, Mrs. Mary Allison, in the 109th year of her age, having been born in Lee, N. H., May 20, 1750. Her maiden name was Mary Fisk. She has eight daughters living, the youngest of whom is 60 years of age; three of them are over 80, and the eldest will be 86 in May. She was confined to her bed most of the time for three months previous to her decease. Her hearing was much impaired, and her sight had been gone for several years, but her intellectual faculties were retained until the last.

☞ A correspondent of the New York Tribune thinks the ardor of members of Congress in the work of President-making ought to be somewhat cooled by the fact that, during thirty-five years, though members of the respective houses have from time to time run for the Presidency, no man has ever been called from the Representatives' Hall or the Senate chamber to the White House.

☞ The Worcester Spy says the author of the remarkable story, "In a Cellar," in the February Atlantic Monthly, is Miss Harriet Prescott of Newburyport, a young lady the knowledge of whose gifts and acquirements has been hitherto confined to the circle of her private friends.

A man attempted to seize a favorable opportunity a few days since, but his hold slipped, and he fell to the ground considerably injured.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE. — Dr. Moses Brown, a physician of Newburyport, has recently published a pamphlet entitled 'Consumption, and its Spontaneous Cure.' He deems consumption to be curable,—and trusts for the cure, to inspiring hope in the patient, and as he says, to Nature rather than to Drugs.

☞ In Washington, the widow of the late Gen. Henderson, who died but a few weeks since, has followed her husband to the grave. She was in feeble health at the time of the loss of her husband, and his sudden death occasioned the illness from which she is now freed by death.

☞ A railroad being opened to Lake Huron, the Boston papers talk of a supply of fish from those waters. White fish, trout and herring were brought down on Saturday. It is strange, with the Atlantic ocean and all the New England ponds at hand, to go west for fish.

☞ The Bath, Me., Times informs us that Judge Smith has been attending to the violators of the liquor law, and a few days since some four or five took lodgings at Wiscasset jail.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumeros.

PILES.—All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the Bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistulas, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness, which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only, —he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a little moment of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietor, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Blotches and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, the most of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, SCHOLIC, FEVER AND AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever met with."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale, in quarts at seventy cents a bottle, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE GENUINE IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall c. M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Foster, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 51 Blackstone st.; R. DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prescott, and by druggists generally at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco in upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ Charles Colby will lecture in the Temple this (Wednesday) evening, at half past 7 o'clock.

Subject—Are the principles of the Democratic party more conducive to the welfare of the country, than the principles of the Republican party?

The meeting will be open to free discussion, and all parties are respectfully invited to come forward and define their position in the present canvass.

Admission 10 cts.

☞ The Excelsior Vocalists, as announced for Wednesday Evening, will give a good Concert. Miss Durgin has a beautiful voice—as those of our readers will recollect who heard her sing here last fall; Miss Robinson, we think, has never sung here; but she is said to be a fine alto; Mr. Durgin fills in a good tenor: and our jolly good-natured friend Packard rolls out a rich and heavy bass. Messrs. Packard and Pennell, who have the entire management and direction of the troupe, are old acquaintances with the lovers of music here—and they have given ample evidence of their ability and taste in furnishing musical entertainments. They are capital good fellows, and we wish the Excelsiors a full house.

☞ As with tiger-hunting, (which is very agreeably-exciting sport so long as you chase the tiger, but too ex[c]it-ing and not so agreeable when the tiger chases you,) so it is with sleigh-riding,—the enjoyment depends chiefly upon which is the driver: whether you drive the horse or the horse drives you. Another runaway took place on Monday, besides that we mentioned Tuesday morning. About ten o'clock in the evening, a horse took a sleigh down Congress street at rather a break-neck rate—and the two young women, (residents of this city,) who were in the sleigh, cried out loudly in their fright. The team brought up a little, and was stopped on sidewalk near the old Freeman oyster saloon; and the terrified women (one of whom had badly sprained an ancle in attempting to get out) were taken to the City Hotel, where every attention was shown them, and they were shortly enabled to return to their homes.

The Moot Congress which has held its sessions, under the direction of the Mercantile Library Association, in the Court House, in this city, will be continued in future in the New Rooms of the Association, over No. 17 Pleasant street. The next session will be held on Thursday Evening, Jan. 27, at 7 1-2 o'clock. All the members are particularly invited to be present.

☞ There will be a temperance lecture in Academy Hall, on Wednesday evening, Jan. 26, by Rev. Mr. Holmes, commencing at 1-4 before 8 o'clock.

☞ The iron steamer North American, which was repaired at the Navy Yard last week, and which left this port on Sunday evening for Portland, was loaded with whatever cargo she carried, and left that port on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, for Liverpool. She was repaired here with good speed, and so thoroughly, with wood, as to be about as safe as ever from water, tho' fire might make a leak in the bow.

☞ Died, in Boston, Jan. 20, Mrs. Mary Lyman Lothrop, wife of Rev. Sam'l K. Lothrop, D. D. Mrs. L. was daughter of Rev. Joseph Buckminster, D. D., of Portsmouth, and sister of Rev. Joseph Buckminster of Boston. She was an inmate of the household of Deacon Amos Tappan, and was known and beloved by a large circle of friends here.

☞ There is more meaning and philosophy than at first sight appears in Coleridge's answer to a lady when she asked him whether he believed in ghosts. "Oh, no, madam, I have seen too many too believe in them."

☞ A Polish exile in Siberia has invented a means of applying steam power to the traction of sleighs, by which journeys can be made with rapidity over the frozen snows and steppes covered with ice.

☞ Several of the schools in Enfield, Mass., have been suspended because of the prevalence of measles, a large number of the teachers and scholars being sick with the disease.

☞ Many of the best citizens of Exeter have conspired together, and by the contribution of small sums each, given Prof. J. G. Hoyt, an elegant and valuable gold watch, as a testimonial of their regard.

☞ Douglas resolutions have been rejected in the Missouri Legislature.

☞ The U. S. Senate on Monday debated the question whether it is best to give $30,000,000 to the President, to buy Cuba, (or really, to carry the next election.)

The House, 105 to 72, refused to suspend the rules to admit Oregon.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, on the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Sherman of O. offered an amendment, limiting the missions to Great Britain, France, Russia, Spain, Brazil, Mexico, China, Peru, Turkey, and Nicaragua.

After debate, the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Lovejoy of Illinois, said some of the Ministers were the most extradinary on earth and not one but the Minister to England can speak the language of the country to which they are sent.

During the discussion, Mr. Lovejoy said the appointing of foreign ministers was taken from a monarchal government at the time when one man ruled the State, and his wife ruled the monarch. What had the Minister to France been doing for the past year? Settling a question about gilt buttons and small clothes—(laughter)—that is the Lord's truth, and playing gentleman-usher, to the Snobocracy of America, and introducing them to the aristocracy of Europe, and quarrelling with the subordinates because they were better dancers than himself,—(Laughter.)

After further debate the Committee rose before disposing of the bill.

Mr. Branch of N. C., from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported back the bill appropriating $30,000,000 to enable the President to acquire Cuba.

Washington, Jan. 25.—House.—Mr. English, from the Post Office Committee, reported against granting the franking privilege to the regents of the Mount Vernon Association; and also against the memorial proposing the abolition of the Post Office department.

Timothy Davis made an able speech in defense of the Fishing Bounties, last evening, showing that New England has not now her just proportion of government appropriations, and supporting his argument by facts and figures.

Mr. Phelps' tariff bill proposes no specific duties, but raises the schedules to decimal points, and, of course, decreases the free list. It is asserted that Mr. P. has decided not to propose a loan to remedy immediate deficiencies, but a reissue of Treasury Notes. The bill of Messrs. Howard, Davis and Morrill proposes a systematic increase in the tariff, combining both specific and advalorem duties.

The Herald Washington correspondent says[the Spanish Minister declared yesterday, while speaking of the $30,000,000 appropriation, that if the money was granted he would demand his passports.

A Long Tramp for a Pension.—The New York Times mentions the arrival in that city of an old sailor named Joseph Marks, who had traveled all the way on foot from Washington, where he had been fruitlessly expecting an increase of his pension. The Times says:

"Having but a little money, he seems never to have thought of placing himself among the list of deadheads, and asking for a free pass, but kept his small change to buy food and lodgings with on the road. At Baltimore they offered to take a contribution for him, and send him along in the cars—if he would wait only an hour or two; but this he regarded as a loss of time. He had been two weeks and our away from his home in Bridgeport, and he knew his mother was very anxious on his account—so he pushed on, passing through Maryland, Deleware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. In the latter State his money gave out, and when he reached N. York he said he had not 'broken his fast for three days,' and he was very weak. 'He was ashamed to beg,' and did not reveal his wants."

☞ On Sunday, the 2d inst., a seaman named Gibson, living at a fishing village near North Shields, Eng., dropped down dead whilst following the remains of his wife to whom he was fondly attached, as they were being borne to the cemetery. The cause of death was said to be apoplexy, but the neighbors say he has died of a "broken heart."

☞ Freight cars, constructed like refrigerators, are now run on the railroads from Norfolk to Lynchburg, with oysters, fish, crabs and West India fruit. The temperature in the car is only three degrees above freezing point.

☞ The New London (Conn.) Foundry and Machine Company's establishment, which originally cost $80,000, was sold a few days since for $40,000.

E. GREEN & CO.,

Take the pleasure of returning their sincere thanks to their patrons and the public generally, for past patronage, and hope for a continance and increase of favor in future. Now as it is a well established fact how cheap we have let clothing slide during the past month, the public will be satisfied that it is no humbug, if we hold out still greater inducement in offering Clothing without regard to cost. Therefore, for your advantage we call your attention.

Come to see us soon, while the Stock is large; we assure you that if you are a judge of Goods, you'll not leave our place without buying, on account of the quality and price. This inducement, corresponding well with the present season, we expect this enlightened community will give us as great a rush for Gent's Wearing Apparel, as last month.

Indian Physician.

Dr. B. S. GOODWIN

Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of medical advice to call on him.

ADVICE FREE.

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

The following are some of the Diseases successfully treated by Dr. Goodwin. Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera, Cores, Dropsy, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters! Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO.,

18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their Celebrated Family Machines, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

1838 - - - January 6th. - - - 1859

Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.

But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller ever returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.

To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

William R. Preston, APOTHECARY.

Particular Notice.

The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment.

Portsmouth, Dec. 28th, 1858.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forests, and possessed Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is an old and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a household word.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to apply a plaster and cross a sore, and those who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with the Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertible fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the nauseous weed will testify—in Loss of Sight, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying sickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medicine.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEY—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEBBS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEY—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told we could NOT CURE HIM. He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as to be to be permanently cured.

Yours truly, H. G. O. WALDRON, Bookseller.

A Revolution in the Hunting World.

Reutbe's Patent Spring Gun Animal Trap.

More certain of its prey than the most perfect Rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without incurring the value of Pelts or Skins, as is the case in ordinary mode of shooting, it effects the capture of the animal either dead or (if preferred) alive: the barrels discharge themselves, simultaneously with the hooks imbedding themselves in the mouth.

It is simple, yet strong and perfect in its construction neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange.

There are three different sizes, which will effectually operate on Minks, Woodchucks, Otters, Wildcats, Lynx, Foxes, Wolves, Deer, Panthers, Tigers, Bears, Buffaloes, etc.; in fact, on all animals which repay hunting.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks slowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are genuine and truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good health at the age of fifty-two, I ascribe to use of your hair restorative.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will be in no occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifty years, and am known to many, if not to one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing informed many a year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on for Shingles or less, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients can receive advice by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. BUGHES, 18 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—18 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 6ly

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL, AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of English and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and all the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure (or them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.)
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 27, 1859.

OUR AND THE PRIESTS.—The Boston Atlas is down upon Speaker Orr for inviting a Catholic clergyman to officiate as Chaplain to the House, under a vote to invite the clergymen of Washington to officiate in rotation. Speaker Orr, as a gentleman and an officer, had no option in the matter; and the House very properly included all Christian clergymen, as our Constitution knows no difference in sects.—Bath Times.

Mr. Orr had no right to such option as he used. But the offensive point is not that Roman Catholic priests officiated—but that they came in by gross partiality, as offensive as possible.

All clergymen in Washington were invited to send in their names at a certain time and place, to act as chaplains.

All the Protestant clergy did so.—But the Catholics, with their usual lordly assumption, would not and did not send in their names, lest forsooth they might thereby acknowledge others to be clergymen!

After this, Speaker Orr put on six of their names, to the exclusion of six men who obeyed the call!

☞ The Doctrine of 1775 was that our Creator has endowed us all with the rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

The doctrine of some in 1859 is "that if the people of a territory are in favor of slavery, they have a right to make laws to establish and protect it, and if they are opposed to slavery, they have an equal right to make laws to exclude it."

The doctrinee are quite opposite:—the first provides against oppression; the second provides for it, in case people are in favor of being oppressors.

John Hickman, whom some of the democrats in Pennsylvania, tried to kill for differing from the administration on its Kansas policy, warmly sustains Mr. Buchanan's views on the tariff.—Bath Times.

Very likely: and so do many Republican members of Congress, and others, who do not sustain him in anything else.—Mr. Buchanan takes the protective tariff ground, the specific duty ground, &c.

☞ In the Executive Session of the U. S. Senate, when Douglas and Fitch had their quarrel, "Jack Hale" was in the chair.—Douglas had intimated that the Buchanan postmasters in Illinois were little better than thieves; Fitch had called Douglas a rebel to the democratic party: and Douglas had claimed to be an unsubdued and successful rebel, whom the president and his followers could not put down.

At this stage of the affair, Mr. Hale, the Chairman, called the disputants to order, kindly suggesting, in his facetious way, that the harmony of the Democratic party would not be promoted by such displays of fraternal affection.

☞ The farmers of Wisconsin who mortgaged their farms to the various railroads, have formed a league to resist the foreclosure of the mortgages. Some 3000 or 4000 persons belong to the league, bound together by secret oaths, having signs, grips and passwords. At the late meeting of the league it was determined to resist by violent measures the attempt to foreclose.

☞ J. Conoley, who had been on a wild spree for two or three weeks, flung himself out of the window in a Cincinnati Station house. His throat was cut by the window glass and he died soon after, leaving a young widow and several highly respectable relatives.

☞ The old and barbarous system of letting out the town's poor to the lowest bidder, is still prevalent in some towns in Connecticut. The selectmen of Bridgeport attempted to do this recently, and an injunction has been served to prevent them. It is extremely discreditable to a Christian community.

SENTENCE OF A RECEIVER OF STOLEN GOODS IN ENGLAND.—Frederick Brewer having been convicted in London of receiving stolen goods, the Judge said to him:—"I shall protect society from you for some time to come, by sentencing you to be kept in penal servitude for seven years."

☞ Tuesday, Jan. 25th, was the centennial anniversary of the Birth of Robert Burns, the Scottish Poet. The day was celebrated by great dinners, speeches, poems, &c., in Boston, Washington, Lowell, Manchester, Hartford, New Haven, &c.

A Mr. Jacobs in the Delaware Legislature, proposes to repeal the law prohibiting the traffic in slaves between Delaware and other States.

BOSTON CORRESPONDENCE.

BOSTON, Jan. 25, 1859.

The world of literature for New England promises more change for a year to come, than for some time previously. There are two movements in progress, which, in connection with Edward Everett's position in contributing to a weekly newspaper, are likely to begin some changes in the publishing trade that will make their mark by autumn, or another winter at least.

Disturbance of social and domestic harmony seems to rage this season. At a certain hotel some little way removed from ——— Square, there has been an approach to an outbreak among some of the more orderly disposed regular patrons, nearly the whole season; in consequence of the occasional appearance of some informally constituted couples, and indications of corresponding queer doings relative to marital rights and wrongs, and exchange and sanction thereof:—to which proceedings the proprietor of said house has seemed but little disposed properly to attend. And in more private circles the temptations to infringe upon morality have had apparently more influence than has been the habit in previous years. The lessons of last winter's revival in religion do not seem to have prevented all wrongdoings.

One instance of the biter being bitten, which is somewhat amusing to those who rejoice in the discomfiture of an egotist, is betokened in the circumstance of a dashing young man of some pecuniary means—and one who has for some time prided himself upon having won the affections of several different young ladies in rapid succession—being now fairly secured in the bonds of matrimony with a woman a number of years older than himself—equal to twenty or twenty-five per cent advance—without either pecuniary attractions of any consequence, or many other charms than those of husband-securing management. There are some who don't pity him much, however.

One matter that is now taking some quiet notice in circles where it is carried, is the advent a short time since of a child claimed to be of divine birth; its mother and the person taken by skeptics to be its father, being handsomely supported it is said by the contributions of those who believe in its having no sin connected with its origin, although this man is the husband of another woman left in destitution. Of such is some of the credulity, the justice, the consistency of our modern Athens.

We are advancing with about equal rapidity in science and sophistry. Chemistry and theology have ever had their blindly zealous advocates, and the old misty teachings of both arts, formerly considered almost equally black, are being revived as present realities.

A chemist claims to have discovered the power of neutralizing the effects of alcohol upon the human frame and brain, so that no person need get drunk, or even tight, whatever the quantity of liquor taken—good or bad.

Another claims to have discovered the means of rendering the system insensible to pain or discomfort for any desired length of time, while the other capacities, mental and physical, continue completely and naturally.

And another claims to be one rifle nearer than any of his brethren have ever been, to ability to cheaply compose real diamonds and real gold from common materials.

And yet another claims the almost ready power of freeing the human blood from all deleterious elements whatever—whether mineral, or the subtle basis of disease and decay, so that old age can be postponed almost indefinitely, and illness entirely:—but he has not yet compassed the antidote for an ever populous world, and will hardly be likely to, as men are at present constituted. Electricity is a prominent agency in the last two named matters of discovery.

These items are some of the present proposed advances in the development of human skill and science for the coming ten or eleven years; and ocean air travel is also given a prominent place among immediate prospects. By this it may be seen that if morals are not actually improving, our scientific attainments at least are prospectively progressing with magnificent if not compensative strides.

Of present trifles, attractive in their promise of happiness or pleasure, we have splendid skating and an amiable disposition on the part of pretty girls to make it a very delicious way of spending an afternoon, an evening, or an hour. As we couldn't have our South End grounds flowed by the city for use of all hands, the North has been done by private enterprise, and an admission of fifteen cents charged. Rather too much for greatest profit.

YOURS, BERNARDE.

A young, handsome, and hitherto respectable married lady, of Buffalo, was recently arrested for public intoxication and sent to prison for thirty days.—Ex.

In a month's imprisonment in jail the treatment best calculated to win a 'young, handsome, and hitherto respectable" female from the error of her ways? We hear every day (says the Lowell News,) some of our best citizens protesting against the idea that intoxication is a crime, and made the principal object of the labors of the police and the city court, while the illegal sale of liquor is unnoticed. It is stated that many times within the past few years men under the influence of drink, but perfectly quiet and orderly, save the unsteadiness of their gait, have been seized by the officers and confined over night, and in many cases, the next day, when sober, arraigned and sent to the House of Correction, leaving their families, (for which they were wont to make good provision, notwithstanding their no: habitual intemperance,) to become a city charge, or a burden on private charity. It is even stated that poor laboring men who after a week of steady, sober industry, had, while making their Saturday night purchases been so weak as to indulge in spirituous drink, have been arrested while peaceably entering their own doors, and after two nights and a Sunday in prison have been sentenced to a month or two confinement.

So long as the sale of liquor is allowed, mere intoxication cannot well be punished; disorderly conduct or any interference with the rights of others is to be noticed whether the offender be drunk or sober, but the idea that a felon's fate is the only one for a peaceable and otherwise "respectable" victim of the infirmity of intemperance, especially a young woman, should not be admitted without reflection. The evil begins farther back than with isolated drinkers; the latter are subjects for improvement, but how is the community attempting to improve them?

TROUBLE IN WASHINGTON.—In executive session of the Senate on Friday an angry and exciting discussion arose between Judge Douglas and Senator Fitch. The debate occurred on the question of confirming Potter of Ohio, as Collector of Toledo. Mr. Pugh opposed Potter's nomination, as the man displaced was his friend. He said if the President desired an issue with him (Pugh) he was ready for it. He denounced the appointment, and called on every Senator who was his (Pugh's) Friend to vote against it.

Douglas responded, as saying he would vote with the Senator from Ohio. He then branched off on the Illinois appointments, and said they were dishonest, corrupt and incompetent. Senator Fitch interrogated Douglas, and said it was untrue. Douglas reiterated what he had said.—Fitch again said it was untrue. Cries of order were then made.

Douglas continued the debate. Fitch replied to Douglas with great bitterness; said Senators knew how to prize anything coming from that quarter. Cries of order were again made. Douglas then replied and was called to order.

Motion was then made that Douglas be allowed to go on in order. Jeff. Davis opposed it, and said, turning to Douglas, he had listened with indignation to the language used, and it was that of a high-wayman and bravo.

The debate was continued some time, when a motion was made and the Senate adjourned. It is said the lie was given and most severe personal remarks made.

The correspondent of the New York Times remarks:

This scene is said to have been the most violent and indecorous that has ever occurred in the Senate, even in the secret session, where the proceedings are accompanied with great freedom of manner, and of language—the Senators lighting their cigars and talking and discussing in the free and easy style of an after-dinner conversation.

The transaction is looked upon by Douglas' wisest friends as indicative of the fixed purpose of the Administration men to force him to take a back seat if he comes into the Democratic organization at all, and that they prefer to push him off altogether. It is stated that an early opportunity will be taken in open session to make an issue with Douglas in reference to his statements about individual Illinois appointments, and to present proofs of their inaccuracy. The war of the roses in is evidently just beginning.

☞ A young man named John Hart died in Washington, last Thursday night, by a painful accident. Returning home at a late hour, he attempted to climb over the palings of the front yard, but slipped and was caught by the neck in such a manner that he was strangled to death. His dog, in the endeavor to pull his master from his dangerous position, tore the clothes entirely off his body.

☞ Bishop James, of the M. E. Church, advises young clergymen neither to use tobacco, make apologies, or speak of their sacrifices in the ministry.

☞ The city authorities of Portland, Me., are prosecuting the keepers of some tippling shops.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at
SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.
N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtouitorumenos.

PILES.—All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the Bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness, which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.
A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only,—he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.
Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.
R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.
The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the genuine "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the pharmacopœia, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as to travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at twenty-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all respectable grocers, druggists and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Morse, 116 Winchester st; M. Davis & Co., 17 Blackstone st; R. DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.
THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.
Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will subply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.
N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.
J. DUPONCO, Proprietor.

PORTSMOUTH DISTRICT.—In the proposed New Custom House and Revenue Bill the following programme is marked out for this Collection District.

District Number Six is Portsmouth, port of entry, annexing the District of York, Maine, with Collector, $1090; Deputy Collector, who is also clerk, $750; weigher, who is also gauger and measurer, $500; two inspectors, $1095 each.

Ports of delivery are New Castle, N. H.; Deputy Collector, who is also inspector. $500: York, Me., Deputy Collector, who is also inspector, $300; Kittery, Inspector, $500; Cape Neddick, Inspector, $120.

U. S. FRIGATE CONSTITUTION.—This gallant old ship is to be set afloat again on her "native element." She is now at Portsmouth, N. H., but all hands will be set to work to have her ready for a summer cr cruise.—Porter's (New York) Spirit.

The Constitution, revised and improved, has been afloat for many a month—and is now lying alongside the wharf at our Navy Yard;—and can be fitted for sea at short notice.

☞ See the programme for the Excelsior Vocalists Concert on Thursday Evening.—If only the Misses who have participated in Messrs. Packard & Pennell's Festivals of Beauty here, with their families and friends, attend, there will be a good audience.

THE MOOT CONGRESS which has held its sessions, under the direction of the Mercantile Library Association, in the Court House, in this city, will be continued in future in the New Rooms of the Association, over No. 17 Pleasant street. The next session will be held on Thursday Evening, Jan. 27, at 7 1-2 o'clock. All the members are particularly invited to be present.

☞ Wednesday afternoon was very pleasant and mild;—the skating on our ponds excellent; and many hundreds of skaters did their best, while the numerous lookers on enjoyed the scene as the skaters did the sport.

KANSAS.—A Lawrence correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, writing 10th inst., says another fight occurred near the border, in Lynn county, several days previous. A party from Missouri went over to hunt for Brown and Montgomery. They were met by a smaller party, and retired after a sharp fight. Their loss is not known. On the Territorial side one man named Develyn was killed and two wounded.

☞ John A. Washington, the owner of the Mt. Vernon estate, offers a reward of five hundred dollars for the recapture of a runaway chattel named Joe, "twenty-one years old, five feet eleven inches high, with a deep scar on the right side of his throat." Joe is represented as being very black, but "his address and manners are polite."

☞ A Washington dispatch says that although Gen. Cass is able to attend to his Department and other duties, he is subject to frequent attacks of unconsciousness, which disable him for days; after this he goes about again, apparently as well as usual.

☞ Mrs. Mary Jane Clark of Eastport, Me., was tried at Machias last week for the assault and battery committed by her on the girl Dean, the effects of which caused her death; and sentenced to sixty days confinement in the county jail, and to pay a fine of fifty dollars.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Jan. 26.—A man by the name of John Simpson, watchman in the Laconia Manufacturing Company's mills, was instantly killed this morning by being caught in a shaft revolving at the rate of 145 times per minute.—Special dispatch to Boston Journal.

THE TARIFF.—New York, Jan. 21.—The Times' Washington correspondent states that Secretary Cobb is opposed to the proposition of the House Committee of Ways and Means for the increase of the tariff. He has received assurances from persons in this city, whom he considers reliable and competent to give an opinion, that the revenue from imports will reach $63,000,000, which sum he considers sufficient for all contingencies. He is afraid, also, if the present tariff is interfered with, that the movement in favor of protection will gain the ascendancy and control the action of the new bill.

A letter from Nice, dated the 28th December, states that a deplorable event had occurred in that town, which arose from a dispute in the Philharmonic Society, between M. de L., a Frenchman, above sixty years of age, and Count S. of Nice, a young man of 24 years of age. The latter tore the riband of the Legion of Honor from the coat of the former. A duel ensued which was fatal to Count S., who was struck in the breast by a ball from the pistol of his adversary. He was carried off the ground in a state which leaves little hope of his recovery.

Rather a bad kind of harmony,—to the outsiders it sounds like discord.

☞ In the U. S. Senate on Tuesday Jan. 25th, they discussed the Pacific Railroad Bill.

With the exception of brief remarks from Wilson, Simmons, Broderick and Davis, Mr. Johnson of Tennessee occupied the whole day in explaining why he would vote against the bill, which he considered neither a necessary act under the war-making power of the Constitution, nor as a test of democracy.

In the House, Mr. English reported a bill to abolish the franking privilege, also a bill regulating the payment of the postage on newspapers and periodicals.

The House went into Committee on the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation bill.

An amendment appropriating $7500 for the Japan mission was discussed, and finally adopted by one majority.

During the proceedings, Mr. Curry of Ala., compared foreign missions to hospitals for broken down politicians.

Mr. Keitt replied that was not the fault of the system, but of the party, which had pressed the appointment of unworthy persons, mere spoilsmen.

Mr. Sickles thought the reform now sought to be inaugurated would not be approved by the country.

Mr. Dowdell of Ala., moved to strike out the appropriation, of $75,000 to enable the President to carry out the several acts for the suppression of the slave trade. He denied that the President had any authority to send the Africans on board the slaver Echo, to Liberia. The act was an assumption of power.

Mr. Phelps of Mo., defended the President's course.

Further discussion ensued, when Mr. Singleton of Mo. moved a proviso, that no part of the money shall be used for support or education of any Africans heretofore or hereafter captured and returned to Africa.

☞ A Washington letter to the New York Times gives the following clue to a dishonest expedient to defeat once more the old French claim:

The resolution offered by Mr. Sickles a day or two since, asking information as to who are the present owners of the French Spoliation claims, &c., was evidently moved at the suggestion of the President himself, who wants the bill strangled in the House, to save him from the necessity of a veto imperatively demanded by the South, or the perils to follow a refusal to veto.

As Mr. Buchanan is fully committed to the bill by half a dozen of his own votes in its favor, and some standard arguments in support of the claims when he was in the Senate, he is evidently in an awkward predicament if the bill should pass the House. Mr. Phillips objected to Mr. Sickles' resolution, so that it cannot be got in except by a two-thirds vote for suspension of the rules.

DIFFICULTIES IN KANSAS.—Leavenworth, Jan. 25.—The Times publishes a letter, giving an account of a conflict between a party of men under Capt. Brown and a posse under the U. S. Marshal, near Paoli, Lickens Co. Five of Capt. Brown's party, and the Deputy Marshal and two of his assistants are reported to have been killed. The account is not vouched for, and is probably exaggerated. The friends of Capt. Brown assert that he is not in the territory.

Rescue of a Fugitive Slave.—A second attempt resulting in success, was made to rescue the alleged fugitive, alias Peter Fisher, last night. The door of the room in which he was confined was cut down, and he was taken out, the rescuing party leaving the city with him as quickly as possible. The excitement was high in regard to the matter, and the party has gone in pursuit of the negro and his rescuers.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—Cleveland, O., Jan. 24. The Plaindealer says that on Friday night, at ten o'clock, three men entered the office of the Treasurer, Coshocton County, and while one of them engaged the treasurer in conversation, the other two threw a shawl over his head and held him. The first then robbed him of his keys, opened the safe and tooked therefrom $20,000. All then decamped. $4000 of the money was in gold and silver, $1000 in bills on Baltimore and Maryland banks.

☞ The Calais (Me.) Advertiser says there is a rumor in circulation that one of two boys confined in St. Andrews (N. B.) jail, for stealing, was frozen to death on the cold Tuesday night. The Advertiser does not place full confidence in the story.

Indian Physician. Dr. B. S. GOODWIN Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him. ADVICE FREE. Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN. Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

1838 - - - January 6th. - - - 1859 Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of "A NEW APOTHECARY STORE," a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers. But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller ever returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude. To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention. William R. Preston, APOTHECARY, No. 2 Congress Block, Congress Street, who keeps constantly on hand a full and complete assortment of DRUGS AND MEDICINES, PATENT MEDICINES, TRUSSES & SUPPORTERS, SHOULDER BRACES, LEECHES, and every article usually found in a FIRST CLASS APOTHECARY STORE, all of which are of the best quality, and will be sold at the lowest prices. jy10

Particular Notice. The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment. Portsmouth, Dec. 28th, 1858. G. N. CARLETON, 15 Daniel St.

A Card. The Subscriber, who has been Foreman of the Stove Manufactory of Mr. Carleton and his predecessor, Mr. Morrison, for more than twenty years past, would inform his friends that he may be hereafter found at the Store of Mr. E. A. Stevens, No. 46 Market Street, where he will endeavor to execute all orders in his line of business promptly and faithfully as in times past. Dec. 31, 1858. ISAAC DOW.

STEVENS' House Furnishing Establishment. The Subscriber having purchased MR. G. N. CARLETON'S entire Stock of Stoves, &c., and removed the same to his own Store, NO. 46 MARKET STREET, offers to the public a complete assortment of Furnaces, Ranges, Parlor Grates, Stoves, Tin Ware, —AND— KITCHEN FURNISHING GOODS Of All Kinds, AT GOOD BARGAINS FOR CASH. Repairing pieces for all Ranges, Furnaces, and formerly sold by MR. CARLETON, kept constantly on hand.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper. This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard. The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping. The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep. Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied. EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for ITS GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Subduing Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportion as required at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ills, rub on in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A.M.Beck. BURRILL & HUNTING, SOLE PROPRIETORS,

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertible fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved most successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resource in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEBB.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told HE COULD NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, and was so low a week that he could scarcely sit up. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say, in a few weeks he was a strong man, and as he believes, permanently cured.

Yours resp'y, H. G. O. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

Rentbe's Patent Spring Gun Animal Trap.

More certain of its prey than the most perfect Rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins, as is the case in ordinary mode of shooting, it effects the capture of the animal either dead or (if preferred) alive: the barrels discharging themselves, simultaneously with the hooks imbedding themselves in the mouth.

It is simple, yet strong and perfect in its construction neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange.

There are three different sizes, which will effectually operate on Mink, Woodchucks, Otters, Wildcats, Lynx, Foxes, Wolves, Deer, Panthers, Tigers, Bears, Buffaloes, etc.; in fact, on all animals which repay hunting.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or partly white hair has disappeared both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am satisfied that wherever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service. I wish to contribute the benefit of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 1, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the top of the yellow terrace in the Dr. Kane in 1854. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and in words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your hair restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasant effect.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove most morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying the place of a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing good digest, and purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

One dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the interest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind ever discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice he has cured more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

Look at that gentleman's whiskers—Hutchins' Hair Dye makes them look so handsome.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unreasonably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.))
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unanimous proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 28, 1859.

THE MASSACHUSETTS STATE LIQUOR AGENCY.—Mayor Silsbee, of Salem, in his annual address, delivered on Monday, remarked as follows upon the liquors purchased at the State Agency:

The city authorities are compelled by law to keep a shop for the sale of ardent spirits, which is the only lawful place where the invalid and the dying can obtain the medicine of this nature which may be prescribed by their physician. As we are also compelled to procure our stock in trade from the State Agency, I am sorry to say that the article is neither of good quality, nor genuine. I have had several kinds analyzed, and the report to me is that they are neither of the right quality, nor of the kind they are represented to be. If our citizens are compelled to buy of us, and at our own price, they should at least be furnished with a good article. I am sustained in these opinions by the report of the Committee on the Liquor Agency."

We give the above as we find it; nevertheless it can do no harm to say that in believing it, it will be well to take it cum grano salis. The most important liquor in the agencies is alcohol, and surely this liquor or drug can easily be procured, and of the proper quality.

But we introduce the item chiefly for the purpose saying that nine-tenths of all the spirit prescriptions in medical practice might be exchanged to advantage for something else; and that in very small towns, where there is no agency, very little spirit is sold.

The less spirit there is drunk as a luxury, the less it is prescribed by the faculty. A singular coincidence.

☞ In Washington, all parties are in a quandary about the tariff. It seems to be understood that the Republicans and Pennsylvania Democrats generally will support specific duties, but the majority of the Democrats, rather than do this, will let the tariff stand as it is, even if they have to come to direct taxation to support the government.

Such, at least, is the report of gentlemen who have given close attention to the subject. The result may be the passage of a twenty-five million loan bill, and nothing more, for the relief of the government, closing the next fiscal year.

THE RESULTS OF HIPPOPHAGY.—A Berlin gentleman has eaten so much horseflesh lately that his nature is becoming rapidly altered. He went to a farrier's the other day to be measured for a new pair of shoes. He has grown so wild and restive that his wife finds the greatest difficulty in reining him in. It is supposed that the horse of which the poor man partook so largely, must have had a great deal of the Cruiser in its composition. At the advice of her friends the distracted wife has decided upon sending her husband to Mr. Barey, with a view of seeing whether he cannot be tamed.—Punch.

This is not bad: but query, if the gentleman had eaten Pork, whether he would wear bristles, and squeal? or if he had eaten Beef, whether he would push with his horns, and bellow like a bull!

☞ Letters from Washington say the Senate is seriously disturbed by the success of the New York correspondents in learning what occurred in secret session. Messrs. Davis and Douglas both complain that the report of the late trouble in the New York Herald and Times was inaccurate.—The result of the Senate's investigation into the matter was that as the galleries of the Senate chamber rest on trassels, a trap door is left at each of the four corners of the chamber for workmen to go below. Two black cats got underneath, and were rescued by parties who searched for a secret hiding place which it is alleged existed.

☞ A Hartford bachelor, not satisfied with a roaring fire in his room on going to bed during the late cold snap, undertook to fortify himself still further by putting an almost red hot brick into his bed. He was not a little surprised next morning to find that his heating apparatus had been doing business on its own book, having burned a hole through sheets, quilts, blankets, sacking and feather-bed, while he was enjoying the sweet dreams of single blessedness.

☞ The Boston Traveller says "merchant sailors generally are very poor boatmen—hence the many terrible tales of boats capsized alongside of wrecks for want of practice in their management."—The Newburyport Herald very truly remarks that "seamen who were not accustomed to boats when young, handle them very much as they would a horse team." Whalemen are necessarily good boatmen.

Man's first love is generally the cheapest—his last love the dearest.—Punch.

☞ The fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Rev. Dr. Osgood as pastor of the First Church and Society of Springfield, Ms., was celebrated Tuesday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon the Rev. gentleman delivered an anniversary sermon, and in the evening there was a social gathering at the City Hall, which was participated in by three thousand persons.

The musical performance at the church in connection with the sermon were conducted by Col. Solomon Warriner, who officiated as chorister at the ordination of Rev. Dr. Osgood, fifty years ago.

His Honor Mayor Calhoun presided over the exercises at the City Hall, where addresses were made by several gentlemen, and a purse of $200 in gold presented to Dr. Osgood. Mr. Calhoun said the money was contributed by the noble-hearted women of the city, irrespective of religious socity or denomination.

Dr. Osgood, when settled, was pastor of the town of Springfield, his being the only church. There are now 12 societies there.

☞ In Congress, Wednesday, Jan. 26, a motion to admit the contesting Senators from Indiana to the privilege of the floor, pending the decision of their claims, was finally laid on the table—31 to 22.

The Senate then took up the Pacific Railroad bill, and rejected the several amendments of Messrs. Wilson, Pugh and Davis, the first named by a vote of 32 to 13. One by Mr. Rice, for a Northern route, was lost.

Mr. Hammond moved to table the bill. Lost, 21 against 25.

All the amendments being now disposed of, Thursday at 1 o'clock was appointed for the vote on the final passage of the bill.

The House briefly discussed some tariff questions on iron and tobacco, and a resolution was passed, calling on government to use its constitutional, diplomatic and commercial powers to procure from foreign governments the removal of their present restrictions on the import of tobacco.

Mr. Kelsey of New York introduced the Homestead bill, which was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Grow of Pa. spoke briefly in its favor, and gave notice that he should ask a vote to-morrow, and in this there seemed to be a general concurrence.

A debate on slavery sprung up at the instigation of pro-slavery men, and finished out the sitting.

MISSOURI.—The St. Louis Democrat contains frequent mention of the sale of Missouri slaves and their departure to more Southern latitudes. The last number speaks of three separate lots taken off, and says that many of the Mississippi boats, as well as every boat from the Missouri, have more or less, every trip, of this "peculiar property," which all admit is disappearing from the State at a wonderfully rapid rate. The Democrat thinks that even the most inveterate defenders of the system must admit that "there is already an act of emancipation in force."

☞ Rev. A. L. Stone, of the Park Street Church, Boston, has been tendered a six months' leave of absence by his society, on account of the impaired state of his health. He will sail for Europe in the course of the spring, his pulpit being supplied by the church during his absence, and his salary to be continued as usual. The sum of two thousand dollars, for his traveling expenses, has been generously presented him by some of the leading members of the society.

AN EDITOR SURPRISED.—The good people of Provincetown organized a surprise party on Wednesday last, numbering several hundred persons, and made a call upon the editor of the Provincetown Banner. After an evening spent in an enjoyable manner they departed, leaving behind a number of presents for the editor and his wife, together with a sum of money.

☞ Two centuries ago not one in one hundred wore stockings. Fifty years ago not a boy in a thousand was allowed to run at large at night. Fifty years ago not one girl in a thousand made a waiting-maid of her mother. Wonderful improvement in this wonderful age.

☞ A bald eagle caught a wild duck in the Susquehanna, opposite Duncannon, Pa., one of the late cold days, and seated himself on a cake of ice to make his breakfast. His feet and feathers froze fast to the ice, and he was seen struggling till dark, and in the morning was found dead and stiff.

☞ Hon. Francis P. Blair is expected to address the citizens of Concord on political subjects, on Wednesday, the 24 of February, the day of the Senatorial Convention.

LOST AND FOUND.

Many people act as if they thought that when they find lost money or goods, they become their own. This, however, is neither law nor gospel—for it breaks the law "thou shalt not covet," and breaks the gospel precept which enjoins us to do to others as we would have them do to us.—Moreover, we have in New Hampshire a strict law about advertising goods or money found.

They have similar laws in other States; and in Massachusetts there is now a prosecution pending under the law on this subject. The Boston Atlas of Thursday says:

Martin Lawler of West Roxbury, who found the pocket book of Mr. J. C. Churchill, containing $1300 in cash and nearly $1600 in notes, which was lost in Boston on Friday last, was arraigned before the Roxbury Police Court on Wednesday, on complaint of Mr. Churchill, charged with fraudulently retaining possession of the money. The examination was continued.

☞ The Worcester Transcript says that one Sophia Langdon of Brookfield, having been sentenced by Justice Hill to twenty days' imprisonment in the House of Correction for liquor-selling, and having $155 in gold, she sewed it up in a mitten and put it in a hole under the pork barrel in her cellar. Lewis Bonner took in his head to go to the cellar and split Sophia's wood, while she was in jail, since which time no trace of the gold can be found.—Bonner was ordered to find bail in $500, and in default was committed.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE LIQUOR LAW IN LOWELL.—At a session of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen the following order was passed by a vote of seven to one:

"That the City Marshal be, and he is hereby instructed to impartially and vigorously enforce all violations of the laws of the Commonwealth, (against the traffic in intoxicating liquors) within the city, without delay, and that the City Marshal be and is hereby especially ordered and directed to prosecute without fear or favor, all owners of buildings which are used in violation of section 4, chapter 405 of the laws of 1855."

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says that Mr. Buchanan has taken occasion very recently to say, in the most positive manner, that he would under no circumstances be a candidate for nomination at Charleston, and would not accept it if tendered to him. He was also candid enough to admit that he saw no prospect for a nomination, even if he desired it.

☞ William Merry, of Cambridge, Ms., was convicted in the Police Court for being a common seller of spirituous and intoxicating liquors, and sentenced to three months in the House of Correction, and pay a fine of $50, and give bonds not to sell again for one year. He went to the House of Correction on Tuesday.

☞ The Bangor Times says:—"A small dog, formerly belonging in this city, recently deceased in Boston, was sent to Bangor in a zinc case and buried at Mount Hope, near its former mistress, on account of whose loss it grieved to death."

☞ The Cincinnati Gazette states that one of the physicians of that city has a patient afflicted with the "blue line" on the gums, and "blue face," which were caused by the the use of hair dyes hoving for their basis sugar of lead and nitrate of silver.

☞ The Boston Herald gives the particulars of two men who have recently left that city, having lost heavily by gambling and the purchase of lottery tickets. One has lost property of $12,000, and the other is minus a property of about $40,000.

☞ A few mornings since, a strolling man named Tucker, his wife and two children, were found frozen to death in a barn in Northcastle, Westchester county, N. Y. Chilled, weary and homeless, it is supposed they had sought a shelter from the inclemency of the weather and perished.

☞ John Riley, a shoemaker, 30 years of age, intemperate and unmarried, was found drowned, Wednesday morning in a small creek, near the Causeway on Beach street, Lynn. An inquest was deemed unnecessary.

☞ A colored preacher in Memphis, named Coffee, became unsettled by taking opium, as he said—rum, as the Judge thought who fined him. He is said to have been the first gospel preacher who lifted his voice in Memphis.

A lady who has been reading law, is in the most fearful, agonizing doubt regarding the legality of her marital condition. Just hear what she says, "Lotteries are illegal, and marriage is the greatest lottery in life."—Porter's Spirit.

PROF. YOUNG, the great modern Magician, will introduce his feats of magic and surprising deceptions, which defy detection.

Signor Vivaldi will introduce the AUTOMATON RAVEL FAMILY!—truly wonderful as a triumph of mechanical ingenuity.

☞ This Painting is from the Pencil of the most distinguished English Artists, and was exhibited in London 200 nights with a success which has never been paralleled. Messrs. Goodwin and Somerby, hearing of its excellence, commissioned an agent to proceed at once to England and negotiate for its purchase, with a view to its exhibition in this country. He succeeded in effecting its purchase at an immense expense, and the proprietors now offer it for exhibition to the public of New England, confident that it will meet with the success which its intrinsic excellence merits.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heartontitorumenos.

PILES.—All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the Bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness, which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Des. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only, —he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 102 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Syphilitic Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have adopted three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S FAIRHEAD PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the surveilance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it a medicine of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate constitution.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever tasted."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of wet water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty-eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and confectioners throughout the world.

Imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHERS IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 51 Blackstone st.; H. ☞ A petition, largely signed by our citizens, requests the City Council to appropriate a moderate sum for setting out Shade Trees.

This is a good object, and can cost but a trifle. We hope the idea may be extended, in the City Council, so far as to include a $10 bill for planting a few trees in each of our old Burying Grounds. In one or two of them, small trees are now growing; and they would grow rapidly, if calves, sheep and other animals were kept out.

☞ Rt. Rev. Bishop Williams will preach at St. John's Church Chapel, in State st., this (Friday) evening, at half past 7 o'clock.

"Burnt Offerings."—The Albion, in speaking of the sad fate of the two English ladies who recently lost their lives by their dresses taking fire, says they were "burnt offerings to the Moloch of Fashion." It adds:—

The last English mail brings the sad intelligence, that Lady Lucy Brigham has followed her sister, Lady Charlotte, to a premature grave, victims both to the habitual carelessness with which a costume, dangerous in itself, is worn by the fashionably clad. Great must have been the gloom fallen upon Weston Hall in Straffordshire, the seat of the Earl of Bradford, since the night when these two daughters were suddenly transferred from the gay insouciance of a drawing room to beds of agony, thence to be moved only to the family mausoleum! Is it not also a strange coincidence that the late grandmother of these young ladies, the late Lady Elizabeth Moncrief, lost her life by a similar catastrophe, not many years ago? And to this sad tale may be still be added another drawn from the same walk in life.

A few weeks ago, at Brighton, the Hon. Miss Plunkett, daughter of Lady Louth, ignited her dress while standing before the fire. She was dreadfully burnt. Terrible suffering in such cases is certain; recovery is very rare. Hers is considered doubtful. When Clara Webster on the English stage, and Caroline Lehmann of Niblo's in New York perished by accidents of this distressing nature, the peril was perhaps thought to be incidental to the profession. Can there be the same delusion now?

What follows? After the storm of ridicule which the votaries of fashion have braved in defence of the "troublesome disguises that they wear," it is altogether hopeless to expect that they will throw aside their crinoline, merely because the prevailing style costs now and then a few valuable lives. Spirited (?) women will only persist in it the more. But we can't afford to let our mothers, our wives, our daughters, sacrifice themselves thus recklessly. A remedy must be found. The miner has his safety lamp; we must have safety fire grates in our houses. Guards and fenders need not now be invented; but it behoves housekeepers to have them. Who knows even whether, in some instances a constant sense of masculine supervision, together with a perpetual reminder of the risk she has been running, might not convince a sensible woman of the preposterousness of a milliner's mode.

☞ Only a few days since, one Albert Brown of West Roxbury was arrested on a charge of setting fire to an engine house in that town. Since his examination he has confessed several cases of incendiarism, and charges a man named George F. Hodgdon with the burning of the Baptist Church in West Roxbury, in September, 1852.—Hodgdon was a painter, and a son of the sexton of the church, who was discharged from his position on account of some alleged misconduct. Brown alleges that Hodgdon set fire to the church out of revenge. On Friday, an officer bearing a requisition from Gov. Banks, proceeded to Jersey Round Prairie, in Illinois, where he found Hodgdon, who left West Roxbury in the spring of 1857, and was engaged in teaching school, when he was arrested and brought to Roxbury, where waving examination he was held for trial.

☞ Joseph Rowntree, a Quaker merchant, has been elected Lord Mayor of Leeds, England; but eschewing from principle such titles as "My Lord," and such pomps and vanities as the gold chain, sword and mace, he declines the office, and gives his check for £500, the forfeit of a refusal to accept.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Express says:—

"It is reported that Douglas has promised to go to New Hampshire to electioneer and canvass against the opposition. If he succeeds as well as others in attempting to redeem the Old Granite State, he will come home 'with a flea in his ear.'" None of the opposition here seem at all alarmed at this announcement."

Wheat has this last season been raised, for the first time, on the island of Hawaii.

☞ There were 24 affrays in Cincinnati, last year, in which death resulted.

Men, says Dr. Hall,, who have half a dozen irons in the fire, are not the ones to go crazy. It is the man of voluntary or compelled leisure, who mopes and pines and thinks himself in the mad-house or the grave. Motion is all Nature's law. Action is man's salvation, physical and mental, and yet nine out of ten are wistfully looking forward to the coveted hour where they shall have leisure to do nothing, or something, only if they feel like it—the very Siren that has lured to death many a "successful" man. He only is truly wise who lays himself out to work until life's latest hours.

The Secretary of the Treasury has proposed important changes * * * The whole collection business in this State might be done in four or five Districts as well as in a dozen. The loss of them the better. Custom Houses have proved the curse of democracy wherever they are established—the cespools wherein corruption gathers, but from which there is no natural vent.—Bath Times.

A crazy woman, living near Rydal, was asked if she ever saw Mr. Wordsworth, and what sort of a man he was. "O, indeed," says she, "he is canny enough at times; and though he goes booing his poetry (repeating his poetry) through the woods, he now and then says, "How do you do, Nanny?" as sensible as you or I!"

"I say, Sambo, does you know de key to de prosperity of de souf?" "Key to de prosperity ob de souf; big words, Juno! Guess you must ab been eating massa's dickshunary. Golly, I an't larned nuff to answer dat." "Well, chile; 'tis the darkey."

☞ The late Emperor of Japan was troubled with dropsy of the bowels, twelve wives, and was aged 38. His name was was Casaduco, and he leaves an heir who is between 15 and 16 years of age.

'Mr. Timothy,' said a young lady, who had been showing off her wit at the expense of a dangler, 'you remind me of a barometer that is filled with nothing in the upper story.' 'Divine Almira,' meekly replied her adorer, 'in thanking you for that compliment, let me remind you that you occupy my upper story entirely.'

☞ Dennis Murphy, an unprincipled tailor, was discovered picking the pocket of a worshipper in a church in New York last Sunday, during service. He should be put on board the North Carolina.

We care not what name an individual, a paper or a party may take, if the supremacy of the people in all things political is not acknowledged, that individual, paper or party is not democratic. Democracy never ignores the people's rule.—Bath Times.

☞ After mentioning a protracted Cabinet session, a Washington letter says the pressure for office is now greater than at any time since the inauguration of Mr. Buchanan.

In preparing the matter for our paper we have adopted one unvarying rule; that is to always suit ourself if possible. Then we are sure that at least one person will not find fault with its contents. No other rule will give us this assurance.—Bath Times.

Indian Physician.
Dr. B. S. GOODWIN

Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public generally, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth, where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.

ADVICE FREE.

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and to expel all diseases from the system.

THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF THE DISEASES SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY DR. GOODWIN.

Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Rhe, Gout, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

1838 --- January 6th. --- 1859
Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.
"A NEW APOTHECARY STORE,"
But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller e er returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.
To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a fire-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

TEMPERANCE IN MAINE.

The Maine Temperance Convention, at Augusta, Jan. 19, formed a State Temperance Association, and unanimously passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it calls for devout expressions of gratitude to God, that, thro' the persistent efforts of the friends of temperance, the great idea of Prohibition has become the fixed policy of Maine, and by a direct vote of the people is now incorporated into her laws.

Whereas, the enactment of any beneficent law is of no practical value unless it be vigorously enforced, be it therefore

Resolved, That the friends of temperance in Maine require as a condition of political support that all magistrates shall use whatever of power they possess wisely and fully to enforce the present prohibitory law.

Resolved, That moral suasion and legal prohibition are inseparable; that neither without the aid of the other can effectually correct the habit of using intoxicating drinks, or thoroughly remove the temptation to its indulgence.

Resolved, That a more efficient general organization than now exists, whereby a direct and wholesome moral influence can be brought to bear especially upon young men, is urgently demanded by the present condition of the cause in the State. To this end we recommend the formation of a State Society by this Convention.

Resolved, That we recognize with great satisfaction the efficient labors in the cause, of the Sons of Temperance; and that in their glorious work we bid them God speed.

Resolved, That since Maine is everywhere regarded as the originator of the legal prohibition against the traffic in intoxicating drinks, a great responsibility exists upon her people to maintain this principle, and to enforce the law as to give encouragement to its friends throughout the world.

Resolved, That we learn with unfeigned gratification that the people of Great Britain are making rapid progress towards the recognition and establishment of the doctrine of Prohibition; and that, through the means of petitions, which are widely circulated and numerously signed, strong hope is entertained that ere long some efficient legal enactment will be adopted by Parliament.

Resolved, That the reports which have been industriously circulated in Great Britain, and which originated in this country, that the Maine Law is a dead letter, and has failed to do anything effectual at home, are without foundation in fact.—While it is true that in Maine, and in all the Maine Law States, much yet remains to be done for the entire suppression of the liquor traffic, most important results have already been obtained, through the instrumentality of the law, not only in Maine, but in all other Maine Law States, in rendering the liquor traffic odious, and in reducing it, as an outlawed business, within comparatively narrow limits.

A FLUNKEY'S REWARD.—Lord Napier, the aristocratic minister from Britain to this country, was removed, it is now ascertained, on account of his subserviency to the slave power at Washington. In social life he associated almost exclusively with the rankest fire-eaters from the South, and adopted all their slang and scurrilility when speaking of the Republican members of Congress; he also lent his personal influence and that of his larder and wine-cellar to help force the Lecompton swindle through Congress. In short, the prestige of embassy was always lent to the disunion fanatics and demagogues of the extreme wing.

Suddenly, to his great chagrin, the British government transferred him to the embassy in Holland. His boon companions thereupon announced in the Washington papers that he had been promoted, but was so attached to our country that even this "promotion" was very unacceptable to him. It appears however, that the salary of the minister at Washington is $22,500 a year, while in Holland only $18,000 is paid, a promotion backward that might well be "very unacceptable" to an ambitious diplomatist.—Lowell News.

☞ The finances of the Roman State, under the Pope's government, are in a deplorable condition, according to a letter in the Traveller, which says:

It is a fact that the State, governed by the Pope, with a population of less than three millions, has contracted a debt of $66,849,098, and this during the last forty-four years of administration, since the downfall of Napoleon. This debt has been increasing every year, though the people are compelled to pay the heaviest possible taxes. In the meantime no considerable public work has been accomplished, no railroad has been built, commerce is entirely withered, and the public schools are totally neglected. Both the borrowed money, and that taken from the people, are absorbed by the Court of the Pope, the most expensive of all Courts, by the support of the French and Austrian armies, and for the dignity and advancement of the Catholic faith.

☞ We learn from the Calais Advertiser that Mrs. Jemima Noble, aged 96, died in Calais, Jan. 14. A year or two before she died, an entire new set of teeth had grown in her mouth, and she could see and hear as well as when young.

☞ The wife of Mr. Berry, of Portsmouth, Va., on last Sunday, presented her husband with three fine babies—two boys and a girl.

The fact that a man's word is at a discount, is no indication that his note will be discounted.

Beuthe's Patent Spring Gun Animal Trap.

More certain of its prey than the most perfect Rifle in the hands of the most experienced marksman, without lessening the value of Pelts or Skins as it does in ordinary mode of shooting, it effects the capture of the animal either dead or (if preferred) alive; the barrels discharging themselves, simultaneously with the hooks imbedding themselves in the mouth.

It is simple, yet strong and perfect in its construction neither cumbersome nor difficult to arrange.

There are three different sizes, which will effectually operate on Minks, Woodchucks, Otters, Wildcats, Lynx, Foxes, Wolves, Deer, Panthers, Tigers, Bears, Buffaloes, etc.; in fact, on all animals which repay hunting.

THE GREAT WONDER
Of The Nineteenth Century.
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my color is that the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the health of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and needs no more, I express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds 1 pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove the all morbid or bad matter from the system, supply healthy plasma, or a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

One dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

One dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by the Heat of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved comparative failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrounded by their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by mail, by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 d1y

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.)
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of greatness and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 29, 1859.

DIPLOMATIC BILL KILLED.

In the House of Representatives, Jan. 26, the different sections or wings of the democratic party got into a round quarrel over the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill. Of this debate we have given some account. On the 27th, the quarrel was continued, and the bill strangled. It must be revived, somehow, and will be passed in some shape, or else our Foreign Ministers will have to come home "by the run." The following is a sketch of the debate.

The House resumed the consideration of the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill, and refused to concur in the amendment of the Committee of the Whole curtailing the number of Foreign Ministers.

The House also rejected Mr. Crawford's amendment reducing the sum appropriated for the suppression of the slave trade. The question was then taken on striking out the entire clause containing this appropriation. Negatived, 163 to 20. The bill was then rejected, by a vote of 88 to 99.

Mr. Branch of N. C. moved a reconsideration.

Mr. Letcher of Va. urged the passage of the appropriation bills necessary to keep the government together, and to avoid the necessity for an extra session.

Mr. Nichols of Ohio said it seemed to be the sense of the Republicans that if they were allowed to vote on certain amendments, such as striking out the mission to Persia, the bill could be saved.

Mr. Letcher said no such opportunity could be given. He had understood the Speaker to say the propositions in connection with the bill were presented in the only shape they could be voted on. If there was more conciliation there would be less difficulty.

Mr. Giddings of Ohio said his vote depended on whether a bill was to be reported appropriating thirty millions of dollars for the purchase of Cuba. He would stop the administration where it is.

Mr. Letcher replied that such a bill had emanated from the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Giddings said he would take no steps in that direction.

The Speaker reminded him of the irrelevancy of the Cuban question at this time.

Mr. Hughes of Indiana said if the Speaker had noticed his objection to the question of Mr. Giddings, this matter would not have come before the House.

The Speaker said he did not hear the gentleman.

Mr. Hughes replied that he could not help that.

The Speaker—I hope the gentleman did not intend to be rude to the Chair.

Mr. Hughes—No. But if I had I should have only been paying off an old debt.

The Speaker—If the gentleman has any personal quarrel with the Chair, the House is no place to settle it.

Mr. Hughes—I know that, and say the same to the Speaker.

This colloquy occasioned considerable sensation.

Suggestions were made by Messrs. Hopkins, Howard, Ritchie and the Speaker, with the view of relieving the House from the difficulty, and re-opening the bill for amendment.

After further debate the vote by which the bill was rejected, was reconsidered.

A motion to strike out the Austrian Mission was disagreed to by 71 against 120.

Motions to strike out the missions to Switzerland, Rome, and Buenos Ayres, were severally negatived. The mission to Persia was stricken out.

The House again voted on the bill and again rejected it by 91 against 94.

Mr. Washburn of Illinois moved to reconsider the vote, and to lay that motion on the table, pending which Mr. Hughes and the Speaker mutually apologized for their silly spat.

GOT INTO THE WRONG PEW.—In the town of Auburn, N. H., lives a man who has not attended church for many years. A meeting of the Selectmen of that town took place last Saturday at the meeting house, which he purposed to attend to present some bills against the town; but having lost the run of the days of the week, he found himself reining up at the church-door early Sunday morning, to the great wonderment of the sexton, who was performing his wonted labor of building fires and getting the House ready for worship, and of whom the mistaken man made inquiries relative to the business meeting of the Selectmen. Upon being told that it was Sunday and church service would soon commence, he determined not to demur, but went into the house and took a seat, where he remained during the day.

☞ The news of the Japanese treaties has caused a great sensation in the whaling fleet, and it is said that fifty or a hundred whalers will put into Japanese ports next season to refit and obtain supplies, instead of going to Honolulu, as they have hitherto done. This change, if made as contemplated, will have a very prejudicial effect on the trade of Honolulu, but it will give strength to the American influence in Japan.

PACIFIC RAILROAD BILL.

There was fun alive in the United States Senate on Thursday, Jan. 27, when the Pacific Railroad bill was debated and amended to death as follows:

The Pacific Railroad bill was taken up and amended in some particulars.

A protracted discussion ensued on the various propositions.

Mr. Doolittle's amendment to advertise for the three routes having been adopted, Mr. Simmons of R. I. moved to strike out all between the enacting clause and the said final section, which was carried, thus killing the bill.

Yeas—Messrs. Bates, Bell, Benjamin, Bright, Cameron, Chestnut, Clark, Clay, Clingman, Crittenden, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Green, Hale, Hamlin, Hammond, Houston, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson, Kennedy, King, Mason, Pearce, Reid, Rice, Sebastian Shields, Simmons, Slidell, Stuart, Thompson of N. J., Toombs, Wardl—38.

Nays—Messrs. Allen, Bayard, Bigler, Broderick, Brown, Chandler, Douglas, Fitch, Fitzpatrick, Foster, Gwin, Harlan, Jones, Polk, Pugh, Seward, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson, Yulee—20.

After some debate the bill as amended was put on its final passage.

The bill was read three times and passed, being only the enacting clause and Mr. Doolittle's amendment.

Yeas—Messrs. Bell, Bigler, Bright, Broderick, Cameron, Chandler, Clark, Crittenden, Dixon, Doolittle, Douglas, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Gwin, Hamlin, Harlan, Houston, Jones, Kennedy, Polk, Rice, Sebastian, Seward, Shields, Simmons, Stewart, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson —31.

Nays—Messrs. Bayard, Benjamin, Brown, Chestnut, Clay, Clingman, Fitzpatrick, Green, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson of Tenn, King, Mason, Pearce, Pugh, Reid, Slidell, Thompson of N. J., Toombs, Yulee—20.

Paired—Fitch, Hammond, Collamer, Johnson of Ark., Mallory, Wright.

Mr. Bell of Tenn. moved that the name of the bill be "a bill to authorize and invite proposals for the construction of a railroad from the valley of the Mississippi to the Pacific ocean on three separate routes." Agreed to.

Three thousand dollars are appropriated for the expenses.

Mr. Gwin moved that as the Senate had now consummated the greatest farce ever accomplished by any legislative assembly, it now adjourn.

Mr. Bell called Mr. Gwin to order, but evidently without changing his opinion.—Adjourned.

FRED. DOUGLAS'S DAUGHTER SOLD.—It is well known to our readers that Frederick Douglas, the talented colored editor, ran away from slavery, leaving his family behind—if a slave can be said to have a family. We now learn from the Memphis (Tenn.) Avalanche, that "among the servants offered for sale by a Mr. Forrest of Memphis, Tenn., is a girl who is known to be the daughter of Fred. Douglas, the Abolitionist. She is said to be of the class known among the dealers as a 'likely girl,' and is a native of North Carolina.

GREAT SHOOTING.—The Rev. Joseph W. Blakesly, in a his recently published account of a visit to Algeria, states that almost everywhere in North Africa there is fair shooting. He says, "A man told me that in the vicinity of Lake Aloula, near the tomb of the Christian Queen, he had himself killed 1700 woodcocks in three weeks. At Guelma, my landlord came in one day, after about three hours' walk in the immediate neighborhood, and his bag consisted of a woodcock, two poules de Carthage, a bird about as big as a pheasant, and nine quails.

☞ Theodore Parker will probably sail to the West Indies about the 8th of February. The New York Tribune received from him the following, which will be read by tens of thousands with a melancholy interest:—

A Card.—Theodore Parker returns his hearty thanks to the many friends, in all parts of the country, who send him their words of advice, of sympathy, or of lofty cheer; and regrets that he is not able to answer their letters: the Spirit is grateful, but the Flesh is weak.

POLITICAL.—The statement is made that the six members of the next House of Representatives from New York city will be admitted, as regularly elected, by Mr. Allen, the present Democratic Clerk, who will preside in that House till the election of Speaker. This is contrary to usage, but may prove of great value to the Democracy in the organization of the House.

DISTURBING MEETINGS.—Two young men were brought before a magistrate in Jamaica, Vermont, a few days since, on a charge of disturbing religious meetings, and fined five dollars each, which with the costs of prosecution amounted to about ten dollars for each offender.

Two things will make us happy in this life, if we attend to them. The first is, never to vex ourselves about what we can't help; and the second, never to vex ourselves about what we can help.

FOR AULD LANG SYNE.

Many of our readers will be gratified to learn that Mr. T. P. Moses, who for so long a series of years employed his eminent talent and exquisite taste in disseminating a love for music and a taste for the beautiful, in our midst—is yet similarly engaged in a distant State. From the Edgefield (South Carolina) Advertiser of Jan. 5th, we copy extracts of a notice of a Concert given at Christmas time, by the musical pupils at Oak Grove Seminary, under charge of Mr. Moses—who has been located there for about three years.—So talented and experienced a teacher, and especially a concert-giver, (for the two may be totally dissimilar,) it must be very rare to meet with at the South, except in the large cities.

The Concert took place in the Olive Branch Church near the School House, on Thursday night, the 23d December. The house was lighted with uncommon brilliancy, and a fashionable and appreciative assemblage partook of the mental feast which was gratuitously offered in due time. In front of the Pulpit a large platform was erected, upon which two fine Pianos rested. In the back ground a frame work stood, from which hung a red curtain, and several handsome oil paintings, the work of the music teacher. The whole was interlaced with sprigs of cedar. Soon came forth twelve beautiful maidens from twelve to seventeen years of age, dressed in elegant taste. Their charming presence inspired the idea of angels come to whisper sweet things to us. The playing and singing of these pupils indicated fine taste and efficiency in the teacher, and native talent and application in the pupils. The duets played at the same time by four scholars on two pianos went off with spirit and precision. These duets were occasionally accompanied by the teacher on the violin, which added to the attraction. The songs, duets and choruses were judiciously selected and charmingly performed. Mr. Moses occasionally played and sang, to the high gratification of all.

Just before the closing March on two Pianos and Violin, a young lady, in behalf of the pupils of Oak Grove Academy, with a brief and graceful speech, presented Mr. Moses a beautiful gold Pen and Pencil and an elegant Book, in token of esteem, and appreciation of his services as their Music teacher.

The whole Entertainment was highly delightful to all who were present. Mr. Moses, from the New England States, already three years in this district, is an accomplished, efficient and experienced Musician, Landscape and Portrait Painter.

Miss N. S. Ingraham, also from the North, is Principal of the Academic Department; and we believe the school and neighborhood to be now one of the best for young ladies, in the District.

SHILLABER ON BURNS.—At the Burns Centennial Celebration in Boston, Jan. 29, the following song composed for the occasion by B. P. Shillaber, Esq., was sung:

What's a' the steer makin'? what's a' the steer?
The Peasant Bard first saw the light this day a hunder year;
An' a' our hearts expand blythely—a' our hearts expand
Wi' honor o' his name that's known in every land;
For 'twas a blessed thing, surely, 'twas a blessed thing,
Sin' a' the world was better for 't, when BURNS began to sing;
Sae we'll raise our voices high, in tones of grandest cheer,
That ROB THE HEIRDER saw the light this day a hunder year!

His fame's brawly won, ne'ber, his fame's brawly won,
An a' the lan's auite to crown auld Scotia's gifted son;
They plait a laurel wreath for him—his weel sethier it boys—
And bring rich gifts o' mind as tributes to his praise;
For though o' humble birth, ne'ber, tho' o' humble birth,
His genius gied him station wi' gentles o' the earth;
So we're a' unco happy, and we'll make a joyful cheer,
Sin' ROB THE POOR saw the light this day a hunder year.

The humble and the high, ne'ber, the humble and the high,
Combine to glorify the bard whose song will never die;
In every clime 'tis heard wi' joy—in every gentle name;
An' sparkling e'en grow brighter at mention of his name;
Oh! he's the pair man's friend! ne'ber, he's the pair man's friend,
An' hoddin gray tak's rank, where worth its grandeur doth tend.
There's a blessing on the hour that hands us captive here,
For ROB THE POOR MAN'S BARD saw the light this day a hunder year!

Wide is his kin spreadin', wide is his clan,
They're found wherever men most nobly act the man;
Not where the tartans gleam, ne'ber, nor yet the bonnets blue,
But where the heart is tender, and men are leal an' true.
'Tis auld o' bluid, ne'ber, nae tie o' bluid—
His cange unite the nations, in ae braed britherhood;
Sae honor crown the time, and pang it fu' o' cheer,
Sin' BURNS THE PLOUGHMAN BARD was born this day a hunder year.

The song was received with cheer upon cheer and was loudly encored.

BENNETT'S POETRY.—A specimen of James Gordon Bennett's love poetry in the New York Ledger:

"Oh, it gave me such a charm,
When she gentle squeezed my arm,
As here in mine was closely wound,
Stepping o'er the daisy ground.
With rapture oft my breast would burn,
When to me her eyes would turn,
Soft remarking in her talk,
How fond she was of evening walk.

There is just about as much soul in Bennett's poetry, says Uncle Toby, as there is in Bennett's self.

Almost one-half the Irish linen exported goes to the United States.

☞ The New York Tribune, referring to the expected Pike's Peak emigration, where cattle are starving and men are suffering, says:

"Many a man who has spent his little all in a wild-goose chase for gold, has returned to the shelter of the roof-tree that covered his cradle, so ripened in experience, and so replete with the wisdom that is taught by suffering, that the evening of his days passes far more contentedly, happily, on the wages of day-labor, than they would have done on a modest patrimony, had he never learned by privation to appreciate the blessedness of a civilized home."

☞ The wife of Rev. R. A. Ballou of Augusta, died of consumption a few days since at the residence of her father, Dr. Ballou of Medford, President of Tufts' College.

PILES.—All diseases of atony or loss of tone in the Bowels, such as Piles, Prolapsus Uteri, Fistula, &c., are benefitted by the PERUVIAN SYRUP. It purifies the products of digestion, favors the healthy action of the intestines, and prevents the accumulation of refuse matters, and the costiveness, which are the cause of so many of these weakening diseases.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Des. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.
A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only, —he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.
Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus the system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beautiful features from eruptions and pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.
The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound R. Barley, meets the requirements of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable medicinal qualities of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is genuine.
May be had in Boston of C. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 128 Blackstone st; M. Ryan & Co. 57 Blackstone st; E. LOCAL.

☞ We perceive the City Book for this year (the report of expenses, &c., for 1858) has been issued and distributed among our citizens. It contains much matter of local interest—and should be read by at least every voter and tax-payer.

By the way, this job is the prize which our neighbors of the Journal drew in the last Printers' Lottery; and whether successful "lottery-gambling" has made them careless or unfaithful, or led them to the conclusion that all lots must be "knavish" and all who draw them rascals, we can't say--but certain it is, that the City Book (though tolerably well printed, and good enough to answer the purpose for which it is issued, and probably as nice as is paid for) is not gotten up in the usual good style of the Journal print, nor so well as it has commonly been done. P.

☞ The concert by the Excelsior Vocalists, Thursday evening, was a very pleasant and acceptable entertainment—but was outrageously disturbed, both performers and audience, by a couple of brazen little wenches who laughed and talked aloud, and by a rattle of boot heels from a set of boys who lacked brains to appreciate music or good manners. The audience was small, as is usual here this season—the Old Folks Concert being almost the only one which has had a good house.—The less entertainments the thinner the average attendance, seems to be the rule.

☞ The Recitation Room at the Boys' High School is much complained of as being small and illy-lighted and ventilated.—Better, a vast deal, to let the children run without schooling, than to coop them up in foul air.

On the resignation of Mr. B. F. Moses as Assistant Teacher in this School, Mr. J. W. P. Carter was again engaged in his place—but declined to remain long, for the reason above stated. Mr. Wm. W. Dow is now temporarily officiating.

☞ It will be seen that an invitation is extended to all members of the Old Folks Choir, to meet for a social sing, at Exchange Hall, on Sunday evening—and as this may be the last meeting for the season, all who enjoy the old music will do well to improve the opportunity. This is almost the only vocal musical organization in the city, save the church choirs; and the quality of their late concert proves that they have not lost their efficiency, as its success shows that the attraction was not in novelty alone.

☞ The exhibition of the great English Panorama, the "War in India," is to commence in this city on Monday evening, at the Temple.

The Newburyport Herald speaks of its great success there, and calls it "a brilliant work of art." It adds: "the auxiliary attractions are excellent. The Automaton Ravel Family is truly surprising as a triumph of mechanical skill. Signor Vivaldi is not only an ingenious artist, but mixes a great deal of wit and humor in his performances; the voices seeming to issue from the figures."

☞ Mr. Hiram Munger, from Chicopee, Mass., (formerly of the M. E. Church, a man of great practical experience, having arranged for and conducted wholly or in part over 120 camp meetings with the Methodists and Adventists) will preach at the Advent Chapel this eve, and over the Sabbath.

Friends of his old theology and others are invited to come and hear.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR ANTIOCH COLLEGE.—The subscriptions in aid of Antioch College, now in progress among the Unitarian denomination, is meeting with a generous response. The First Church in Dorchester, have subscribed $1200 for this fund. The friends of the College are sanguine that their appeal will be fully responded to, to the amount required, which must be forthcoming by the first of next month.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—Copies of all the versions of Mrs. Stowe's novel of Uncle Tom's Cabin have been procured or ordered for the British Museum. Among them are thirteen different German versions, two Welsh, two Magyar, two Wallachian, one Wendish, one Polish, one Russian, one Greek, one Armenian, besides Dutch, Swedish Danish, and all the languages of Southwestern Europe. No novel ever witten ever attained anything like so broad a circulation.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—St. Louis, Jan. 27. The overland mail has arrived here. No through passengers came with it.

The California Legislature is composed of 77 Lecompton Democrats, 22 anti-Lecompton Democrats, and 14 Republicans. There was over half a million of dollars in the Treasury at the close of the year.

California and Oregon are to be connected by telegraph.

The new Idna quicksilver mine situated on the border of Monterey and Merced county has been opened and worked with a good prospect of success.

There was a large deficiency in the Treasury of San Francisco, and it was feared the July interest on the bonded debt would not be paid.

FROM HAYTI.—Washington Jan. 27.—New Orleans papers contain the details of Haytien news to the first. Gen. Geffard at the last dates held the Department of Artibonite with his head quarters at Gonaives, where he had two thousand men, composed partly of the troops of the department.

Soloudque at the head of six thousand men reached the seaport of Arcahaye on the first of January to attack Geffard.—Geffard's family was imprisoned when his flight from Port au Prince was discovered.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Steamer Illinois, with the California mails of the 5th inst., 200 passengers, and $1,200,000, has arrived.

Markets at San Francisco were dull for Atlantic produce. China and East India stocks were accumulating.

Gold dust was coming in more rapidly.

The Frazer River mines were looking up. The ice had broken up in the river, and the steamers were making their usual trips.

FROM EUROPE.—Steamship Arabia, from Liverpool, arrived at Halifax, Jan. 28.—Her dates are to the 15th.

In the Liverpool Cotton market prices were 1-8d lower, and holders were pressing their stock at the decline.

The Liverpool Breadstuffs market was dull.

Elihu Burritt, the learned blacksmith, and Dr. Nott, of Union College, held a meeting at Albany on Wednesday, in favor of emancipation of slaves by compensation. It was a failure. The persons present were opposed to paying for slaves; but the grand point of failure was the fact stated by Mr. Underwood of Virginia, that the scheme proposes to pay $250 a head for slaves, in forty years, while the owners could put their slaves in the market and obtain from $800 to $1500 a head, cash.

Ex-Governor Slade of Vermont is dead. He was a bitter opponent of our cause.—Peace to his ashes.—Boston Pilot.

What is your cause then? The greater portion of Mr. Slade's life was devoted to the cause of universal education, and a better man than he was it would be hard to find. The Pilot's cause, according to its own statement, must be that of ignorance and superstition.—Atlas.

A MODEST DEMAND.—In fact, we demand as a right, that wherever there is a Protestant chaplain there shall also be a Catholic chaplain; and it is a mean feature in the management of the military service of the country, on land and sea, that chaplains are not appointed upon this plan.—Boston Pilot.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing the CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

1838 --- January 6th. --- 1859 Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of "A NEW APOTHECARY STORE," a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.

But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller e er returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.

To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

William R. Preston, APOTHECARY. No. 2 Congress Block, Congress Street, who keeps constantly on hand a full and complete assortment of DRUGS AND MEDICINES, PATENT MEDICINES, TRUSSES & SUPPORTERS, SHOULDER BRACES, LEECHES, and every article usually found in a FIRST CLASS APOTHECARY STORE, all of which are of the best quality, and will be sold at the lowest prices. jy10

Particular Notice. The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment. Portsmouth, Dec. 28th, 1858. G. N. CARLETON, 15 Daniel St.

A Card. The Subscriber, who has been Foreman of the Stove Manufactory of Mr. Carleton and his predecessor, Mr. Morrison, for more than twenty years past, would inform his friends that he may be hereafter found at the Store of Mr. E. A. Stevens, No. 46 Market Street, where he will endeavor to execute all orders in his line of business promptly and faithfully as in times past. Dec. 31, 1858. ISAAC DOW.

STEVENS' House Furnishing Establishment. The Subscriber having purchased MR. G. N. Repairing pieces for all Ranges, Furnaces, and formerly sold by MR. CARLETON, kept constantly on hand.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper. This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

INTERESTING DEBATE.

It is really amusing to hear some old women in small-clothes, trying to hush up, or hush down, every sound of slavery agitation,—when in Congress, the National Council, Slavery is discussed every day.—In the House of Representatives, Wednesday, Jan. 25,

The House went into Committee of the Whole, on the Consular and Diplomatic bill, and rejected the pending amendment, that no money shall be expended in the support or education of recaptured Africans.

Mr. Crawford of Ga. offered an amendment, reducing the proposed $75,000, to enable the President to carry out the law 1819, to $45,000. He contended that the President had no authority to contract for the support and education of the Africans of the Echo.

Mr. Stewart of Md. favored the contract. The North makes war on the President for enforcing the fugitive slave law, and if the President enforce the law for suppressing the slave trade, the South make war on him. He was opposed to this ultraism.

Mr. Moore of Ala. thought the government should not bolster up that rotten concern—the American Colonization Society, in Liberia, which has proved an abortion and a failure.

Mr. Millson of Va. did not see how they could consistently vote money to educate these negroes in Africa, when the education of negroes in slave States is made a criminal offence.

Mr. Keitt of S. C. contended the President has no right to make the contract.—He said the charity of this government has been prostituted to upholding the Colonization Society, which sprung up from a spurious sentimentality in a single night, which receives support from old maids and dilapidated politicians, who colonize negroes from a maudlin inhumanity.

Mr. Bonham of S. C. proposed and advocated an amendment, confirming the appropriation to the carrying out of the act of 1819.

Mr. Seward of Ga. looked upon the laws for the suppression of the slave trade, as a violation of the Constitution. He wanted Georgia and the Southern States to settle the matter for themselves.

Mr. Barksdale of Miss. endorsed Mr. Seward's remarks.

Messrs. Groesback and Hughes concurred in the act of the President, and, in the name of the Democratic party and of the nation, thanked him for the humanity.

Mr. Clay of Ky. said no man was more opposed to the slave trade than he, and he believed he was sustained by his constituents; but he thought the present law, punishing it as piracy, so severe that they could not be enforced. Other penalties might be provided. He did not believe a white man could be hanged for it, either in the South or in Boston. He was opposed to the 8th section of the treaty in Washington, as it was an entangling alliance with Great Britain, and caused outrages on the American flag. He hoped notice would be given to Great Britain to put an end to the treaty, so that we may preserve our own police on the seas.

Mr. Miles, of S. C. announced himself a sectional man. He did not class himself a Democrat, but would unite with them where he could do so conscientiously.—When they called on him to depart half a hair's breadth from his principles, he would turn his back on them forever. He was not only prepared to advocate the re-opening of the slave trade, but the sweeping away of all laws which stamped his constituents as pirates, and placed a stigma on Southern institutions.

Mr. Gooch of Mass. said the apprehension was expressed by a gentleman, (Mr. Singleton) as so what a Republican President would do in the event of such an election. He would say that, in his opinion, should the Republicans succeed to power, they would give to the law the same construction which two Democratic Presidents have given it. The same construction in which the Democratic party have acquiesced for 20 years. They would go a step farther than precedent would justify, supported by the opinions of leading Democratic statesmen. The construction given by the President to the law of 1819 was a correct one.

The clause under consideration, making an appropriation to enable the President to effect a contract with the Colonization Society, etc., was stricken out; but this does not finally dispose of the subject, which will be voted on in the House.

The Committee rose, and the House adjourned.

THE PERILS OF PARTING.—There is one warning lesson in life which few of us have not received, and no book that I can call to memory has noted down with adequate emphasis. It is this: "Beware of parting." The true sadness is not in the pain of parting; it is the when and the how you are to meet again with the face about to vanish from your view. From the passionate farewell to the woman who has your heart in her keeping, to the cordial good-bye exchanged with pleasant companions at a watering-place, a country house, or the close of a festive day's blithe and careless excursion—a chord, stronger or weaker, is snapped asunder in every parting, and Time's busy fingers are not practiced in re-splicing broken ties. Meet again you may: will it be in the same way? with the same sympathies? with the same sentiments? Will the souls, hurrying on in diverse paths, unite once more, as if the interval had been a dream? Rarely, rarely.—Bulwer.

The 'Punctuation Train' on the Hudson River Railroad, is the one that makes all the stops.—Ex.

Tracy says the trains upon too many roads, besides making the stops, rub out the capitals.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you, for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my testimony. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. HATHORN.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FRANK JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its natural color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, and effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Night Mare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels and, by a dose or two, cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its superior value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of unfortunate victims in surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insiduous inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which had been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are indebted unto him for a perfect cure.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

An agent is employed in Boston, who, if unwell, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 1859.

FREE NEGROES.—The Mobile Register says, the number is increasing in that city, as those warned away from the interior resort to that city. The Register calls loudly for an abatement of the evil, and says that if free negroes from the non-slave-holding States, coming into the Bay of Mobile, on board of vessels, have to be fonded or committed to jail until the vessel is ready to depart, it can see no good reason why the same rule of stringency should not be observed towards all other free negroes coming from whatever source they may. The Legislature of Alabama has been frequently importuned to pass special acts, allowing negroes who have obtained their freedom, to remain in the State, but have refused; therefore, every device is set on foot to evade the law. When pressed, or they become obnoxious in the interior, they emigrate for Mobile. The number of free negroes in New Orleans already exceeds the number of slaves; and all efforts to get rid of the presence of this odious class seem to have been given up.—We trust, adds the Advertiser, that Mobile will make a vigorous effort to remove the pest before it is too late.

The reader will please to observe that the above item is not made at the North, but is copied from a paper in the extreme South,—and will also, if he pleases, see in it a complete refutation of some pleas for slavery, and against emancipation, which we used to hear, years ago.

It seems the free negroes do not run to the North, but settle themselves by thousands in New Orleans and Mobile. It seems also that they do not "cut their master's throats."

Some youngster may say, "who ever heard anything so foolish?"

Foolish as it is,—it was often urged 20 or 25 years ago, with other stuff as stupid. But "the earth moves,"—and if some governments and courts become more devoted and subservient to the base "institution," the people are less so,—and public opinion will kill the monster when his time comes.

☞ The Boston Courier of Jan. 27, in speaking of the colored people there, says:

The colored population of Boston, during the last twenty-five years, has made very distinct and decided progress, and such progress is most honorable to them. They lead more moral and reputable lives; they are possessed of more property, and live more comfortably; they are more anxious to improve their own minds, and to educate their children—indeed, their anxiety to have their children well educated, and the honest pains and sacrifices they are at to have them neatly dressed, are most creditable to them. These things show that they were entirely worthy of the boon which has been bestowed upon them in every town and city in the State, of having their children educated at the same school with the whites.

Surely this does not read as if freedom were a curse—nor as if these people were unworthy to have rights, or privileges.

"JOE" IN BOSTON.—"Joe," the young negro whom John A. Washington, the present owner of Mount Vernon, advertises as having run away from that delectable estate and that saintly man, reached Boston in safety. He remained in that hospitable city nearly a week, and on Friday proceeded to take up his residence in Canada. "Joe" is nearly white, is smart, knows too much to live a slave, and emancipated himself in the most approved manner with his own legs. Some half a dozen others have recently been in Boston, en route for the line.

☞ The Washington States, considered the organ of Senator Douglas, declares that there is no longer a Democratic party, and cites, in proof of its assertion, the dissension between President Buchanan and Secretary Cass on the question of squatter sovereignty; between Buchanan and Floyd on the question of the Pacific Railroad; and between Buchanan and Cobb on the Tariff question. It says that on no single issue is there concord in the party.

The Charleston Mercury dissents from Col. Keitt's Cuban speech, and says that Mitchell's scheme is wholly impracticable and visionary—a mere scheme of politicians for moving the political waters in this country."

☞ The Observer says that a bet was made at Albany on Wednesday that of a large crowd of applicants for relief at the office of the Overseer of the Poor, at least half a dozen had money in the Savings Bank; and to test the matter, a report was circulated that the Commercial Savings Bank had failed. In an instant thirteen of the beggars were rushing madly for the bank, in order to save their money from the wreck.

A splendid new edifice designed for a public library has just been finished at Melbourne, Australia, and $25,000 per annum has been voted to it for the purchase of books.

JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS.—The long and arduous term of service of this gentleman in the Congress of the United States draws to a close. On the 4th of March he will cast off the robes of office, and once more become "one of the people." We learn from Washington that his friends now in that city intend to present him a handsome testimonial. The subscription paper was speedily filled up, for between five and six hundred dollars, to purchase a magnificent service of plate. The gift is not one of a political nature. Several "Democrats" are among the subscribers, and others from the same party desired to contribute, but did not wish to have their names appear. Such subscriptions were declined, as the names of all donors are to be inscribed upon the plate, with a suitable inscription in addition.

FROM THE PACIFIC.—Dates from Valparaiso are to the 16th, and from Callao to the 26th ult.

Serious riots had occurred at Lima and Callao, in consequence of the importation of ready-made houses from the United States, which the workmen attempted to prevent from landing. The mob and a guard came in collision, when several on both sides were killed and wounded.—President Castillo ordered a detachment of troops to serve, when another collision took place, in which several were killed. Finally a committee was sent by Congress to treat with the populace, which resulted in introducing into that body a measure decreeing that after the 1st of August, 1859, all manufactured goods shall pay a duty of 20 per cent. on the present tariff; that all raw materials shall be admitted free.—Both cities were placed under martial law during the riots.

CONGRESS, Friday 28.—Senate.—Mr. Gwin moved to reconsider the Railroad bill, which he hoped to revive, with such modifications as would meet the views of its friends.

House.—The Judiciary Committee were discharged, at their own request, from further consideration of charges against Judge Irwin, he having resigned.

Mr. Stephens of Georgia introduced bills for the establishment of territorial governments for Arizona, Dacotah, and Jefferson. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania gave notice that when the Arizona bill shall be called up, he will offer an amendment, which was read, setting forth that, whereas, the territory acquired from Mexico, of which Arizona is part, was, at the time it was purchased, free by law from African slavery, and no such slavery has been established therein; therefore, nothing contained in this act shall be held or taken to authorize African slavery in said territory, which shall remain free from slavery, as acquired from Mexico.

On motion of Mr. Morse of Me., a resolution was adopted, calling upon the President to furnish copies of the instructions to our African squadron, and those given by the British government to their forces on the same coast; also information as to the number of slavers and suspected slavers captured, and other matters pertaining thereto, since the ratification of the treaty of Washington.

The House reconsidered the vote by which the Consular and Diplomatic bill was yesterday defeated. The question being taken, the bill was passed by 101 against 98.

☞ At Germantown, Pa., there is a harbor for dishonest domestics, known as a Servants' Boarding House, where Bridget or Betsey can repair when out of a place, and live free of charge while there, providing she steals enough when next employed to compensate for her board. The establishment is wholly sustained by the plunder secured by domestics. We guess a few such places might be found in Boston.

☞ A dealer in furs at Taunton, Mass., advertises for skunk skins, cat skins, &c. The Gazette says he has received and sold, since December, the skins of upwards of eleven hundred animals common to Eastern Massachusetts, all of which were collected within a circuit of fifteen miles from Taunton, and of the whole number six hundred and forty three were skunks.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE CONSUMERS OF KEROSENE OIL.—The New Bedford Standard states that a bargain was concluded recently between the Union Coal and Oil Co., of Maysville, Ky., and certain parties in Boston, by which the latter agreed to purchase of the former 2000 gals. crude oil per day, during the next two years, at 33 1-3 cts. per gallon.

☞ The ship Roebuck, of Boston, was wrecked on Cohasset rocks, Thursday night. Crew saved. Cargo of cotton, tobacco, &c., saved with more or less damage.

☞ The frigate Merrimac and sloop-of-war Decantur were at Realejo on the 1st. The latter was preparing for a cruise.

IMMORTELLES.

SELECTED FOR THE CHRONICLE,

BY ALBERT LAIGHTON.

THE RECONCILIATION.

As through the land at eve we went,
And plucked the ripened ears,
We fell out, my wife and I—
O, we fell out, I know not why,
And kissed again with tears.

For when we came where lies the child
We lost in other years;
There above the little grave,
O, there above the little grave,
We kissed again with tears. —Tennyson.

MUSIC.

O, lull me, lull me, charming air!
My senses rock with wonders sweet!
Like snow or wool thy fallings are;
Soft, like a spirit's, are thy feet.
Grief who need fear
That hath an ear?
Down let him lie,
And slumbering die,
And change his soul for harmony.
—Dryden.

THERE ARE GAINS FOR ALL OUR LOSSES.

There are gains for all our losses—
There are balms for all our pains;
But when youth, the dream, departs,
It takes something from our hearts,
And it never comes again.

We are stronger, and are better,
Under manhood's sterner reign;
Still we feel that something sweet
Followed youth with flying feet,
And will never come again.

Something beautiful is vanished,
And we sigh for it in vain;
We behold it everywhere,
On the earth, and in the air,
But it never comes again. [Stoddard.

SUICIDE.—Mr. Thos. Downing, a wealthy dry goods merchant, of Salem, hung himself, Friday morning, in the entry of the East Church, (Unitarian,) of which he was a leading member. It is supposed that he was insane.

Wilson, "Kit North," has an article going to prove that suicides are epidemics, and certainly the evidences of the probability of such a theory are not wanting at the present time.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A boy about 17 years old, named Carnes, was instantly killed near Pawtucket, Friday morning, by coming in contact with a bridge, he crossing the top of a car at the time. He went from Boston, and attempted to secrete himself to evade paying his fare.

☞ Thomas Powers, of Malone, Vt., was killed on the 8th inst. While riding in a sleigh his horse became unmanageable, and he was thrown out with great force. His head struck a post, and he was killed instantly.

☞ A hen in Southampton, during the late cold snap, put her head under one of her wings to keep it warm, but it froze fast in that position, and Biddy had to be thawed out by a fire.

☞ Blue Dick, the celebrated trotting horse, died at Philadelphia on Sunday, from injuries received in a collision. He was a splendid specimen of his race, and his skeleton will be preserved in the museum of the American Veterinary College.

OLD VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Enquirer, the old organ of the Democratic party and the mouth-piece of Governor Wise, says that in order to carry Virginia it will be necessary for the democracy to "repudiate the message of President Buchanan."

☞ A writer in the Portland Advertiser, thinks it is bad manners to ring at a gentleman's door, and then not step in, but keep the door open, and make him come to the door and get cold. He says the caller should step into the entry, and close the door behind him.

☞ Aaron Eames, of Upton, who has been missing some three weeks, and, when last seen, was intoxicated, was found dead on Saturday morning, in some woods in the north part of the town.

☞ William H. Prescott, the eminent American historian of Spain and her American colonies, died in Boston on Friday, aged 63. He was, though almost blind, an indefatigable student, an elegant writer, and an estimable man.

☞ A merchant complaining of the hard times a few days since, said that when he got new goods he did not see that it increased the number of his callers in the slightest degree. We asked him if he took any pains to inform the people of the renewal of his stock. He made no answer; but the next day, for the first time in his life, he handed in an advertisement of his business.—Ex.

A portion of a comb bearing the name of George Washington, has been found at Valley Forge, and it is supposed to be one lost by him during the Revolutionary War.

The above "item," which has been travelling the rounds of the press, reminds our "phonographic reporter" of one published a short time since to the effect, that an ancient brass collar had been found in England, and was supposed to have been lost by Cæsar, during his invasion of Britain, from the fact that his name was found to be engraved upon it in Roman characters.

Do thou but thy best, and then thou may'st defy the Devil to do his worst.

As ceremony is the invention of wise men to keep fools at a distance, so good breeding is an expedient to make fools and wise men equals.

The Archduke Maximilian d'Este, who is 76 years of age, has been attacked by measles, says a German paper.

☞ Miss Lane, of the White House, it is rumored, will shortly be married to a Mr. McGraw of Baltimore.

A number of young men have recently been holding "Infidel meetings" at Washington.

FARMERS.—In this State all five of the Republican nominees for the Council are farmers.

☞ The Gas Company of Manchester have made a reduction of one-fourteenth of the price.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prescott. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

J. DUPONCO, Proprietor.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontiorumenos.

VENEREAL DISEASES.—The horrible results of this social pestilence are everywhere to be seen; and the usual remedies are nearly if not quite as bad as the disease. The PERUVIAN SYRUP, by its alterative action, purifies the blood, and surely eliminates the poison, by the stimulation of the natural secretory organs. It cannot but be beneficial.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only, —he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is presented to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and contains all the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., which the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'—NONE OTHER is IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. F. Pecker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st. and by Grocers and Druggists of others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. Mitchell & Son.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS,

PREPARED BY CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, M. D., NEW-YORK CITY.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice.—They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

TO MARRIED LADIES,

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills are invaluable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have been disappointed in the use of other Pills, can place the utmost confidence in Dr. Cheeseman's Pills doing all they represent to do.

NOTICE.

They should not be used during Pregnancy, as a mis carriage would certainly result therefrom.

Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to DR. ☞ In our list of deaths, published in this day's paper, we record the decease of Abram Dickson, better known to the people of Portsmouth, and especially to the readers of the Chronicle, as "Boiling Rock," the rhymester who was so fond of Charades, generally turning on some scripture story or maritime usage.

He was a man of singular character, all of whose defects were quite apparent.—Among other traits, he had a great fondness for reading the English Scriptures, and was very familiar with the sacred text in our common version, especially with every scrap of sacred history. He was perhaps equally familiar with the naval history of this country from 1812 to the present time.

Reverence for the Creator and love of country, or national pride, were as conspicuous in him as they were in Daniel Webster. And though moving in a sphere almost as far below Webster as possible, known only to dozens where Webster was to thousands, Boiling Rock was a patriot and Christian very much after the Websterian pattern.

QUICK PASSAGE.—The ship Ocean Rover, Capt. Pickering, of this port, whose arrival at New York we reported in Saturday's paper, has made one of the shortest passages on record, having made the run from Batavia in 93 days, via Mauritius in 70 days, and St. Helena in 33 days.

☞ The exhibition of the great English Panorama, the "War in India," is to commence in this city this evening, at the Temple.

The Newburyport Herald speaks of its great success there, and calls it "a brilliant work of art." It adds: "the auxiliary attractions are excellent. The Automaton Ravel Family is truly surprising as a triumph of mechanical skill. Signor Vivaldi is not only an ingenious artist, but mixes a great deal of wit and humor in his performances; the voices seeming to issue from the figures."

For the Chronicle.

At a meeting of the "Boys' Union Skating Club" of this city, held at their room on Saturday afternoon last, the following resolutions were unanimously passed.

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Club be presented to Dr. Samuel Baker, of this city, for the admirable manner in which he has prepared,—by the use of his excellent, patent snow-plow,—a labyrinthian Skating Course upon the South Mill Pond.

Resolved, That we shall ever hold him in grateful remembrance; and take this opportunity of expressing our desire at some future day to reward him for this gratuitous exhibition of his regard for our healthful sport, exercise and happiness.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Portsmouth Chronicle.

PORTSMOUTH, Jan. 25, 1859.

DAILY IMMERSION OF THE HEAD.—Dr Bissel, one of the quarantine physician at Staten Island, states it as his opinion "that if a person's hair is washed and combed every day, he is not liable to disease, because cleanliness of the person is always a preventive. If a man were at work all day in the vicinity of the sick, and his hair wet with perspiration, the doctor don't think he would get the disease; but if he let his hair get dirty and matted, he thinks he could not very well escape it.

The Norfolk Herald copies the foregoing and adds the folowing, corroborative testimony: "So important a result from so simple a cause may seem incredible to many, but not to us. There is not a more effectual preventative of disease than the immersion of the head in cold water every morning the year round. We know an old gentleman, now on the rise of seventy; he was of rather a weakly constitution, and particularly liable to attacks of bilious fever, violent cold and headache; but having heard that the best preventive of headache was to wash the head in cold water every morning immediately after rising, he then commenced the practice, and has continued it to the present time; and during the interval of forty years, has never had the bilious fever; hardly knows what the headache is; and though sometimes taking cold, has never had a cold that hindered him from attending to his ordinary affairs; add to this, he passed unscathed through the terrible epidemic of 1855. In other respects he has lived, ate and drank as other people do, and has been rather inattentive to matters of hygiene."

ELOPEMENT AND SUICIDE.—Bellows Falls, Vt., Jan. 28.—A young man named Harrison Sanders, and the wife of his brother, Daniel Sanders, of Springfield, Vt., eloped last night, and came to this place and stopped at the Bellows Falls House.—About three o'clock this morning, the sheriff with the husband arrived to arrest them, and reaching the room, they waited for them to dress, and upon entering, observed the parties drinking something, which was dashed out of their hands.—They said it was strychnine. The young man died in about twenty minutes. The young woman is expected to recover.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—It is rumored that the President is preparing a message, urging Congress to pass a revenue tariff, and estimating the deficiency for the current fiscal year at $20,000,000.

Vice President Breckenridge has gone home sick.

FRENCH SPOLIATION BILL.—After a count of the House, it is believed that the French Spoliation bill will pass that body by five majority. A presidential veto is talked of.—Atlas.

MURDER IN WORCESTER.—On Tuesday evening, Willard S. Tainter, a farmer of Millbury, was assaulted in the Half Way House, by a party of Irishmen, and beaten so violently that he died on Friday. Mr. Tainter, while returning from Worcester to Millbury, broke the shaft of his wagon, and stopped at the Half Way House, for the purpose of borrowing another vehicle. Santer, the landlord, was absent, and Tainter went into the bar-room to await his return. Three partially intoxicated Irishmen entered and called for liquor, which the boy declined to furnish. They then proceeded to demolish the glasses, when Tainter remonstrated, whereupon the three Irishmen commenced assaulting and abusing him. The fatal blow was struck by one Duggan. Duggan and his accomplices had eluded arrest.

☞ U. S. sloop-of-war Vandalia arrived at Mare Island, California, Dec. 4th, from a cruise among the islands of the Pacific. Although lately thoroughly repaired at this, Portsmouth, N. H., Navy Yard, she will probably be taken up on the Dry Dock at Mare Island.

The new war steamer being built at Mare Island Navy Yard will probably be ready to launch in three months.

Isaiah Hanscom, Esq., formerly of the yard here, is Constructor at Mare Island—and the new craft which is of about 500 tons, is said to be a beautiful specimen of his skill in modelling.

Lafayette Goodenow for an assault upon William Kimball, was sentenced on Monday to a fine of $200, six months in jail, and costs, instead of sixty days.—Manchester Amer.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing the CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

AT NO. 29 MARKET STREET.

1838 --- January 6th. --- 1859 Just Twenty One years ago this day, appeared in the Portsmouth Journal my first advertisement to the citizens of Portsmouth and its vicinity, under the head of "A NEW APOTHECARY STORE," a young man's first appearance before the public, soliciting a share of their patronage in an important era in his lifetime; and it was with no small degree of diffidence, mingled with hopes and fears for the result, that I commenced life for myself, as an utter stranger among strangers.

But friends and patrons soon responded liberally to my call; and as I look back upon this long series of years, I recall to mind many, very many, warm friends and patrons, many of whom are still living, while many others have been called to that bourne from whence no traveller e er returns; yet their memory still lives, and their deeds of kindness ever bring to recollection my warmest gratitude.

To all my patrons I extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks, and in soliciting a continuance of their favors, I assure them in return my most devoted attention.

William R. Preston, APOTHECARY. No. 2 Congress Block, Congress Street, who keeps constantly on hand a full and complete assortment of DRUGS AND MEDICINES, PATENT MEDICINES, TRUSSES & SUPPORTERS, SHOULDER BRACES, LEECHES, and every article usually found in a FIRST CLASS APOTHECARY STORE, all of which are of the best quality, and will be sold at the lowest prices. jy10

Particular Notice. The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment. Portsmouth, Dec. 28th, 1858. G. N. CARLETON, 15 Daniel St.

A Card. The Subscriber, who has been Foreman of the Stove Manufactory of Mr. Carleton and his predecessor, Mr. Morrison, for more than twenty years past, would inform his friends that he may be hereafter found at the Store of Mr. E. A. Stevens, No. 46 Market Street, where he will endeavor to execute all orders in his line of business promptly and faithfully as in times past. Dec. 31, 1858. ISAAC DOW.

Repairing pieces for all Ranges, Furnaces, and formerly sold by MR. CARLETON, kept constantly on hand.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper. This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

A SURPRISE.

One of the most desirable things in a country parish is sociality. Families, separated from each other by considerable distances, and occupied with a multiplicity of duties at home, are in danger of becoming too isolated in their modes of thought and life, and need to be brought together for the cultivation of a society feeling. During the past and present season the members of the Congregational Society in Greenland have been in the habit of meeting at the house of some one of their number every two or three weeks, for a social interview. The only entertainment provided is conversation and music; and the success of these gatherings has been such as to show that an intelligent company can spend two hours or more socially and pleasantly together without eating and drinking, or games. The interview is usually closed with singing and prayer. At one of these congregational gatherings on the evening of Thursday, the 20th inst at the house of Capt. G. T. Ball, the pastor Rev. Edward Robie, as he was about to propose the closing hymn, was gently interrupted by the daughter of the house, who desired to present him with a small package as a testimonial of regard from an affectionate people. It was found to contain fifty-four dollars. The affair was literally a surprise. The pastor was wholly unprovided with a speech for the occasion, and could but briefly express his heartfelt thanks for this token of kindness. It should not have been so unexpected as it was; for it is in a line of succession of similar favors. Forty dollars were received by letters on Christmas and New Year's day, with the kind wishes of the donors. Every year he has been the recipient of numerous and generous freewill offerings over and above his stipulated hire. These voluntary testimonials of regard from a people to their pastor have a value far beyond their pecuniary amount. They lighten a minister's burdens, and render his work (in the proper meaning of the words) a labor of love.

A PLEASANT OCCASION.—Last Monday evening, Jan. 24th, the good, staid people of North Hampton were out on a "good time." They made an assault upon the parsonage, and took possession without a moment's warning, while the Pastor and wife were quietly visiting a neighboring family. A messenger was dispatched to inform them that some ladies and gentlemen had called to see them, and so they hastened home, and were greatly surprised to find the old parsonage full of people of all ages, from the "infant of days" to the matron of "fourscore," whose smiling, happy countenances, and hearty greetings of the Pastor and his wife indicated that the assault had been made, with intent only to "kill with kindness," for they came not empty handed, as the overloaded tables and larder abundantly testified; and the Pastor at once acknowledged himself "completely overcome."

After partaking of a bountiful repast furnished by the people themselves, and spending several hours in social conversation, singing and prayer, they departed to their homes, all apparently much pleased with their visit to the parsonage; and they left behind them substantial tokens of regard in numerous articles for family use, together with quite a little "pile" of that which Solomon says "answereth all things"—the whole amounting to fifty dollars. For these and numerous other tokens of respect and kindness previously given, the Pastor, Rev. J. Dinsmore, and lady, express their hearty thanks to the donors, and pray that they may share richly in the blessings of divine promise to the cheerful giver. These things certainly indicate that the people of North Hampton have lost none of that high regard for the ministry for which they have always been noted.

COMPLIMENT TO A SABBATH SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT.—Hon. Horton D. Walker has for a series of twenty years been the acting Superintendent of the Middle Street Baptist Sabbath School, performing his duties there with all that faithfulness and zeal which have ever characterized his public and private life. Last Sabbath, at the session of the school, he was "surprised" by the presentation, through a bright little boy of eight summers, of a large and elegantly chased silver pitcher, from the teachers and scholars. The affair was the more agreeable to those who witnessed it, as it was entirely unexpected by him. The following note accompanied the present.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1859.

DEAR SIR:

Your small gift which accompanies this is not intended to reach the measure either of our obligations or our regards for your faithful and continued and faithful services as our Superintendent.

Hitherto, we have been the recipients and you the donor. Allow us for once to reverse the order, and from the fullness of our hearts, which have for so long been gathering affection and gratitude, let it now be our privilege to bestow upon a small but heart-felt token. It comes from all, laden with the gratitude of all and accompanied by the prayers and best wishes of all.

May he who has thus far so richly blessed your union with us, continue it, for many years to come. And may it be the blessed privilege of each individual member of our School to meet you at last at the feet of Jesus, never more to part.

Most affectionately,

THE MIDDLE STREET SABBATH SCHOOL.

Mr. Horton D. Walker.

The compliment was acknowledged by Mr. Walker in a feeling and happy expression of his appreciation of the gift and regard for the donors. The more touching, as it was felt to be a spontaneous utterance of the honest sympathy he has ever had with those under his charge.

THE DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR SLADE.—The New York Tribune says that Mr. William Slade, who died recently at Middlebury, Vt. was formerly a clerk in the State Department at Washington, under Adams and Clay, of whom he was all his life a supporter and admirer. He opposed the election of Governor C. P. Van Ness to the United States Senate in 1827-8, distrusting his professions of friendship to the Adams-Clay Administration—a distrust which, immediately upon Governor Van Ness's defeat, was shown to be well founded. On the triumph of Jackson, Mr. Slade of course, superseded. In 1831 he was chosen a member of Congress, and served in the house with distinction through six terms, retiring in 1843, when he was chosen Governor. He was, we believe, reelected to the latter post, and then retired, devoting the remainder of his days, in good part, to the removal of female teachers of Public Schools from New England to the new settlements of the West. Governor Slade was an earnest Republican and a devout Christian.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1858.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had evinced. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now say to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to prove the beneficial effect of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND,
BATH, MAINE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of a fever, which I had in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Finley, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass., He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion than the small, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supply the place of bile, giving a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

One dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures constipation.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is necessary to entirely eradicate from the system the effects of Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst form; while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and Fever and Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and without nauseating or leaving to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD'S OFFICE, 345 Broadway, N. Y.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, he would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS.

These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
E. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Research made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages in securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unexamplary superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY. he would add that it has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. E. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

CHOCOLATE CONFECTIONS. — The Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Express says that chocolate confectionery was all the rage during the festivities consequent on the late New Year's season in the French capital. The general desire to avoid expensive gifts has turned the current of trade from the jeweler to the confectioner, and the young gentleman who, in former years, would have offered a handsome ring, a costly bracelet, or an inlaid writing desk to his lady friends, now cases his conscience and saves his purse by sending a bag of sugar-plums or a box of fancy chocolate. Confections of chocolate are omnipresent in the shop windows, and in every conceivable variety and shape.

☞ The Dover Gazette mentions the fact that Charles Doe, Esq., of that city, has left the Democratic party and joined the Republicans. The Portsmouth Gazette alludes to his change, and says:

He never thought of leaving the Democratic party while it was strong enough to keep him in office, no more than Channing Williams, Judge Sargent, Attorney Sullivan, Herbert, Bryant, and a dozen or two other "disciples of the green bag."

The Coos Republican contains the signatures of seven men in Milan (in the Democratic ranks last year,) who say in their manifesto, "we shall (for the present at least) act with the Republicans."

A SCHOOL MASTER.—Mr. Rufus Dodge, a veteran schoolmaster, died at North Brookfield on the 24th inst., at the age of 85 years. The Worcester Spy says of his career as a pedagogue:

"Possessing a genial temper, good judgment and a commanding presence, he seldom had occasion to resort to brute force in the management of his school; but he had a large reserve of muscular power, which, if need be, he could fall back upon; and he could use the 'ultima ratio' of schoolmasters with as much effect as any of his contemporaries. His first school was in Old Brookfield in 1792, and he continued in the service till 1832—a period of forty years. He taught nearly all the schools in the Brookfields, and the neighboring towns. Distinguished as a disciplinarian, he was sent for far and wide, whenever a difficulty occurred, and never failed to quell the most rebellious school, without any great effort. His fame and personal appearance were generally sufficient; for when 'master Dodge' came, unruly boys generally understood that discretion was the better part of valor."

Master Dodge taught thousands of pupils, and in the latter part of his life recounted with great satisfaction the success of those who became distinguished in any of the walks of life. He died in the room in which he was born, and where his father and mother had died before him.—Agreeably to his special request, he was carried to his last resting-place by "his scholars." Among his bearers was Hon. Amasa Walker.

☞ Another revolutionary soldier has died, viz:—In Madbury, Dec. 29th, Capt. Andrew Nute, aged 99 years and 8 months. Capt. Nute was born on the 29th of April, 1759, in Dover. In 1779, when a few weeks over the age of sixteen years, he marched from Dover to join the Continental Army in Cambridge, as a waiter to his uncle Lieut. Paul Nute, in the company of volunteers, commanded by Capt. Andrew Drew, arriving at headquarters on the morning after the battle of Bunker Hill.—Soon after the close of the war, Capt. Nute married and settled in the wilderness of New Durham, where he cleared himself a farm, and in 1793 he removed with his family to the town of Madbury. In 1810 he took command of the Madbury Militia, and in the war of 1812 marched his company to Portsmouth, being then about fifty-five years of age. He was an industrious, worthy man, and late in life a professed christian.

Sherburne Dearborn, the noted pugilist and litigationist, has been in Amherst jail for the last seven months. He says he has had enough of experience in the world to satisfy him that there are awful rascals in it.—Manchester American.

This Dearborn, we believe, was somewhat of a politician,—devoted to the Union.

☞ We learn that Darius F. Williams has been appointed Postmaster at Kittery Point, Maine, in place of Joseph Seaward, resigned. Mr. Seaward, who has moved from Kittery Point, has been the Postmaster there ever since that office was established.

HELD FOR TRIAL.—Dr. Andrew Jackson of Lowell has been held in $5000 for trial, on a charge of causing the death of Miss Callahan of that city.

BOSTON CORRESPONDENCE.

BOSTON, Jan. 29, 1859.

Dear Chronicle:—A circumstance that has considerably affected the liquor trade of this city may be of interest to your readers. A little old man from the central part of the State, some thirty or forty miles to the westward of this city, has been for years in the habit of coming to market—generally once a week—in a small way, with a little, poor old horse, and a crazy wagon, carrying back small jugs, vials and bottles of rum—generally New England, as giving the most for the outlay. Sometimes an aristocratic customer would order a little brandy—possibly a little wine. But rum predominated vastly. The man had been fined, and even imprisoned,—had been pelted with eggs not fresh, by resident of villages through which he passed on his way homeward,—all because he would carry rum to those who were not discreet in the use of it. But though little and old, he was tough and determined, and would carry rum when and to whom he liked, and sometimes carried home some on his own account to sell to those who might happen to be suddenly in want. His charges were very low—a mere trifle above trade cost in Boston—his prices for the errands done were but a fraction of the ordinary. It cost him very little to travel, as he carried provender for self and horse,—driving much in the night time, after a hard day's work on his farm. No one but a little old tough man could have done this year after year, as he did. At least twenty years ago, he was called 'old ——,' to my personal knowledge.

It was said that he had made the declaration that he could make money going to market, if it were not for the tolls over Cambridge Bridge. Since their removal he has had a better horse—one less ribby in appearance,—and a better wagon, one less shaky and the cover less patched.

The turning point of interest to the Liquor trade is now forthcoming. For years on years and still longer, summer and winter, day and night, in storms as well as sunshine, this little old man has been bringing tribute to the Boston liquor dealers. He was the minor tribute messenger from the heart of Massachusetts—bringing yellow gold and the basis of its value into Boston, and carrying liquid fire and its basis of desolation into the country in exchange.

But a change has occurred. Nothing of this has been done in 1859. Last Christmas night the old man had his eyes opened. A daughter met a dreadful death in his own house, through an accident which it is said he fully realizes to have arisen from having partaken too freely of strong drink. The old man was human, and this blow struck home hard.

He confesses nothing in words, but when commissioned to buy the basis of stimulating drink as before, he replies that he does not wish to do the errand! That is all his answer! It may seem a simple tale, of little use to tell, but it is not without its lesson, nor is it without interest even to those who know nothing of the circumstances farther than having read in the newspapers a few lines regarding this accident and the victim's death.

The Boston Post has now a very pithy and satisfactory explanation, by way of comment on the remarks excited by its very pithy and mysterious paragraph some days since, relative to Ladies and the Boston Transcript. Agitation has subsided since it has been virtually confessed that its use by them for bustle was definitely meant to be alluded to. This is probably not the first time that a reality has proved less terrible than the fear of it.

The Suicide mania seems sweeping over us again. In Salem, a man builds a block of costly houses, and finding their expense more than was expected, he arranges it by hanging himself in the church. Another person quietly drowns himself. A young wife, to the Northward, whose affections or passions were not chilled by climate, indulges for a few brief hours in sensual sin, and then takes strychnine—but not enough to finish her career. Her associate her husband's brother, attempted a similar course, and was less successful.

It is thought by some that Mr. Beecher has made a slight creed mistake, in his remarks upon his course in lecturing before the Fraternity in Boston. He says that all there is of God to him is bound up in the name of Christ Jesus. Christ, he says, is his "Manifest God." All that he knows "is of him and in him." He seems, moreover, to considerably misunderstand Mr. Parker's Theology and conception of the Deity, but it is an error too frequent for notice when not extremely gross; and his disposition to exalt the Son above the Father is the point for him to expect to hear from chiefly, aside from some little absurdities of egotism.

The sudden death of WM. H. Prescott, the Historian, has thrown a gloom over many circles.

BERNARDE.

THE TRAGEDY AT BELLOW'S FALLS, VT. A correspondent at Bellows Falls informs the Boston Journal that the Mrs. Saunders of Springfield, Vt., who eloped with the brother of her husband and went to Bellows Falls, where her companion committed suicide—as related by the telegraph yesterday—is a young woman but seventeen years of age. She was married when only fourteen years old. She has a child two years old, which she left at home sick with the croup. She left home under the pretence of purchasing some clothing for the child. At the hotel her name was registered as Miss Kendall of Weathersfield, but Saunders did not register any name for himself.

☞ In Congress, on Saturday, Jan. 29, the Senate, after a horse railroad bill for Washington had been debated all day, adjourned for want of a quorum.

In the House, Mr. Houston of Ala. asked leave to introduce a bill authorizing a loan of $15,000,000. Objections were made to this from the Republican side.

Mr. Palmer of New York asked leave to introduce a bill instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to report a bill so revising the tariff as to make the revenue adequate to the expenses of the government, economically administered, and discriminating in favor of American products, and substituting specific for advalorem duties.

Objections were made from the Democratic side, when the House adjourned.

PORTLAND MATTERS.—A reverend Mr. Cuyler, of New York, has been writing to England, on a matter which he did not understand very thoroughly, and committed some gross blunders about Portland.—Neal Dow replies to him thus:—

"Mr. Cuyler's declaration is, that the Maine Law is a failure at home—and that it cannot shut up grog-shops in Portland. The law by its terms took effect on the 15th of July last—five months ago. At that time there were in this city more than five hundred open grog-shops, many of them wholesale shops, where large stocks of liquors were openly displayed for sale in violation of the then existing license law. Of these latter shops not one remains, all of them are shut up—so far as that traffic is concerned. More than one-half of the retail grog-shops have entirely ceased the traffic, without waiting for a prosecution, and of the remainder not one sells, except with secrecy and caution. The entire traffic has been driven by the law away from the public view into dark back places. Many prosecutions have been had, many seizures and forfeitures of liquors have taken place, and the authorities promptly prosecute every violation of the law, when they can obtain the necessary proof.

Drunkenness in the city, and arrests for drunkenness, have diminished more than one-half already—and the decrease of pauperism as indicated by the numbers in the alms-house and those applying for outdoor relief, has diminished 37 per cent. At night our streets, particularly the worst of them, contrast strangely and favorably with their condition during the days of license and open grog-shops. Then they were noisy at late hours, and frequent rows occurred in and around these places, but now the police has comparatively little to do, because such disturbances do not occur; and if any such irregularities happen now, they are in violation of law, and not in accordance with its provisions.

Mayor Jewett and Deputy Marshal Ring both certify to the correctness of Mr. Dow's statement.

WASAINGTON, Jan. 30.—Hon. Miles Taylor says the Louisiana sugar crop in 1857 amounted to upwards of 300,000,000 instead of 87,000,000 pounds, as stated in Mr. Branch's Cuban report.

McCormick's Reaping Machine patent expired to-day, and became public property, the Commissioner having overruled the application for a renewal of the patent on the ground that the patentee has already received liberal compensation for his invention.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 31.—The extensive bolt works of the Plans Manufacturing Co., at Plansville, in Southington, were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $100,000; insured for $65,000. Probably incendiary. 200 men are thrown out of employment.

HANOVER, N. H., Jan. 31.—The Dartmouth Hotel stables, with their contents, and an adjoining paint shop, were burnt on Saturday night. Horses all saved. Incendiary. Loss from $4000 to $5000.

BURLEIGH ON DOUGLAS. — Burleigh, in his New York letter of Jan. 26, says:—

The political friends of Stephen A. Douglas here do not know what to do with him. He does not seem to be in the party nor out of it; and his recent course in the Senate has staggered those persons here, who, a few weeks ago, were ready to throw up their caps for the Judge and run up his banner.

☞ In a trial before the ministers of the Methodist church in Indianapolis, Dr. Daily has been found guilty of drunkenness and lewdness, and suspended from his ministerial functions.

When is iron the most ironical? When it is a railing?

STEAMER BURNT.—Baltimore, Jan. 30.—The steamer North Carolina, Capt. Cannon, on her way to Norfolk from Baltimore on Friday, took fire and was burned to the water's edge. All efforts to extinguish the flames proved unavailing. A clergyman named Curtis, and one of the colored stewards perished. The North Carolina was a first class steamer, and was insured for $80,000.

FROM KANSAS.—St. Louis, Jan. 28.—A party from Weston, Mo., have returned to that place from Kansas, having captured several runaway negroes, and also Dr. Day and his son, who were charged with aiding their escape. The latter are now confined in the jail at Platte city, and summary punishment having been threatened them, there is some talk of a demonstration in their favor. General Lane is expected here to-night.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT—TWO PERSONS KILLED.—Worcester, Jan. 30.—As the Western Railroad train left this city yesterday afternoon, it came upon an Irish funeral procession, striking one of the carriages.—Two married women were killed, and another had an arm broken.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each Box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

N. B.—The beautiful little give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsr Heavtontitorumenos.

VENEREAL DISEASES.—The horrible results of this social pestilence are everywhere to be seen; and the usual edifice are nearly if not quite as bad as the case. The PERUVIAN SYRUP, by its alteratives, purifies the blood, and surely eliminates poison, by the stimulation of the natural secretory organs. It cannot but be beneficial.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was said of Consumption, after three years' standing, using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Vail, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the said articles.

TESTIMONY.—Dr. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years it appeared in his hands only,—he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In five days the poisonous Rheum was entirely expelled from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to have inherited them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve build; and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the face. These almost ever three thousand pre-pigitory tubes every square inch of the skin, which, becoming ceased, prevents them from discharging their secretions—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Chrles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Malt Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent medical men the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic that is use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travelers exposed to changes of weather and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, vintners and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

LOCAL.

☞ With the month of January, closed the half-yearly volume of the Daily Chronicle, and on Tuesday morning we commenced "Vol. 14." We might have indulged in some little reminiscence of the progress and success of the Chronicle, to the satisfaction of ourselves and friends; but really we have too much good business engrossing our attention, to find much time to talk about it. With a liberal and increasing patronage, we contentedly and thankfully pursue the even tenor of our way.

☞ Our neighbors of the Journal have sent us a copy of the City Book, inscribed, "Portsmouth Journal Office—Respects to the Chronicle." This is printed on better paper than the copy we mentioned in our first notice, and has a neat cover; and makes altogether a more respectable appearance than that—but still we see no reason to alter any of our statements or deductions, respecting that Printer's Lottery prize of the Journal; but "are ready (like that print,) to re-affirm them all."

☞ A Republican friend is alarmed at the prospect that some of the friends of Marcy may swap their Governor votes with Republicans, for Congressional ballots—and desires us to warn the Republicans against it. We don't know that such a warning would have much effect in this free country, if we had any to offer; and the only wonder to us is, that our friend has just discovered this plan, which to the knowing ones, was evident from the time of the nominations. The personal popularity of both the Gubernatorial and Congressional candidates, will call out a heavy vote for each in this vicinity.

Panorama of the War in India.—This much admired work of art has been exhibited at the Temple, the last two evenings, to large and highly respectable houses, and received with great approbation. The exhibition, imported from England at heavy expense, has proved a brilliant success. The entertainment deserves all the praise bestowed upon it; such a combination of attractions is rarely presented. It is at the same time moral, instructive and amusing. Want of space will not permit us to dwell upon the varied merits of the panorama, and the auxiliary attractions. They were all pronounced excellent. We advise those who have not done so, to go and see for themselves. The enterprising manager, Mr. Rufus Somerby, and his talented company, will remain here only this week, as they open in Biddeford next Monday.

There will be an exhibition at 3 o'clock this (Wednesday) afternoon, when children will be admitted for the low price of six cents.

"The Good are Very Good."—Lafayette Laighton advertises a large lot of Mediterranean Produce, this morning.—Everybody knows that he keeps one of the best Grocery Stores in the city—and although we are not prepared, by samples from all the dealers, to say whether he has the best Figs in the market, we can say with truth and without hesitation, the quality of the contents of this drum now open before us, from No. 44 Market street, beats all we have had sent us this year, as much as the comet excels a tallow candle.

"Retrenchment."—To abolish the office of City Solicitor, with a salary of $100 a year, for all the law business of the city; and pay $133 for similar services. See City Book.

☞ Those who like a good oyster stew, fry, or roast; a good substantial meal; clam chowder; in short, almost anything in the line of edibles, are invited to satisfy their epicurean tastes by calling on Messrs. White & Patch, No. 5 Congress St. They have a pleasant and spacious eating house, and intend to spare no pains in accommodating their patrons to anything in their line, at low prices. See their advertisement in another column. R.

☞ There will be a temperance lecture delivered in Academy Hall on Wednesday evening, Feb. 2, by the Rev. Wm. Parker—commencing at 1¼ before 8 o'clock.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The friends of the French Spoliation Bill are confident of passing it in the House to-day. I regard the result as doubtful.—Special Dispatch to Boston Journal.

☞ John Richards, the well known publisher of the old New York Spirit of the Times, died on Thursday.

☞ Malone, one of the Irish murderers who killed Mr. Tainter, near Worcester, Mass. has been arrested.

MARRIED.

In Exeter, Mr. George B. Sanborn, of Hampton Falls, to Miss Susan F. Pickard, of Rowley, Mass.
In Amesbury, Mr. Weare Clifford, of Lowell, Mass., to Lizzie C. Goodhue, of A.
In Great Falls, Mr. Joseph H. Sargent to Miss Annie M. Wendell, both of Dover.

From California.—St. Louis, Jan. 31. By overland mail we have California dates to the 7th inst. Business at San Francisco continued dull, and teas and liquors were selling at very low prices.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The Senate Post Office Committee have decided to report a bill abolishing the franking privilege, and in lieu to furnish each Senator and Representative with $150 worth of stamps; also to increase the rates of postage to five cents.

Burning of the Concord R. R. Depot. The passenger depot building of the Concord Railroad, in Concord, N. H., took fire this morning from the stove in the telegraph office, and the flames spread through the building, by means of the breaking of the gas pipes, to such an extent that the fire could not be got under. The general safes and papers of the road were preserved uninjured. Insured sufficient to cover the loss, which will reach from $25,000 to $30,000.

☞ Since Jan. 1st, the foreign imports landed at New York amount to $12,000,000. This, the Tribune fears, is ominous of another crisis.

"What ugly brat is that under the window, Susan?" "Why, that is mine," replied Mrs. J. "O, call the dear, beautiful pretty little creature in, and let me kiss her."

To a democrat it sounds queer enough to hear the official organ of the government deplore the gradual accumulation of power in the hands of the populace.—Bath Times.

The expenses of living in New York are said to be a third higher than in either London or Paris, and they are constantly increasing.

Content hangs not so high but that a man on the ground may reach it.

The Lion has Roared for the Last Time.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

Henry Bowen, Librarian of Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association Rooms, School street, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters are a very valuable medicine—the best he ever used.—All medicine dealers sell them.

Mathes & Varrell sell Dr. Clarke's Bitters.

IT IS A WELL KNOWN FACT

IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.
IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many the most severe
MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS
to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.
TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.
THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.
Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.
These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.
Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

Take the pleasure of returning their sincere thanks to their patrons and the public generally, for past patronage, and hope for a continance and increase of favor in future. Now as it is a well established fact how cheap we have let clothing slide during the past month, the public will be satisfied that it is no humbug, if we hold out still greater inducement in offering Clothing without regard to cost. Therefore, for your advantage we call your attention.
Come to see us soon, while the Stock is large; we assure you that if you are a judge of Goods, you'll not leave our place without buying, on account of the quality and price. This inducement, corresponding well with the present season, we expect this enlightened community will give us as great a rush for Gent's Wearing Apparel, as last month.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE
This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.
"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.
"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.
"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.
"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.
Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism in any of other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A.M. Beck, BURRILL & HUNTING, SOLE PROPRIETORS,

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE
A Carpet Sweeper.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CAUCUS.—The Democratic Senators held a caucus at Washington on Saturday on the subject of the tariff.

Mr. Hunter offered a resolution declaring it inexpedient to change the law during the present session. Mr. Bigler proposed a substitute to the effect that in view of the deficient revenue, it is expedient to increase the duties to cover the deficiency.

Mr. Bigler's substitute was voted down, and Mr. Hunter's motion was adopted.

Mr. Slidell thereupon offered a resolution, which was adopted, that it is the duty of Congress to look rather to a reduction of expenditures than an increase of revenue.

There was much excitement during these proceedings, during which Mr. Hunter expressed the opinion that with the revival of business there would be sufficient revenue for the purpose of the government.

Mr. Bigler, it is understood, spoke of the suffering individual interests, and urged increased duties. He said the public debt now $64,000, would be $100,000,000 by the 30th of June, 1860, without the $30,000,000 proposed to be added to the foreign fund looking to the purchase of Cuba.

Messrs. Toombs and Bengamin were willing to favor the specific duties on great staples, but against attempting anything this season.

Mr. Iverson favored the increase of the tariff as absolutely necessary; while not favoring specific duties, he would give 30 per cent on iron.

Mr. Douglas thought it was important that the Democratic party should settle their policy as to whether they were for specific or ad valorem duties.

Mr. Hunter replied that all coincide that the Tariff should be for revenue, but that the mode of assessing the duties was not a party test.

Mr. Fitch acquiesced in this view, remarking that Senatorial Democratic caucuses, held for conference, never sought to bind men to vote for measures.

NEWSPAPER EDITORS.—It would be difficult to compress more in few words than is found in the following from Chambers' Journal:

A newspaper editor must, like the poet, be born to his calling, as, in the majority of instances, no amount of training will fit a person for such a post, unless he have a natural taste and aptitude for the description of literary labor: for, although many persons are able to write "leaders," or "literary articles," for a newspaper, few can be entrusted with its editorial control, few can scent out the libel which lurks in almost every communication, few can distinguish the report intended to please the speaker instead of informing the nation, and the letters written to serve private interests instead of public ends; still fewer who can tell at a glance, the kind of literary or political material which will promote the circulation of a journal—in fact, a good editor's great difficulty is not as to what he should put in, but what he should keep out of his columns. Successful editors have not been great authors, but men of good common sense, and their good common sense has taught them to write but little themselves, but to read, judge, select, alter, and combine the writings of others.

SPIRITUAL LABIALATION.—It is stated that an enthusiastic spiritualist recently described to a friend, several communications from his deceased wife, and added that the last manifestation was that the spirit of the deceased spouse seated herself on his knee and gave him a hearty embrace, ending with kisses. "Pooh!" said the skeptic, "how could your wife's spirit actually kiss you?" The enthusiast answered, "O, the spirit took possession of Miss——, our pretty medium; did it through her!" The incredulous questioner began to think there might be something in it after all.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis (Mo.) Democrat:-Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have not used once. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use the per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statement. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one may use my name of the above, with my name attached, in at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.
BALTIMORE, Jan. 28, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair now is quite thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FRANK JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.
Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the large holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, and the large for $2 (which is a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying their place, with a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Billious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow will taste pleasant.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements, now in use. He has succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns who are endangering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies which still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Use particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REMOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the science of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine can be had.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 6ly

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.)
Boston, February 5 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1859.

WASHINGTON MOVEMENTS.

In the United States Senate, Tuesday, Feb. 1, Mr. Seward of New York offered a resolution for the relief of Com. Paulding.

In the House, Mr. Grow called up his motion to reconsider the vote by which the homestead bill was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Millson said if the bill pass the House, it must go to the Senate, where it would be discussed to the delay of public business.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee thought if it did delay the public business, the bill ought to pass.

Mr. Stephens of Georgia thought the present land system ought to be changed, but was opposed to this bill.

Mr. Millson of Va. was of the opinion that the bill should not be passed without discussion.

Mr. Grow replied that it had been discussed for eight years, more or less.

After a brief discussion, the bill was passed—120 against 76. The bill provides that any person, who is the head of a family, over 21 years of age, and a citizen of the United States, or has filed an intention to become such, under the naturalization laws, shall be entitled to enter a quarter section of any vacant and unappropriated land, and hold the same, on condition of its actual settlement and cultivation.

[This will certainly give the Senate some work, as the slave power will kick against the bill.]

The French Spoliation bill was taken up, and Mr. Burlingame moved the previous question. Some opposition being manifested, he withdrew his motion, and, under the decision of the Speaker, that the bill involved an appropriation of money, it was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

We consider that Speaker Orr has killed the bill for this session, for though evidently a majority of the House is in favor of the Senate French Spoliation bill, its necessary reference, under the decision of the Speaker, to the Committee of the Whole, may be regarded as conclusive of its defeat.

A singular move was made by Senator Bigler on Monday, by introducing into the Senate a resolution declaring that "the creation of a large public debt in time of peace," and as the present revenues are insufficient to meet the expenses of the government, "the revenue laws should be readjusted without delay." This resolution is a counterblast to the Democratic caucus resolve. It is a proclamation of rebellion. It is offered, doubtless, with the knowledge and understanding of the President, and if so, it is clear that he is looking to the opposition Senators to help the resolution through. He knows that his party is doomed in Pennsylvania if Congress adjourns without giving some protective aid to the iron interests of that State, and at the same time pass a bill to borrow twenty millions more of money.

In Congress the Democratic party is divided on the thirty million bill; on squatter sovereignty; on the acquisition of Cuba; on the civil and diplomatic bill; and on the public lands. Mr. Letcher of Virginia, said the other day, that "he had supposed the democracy had a majority in the House, but he was satisfied such was not the case." What has become of it?

The Richmond Enquirer says "the only safety for the Democracy in Virginia is in repudiating the annual message of the President." The re-opening of the African slave trade, or rather the repeal of the laws declaring the slave trate piracy, is a question which will soon have to be met. The Boston Atlas is informed that there are upwards of forty Southern democrats in the House now who are not only ready to repeal these laws, but are pledged to do it. This shows that this question is assuming an importance in the democratic party.

☞ Since the commencement of the railroad improvements in Brazil, the price of able-bodied slaves has risen from $500 to $1250. This had caused much dissatisfaction among the English contractors for building these roads, and the last accounts from London state that they were engaging large numbers of German emigrants to be sent out from Antwerp, and they had also engaged 1000 Sardinians, but had not obtained enough to supply the demand.

☞ The young men at Salisbury Point, (Mass.) enjoyed themselves hugely, Tuesday, with an iceboat, from Newburyport. The day was fine, the ice clear, and the wind was strong enough to propel the boat, with a train of sleds attach to it, at the rate of five or six miles an hour. These boats are destined for other uses than pleasure at some future day.

A man walked two days running, and was weak a fortnight afterwards.

☞ The last Washington Union makes the following statement:—

"It is certainly true that if we were to look for evidence of the existence of a democratic party in Congress, we could not discover it by an analysis of the votes of members on any measure or any number or series of measures that has been before that body for a long time.!'

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:—

Secretary Cobb being asked last night what was the difference between him and Mr. Buchanan, replied, that 'The President is opposing the administration.'

If those papers which now ignore the supremacy of the people in the Territories over their own domestic institutions, go on in the direction they have started for four years to come, as rapidly as they have advanced since 1856, they can fall into the defence of an imperial dynasty without making up a wry face. Indeed, the doctrines they now enunciate are in far better harmony with the despotism of Louis Napoleon than with the doctrines of Thomas Jefferson.—Bath Times.

Perhaps this is what the Manchester Union means, when it says the National Democratic Party has advanced, but never changed.

☞ Examination of the votes on the Pacific Railroad bill shows a remarkable division of the Senate. For the bill we find only two Southern Democratic Senators—Sebastian of Arkansas, and Polk of Missouri—two States directly interested in the road; and against the bill only one republican, Preston King, of New York; the three South Americans voting with the body of the republicans; and the paternity of the bill appears to belong to Mr. Bell, of Tennessee. Upon the whole, the vote indicates that the Pacific Railroad upon its general merits, is repudiated by the Southern democracy.

☞ The chimney at the Glendon Iron Works, East Boston, one hundred and twenty-five feet in height, was thrown down Thursday. It was one of the highest stacks in this country, and was cut away at the base and made to fall in a certain direction. Although there are buildings all around it, except in the direction in which it fell, there was not one cent's worth of damage. It is probable that there never was another stack of this height thrown down in this or any other country.

☞ The London Jewish Chronicle states that the police of Rome continue their visits in Jewish families, in order to ascertain whether any Christian domestics are kept by them. These visits often take place at very unseasonable hours. When, some time ago, a Jew remarked to the intruders that it was rather inconvenient to be disturbed by them, the ruffians fell upon him and beat him so severely that he was confined to his bed for three weeks.

☞ As the Sheriff of Cattaraugus Co., N. Y., was conveying a prisoner to the State Prison, the man sprang from the train when going at full speed. It seems that his legs were shackled, and as he struck the ground he turned a complete summerset backward, striking his head upon one of the timbers in a cattle guard, over which the car happened to be passing at the moment, and fell upon his face, lifeless.

ON THE GEORGES.—Landor condenses Thackeray's lectures into a thimble:

George the First was reckoned vile;
Viler George the Second;
And what mortal ever heard
Any good of George the Third?
When from earth the Fourth ascended,
God be praised, the Georges ended!

☞ Spanish wags suggest a monument ought to be erected to the President of the United States, in the centre of the Prado, at Madrid, as he is the first that has been able to unite the people for a thousand years.

☞ We don't blame certain self-constituted leaders for spurning the control of the people, and denying their right to govern, for the people never did get a lick at them at the ballot box, that they did not get laid out most effectually.—Bath Times.

THE ALTAR AND THE TOMB.—Recently at Prattville, N. Y., John Bivens was married at 7 1-2 P. M. to Miss M. A. Turk of that place; at 9 P. M., the wife died of asthma and hemmorrhage of lungs, at the age of 29.

FLATTERY.—Men who praise you to your face are to be suspected. The Italians have a very expressive proverb on this subject: "He who caresses you more than he is wont to do, has either deceived you, or is about to do it. I have never known the sentiment in this proverb to fail.—Adam Clarke.

Florence Nightingale is an old maid, and the annals of the world present no brighter record than belongs to her.

HEAVY VERDICT.—In the case of Mrs. Sarah E. Shaw against the Boston and Worcester Railroad Corporation, before the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, Judge Merrick committed the case to the jury early Friday evening, and about 10 1-2 o'clock they arrived at a verdict. It was in favor of the plaintiff, awarding her damages in the sum of $22,250. The amount sued for was $25,000.

This was the fourth trial of this long-contested suit, which arose from an accident that occurred seven years since, at a crossing of the railroad at Newton Lower Falls, by which a sleigh containing Mrs. Shaw and her husband was demolished, the gentleman killed, and the lady dangerously injured. Upon the first trial of the case the jury gave Mrs. Shaw $15,000 damages; the next time she was awarded $18,000; on the third trial the jury disagreed; and it is probable that the increased sum in the present instance will prove a final settlement.

A QUEER PAPER.—A traveller in Norway, writing to the Boston Recorder, gives an account of the northernmost paper in the world, the Tromsoe Times. It is printed at Tromsoe, a little island village of about 4000 inhabitants on the coast of Norway, at three degrees within the polar circle. The summer sun kindly looks at the office windows at midnight, to see that the forms are properly set up. The Times is a four-paged semi-weekly sheet, and is about the size of a quarto book form. The style of type is Gothic, which has been discarded in Sweden, and to a considerable extent in both Germany and Denmark.—The latter are the only nations which retain the Gothic hand-writing.

☞ On Thursday night, Eliza Murphy, wife of John Murphy, living in Oak street, New York, was taken home intoxicated, and placed upon a bed. Shortly afterwards her husband, taking a heavy leather strap, beat her about the head and body. He then dragged her off the bed several times, and finally threw her out in the hallway, where she bled profusely from a wound in her head. The unfortunate woman was subsequently placed in bed, where she continued to fall rapidly until Saturday morning, when she died. The two lived unhappily together, and were alike addicted to drink. Murphy disappeared, and has not been arrested.

☞ The question of right vested in an audience to call for the repetition of a song has, we are glad to say, been definitely settled. After a protracted discussion, it was held that the audience paid for but one song, as per programme, and hence had no more right to call for its repetition, than the one who should pay for a bowl of oysters and demand its repetition because of its epicurean finish and excellence.—Sat. Eve Gaz.

SIGNIFICANT FACT.—Hall's Journal of Health states that "out of six thousand persons tried last year before the New York Court of Sessions, not more than ninety-four were sober when arrested."

The story about the discovery of an ancient Egyptian hotel register, upon which was found the names of "J. Cobb and E. Sau, Mesopotamia," is a fabrication. Jacob and Esau were not accustomed to writing their names in that manner.

☞ Gen. Quitman left a sugar estate the income of which ranges from $40,000 to $60,000. It goes to his daughter, wife of Lieut. Lovell, of the Water Witch.

"Tilly," said a mother to her daughter, who had seen but three summers, "what should you do without mother?" "I should put on every day just such a dress as I wanted to," was the prompt reply.

☞ Col. Jones married a handsome but not taciturn woman, and now reads a celebrated line from Keats as follows:

"A thing of beauty is a jaw forever."

They seem to be going down hill pretty fast in Waterbury, Conn. A party of young people there, last Monday, enjoyed sliding down a hill 1-2 a mile in length, which they accomplished in one minute and forty-six seconds. At one of the "thankee-marms," the sled jumped eighteen feet.

☞ Ten Broeck has purchased the celebrated race-horse Starke, for $7000, to carry to England. The Louisville Courier says Starke is the best race-horse in America.

The Bangor Times says that Gen. W. B. S. Moor, as a member of the State Committee, refused to endorse the legislative caucus resolves. Gen. M. is the Canadian Consul General.—Bath Times.

☞ In Lynn, Mass., Mrs. Emily Nichols, who was a seriously burned by the upsetting of a fluid lamp in her lap, died Tuesday afternoon last, after eight weeks of severe suffering. She leaves four children.

IRRITATING.—After rolling all night in your berth at sea, till you are miserably sick, to have a steward open your door in the morning and ask, if you will have a fresh roll for breakfast.

WHO SLEW ALL THESE?—On Monday night, at 11 o'clock, a frame house on the outskirts of Alleghany City, Pennsylvania, occupied by a carpenter named Rodgers, and his family, took fire and was totally consumed. Rodgers, his wife, and three of his children, were burnt to death. Only one of his family, a boy of 11 years, was saved. The fire originated in the lower story, while the family slept above, and the flame spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save the inmates. Their charred bodies were recovered from the ruins. A coroner's inquest elicited nothing to indicate the origin of the fire. Rogers was intoxicated when he retired to bed.

In Worcester, Massachusetts, on Tuesday afternoon, an inquest was held on the bodies of Mary Gallagher and Mrs. McBinnis, who were killed at the crossings of the Western Railroad at New Worcester, on Sunday afternoon last.

It appeared that the deceased, in company with five other persons in the same carriage, had been attending a funeral, and were on their return home, but the drunken driver, when he saw the train and heard the whistle, whipped up just enough to get into danger, and two were killed by the train: the engineer, as soon as he came in sight of the crossing, saw the team approaching, reversed his engine, and made every possible effort to stop the train. A broken bottle, partly filled with rum, was found on the body of one of the deceased. Fragments of another bottle were found on the engine.

The evidence before the inquest indicated that the driver was badly intoxicated at the time of the accident; that he excused himself by saying that he had been attending a funeral; and that he admitted that he heard the whistle and saw the engine, and whipped up his horses, thinking that he might get ahead of the train. The Coroner's jury found him only to blame.

☞ In Japan their horses are shod with nothing but shoes of grass, dried and twisted together in hard masses, and then fastened to the hoofs, by a thong of the same, brought up and bound around the fetlock.

In the Terre Haute jail they have a most ingenious rascal, who manufactured a silver key from a half dollar, with which he could unlock the cells, and he had worked his way to the outer door, when he was detected and baulked in his intentions.

☞ Kindall J. Godwin, a resident of Franklin township, N. Y., died on the 21st ult., at the age of one hundred and ten years.

A boy, three years old, was scalded in Burlington a few days since. His friends immediately applied oil and cotton; the cotton was accidentally set on fire! This second burning caused his death!

PROF. YOUNG, the great modern Magician, will introduce his feats of magic and surprising deceptions, which defy detection.
Signor Vivaldi will introduce the AUTOMATON RAVEL FAMILY!—truly wonderful as a triumph of mechanical ingenuity.
☞ This Painting is from the Pencil of the most distinguished English Artists, and was exhibited in London 200 nights with a success which has never been paralleled. Messrs. Goodwin and Somerby, hearing of its excellence, commissioned an agent to proceed at once to England and negotiate for its purchase, with a view to its exhibition in this country. He succeeded in effecting its purchase at an immense expense, and the proprietors now offer it for exhibition to the public of New England, confident that it will meet with the success which its intrinsic excellence merits.

DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.
THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.
Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will subply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.
N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at
SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.
N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

VENEREAL DISEASES.—The horrible results of this social pestilence are everywhere to be seen; and the usual remedies are nearly if not quite as bad as the disease. The PERUVIAN SYRUP, by its alterative action, purifies the blood, and surely eliminates the poison, by the stimulation of the natural secretory organs. It cannot but be beneficial.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, reply the invalid with the same article.

TESTIMONY.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

HEREDITARY DISEASES.
A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only,—he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.
Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.
R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.
N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevented them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.
The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to be the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.
THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.
THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Barley, under the supervision of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.
It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.
Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DERILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from the distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.
Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."
It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.
For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.
May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pocker, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st; M. Hall, 51 Blackstone st; R. LOCAL.

☞ The Panorama, Lecture, Singing, Automata, and Feats of Magic, now exhibiting at the Temple, form one of the most instructive and amusing entertainments we ever attended—but we are sure that a great majority of the large audiences, would agree with us in wishing the cutting-off-the-nose trick, to be omitted, if not the gun feat also. That nose butchery is pleasing to nobody, and repulsive to most. Prof. Young has a hundred tricks, less troublesome, and at the same time fully as wonderful, and agreeable to all. The interest which would be excited by the good success of the deception, is entirely lost sight of and forgotten, in the shock given to every person of sensibility. The whole show is too good to allow such a blemish to mar the effect of the entertainment.

This exhibition continues to draw crowded houses every night, including the clergy, city government, and others of our best citizens; and at the afternoon exhibition, Wednesday, for schools, more than one thousand children were present, and seemed highly delighted. There will be another exhibition for children on Saturday afternoon. This great work of art will positively remain only three nights longer, as it is to open in Biddeford on Monday evening. We recommend all who have not seen it, to embrace the opportunity. *

☞ It was reported in this city, on Tuesday, that Amos S. Alexander, Esq., editor of the New Hampshire Gazette, had been dismissed from the Custom House, by orders from Washington. The statement is confirmed by common report uncontradicted, and by a positive statement in the Ballot.

Reason for the dismission—in his paper he has advocated some of the doctrines and claims of Douglas, as he knows that the people of New Hampshire are not yet Lecomptonized.

It is not probable that the harmony of the party in New Hampshire will be greatly promoted by this removal.—It will be rather more likely to aid in defeating their candidates, and to give the Republicans a still larger majority.

Official Decapitation—Warning to Douglas Democrats.—The "caving in" of Douglas to the administration has not appeased the wrath of Old Buck, who still continues to exercise the guillotine on those office holders who have dared to insist upon the faithful carrying out of the doctrine 'of 'popular sovereignty." The editor of the Gazette has been removed from the office of Inspector at this port, the chief duties of which was to draw quarterly the amount of his salary—$1,095 per annum. No one is appointed as his successor as yet, nor is the office abolished: but the decapitation was the act of a tyrant punishing a subject for daring to entertain and express opinions of his own. Not content with the Dred Scott decision that negroes have no rights which a white man is bound to respect, and that slavery is protected everywhere under the constitution of the United States, the administration seems on the enslavement of white men, and has carried its policy so far that a man can scarcely be at the same time a democrat and a freeman.—Ballot.

Ship Dashing Wave of Boston.—The Traveller remarks that "the passages of the Dashing Wave, (just arrived from Calcutta,) are worthy of note. Fourteen months ago she arrived at Boston from Calcutta after a remarkably short passage of eighty-five days. She sailed thence for San Francisco in dead of winter, and performed the voyage in one hundred and seven days, the shortest passage made to that port during the year. And she has arrived in Boston deeply laden, at this inclement season, in a passage of only ninety-two days. The Dashing wave is an honor to our mercantile marine, and a credit to our American shipbuilders. She is owned by Geo. F. Williams, Esq., and others of Boston, and commanded by Capt. Young."

This ship was built in this port by Fernald & Petigrew, in 1853.

☞ About three o'clock, on Wednesday afternoon, as Uncle Toby looked out at his window towards the New Custom House, he saw a rush towards the open door of the Piscataqua House, and presently two fellows, both apparently half drunk, came out of the door, fighting each other. One got the other down, and then by the help of a man from the bar-room, went down himself; both kept on pulling hair, striking, &c., till a hundred loafers gathered round; and then the friends of one of the combatants took him off, and Deputy Sheriff Morse gallantly clinched the other, and, with the assistance of City Marshal Beck and others who came to the rescue, put him into the lock-up, despite a desperate resistance.

It is supposed that this last fellow, quarrelsomely drunk, entered the hotel and commenced the disturbance.

Deaths in Portsmouth.—The record of mortality in this city, during the month of January, was:

Males five—aged 10 months, 19 years, 22, 34, 60, 84.

Females seven—aged 2 months, 1 year, 2 years, 31, 32, 50, 69

Total number of deaths for the month, twelve.

☞ We understand that Miss Susan Rand of Rye, an estimable and excellent woman, of about 50 years of age, who had been insane for a short time, committed suicide on Tuesday night, at the town farm in Rye, where she had resided during her insanity.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

Ship Venice, Whitman, Bristol, Eng., arr at Alexandria, Va., 31 ult.
Ship Levi Woodbury, Young, cld New Orleans 31st ult for Boston.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The vote in the Committee of Commerce on Clay's Senate Fishery Bounty Abolition bill, stood three to three, some members being absent. The Chairman will call a special meeting on Friday to consider the subject.

At a meeting of the Committee on Ways and Means to-day, no action was had upon the tariff. They are awaiting the returns from the principal Custom Houses for the month of January, from which the Secretary of the Treasury expects to draw definite conclusions as to the revenue that may be anticipated from the present tariff.

Oregon and Squatter Sovereignty.—Perley of the Boston Journal, says, the Oregon question will probably come up next week, when an interesting discussion will take place, which will be a first step in the political crystallization which must take place prior to the next Presidential campaign.

The position which Mr. Thayer took at an early stage of this question, is gaining ground, and there is good reason to believe that a majority of the Republican party coincide with him in opinion, while many Democrats of the extreme Southern stripe, will vote against the admission of this new free State.

The Republicans, generally, will join the Free State Democrats in resisting the admission of the new Territories, unless the residents are allowed the privilege of choosing their own officers. This is very distasteful to the administration democrats, who never intended that popular sovereignty should be anything more than a theory, and who strenuously object to its practice, as indicated in notice given yesterday by Mr. Seward, of Georgia, that he intends to introduce a Bill providing for the protection of slavery in the territories. Meanwhile we have a small army of candidates for federal offices in these projected territories. If new territories had to choose their own officers, and to support them, this getting them up would not be so extensively followed here.

A writer in the Bangor Whig thinks newspaper leaders the greatest bores that afflict the common type of humanity.—Probably the poor fellow reads only the Bangor papers! A clergyman once said to us that he could preach the same sermon to his people once a fortnight, and by changing the text every time, the hearers would never detect the repetition. After hearing him once we never doubted his word. Real live matter, whether in a sermon or newspaper leader, in the church on Sunday, or in the reading room on a week day, seldom bores, though it may cut over so keenly.—Bath Times.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale
A NEW STYLE MACHINE;
PRICE $50.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They
HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH
in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE
A Carpet Sweeper.

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S

TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,

The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing nervous to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the lost nervous tone, become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are desirous of undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw of the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. to consult and several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told, he COULD NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He was persuaded to try the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as healthy as any man in Belfast.

Yours res'y, H. G. O. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and world-wide reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and happiness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands have used and recommended it to their friends as a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other parts where the parts smarthy with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. Beck.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence does not lie in effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly recommended virtues of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character: Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy t an it has been for many years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to many if not one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your order, and I wish to express my gratitude of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 22, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it just the thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that it effect has been decided in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was from a child, of its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long spell of sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending it to the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chills, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and the grounds are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon tin and shingles, and the destruction by heat and frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most sincerely assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in Portsmouth and towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try those remedies which have acquired some notoriety at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 3, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
E. H. EDDY.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1859.

CAUCUS ON THE TARIFF.

There was another caucus, on the tariff and politics, held by democratic members of congress on Tuesday evening. This caucus was composed of members of the House. But it appears that only a portion of the democratic members of the House were asked to be present. Cochrane of New York was chosen President, and Vallandingham of Ohio was nominated for Secretary, but refused to serve, giving as a reason that the Ohio delegation had not been asked to sign the call, and he merely appeared there at the request of his colleagues to watch proceedings. There were about fifty members present in all, and of these ten only were from free States, viz: two from N. Y., two from Minnesota, one from Ohio, and five (the Douglas Guard,) from Illinois. The report shows that the South did not desire the presence of Northern democrats, as knowing that they could lead them, they had no hesitation about snubbing them.

The general tone of the discussion was in favor of free trade and against protection. Mr. Phelps, the chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, declared himself to be "utterly opposed to specific duties and protection in any form." Barksdale of Miss., and Miles of S. C., were opposed to all duties, and favored free trade and direct taxation. In a word, sufficient was developed to show that the Democratic party will do nothing to change the general rate of duties. How this will suit the Pennsylvania iron workers who have had a committee in Washington during the session to urge upon Congress a change of the duties on iron remains to be seen.—They will probably now be satisfied that that they have nothing now to hope for from the Southern Democracy. Phelps, in answer to a question, said the Ways and Means Committee could not even report a bill, as it was at a dead lock on the question.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:

The call for the tariff meeting was intended to embrace only those opposed to specific duties and to protection. The President and the Pennsylvania Democratic delegation would be excluded by such a caucus, from their own party. The call is a direct insult to the President and, shows how rapidly the Democratic party is breaking up. The Southern Democrats insist that no one is entitled to be called a Democrat who is not opposed to specific duties and protection.

☞ A letter from Japan says—"In illustration of the simplicity of these habits of living, I may state that our Captain Pearson, having dined with the Governor of Nagasaki, according to the national usage afterwards received some little presents of delicacies with an accompanying letter, tied up in which was a bit of dried fish and rice, designed to remind the people that once their ancestors were mainly fishermen, and lived upon fish, and thereby admonish them to be frugal and humble, like their ancestors. This is a law of the land, and the highest dignitaries always send the bit of fish and rice with every letter, the Emperor not excepted."

☞ Mr. Barnum's lecture on "Money Making," at St. James' Hall, London, was a success, an "apotheosis of notoriety," to use the expression of the London Times, which says:—"If Mr. Barnum has got nothing else by the admiring throng who pushed, and listened, and cheered, yesterday evening, he has at least got a new chapter for a second edition of his autobiography. Having already related how he drew together a mob of Yankees to see a few tame bulls, he can now describe the eagerness of John Bull to see the most enterprising of Yankees."

☞ The love of fun is not unknown among the serious looking Chinamen, who are thickly collected in some parts of the Australian colonies. A storekeeper, wishing to advertise in the Chinese language, engaged a celestial to paint him a sign, expecting, of course, it would be an enticing one. It did not answer his expectations, however, for the only perceptible effect it had on the relations of the sun and moon was to excite a grin of the broadest dimensions. By a considerable bribe he obtained a translation in English, and found it to be as follows: "Don't buy anything here—storekeeper a rogue."

☞ Deborah Tracy, a maiden lady of about sixty years of age, residing at East Sheldon, died last week from the effects of poison, which she mistook for cough drops.

Sad Case of Suicide.—The New Orleans Crescent of the 24th ult., relates an affecting case of suicide. Sylvester Rupert, an English ship-carpenter, with a wife and two children, living in New Orleans, lost his pet child, a little girl named Lizzie, last October, by yellow fever. The grief preyed heavily upon him, the more especially as, being out of employment, he had little to divert his thoughts from the bereavement. Being too poor to buy a tomb, he purchased a lot, and built a tomb with his own hands. From the grave into this tomb he transferred the remains of his child, and thereafter he made frequent visits to the cemetery, opened the tomb, and gazed upon the corpse of his little pet.—Neither the repulsive aspect of the decaying corpse, nor its foul odor, could repel him in his morbid grief. He frequently complained to his wife that he could not get work, and despondency grew upon him so that he lost all faith in the future, and spoke of death as a desirable thing. On the 19th ult., he went to the cemetery with two shrubs which he had purchased, and planted them in front of the tomb.

The next day he told his wife that if he had no better luck in finding work she would never see him again. From subsequent discoveries, it seems that on that evening or night Rupert went to the tomb of his child, entered and closed the door after him, and, as he probably thought, securely fastened it upon the inside. He then placed his hat on the coffin, removed his coat and wrapped it round a brick for a pillow, and then swallowing the contents of a laudanum bottle, laid down by the side of the coffin, and fell into that sleep that knows no waking. His absence from home alarmed his wife, who, after an unavailing search elsewhere, went to the tomb in the cemetery, and was about to leave, when an unusual appearance about the door of the tomb led her to remove a board over it, and she discovered the dead body of her husband. The poor woman fainted. On recovering, she informed the sexton, and a coroner was called, and an inquest held, when these circumstances were developed.

Inhuman Massacre of Friendly Indians in Texas.—A letter from the Indian Agency at Brazos, Texas, published in the Washington States, relates the particulars of a horrid butchery of a party of harmless Indians, who went from the reserve a few weeks since to a place called Golconda, for the purpose of hunting, and established a camp there. The party numbered about nine men and women, with their children. The letter says:—"These Indians have been living in perfect amity with the settlers around them for some weeks, when a party of some twenty men from Erath county, who had determined to 'break up the reserves,' heard of their being out on this hunt, and they determined, as it appears, that it would be a 'good time,' as they expressed it, to 'open the ball.' During the night they were heard passing the settlement, and a little after daylight they crept up to the Indians and shot them in their beds. Three women and three men were killed instantly. A young man named Stevens shot a woman who was lying by the side of her husband. The man rose and fired at Stevens, and killed him; but a moment after he was killed by the white men. A little boy was badly wounded, and he will probably die. Eight other children were wounded. Choctaw Tom was absent from the camp at the time.—His old wife was instantly killed, horribly mutilated with a load of buckshot. A nephew of Jose Maria, the chief of the Ana-dah-coe, was killed.

"All this happened on Monday, Dec. 27. On Tuesday some of the employees at the reserve, with some Indians, went down to secure and bury the murdered people.—When they arrived on the ground a most distressing scene occurred. There was no outburst of savage feeling against the murderers; but the utter desolation expressed in the countenances of Choctaw Tom and his son, as they sat with tears rolling down their cheeks, by the side of the mutilated wife and mother; and the quiet, stifled sobs of all the relatives, as they washed and dressed their bodies in their best attire, made an impression upon these rough frontiersmen that will not easily be effaced."

☞ The Portsmouth, Virginia, Transcript of Jan. 28 informs us that the negro nurse "Bob Butt has returned from his trip to Philadelphia. He was highly pleased with his jaunt, and speaks in terms of the highest praise of the many friends he met with, and he informs us that, though grateful for the sympathies of the people and the many kindnesses that were extended to him, he was glad to get back to his old home."

Stabbing at the Charlestown State Prison.—Michael Lynch, the person who recently stabbed a witness in the Municipal Court, Boston, is at his old tricks in the State Prison, where he is serving out a sentence for robbery. Lynch and Peter York occupy adjacent cells. It appears that Lynch had recently borrowed of York a copy of Kane's Arctic Expedition, which had been given him by his sister. Lynch defaced the book by tearing out most of the pictures. This greatly excited York. They had also taunted each other, and at times became much exasperated. Lynch, it appears, determined to kill York at the first opportunity. In pursuit of this design he had sharpened the handle of an iron spoon, allowed him to eat with, and concealed it about his person. On Saturday the two men, as is usual, were liberated from their cells to be taken to the bathroom. They had scarcely got into the passage-way in front of their cells, when Lynch sprang upon York and thrust the sharpened spoon-handle into his neck several times, but none of the wounds proved fatal. Lynch was immediately secured by the officers after a severe struggle. He was placed in irons and conveyed to the dark dungeons under the old prison, where the most desperate criminals are confined, and where he has since remained. In desperation and depravity, Lynch is a match for York, who is on a life sentence for murder.

Solitary working cells, like some in Pennsylvania, are the proper places for men possessed with this species of devils.

Mutilated Coin.—An Italian woman named Baigi has been arrested in New York for passing gold pieces which had been "milled," about $1.30 in value having been taken from each piece, and something else substituted. From investigations it is fair to presume that there is many thousand dollars of this coin in circulation. The manner of lightening the coin is very ingenious. The coin is placed in a lathe, and as it revolves, a narrow chisel cuts from the edge and penetrates deep into the coin, leaving but two thin scales connected by the centre. The orifice is then filled up with base metal, the edge is knearled over again and galvanized. The work is executed in such a skilful manner that it is impossible to detect the fraud except by weighing the coin.

☞ The Independence (Iowa) Guardian gives an account of the destruction of seven head of cattle from eating the refuse Chinese Sugar cane, after it had been compressed in the mill. The outer coating of the stalks is of a very vitreous character; when thus broken up and taken into the stomach it operates like broken glass, cutting and penetrating entirely through the coats of that organ, producing a violent inflammation. A post mortem examination in this case revealed this as the cause of death. This important fact should be made known to every farmer, as it may be the means of preventing a serious destruction of their stock.

Death of Twin Brothers.—Joseph H. and Lewis F. Richards, sons of Mrs. Emily P. Lesdernier, the well known reader of poetry, were buried on Thursday last, the funeral services having been performed in Roxbury by Rev. T. D. Anderson of that city. The deceased were twin brothers, and were eighteen years of age. Both died of consumption, and within two days of each other. Their remains were buried at Forest Hill Cemetery.

☞ It is said that the Emperor Soulouque has shipped a quantity of valuables on board a government vessel lying at St. Marc, and that should affairs turn against him he will make his escape with abundance of pocket money. It has also for several years been taken for granted that the knowing old gentleman has large investments in France, sufficient to solace the declining years of a deposed monarch.

☞ A Washington letter gives an account of a recent brilliant party at Brown's Hotel, in the Capitol, upon the occasion of the marriage of Mr. James Glentworth with Miss Hilyer, a neice of Senator Clay, of Alabama, and possessing property valued at $200,000. The groom is a Wall street broker, and the bride a beautiful creature. Champagne flowed copiously, and the dancing kept up until ever so much o'clock in the morning.

The Army Well Represented.—At the late Democratic Convention, at Frankfort, Ky., there were 672 delegates, who consisted of 2 ex-Governors, 14 Generals, 493 Colonels, 97 Majors, 35 Captains, and 13 Squires. The candidates were all Colonels, and one-half consisted of "Old Line Whigs."

☞ The Crystal Palace, Sydenham, is now used for a poultry show.

Sell It.—The Newport Argus goes in for the sale of the Reform School. That's the talk. The people are getting their eyes open upon that subject, and if a vote was taken to-day, we have no doubt an immense majority of tax-payers would vote for selling it to the highest bidder. We know of many of the opposition who declare that they will vote for no man who is not in favor of selling it.—Concord Patriot.

If the school had been built in Concord, and if some good Patriot man were at the head of it, no such piece as this would appear in that paper. But really no sane man has any more idea of selling the Reform School, than of selling Portsmouth Alms House, the County Jail, or the State Prison.

If the Patriot and its friends could get the power, they would reward somebody by giving him the place of Superintendent—and it a Concord clique could prevail, they would probably build another school in Concord, costing twice as much.

☞ The Spiritual Register for 1859 tells that nearly two millions of people have embraced Spiritualism. A million and a quarter of them are in the United States, most of them in the free states, where are thousands of speakers, mediums, and numerous publications. If this be so, they are the largest religious sect in the land; and if there be one quarter as many, it is indeed a wonderful fact.

Soldiers on the Ice.—In Quebec, a few days ago, the 39th Regiment turned out in full force upon the St. Lawrence, and performed all the light infantry evolutions consequent on the corps acting as skirmishers thrown out to cover the advance of a brigade across the frozen surface of the river. The effect is described as very picturesque.

Immense Sheep Movement.—The Santa Fe (N. M.) Gazette states that 105,000 sheep are about to be taken from Bernaillo and Valentia counties, in that Territory, overland to California. There is also a drove of 10,000 from Ohio, now at Santa Fe, bound for the same destination.

☞ The supreme court of Indiana has decided that the liquor law of 1853 is not in force in that state, and consequently there is no law against the free sale of liquor.

WAR IN INDIA!!

Being a correct representation of the Magnificent Scenery of the Land of the Hindoos and the Horrors of the India War, will be exhibited

AT THE TEMPLE,
MONDAY EVENING, January 31st.,
POSITIVELY FOR ONE WEEK ONLY.

Admission 15 Cents. Package Tickets, Ten for $1.00. Children admitted on Wednesday and Saturday Afternoon, at 3 o'clock, for 6 cents.

Mr. Rufus Somerby will deliver a Lecture at each Exhibition, descriptive of the various deeply exciting scenes.

Mrs. E. B. Somerby the great Contralto Vocalist, will appear at each Exhibition and introduce a number of popular and appropriate Songs, Ballads, &c.

Prof. Young, the great modern Magician, will introduce his feats of magic and surprising deceptions, which defy detection.

Signor Vivaldi will introduce the AUTOMATON RAVEL FAMILY;—truly wonderful as a triumph of mechanism and ingenuity.

☞ This Painting is from the Pencil of the most distinguished English Artists, and was exhibited in London 200 nights with a success which has never been paralleled. Messrs. Goodwin and Somerby, hearing of its excellence, commissioned an agent to proceed at once to England and negotiate for its purchase, with a view to its exhibition in this country. He succeeded in effecting its purchase at an immense expense, and the proprietors now offer it for exhibition to the public of New England, confident that it will meet with the success which its intrinsic excellence merits.

The Great English Remedy.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES
it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by W. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth, and by Druggists in every town in the United States.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysteria, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada
JOB MOSES,
(late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

VENEREAL DISEASES.—The horrible results of this social pestilence are everywhere to be seen; and the usual remedies are nearly if not quite as bad as the disease. The PERUVIAN SYRUP, by its alterative action, purifies the blood, and surely eliminates the poison, by the stimulation of the natural secretory organs. It cannot but be beneficial.

An Enemy Conquered.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

Testimony.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

The Lion has Roared for the Last Time. —J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's, Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.
HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only, —he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find that however impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of Dr. Graves' Parisian Pimple Destroyer, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Biters and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

The Original and Only London Gin Imported.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveilance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, GRAVEL, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate constitution.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers and those who are exposed to severe cold.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of Imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—None Genuine Imported.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 20 Elm st.; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st. And by Druggists in Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. Mitchell & Son.

Indian Physician.

Dr. B. S. GOODWIN

Would respectfully inform the friends of the Indian Practice of Medicine and the public general, ly, that he has permanently located in Portsmouth where he may be consulted on all the Diseases that man is subject to, at his residence and office, No. 9 Market street. Dr. G. would respectfully invite all in need of Medical advice to call on him.

ADVICE FREE.

Dr. Goodwin would assure all that his Medicines are purely Vegetable, and prepared by himself, and are calculated to purify the blood, and eradicate all diseases from the system.

The following are some of the Diseases successfully treated by Dr. Goodwin. Consumption in the first stages, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Erysipelas, Diseases of the Liver, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Fevers, Palsey, Fits, Gravel, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cancers, Dropsey, Worms, all Diseases peculiar to Females, Humors of all descriptions, Inflammations of all kinds, Rheumatism and all kindred Diseases.

No Mercury! No Bleeding! No Blisters!

Our philosophy of practice is founded on the laws of Nature; our theory of Disease the theory of experience and evidence; our Materia Medica, the boundless Forest. Portsmouth, Oct. 14, 1858.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Feb. 3.

Before Justice Odell.—Joseph Cornelius was tried and found guilty of an assault on L. V. Newell, on the first of February; fined $5.00; costs 4.80. Ordered to give $100 bonds to keep the peace.

The same Joseph plead guilty to the charge of making a noise, brawl and tumult at the Piscataqua House, on the 2d of February. Ordered to pay $4.70 in costs, give $100 bonds to keep the peace, and go to jail for 30 days.

He also plead guilty to a charge of making a brawl in Pleasant street on the same day. For this he was fined $10: costs 3.03; bonds $100. Also plead guilty of making brawl at the oyster shop of Mr. Newell, for which he was fined $10; costs $3.22; bonds $100.

The prosecuting officers have their eye on some other young men of similar habits; and express their intention to proceed against them in a similar way, unless reformation prevents.

☞ The snow storm of Wednesday night and Thursday, delayed our mails a little each way on Thursday, and did our sleighing no good, nor skating either; but made a little sleighing in Boston, where they had none before, and stopped their horse railroad, for a brief season.

☞ We have received from the author a copy of a "Sermon preached at Portland, Me., at the funeral of the Rev. Ichabod Nichols, D. D., by Andrew P. Peabody, of Portsmouth, N. H.,"—which contains a very beautiful tribute to a veteran preacher. It is advertised for sale in this city by Mr. J. H. Foster.

☞ Rev. Mr. Trask, the anti-tobacco man, has sent us a copy of the "Diary of the Rev. Solomon Spittle," with illustrations, humorous and satirical,—a laughter provoking document, hitting clerical users of the weed some back-handed love-pats.

It may not be out of place here to state that of all the pastors, belonging to the (orthodox) General Association of New Hampshire, only one is known or supposed to use tobacco in any form.

Uncle Toby suggests their example, in this respect, as worthy of imitation by all.

☞ VALUATION OF BOSTON.—The valuation of Boston in 1858 exceeded that of the entire States of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. It was one hundred millions more than that of the city of Philadelphia, and nearly thrice that of Baltimore. The valuation of Massachusetts surpassed that of New York States in 1850.

☞ Mr. Abbott, of Canaan, N. H., fell head first through the scuttle hole of his chamber floor, fracturing his skull so that he survived but a few hours.

☞ The stable of the Dartmouth Hotel, at Hanover, N. H., containing six cows, and some forty tons of hay, was destroyed by fire, on Saturday night. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

☞ A sad accident occured at Niagara Falls on Saturday. An adopted son of Mr. Gibbs, foreman of the Paper Mills, accidentally fell into the river, and was carried over the American Fall.

☞ A train of cars upon a Pennsylvania railroad, near Williamsport, ran off the track, and a passenger car, containing eight gentlemen, rolled down a precipice of seventy-five feet, turning over once and a half times in the descent. The stove, passengers and seats were driven together in one heap at the end of the car; several severe wounds were received, but no fatal effects followed.

☞ At Dubuque, Iowa, Monday, an old lady kicked a boy at whom she became angry, with such force that she ruptured a blood vessel, and died in a short time.

☞ A late Kansas letter says it is rumored that gold has been found at Topeka, on the Kansas river. Three pans of dirt yielded eleven cent's worth of the precious metal.

☞ The population of California, according to the best estimates, is 600,000.

CURIOUS CASE OF LIQUOR SEIZURE.—At Industry, Me., the house of Benj. Learned took fire and was destroyed. Eight or ten casks of liquor were saved from a cellar, but were seized by an officer. Mr. Learned was sentenced under the prohibitory law. One Richard Fosset, who attempted to save Mr. Learned by making a claim to the ownership of the liquor, was seized as a common seller, his premises searched and a barrel of liquor found. He now awaits his trial.—Portland Adv.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Counterfeit Fives on the Mechanics' Bank of Concord, N. H., were circulated extensively in this city yesterday.

☞ In Congress, on Wednesday, Feb. 2, the Senate debated the Indian Appropriation bill—and the House bill for the punishment of counterfeiters of Military land warrants, was read and passed.

In the House a bill providing for the issue of land patents to the Shawnee Indians and their naturalization as citizens of the United States, was rejected by nine majority.

Mr. Taylor of Lousiana, made an ineffectual attempt to introduce a bill providing for the acquisition of Cuba by negotiation.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Judicial, Legislative and Executive Appropriation bill.

Mr. Wright of Georgia made a speech against land monopoly and in favor of dividing the public lands among actual settlers.

A desultory debate followed.

The item of $200,000 for mileage was stricken out by nine majority.

Mr. Morris of Pennsylvania, urged a revision of the tariff as necessary for the relief of the Government. He denounced ad valorem duties as fraudulent and demoralizing and urged specific duties instead. He replied to Mr Washburne, of Maine, and regretted that any one in the opposition should throw a stumbling block in the way of its perfect union.

Mr. Dowdell of Alabama reminded Mr. Morris that one species of property was only not protected, but placed under prohibit on for fifty years. He meant the negro property of the South, which cannot rely on any national organization for safety. For this there must be a prompt and radical amendment of the organic law. It was the fixed purpose of the Republican party to imperil Southern institutions, and it was his duty to warn that section of the approach of the enemy, under the lead of the Senator from New York.

☞ The latest news from Hayti represents the revolution as progressing favorably to the Republicans, while the Emperor, at the latest dates, Jan. 11, was at Arcahaye with his army, in a very destitute condition. A skirmish had taken place between the advance guard of the two armies, and Soulouque had been defeated, many of his officers and soldiers passing over to Geffrard. The South is also marching against him; his family and treasures having been embarked on board a vessel at Port au Prince, there is no doubt of his intention of making his escape, as it is hardly probable that he will be allowed to return to Port au Prince.

It is surmised that, ere this, Geffrard might have struck a decisive blow, but that he is anxious, by a display of overwhelming force, to prevent bloodshed, and convince Soulouque of the uselessness of resistance.

A brother of Gen. Geffrard has been appointed Governor of Cape Haytien by the Republicans.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

C. C. WHITTEMORE, Agent in Portsmouth.

STEVENS' House Furnishing Establishment. The Subscriber having purchased MR. G. N. CARLETON'S entire Stock of Stoves, &c., and removed the same to his own Store, NO. 46 MARKET STREET, offers to the public a complete assortment of Furnaces, Ranges, Parlor Grates, Stoves, Tin Ware, —AND— KITCHEN FURNISHING GOODS Of All Kinds, AT GOOD BARGAINS FOR CASH. Repairing pieces for all Ranges, Furnaces, and formerly sold by MR. CARLETON, kept constantly on hand.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper. This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard. The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping. The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

JOHN P. HALE AND THE NAVY.

The American Ballot of this week "sets history right," so far as John P. Hale's agency is concerned, in getting work done at the Navy Yard at this station. The following extract from the article in the Ballot embraces the material facts:

Again: It will be seen by any one who will take the trouble to consult the records of the doings of the last session of Congress, that on the 7th of June last the following amendment to the naval appropriation bill was before the Senate:—

"That the Secretary of the Navy cause to be constructed, as speedily as may be consistent with the public interests, five steam screw sloops-of-war, with full steam power, whose greatest draught of water, in active service, shall not exceed twelve feet, and four steam screw sloops-of-war, with full steam power, whose greatest draught of water, in active service, shall not exceed fourteen feet, which ships shall combine the heaviest armament and greatest speed compatible with their character and tonnage; and, in addition thereto, one side-wheel war steamer, whose greatest draught shall not exceed eight feet, armed and provided for service in the China seas; and that there be, and is hereby, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, for the purpose above specified, the sum of $1,200,000, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated."

Mr. Hale moved to strike out that part in relation to the four additional steam vessels of fourteen feet draught, and to appropriate $300,000 to put the Franklin to sea with full steam power. He said (we quote from the Congressional Globe, part 3, 35th Congress, first session)—"We have on the stocks at Portsmouth and Kittery, a ship which has been raised down and made into what, according to the opinions of the officers of the navy, and Mr. Lenthal, the chief constructor, is as fine a model of a ship as there is in the world; and I shall propose, by direction of the naval committee, an amendment providing for an appropriation of $300,000, to put that ship to sea with full steam power."

The amendment was opposed by Mr. Mallory of Florida and other democrats, and the motion to strike out the four larger vessels was rejected. Mr. Hale again moved his amendment providing for equipping and fitting the Franklin for sea (an amendment offered by Mr. Clingman of North Carolina, to add ten gunboats, with full steam power, being under consideration) and said—"If we are going to war, we want some such ships as that (the Franklin) instead of gunboats. I wish the Senate to determine, because if they vote for the gunboats, they probably will not vote for the Franklin." The proposition to add ten gunboats was subsequently amended to substitute twenty, and was rejected, and then the proposition of Mr. Clingman, above quoted in full, to build ten steam sloops of war, was defeated—yeas 20, nays 24. Again Mr. Hale insisted upon his amendment for the equipment and fitting for sea of the Franklin, and explained to the Senate that the ship was ready to receive her masts and machinery, that she was pronounced by competent judges the finest model of a ship in existence, and that as an exhibition of naval power she would be an honor to the country. By this it will be seen that every thing possible was done by this "black republican" Senator to have the Franklin fitted for sea, and that his efforts were defeated by a democratic Senate.

But again. The ten steam sloops-of-war were put upon the ground of a war measure, and many Senators of both parties, confident that the war alarm was a humbug, opposed the bill. After the defeat of the proposition for ten steamers, Mr. Mallory of Florida moved another amendment to build five steam screw sloops-of-war, with full steam power, whose greatest draught of water should not exceed fourteen feet, and one side-wheel war steamer not to exceed eight feet draught. Mr. Hale called upon Secretary Toucey and inquired if, provided the amendment passed, one of the vessels would be built at this naval station.—Secretary Toucey replied in the negative, when Mr. Hale told him that, such being the case, the New Hampshire and Maine Senators would vote against it. Subsequently Mr. Toucey called upon Mr. Hale, in his seat in the Senate, and asked him if the votes of the New Hampshire and Maine Senators could be secured for the building of these vessels, provided one of them should be built at the Portsmouth navy yard. Mr. Hale replied that he thought they could, and Mr. Secretary then and there pledged himself to our "black republican" Senator that if by their votes the amendment should pass, (and he knew it could not pass otherwise!) one of the vessels should be built at this naval station. The amendment passed—yeas 18, nays 17—Messrs. Hale, Hamlin and Fessenden (Mr. Clark was sick at the time) voting in the affirmative. That was the way in which the building of this steam sloop-of-war was secured at our navy yard, as if either of the New Hampshire or Maine Senators had voted in opposition, the proposition to build the vessels would have been defeated. To Mr. Hale, therefore, the workingmen at our navy yard owe their job on that vessel; and yet the democratic paper here charges the Republicans with hostility to the workingmen's interests.

By a petty quibble, it will be seen that the Board of Aldermen have deprived Engine Co. No. 4 of their choice of Director for their machine, and appointed for them one the company will not consent to receive. Such is their regard for "popular sovereignty. Henry Danielson was elected by the company, but in his place the Aldermen have substituted Samuel Rowe.—Ballot.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of the city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantee of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy t an it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty-seven old; my wife is in the age of fifty two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BATHMEN, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Some time I had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 13, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my beard, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small: the small holds a pint, and retails for $1: the medium holds at least 30 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, at per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing it to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One teaspoonful of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose of the Liver Invigorator is sufficient to prevent Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to drive out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before calling gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and will warrant it a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

One water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or 1 in. of much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most confidently and unhesitatingly assert that the roofing which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe trial of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment hundreds of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are described upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great jewel of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by unscrupulous pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine, the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country by directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full access to all patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
E. H. EDDY.

NO CHANGE.

The uniform consistency and fidelity to principle of the National Democratic party is worthy of admiration. It has advanced, but has never changed.—Manchester Union.

In October, 1845, the Democratic State Convention assembled in large numbers, at Concord, and were addressed by Charles G. Atherton, Franklin Pierce (afterwards President of the United States) and others, when the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we approve of the votes of our Representatives in Congress, in favor of Mr. Wilmot's amendment to prohibit slavery in any territory that may be acquired of Mexico.

In 1847, the same party met again, and declared it "Our solemn conviction that neither slavery nor involuntary servitude should exist in any territory that may be acquired or annexed to the United States."

In 1849, when Samuel H. Ayer was Speaker, Samuel Dinsmore Governor, and William P. Weeks President of the Senate, the Legislature of New Hampshire passed three anti-slavery resolves. The first mourned over slavery in the abstract, the second declared that the Democracy were firmly and unalterably opposed to the extension of slavery over any portion of American soil now free. The third uses what is now squatter sovereignty in the following manner:

Resolved, That in our opinion Congress has the Constitutional power to abolish the slave trade and slavery in the District of Columbia.

In 1859, Jan. 6, the New Hampshire Democratic State Convention resolved—

Unabated confidence in the correctness of the great principle of popular sovereignty, and 'we utterly repudiate the claim put forth by the self-styled Republican party, that Congress has any constitutional power to interfere with or control the domestic institutions or local affairs either of the States or Territories.'

About the same time, the Maine Democratic legislative Convention

Resolved, That it is our deliberate and fixed purpose to declare that Congress should, in no event, pass any act to establish, protect or sustain slavery in the territories of the United States, or to exclude it therefrom.

The editor of the Portland Argus, commenting on the Maine Convention's squatter sovereignty, says:

The declaration that the people of a territory may "exclude" slavery by positive legislation, prior to the adoption of a constitution and admission as a State, is not in accordance with the views of any prominent Democratic statesman, so far as I am aware, (Mr. Douglas does not go so far as I understand him,) and is in direct conflict with the decision of the Supreme Court.

The same paper says:

If representatives desire to declare their views, they unquestionably have the right. It would be well for them, however, it seems to me, to do it with some deliberation, and to take care that they don't unintentionally jump off the platform on which they were elected, and on which their party in the State and nation stands. If they undertake to declare principles of constitutional law, it would be particularly desirable for them to state distinctly whether they mean to be understood as setting forth their own opinions only, or as intending to state those principles as they understand them to have been decided by the judicial tribunals whose province it is to declare them.

If we understand the Argus, the Dred Scott decision is the real platform of its democratic party.

☞ A writer in the American Agriculturalist speaks of Rockingham as the best fruit-growing county in this State. He names Chester, Derry and Deerfield as the best towns in the western, and Stratham and Greenland the best in the eastern part of the county. Fruit raising requires attention, and it can be made an extensive and profitable business in New Hampshire.

☞ The Montreal Advertiser urges a contribution for the benefit of the Misses Begg, Burns's sister's children, who have witnessed, from a condition of actual indigence, an ovation to their uncle, one-hundredth part of which would have lifted them from bitter poverty.

☞ Wm. Prescott Hinds, of Philadelphia, deceased, left an estate valued at over a million of dollars. He gave a thousand dollars to his minister, eleven houses to his wife, fifteen houses to a married daughter, and an odd dozen or so to another, unmarried, to be held in trust until her majority.

☞ The British Standard says an offer has been made Mr. Spurgeon of $10,000 to preach four discourses in Music Hall, New York.

☞ In the U.S. Senate, Thursday, Feb. 3, Mr. Gwin moved to reconsider the vote by which the Agricultural College bill was recommitted, which was carried by 27 against 26.

The bill was then re-discussed, and amended, when its further consideration was postponed till Monday, that Mr. Clay may speak on it, he thinking it a monstrous, iniquitous and dangerous measure.

The Indian Appropriation bill was passed.

Mr. Yulee, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Post Offices, is preparing a bill for postal reform. The proposition of a uniform increase of letter postage to five cents, has not been agreed to; a desire being expressed to have two rates—three cents under three hundred miles, and five cents for over that distance.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Executive appropriation bill.

After the debate, the item of $5000 for boxes for members to send public documents home in, was stricken out.

An amendment, to strike out $12,000 for newspapers, for the use of members, was rejected.

The Committe rose without coming to any conclusion on the bill.

The Southern Democracy are jubilant over the result of the Senate caucus in which it was decided not to make any change in the revenue laws, and they give great credit to Mr. Hunter, of Virginia, for "the firm stand" he made against the scheme of what they call "the plunderers and protectionists." The Washington States says:

"We hear without surprise that the Pennsylvania protectionists are in a state of extreme indignation. A leader among them, who claims to be a Democrat, exclaimed in the House of Representatives that he would never vote for a Southern man for President. From the same interest we hear many threats of retaliation, by rejecting all the appropriation bills, and opposing every expedient for raising a revenue except upon their own plan of specifics and protection. Their policy is to compel the call of an extra session—the probability being that they may succeed with a Black Republican Congress. On the other side, the friends of free trade and economical administration are exultant over the action of the Senate caucus. They accept it as a guaranty of the triumph of their policy."

☞ Peterson's Magazine for March is already issued, and may be had at the Periodical Depots, or of the publisher, Philadelphia. Only $2 per year, and little if any inferior to the best $3 magazines of the same sort. The terms to clubs are very liberal—and it is not too late now to get us lists for 1859. Three copies $5, 8 $10, 16 $20. Address Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia.

☞ The Ladies' Charitable Society, of Rye, are to hold a Social Levee, at the Surf House, near the Ocean House, Rye Beach, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Feb. 15th and 16th, if fair weather—if not, on the first fair evening thereafter. Admission 15 cents. The Hall will be decorated, and Refreshments and Fancy Articles for sale.

☞ The author of the very pretty and extensively quoted poetical gem, "Over the River," which appeared originally in the Springfield Republican, is Miss Nancy A. W. Priest of Hinsdale, N. H. She is a factory operative, and has had no advantages of education save those afforded by a district school. She deserves a better chance to court the muses.

☞ Gen. Case has been attacked twice lately with apoplectic symptoms, and the other night he was compelled to have the doctor with him all night, and till late in the morning. His friends were much alarmed; as yet, however, the fact has been kept out of the newspapers.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the News says there is a painful rumor flying about, which connects the name of one of the leading diplomatists now in Washington with an intrigue far more complimentary to his successful gallantry than to his morality.

☞ The lumbermen and mechanics of Richmond, Me., have opened a new branch of business. They have set men to work building houses for exportation. They entirely complete the houses, even to the finest of the finish, and box them up. Last year $25,000 were received for that kind of produce.

☞ A family, consisting of the old folks and three children (Irish) were found in a tenement, consisting of a single room, in Manchester, on Monday, having no food and only, a pint of rum.

☞ The Manchester Union says "Sherburne Dearborn, now confined in Amherst jail, always voted the Abolition ticket."

GETTING TO HEAVEN.

At the late Festival of the Burns Club, in Boston, James Russell Lowell read an admirable Poem, from which we extract a pleasant and significant allegory.

As I sat musing what to say,
And how my verse to number,
Some elf in play passed by that way
And sank my lids in slumber;
And on my sleep a vision stole
Which I will put in metro,
Of Burns's soul at the wicket-hole
Where sits the good St. Peter.

The saint, methought, had left his post
That day to Holy Willie, [toast
Who swore, 'Each ghost that comes shall
In brimstone, will he, nill he;
There's name need hope with phrases fine,
Their score to wipe a sin frae;
I'll chalk a sign, 'tis save their tryin,'
A hand ☞ and Vide Infra."

Alas! no soil's too cold or dry
For spiritual small potatoes,
Scrimped natures spry, the trade to ply
Of diaboli advocatus,
Who lay bent pins on the penance-stool
Where Mercy spreads a cushion,
Who've just one rule for knave or fool,
It saves so much confusion!

So as Burns knocked, Will knit his brows,
His window gap made scanter,
And said, "Go rouse the other house,
We lodge no Tam O'Shanter!" [see
'We lodge?' laughed Burns, 'now well I
Death cannot kill old nature,
No human flea, but thinks that he May speak for his Creator!

"But Willie, friend, don't turn me forth,
Auld Clootie needs no gauger,
And if on earth I had small worth,
You've let in worse, I'll wager!"
"Na, nane has knockit at the yett
But found me hard as whunstane,
There's chances yet, your bread to get
Wi' Auld Nick, gaugin' brunstane."

Meanwhile the unco' guid had ta'en
Their place to watch the process,
Flattening in vain on many a pane,
Their disembodied noses;
Remember, please, 'tis all a dream,
One can't control the fancies [gleam
Through sleep that stream, with wayward
Like midnight boreal dances.

Old Willie's tone grew sharp's a knife,
"In primis, I indite ye
For makin' strife with the water of life,
And preferin' aqua vitæ."
Then roared a voice with lusty din
Like a skipper's when 'tis blowy,
"If that's a sin, I'd ne'er ha' got in,
As sure as my name's Noah!"

Sly Willie turned another leaf,—
"There's many here have heard ye,
To the pain and grief o' true belief,
Say hard things o' the clergy!"
Then rang a clear tone over all,—
"One plea for him allow me,
I once heard call from o'er me, 'Saul,
Why persecutest thou me?'"

To the next charge vexed Willie turned,
And, sighing, wiped his glasses,—
"I'm much concerned to find ye yearned
O'ermuch tow'rd the lasses!"
But David cried, "Your ledger shut,
E'en Adam fell by woman,
And hearts close shut with if and but,
If sale, are not so human!"

Then sudden glory round me broke,
And low melodious surges,
Of wings whose stroke to splendor woke
Creation's farthest verges;
A cross stretched, ladderlike, secure
From earth to heaven's own portal,
Whereby God's poor, with footing sure,
Climbed up to peace immortal.

I heard a voice serene and low,
(With my heart I seemed to hear it,)
Fall soft and slow, as snow on snow,
Like grace of the heavenly spirit;
As sweet as over new-born son
The croon of a new-made mother,
The voice begun, "sore tempted one!"
Then, pausing, sighed, 'our brother!'
"If not a sparrow fall, unless
The father sees and knows it,
Think! rocks he less his form express?
The soul, his own deposite?
If only dear to him the strong,
That never trip nor wander, [song
Where were the throng whose morning
Thrills his blue arches yonder?

Do souls alone clear-eyed, strong-kneed,
To him true service render?
And they who need his hand to lead,
Find they his heart untender?
Through all your various ranks and fates,
He opens doors to duty,
And he that waits there at your gates
Was servant of His Beauty.

"He scant his service at the kirk,
He gaters heard and aves
From choirs that lurk in hedge and birk,
From blackbird and from mavis;
The cowering mouse, poor unroofed thing
In him found mercy's angel,
The daisy's ring brought every spring,
To him Faith's bright evangel!

"Not the threatening texts who deals
Is highest among the preachers,
But he who feels the woes and weals
Of all God's wandering creatures;
He doth good work whose heart can find
The spirit 'neath the letter;
Who makes his kind of happier mind,
Leaves wiser men and better.

"They make Religion be abhorred
Who round with darkness gull her,
And think no word can please the Lord
Unless it smell of sulphur;
Dear Poet-heart, that childlike guessed
The Father's loving kindness,
Come now to rest! thou didst his best,
If hasty 'twas in blindness?"

Then leapt Heaven's portals wide apart,
And, at their golden thunder,
With sudden start I woke, my heart
Still throbbing, full of wonder:
"Father?" I said, "'tis known to thee
How thou thy Saints preparest,
But this I see—Saint Charity
Is still the first and fairest!"

FROM KANSAS.—St. Louis, Feb. 3.—Highly flattering accounts continue to be received from the Kansas gold mines. A new and remarkably rich quartz vein has been discovered at Ralston Fork, and shot gold is said to abound in several other localities.

Advices from Fort Defiance say the Nevajo Indians acknowledge the loss, during the late war, of 200 men, and live stock and grain to the value of upwards of $100,000. Col. Yost doubts the policy of exacting the harsh terms of the recent treaty.

Advices from Leavenworth say that Osawatomie Brown, who had been pursued to to Eureka, and was at one time surrounded by the Deputy Marshal's posse, had succeeded in making his escape into Nebraska.

POSITIVELY FOR ONE WEEK ONLY.

Admission 15 Cents. Package Tickets, Ten for $1.00. Children admitted on Wednesday and Saturday Afternoon, at 3 o'clock, for 6 cents.

Mr. Rufus Somerby will deliver a Lecture at each Exhibition, descriptive of the various deeply exciting scenes.

Miss E. B. Somerby the great Contralto Vocalist, will appear at each Exhibition and introduce a number of popular and appropriate Songs, Ballads, &c.

Prof. Young, the great modern Magician, will introduce his feats of magic and surprising deceptions, which defy detection.

Signor Vivaldi will introduce the AUTOMATON RAVEL FAMILY!—truly wonderful as a triumph of mechanical ingenuity.

☞ This Painting is from the Pencil of the most distinguished English Artists, and was exhibited in London 200 nights with a success which has never been paralleled. Messrs. Goodwin and Somerby, hearing of its excellence, commissioned an agent to proceed at once to England and negotiate for its purchase, with a view to its exhibition in this country. He succeeded in effecting its purchase at an immense expense, and the proprietors now offer it for exhibition to the public of New England, confident that it will meet with the success which its intrinsic excellence merits.

DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Charles A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill perfectly safe and sure.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian, artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

VENEREAL DISEASES.—The horrible results of this social pestilence are everywhere to be seen; and the usual remedies are nearly if not quite as bad as the disease. The PERUVIAN SYRUP, by its alterative action, purifies the blood, and surely eliminates the poison, by the stimulation of the natural secretory organs. It cannot but be beneficial.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

R. R. R.
HEREDITARY DISEASES.

A young gentleman, now at the St. Nicholas, had been afflicted with Salt Rheum from his birth. The first five years, it appeared in his hands only, —he is now twenty-three. On the first day of June, when he commenced the use of R. R. Remedies, it had spread all over his body. Six days' use of Radway's Renovating Resolvent and Regulators, proved their wonderful efficacy. The skin assumed its natural condition, felt moist and healthy. In twelve days the poisonous Rheum was entirely eradicated from his system.

Persons suffering with skin diseases of long standing, with Chronic diseases from their birth, supposed to be transmitted to them by their diseased sires, will find all that have never impregnated with poisonous virus their system may be, Radway's Renovating Resolvent will cleanse, renovate, resolve, rebuild, and restore the weak and unsound and diseased organs to a pure, healthy and strong condition.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of Dr. CHEESEMAN'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietor, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Blotches, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, distilled in London, from malted Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste which vendors the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STONE, KIDNEY DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounced Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of immitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. R. Tucker, 24 Kim st; J. Morse, 116 Blackstone st; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st; R. IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS,

PREPARED BY CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, M. D., NEW-YORK CITY.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice.—They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

TO MARRIED LADIES.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills are invaluable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have used them have no hesitation in the use of other Pills, can place the utmost confidence in Dr. Cheeseman's Pills doing all they represent to do.

NOTICE.

They should not be used during Pregnancy, as a miscarriage would certainly result therefrom. Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by one Druggist in every town in the United States.

LOCAL.

LAST CHANCE.—The last exhibition of the Panorama of the India War in this city will take place at the Temple, this evening. This magnificent combination of attractions well deserves the great success it has met with; the enterprising manager, Mr. Rufus Somerby, has spared neither pains nor expense to make it worthy of public patronage. All who have not visited it should do so to-night, or they will lose a rich treat.

There will be an exhibition at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when children will be admitted for the low price of six cents each.

MORE BIRCH.

A few days ago we published, from the Portland Advertiser, a statement that a Mrs. Birch, of that city, "a medium," had left her husband, as directed "by the spirits."

On our fourth page to-day, we copy Mr. Birch's contradiction of the statement, from the Boston Journal.

And now we copy the following from the Portland Advertiser of Feb. 4:

Mr. Birch labors very hard to prove himself a liar. We do not know whether the statement in our paper was true or not, for it was taken verbatim from the lips of Mr. Birch himself, and Mr. Birch, we now see, is not to be believed. In the presence of three responsible persons he dictated the statement, and was very urgent to have it published. He gave the name of the Judge, and of the avenue (Harrison), also the names of the two Doctors, and requested that they might be published, but we thought best to leave them out. Every word in the statement comes from Mr. Birch's own lips. Furthermore, one of the gentlemen present at the time gave him a letter to the marshal of Boston, requesting him to assist Mr. B. to trace out his wife. In justice to ourself we feel called upon to state the above facts, leaving Mr. B. to reconcile his diverse statements as he best can.

Mrs. Birch may be well enough, and the spirits also,—but Mr. Birch is no where. This birch broom is used up.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA—OVERLAND.—St. Louis, Feb. 3.—The overland mail, with San Francisco dates of the 10th ult., has arrived.

The trip was made in 23 days, including 22 hours' detention.

Paul C. Shore was killed in Santa Clara county, California, on the 6th, by Thomas Beals. There was great excitement in consequence, and the military had to be called out to protect the prisoner, who was conveyed to prison at San Jose.

Rumors were prevalent in the city of San Francisco that three hundred prisoners in the Penitentiary had been accidentally poisoned by the use of some chemical mixed in the flour. There was doubtless some truth in the rumor, but the matter was greatly exaggerated.

The sloop-of-war Vandalia had left for Guycomo to relieve the St. Marys.

The Probate Judge of Carson Valley had published a card declaring his intention to perform the duties of his office without fear or favor from any man. A collision between him and the anti-Mormons was regarded as inevitable.

Gen. Kibbe was still prosecuting the war against the Indians in the north, with great success. His troops had killed quite a number, and taken 200 prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The House Committee on Commerce have decided to report the Senate Fishing Bounty Abolition bill by a vote of five against three, Mr. Washburn being absent. An attempt to amend by postponing the bill for two years was lost, but will be urged in the House, and if carried the bill may fail between the Senate and House.

A caucus of the House Democrats will meet to-morrow to discuss the tariff. The Pennsylvania Democrats propose to meet by themselves for conference. It is said they will be satisfied if they can get iron on the 30 per cent. schedule.

The Senate committee have authorized their chairman to report a bill arranging the collection districts, designating ports of entry and delivery, and regulating the appointment of officers of Customs, etc.—The Senate bill reduces the salaries of all the officers from the Collectors to the tide-waiters, diminishing the clerical and other force nearly one-third.

In the Senate Mr. McCandless was confirmed as District Judge of Pennsylvania, vice Irwin, resigned. Judge Black was confirmed as Governor of Nebraska.

The statement that the Republicans have held a conference on the Oregon bill, and decided to go for it, is untrue. There has been no change among them on that subject.

☞ Of the $27,000 it was proposed to raise in New England, in aid of Antioch College, all but five thousand dollars has been secured. There has been a number of donations of $1000 each, and several of $500.

LOST,—On Thursday evening, somewhere between 35 Market street and 54 State street, a GOLD SEAL, with a red stone on one side and a green one on the other. The finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving it at this office. tf

SEWING MACHINE CO.,
18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON,

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale
A NEW STYLE MACHINE;
PRICE $50.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They
HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH
in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form, combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE
A Carpet Sweeper.

From the N. H. Gazette.

The Axe Has Fallen.

We have received official information from the Collector of Customs at this port, that Hon. Howell Cobb, the distinguished Secretary of the Treasury, is of opinion that the interests of this Administration would be furthered by the removal of our humble self from the position of Inspector of Customs, and that in order the more effectually to accomplish said laudable object, the Honorable Secretary aforesaid, directs and ordains that said Inspectorship be temporarily abolished, and that we be informed that the general government has no further need of our services in any official capacity whatsoever.

Well, what of it? Better men than we have been removed from more desirable offices than this, and, possibly, upon pretences even less creditable to the appointing power. The position of Inspector, with its $1095.00 per year and moderate duties connected therewith, was a tolerably desirable situation, we confess, and we rather dislike to part with it; but we have all along felt that we could not afford to pay the high premium demanded by this Administration as the condition upon which its favors can be enjoyed. But we will not waste too much time and space on a matter which, after all, is of no moment, except as it may be regarded as indicative of the feelings of the Administration toward the Democracy of this State, and of its disposition to peddle its little remnant of patronage in such a way as to gratify the spite and malice of a handful of poisonous reptiles who have been warmed into life and nursed with vigor on the breasts of sundry old ladies at Washington. We have been removed from our office because of our incompetency to advocate a falsehood and defend a lie; because, despite of threats from enemies and hints from friends, we have dared now and then to say a few words in defence of the party platform, upon which this Administration was elected; because we dared to express our dissent to the policy of making Lecompton a test of party fidelity; because we dared to express our political sympathy for the lion-hearted champion of POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY, Stephen A. Douglas, when single handed he was fighting the battles of Democracy upon the prairies of Illinois against the foulest coalition that ever disgraced the political records of a free people; because we dared to wish him God-speed while the contest was raging, and when the flag he bore waved in triumph over a scattered and a conquered foe, we cared not to conceal our rejoicings; because we dared to denounce the new and damnable doctrine of a Congressional Slave Code;—because, in short, we have dared to adhere to the principles, and rebuke departure from the time-honored usages of the party. And for this our head falls into the basket!

Very well, we shall survive the operation, and shall never for a moment falter in our fidelity to the Democratic party, which is no more responsible for this than for many other acts of a like character. If our removal under the circumstances which we have stated, were the meanest or the most impolitic act of which the present Administration has been guilty, we would still throw our hat high in air, and make the welkin ring with hurrahs for James Buchanan.

From the N. H. Gazette.

Postmasters to be Removed.

Edmund Burke has returned from Washington labelled "A GENUINE DEMOCRAT" by the hands of the Administration. He boasted in the cars, on his return, that "he had effected the removal of ourself as a sure thing, and that the President was investigating charges of Douglasism against the Postmasters of Manchester and Nashua, and would probably decapitate them before our State election, i season to let the Democratic party of this State understand who is the legitimate head of the party."

Burke is a notorious liar, and without better evidence than his word, no man who knows him either personally or by reputation, would believe the simplest assertions he might make; but the fact that the first part of his prediction proved true, renders it not improbable that the whole may be so. If it be so, we hope the axe will fall as soon as the Administration can get ready for the business. The Democracy of this State are already under obligations to the Administration for essential service in this line, and when the proper time comes will signify their gratitude in some proper manner. But we are inclined to believe Burke slanders the Administration in this instance; if he does not, it is the first case in the history of that backbiting biped, when favors and kindness were not speedily repaid with slanderous ingratitude.—We shall see how it is.

IN THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, the following subjects were brought up:

Extensions of State to Cass street; the several recommendations of the Mayor's address; Hammer of North Bell; New School House on Cabot st. Repairs on School House on State street. All referred to appropriate committees.

Alterations at High School House,—voted to take away the partition between the boys' recitation room and the entry. Sent to Com. Council.

Petition of Dr. Baker and others, relative to shade trees, laid on the table.

ODD FELLOWS' LEVEE.—The members of this order who have participated in the festive occasions which have from time occurred among the fraternity, will be pleased to learn that another social gathering is anticipated. It is to be a social reunion of the members of the two Lodges in this city and their ladies, together with those of Lodges in other places who may be pleased to join the festivities. The general committee of arrangements are Messrs. A. F. Nowell, Samuel G. Folsom, and others, who propose to hold the Levee in Congress Hall on Thursday evening, Feb. 17th, and will announce the particulars of the affair next week.

YOUNG GRIMES.

BY R. F. SHILLABER.

Old Grimes is dead, that good old man,
We ne'er shall see him more;
But he has left a son, who bears
The name that old Grimes bore.

He wears a coat of latest cut,
His hat is new and gay,
He cannot bear to view distress,
So turns from it away.

His pants are gaiters, fitting snug
O'er patent leather shoes;
His hair is by a barber curled;
He smokes cigars, and chews.

A chain of massy gold is borne
Above his flashy vest;
His clothes are better every day
Than were old Grimes's best.

In Fashion's courts he constant walks,
Where he delight doth shed;
His hands are white and very soft,
But softer is his head.

He's six feet tall, no post more straight,
His teeth are pearly white;
In habits he is sometimes loose,
And sometimes very tight.

His manners are of sweetest grace,
His voice of softest tone;
His diamond pin's the very one
That old Grimes used to own.

A dicky tall adorns his face,
His neck a scarf of blue;
He sometimes goes to church, for change
And sleeps in Grimes's pew.

He sports the fastest "crab" in town,
Is always quick to bet:
He never knows who's President,
But thinks "Old Tip's" yet.

He has drunk wines of every kind,
And liquors cold and hot;
Young Grimes, in short, is just that sort
Of man Old Grimes was not.

LETTER FROM REUBEN BIRCH.—To the Editors of the Boston Journal:—I wish as a matter of justice to Mrs. Birch, my wife, to contradict the statement copied into your paper and others from the Portland Advertiser, as to our domestic affairs.—It is false in every particular, except the fact that we are not at present living together. There was no "order from the spirits" in the case, nor had her being a medium anything to do with the matter. The statement that we "had lived happily together for five years" is not true. I confess that for most of the time since our marriage her life was made very unhappy by my unkind treatment of her; and that, had I conducted myself towards her as a husband should, we might have lived as happily as man and woman could wish.—I now deeply regret my misconduct, knowing that this alone caused her to leave me.

She has ever been faithful to me, doing always much more for my support and comfort than I deserved; and I utterly disown ever having thought of her, being at any time unfaithful to me. A statement which casts a slur upon her character is entirely unfounded. I did not find her at the house of "a certain judge," and never saw her with any such parties as was represented.

She refuses to live with me until she can have confidence in my reformation—with which I am content, for it is all I can reasonably ask. And I fully intend to live such a life as in the future that I shall regain her confidence; and then I feel sure there will be no cause for a continued separation. REUBEN BIRCH.

Boston, Feb. 1, 1859.

STEADINESS OF PURPOSE.—It overcomes difficulties—not with a rush and a shout, but one by one. They melt away before the steady radiance of the sun. It gives one the strength of a happy conscience.—A weather-cock of a man, whiffling about with every breeze, cannot have true quietness of mind. Dissatisfaction worries and annoys him; but a cheerful vigor and energy grows out of intelligent and unvarying purpose. It gives dignity and honor to a character. Men cannot but admire the mind that marches steadily on through sunshine and shade, calms, smiles and frowns, glad for favor, but pressing on without it—thankful for aid, but fixed on advancing, at all events. Such men cut out for themselves a character which cannot but be seen and honored. It gives success. In any enterprise that is not downright madness, such a man must succeed. He has the chief element of triumph over every difficulty, and if he is not an idiot, he will do something in the world. But he will reach them. He moves not rapidly, but assuredly. When you want to find him by-and-by, you know where to look. You will look at the topmost round of the ladder of success, and you will find him about there somewhere.

A paper before us denounces Col. Forney as a traitor because he proposes to Democrats a disregard of caucuses and conventions in the election of President—as Gen. Jackson was elected—and praises other men as patriots who propose, if their feelings are not gratified in the presidential election, to unfurl the rebel flag and lead their respective States out of the Union! Forney may be in a "grave error" and the other gentlemen may be very smart, but he is as far from being a traitor as they are from being patriots or democrats.—Bath Times.

A GOOD LEVELLER!—The prince and beggar smoke! The saint and sinner smoke! The sage and savage smoke!—Bishops, doctors, deacons, lawyers smoke? Little, ragged, dingy, thieving, swearing boys smoke! Blackguards smoke, here, there, and everywhere! This is equality to your heart's content!—Anti-Tobacco Tracts.

No man has a right to do as he pleases, except when he pleases to do right.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks strongly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BANGOR, ME., Jan. 20, 1858.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used none. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to question my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one in my adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. EATMON.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

EDMUND JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the large holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for 75; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying healthy and a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, nourishing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and a cure continues.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to convince one of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all yellowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints fall in almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD Proprietor. 346 Broadway, N. Y.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purpose, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its peculiar value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or Tin, at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article above mentioned, bring to your notice by and before anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment hundreds of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by others, have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing eyes.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying health, that is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE REGULATING PILLS.—These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserably inexperienced persons, who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 1ly

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below even prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITIES, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1859.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

PRIVATE CLAIMS.

In Congress, the delay of public business is bad enough, but the hindrance to the consideration of private claims is much worse. Under the present system the disposition of a private bill is little less than a miracle. A case of this kind before Congress is worse then one in the English chancery court, and the prospect of justice or a final settlement quite as remote. The private calendar of Congress now contains more than 400 bills, and many of these have been on the calendar for years, and in waiting to have them adjusted, parties have become pecuniarily ruined, broken down in health, and not a few sent to their graves.

By a rule of the House of Representatives, says the Atlas, Friday and Saturday of each week should be devoted to the consideration of private bills—on each alternate Friday an objection to a bill made by a single member, is sufficient to prevent its consideration for that day. The practical operation of the rule is this: On Saturdays the House generally adjourns over, so that day is lost. Every other Friday being objection day, Mr. Jones of Tennessee makes it his business to object to nearly every bill in the calendar which is called up. He has been notorious for this for years, and though he may have, by this method, prevented the consummation of some plunder projects, he has doubtless killed as many just and meritorious measures.

When Jones does not object, in half the instances an objection is made by some other member, who does it because he also has a private bill which he has failed to get considered, and he determines that no one else shall have a favor which is denied to himself. On those days that are not objection days, unfinished business, special orders and long speeches usually suffice to waste the time of the House, and no progress is made. All the members are not equally to blame for this, as part of it is due to the peculiar rules of the House, which seem to have been constructed expressly to prevent the transaction of business.

They may be characterized as the perfection of a codified system of laws governing the science of "how not to do it."

IRISH-AMERICAN INVASION.—The Daily Express says it has been favored with the following extract taken from the letter of an Irish emigrant from the county of Mayo, and now residing at Pigua. Its correspondent states that the event is looked forward to with confidence by the lower order in the locality:

The Irish-Americans are going home next summer to visit their native country, in their American uniform, all armed.—What will happen I know not. I would like to be of their number. There will be several ship loads, and they are to land in Galway. It is our opinion you will see Ireland free before this day twelve-month. You will see hot work there this summer. The Irish-Americans will try to free it if possible.

☞ The Great Cuba bill does not go much more smoothly than Locompton.—Alluding to this subject, the Charleston Mercury, the leading Southern State Rights' paper, and a warm advocate for the acquisition of Cuba, some circumstance, holds this language:

"To our understanding, the whole scheme now before the country, is impracticable and visionary. However disposed the North might be to obtain 'the ever faithful isle' on account of the advantages, commercial and for defence, that anti-slavery section, having control of our government, is not prepared to buy and annex Cuba, as additional slave States to the Union, and never will be. Spain, too is bitterly opposed to selling. Without war, Great Britain and France will not permit its forcible seizure. The United States are not ready, either to seize Cuba, for the short comings and impertinences of Spain, or to fight those powers. * * * In fact, we regard the project now on foot, and under the present circumstances, as a mere scheme of politicians for moving the political waters in this country. Mr. Slidell and other Presidential aspirants will derive incidental prominence by leading a popular current of feeling, no matter how vile and vain. Douglas, too, in his treacherous designs against the South, strives to eke out his miserable short lion's skin of spurious Democracy, by the additional patching of this cheap vulpine ultraism of an impracticable hobby. But the great object sought is to raise new issues—to assuage sectional feeling—to change it possible, the front of parties—or, at any rate, under the clouds of confusion and distraction, to effect once more a party triumph without the hazards of the fatal issues of the past."

☞ The Michigan Legislature have voted $15,000 for the Gratiot county destitute.

CONGRESS, Friday, Feb. 4.—Senate.—Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, reported from the Committee on Public Lands the House Homestead bill, without amendment, and gave notice that he would call up the Senate bill on the same subject at the earliest opportunity.

The private calendar was considered, and the following bills, among others, were passed:

Bill to quit the land titles, under the Ashburton treaty, in the disputed territory in Maine.

The bill for the relief of the captain and crew of brig General Armstrong, appropriating $60,000, was passed, 23 against 11. Adjourned.

House.—The committee on elections reported in favor of Mr. B. C. Chapman, who contests the seat of Mr. Ferguson, the sitting member from Nebraska.

The House then took up the private calendar. A number of private bills were passed. Adjourned.

WASHINTON, Feb. 4.—The House Committee on Military Affairs have decided against the President's recommendation to establish military posts in Sonora and Chihuahua.

The Committee on Ways and Means did nothing to-day on the subject of the Tariff.

The Senate on Territories are adverse to organizing territorial governments, for Colona, or Pike's Peak county.

The House Select Committee to invistigate the alleged abuses in connection with the Navy Department have examined 80 or 90 witnesses, at the rate of ten a day, and expect to complete their labors towards the end of next week.

A GOOD MIRROR.—The Washington States of Wednesday evening publishes a letter from Mr. Buchanan, dated Feb., 1853, urging economy in the public expenditures. He then said:

These expenditures have now reached the enormous sum of fifty millions of dollars per annum, and unless arrested in their advance by the strong arm of Democracy, may, in a few years, reach one hundred millions.

The Atlas remarks:

The difficulty is, that both of the strong arms of the party have been plunged into the Treasury so vigorously that there is nothing left in it. Will Mr. Buchanan review his letter of 1853?

☞ The Secretary of the Treasury has made his reply to Congress. He goes for a re-issue and increase of treasury notes, increase of postage, &c.

Senator Toombs intends, early next week, to bring forward a Bankrupt Bill, and sustain it by a speech. It is similar in its details to the one matured by the Committee on the Judiciary at the last session. Although there is much pressure of public business, some of the prominent friends of the measure, in both houses, if it is presented, think the bill can be passed, provided its advocates act with zeal. It is claimed that the Senate being opposed to interference with the tariff, gives the bill additional strength.

FIGHT IN MANCHESTER, N. H.—A party of North street and other "roughs" left Boston Friday morning to engage in a prize fight for $50 a side. A match had been made between Dan Kerrigan, an experienced member of the P. R., and Jones of South Boston, an amateur. The fight lasted half an hour, and Kerrigan won the fight. Kerrigan's last previous fight was in New Orleans, where he was the victor. It is not probable the police of Manchester knew much about it, till the party had gone.

IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT.—In the Rhode Island Legislature notice has been given of an intention to introduce a bill abolishing imprisonment for debt. The Providence Journal says: "While earnestly hoping that the really humane efforts of the honorable gentleman may be crowned with entire success, we fear that the barbarous statute has too many friends to be overthrown at this session of the General Assembly."

A RAILWAY SUICIDE.—John Martin of New Bedford, 30 years of age, deliberately laid himself on the track of the New Bedford and Taunton Railroad, just as the freight train was approaching, Thursday afternoon, and was crushed to death. He had previously been ejected from a passenger car for non-payment of fare.

☞ They read so much Latin and Greek at the English Universities that they forget how to write English. A head master at Cambridge recently affixed this notice to the panels at the entrance of a certain college chapel: "On Sunday morning next, chapel will commence at 10 o'clock, and continue until further notice."

☞ During the year 1858, thirty-five persons of one hundred years and upwards died within the United States.

☞ The Maine Temperance Journal has an article against Alcoholic Drink in the Communion, and quotes a resolution passed by the East Maine Conference at its session in April last:

"Resolved, That we recommend to all our Churches in this Conference, and urgently insist upon the entire abandonment of alcoholic wines and intoxicating beverages for holy and sacramental purposes."

A correspondent thinks Temperance will suffer from being "treated as something which does not practically enter into our political or religious relations in life; but as something too good for politics, and hardly respectable enough for religion—a 'poor but virtuous' orphan thing, barely kept from starving between the two."

☞ The Milford Republican tells the following tough story. If it be all correct, the machine must be tougher still.

Mr. George Kenney of this town, has invented, and is about to take out a patent for a new stump-pulling machine, which puts all the implements for this purpose far in the shade. It can be applied alike to pulling stumps, moving buildings, pressing hay, or almost any other purpose for which a great power is wanted. It is arranged with a windlass and can be operated by hand or horse power. The other day he attached it to a train of fourteen loaded cars, with the brakes all down, and some of the hindmost cars with the wheels trigged, but when the machine started, the cars moved by a power perfectly irresistible.

He also hitched it to a locomotive and tender, in Nashua, weighing about 41 tons, on an up grade of 25 feet to the mile, with a sanded track, and having on 70 pounds of steam; and three persons on the levers moved it right along without any trouble whatever.

☞ The editor of the Portland Argus, writing from Richmond, Va., says of the State House,—

It is a good-looking edifice, though not distinguished for architectural beauty.—Within it is Houdon's statue of Washington, modelled from nature, and regarded as the most accurate representation of the Father of His Country in existence. Indeed, the features of his face should be perfectly correct, as they were taken by plaster casts from the living man.

I was quite surprised to find soldiers on guard about the State House, and on inquiry I learned that the State maintains a standing army of two companies, which guard the prison and other public buildings. Kentucky formerly had troops of her own in constant service, and may have them still, but with this probable exception, no other State in the Union, I believe, has what can in any proper sense be called a standing army.—The Virginian companies are called State Guards.

☞ A Mr. Timberman, of Cincinnati, Ohio, having lost some money, went to a fortune teller to learn who took it. Acting upon the advice of this impostor, he accused a respectable citizen with his wife and her sister, of having taking the money, and they have instituted proceedings against him for slander, laying their damages at $50,000.

☞ Messrs. Abraham Flavell and J. Decker, Second Adventists, have issued a circular called "The Time Messenger," containing 28 columns of arguments and figures, to demonstrate that the second coming of Christ will be during the Passover of the present year.

☞ Miss Burdett Coutts has lately taken under her patronage a Liverpool street beggar, a cripple, who used to move along the streets in a small cart, propelling himself by handles. He played on the accordeon, and with such skill as to attract the attention of the eccentric lady, who now introduces him for the first time into fashionable society.

☞ The Burlington Times says, "We have 'tried on' with some pertinacity the use of the word telegram for telegraph, and frankly admit that we don't like it, and can't 'get used it;' and we write this paragram to let the world know it."

☞ About 80,000 pair of brogans and shoes are made annually in Farmington, N. H.; at about 15 cents a pair average, furnishing work to 600 men, women and boys. In Northwood they make 300,000 pair of walking shoes, at about 25 cents per pair, employing about 600 persons.

☞ That valuable repository of useful knowledge, the American Almanac, for 1859, is just received from Crosby, Nichols & Company, publishers, Boston.—Among other things, it contains valuable indices to the 10 vols. from 1850 to 1859, A set of this work is a desirable library for every editor, every historian, ever politician.

ROGUERY AT RINDGE, N. H.—The store of S. B. Sherwin, of Rindge, N. H., was entered on Tuesday night by thieves. Also a blacksmith's shop and a carpenter's shop. The amount stolen is not yet ascertained.

IMMORTELLES.

SELECTED FOR THE CHRONICLE,

BY ALBERT LAIGHTON.

PRAYER.

Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed—
The mo ion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

Prayer is the burthen of a sigh,
The falling of a tear—
The upward glancing of an eye,
Where none but God is near.

Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try—
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

LOVE.

Love he comes, and Love he tarries,
Just as fate or fancy carries;
Longest stays when sorest childden;
Laughs and flies when pressed and bidden.

LIFE.

We are born; we laugh; we weep;
We love; we droop; we die!
Ah! wherefore do we laugh or weep?
Why do we live or die?
Who knows that secret deep!
Alas, not I!

Why doth the violet spring
Unseen by human eye?
Why do the radiant seasons bring
Sweet thoughts that quickly fly?
Why do our fond hearts cling
To things that die?

We toil—through pain and wrong;
We fight—and fly;
We love; we lose; and then, ere long,
Stone-dead we lie.
Life! is all thy song
Endure and die?

A HOOSIER AT THE ASTOR.—B. met on the train an elderly Hoosier, who had been to the show-case exhibition at New York, and who had seen the hi po dro me, as he called it.

"Did you remain long in New York?" inquired B.

"Well, no," he answered thoughtfully, "only two days, for I saw there was a right smart chance of starving to death, and I'm opposed to that way of going down. I put up at one of their taverns, and allowed I was going to be treated to the whole."

"Where did you stop?" asked B., interrupting him.

"At the Astor House, I allow you dont ketch me in no such place again. They rung a gong, as they call it, four times after breakfast, and then, when I went to eat, there wasn't nary vittles on the table."

"What was there?" B. ventured to inquire.

"Well," said the old man, enumerating the items cautiously, as if from fear of omission, "there was a clean plate wrong side up, a knife, a clean towel, a split spoon and a handbill, and what was worse," added the old man, "the insultin' nigger up, and asked me what I wanted. "Vittles, said I: bring on your vittles, and I'll help myself."

ABATING A NUISANCE.—The lady skaters upon the Connecticut River, at Hartford, on Tuesday, having resolved that "the rum trade on the skating ground is a nuisance," a detachment from the skaters that were not female, was sent down the stream. By an unfortunate mis-step the leader fell against the "restaurant," and his followers, being unable to hold up in season, fell across the demolished table and bottles, causing great destruction of the thirst-destroying compound. The accident met with unqualified approbation of the crowd.—Atlas.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Samuel G. Howe and his accomplished wife will accompany Rev. Theodore Parker and Mrs. Parker in their West India journey.—Atlas.

Profane language is to conversation what ten inch spikes would be to veneering—splitting, shivering and delacing it. It is in bad taste, offensive to a majority, and gratifying to none.

The Great English Remedy.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS Invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by W. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth, and by Druggists in every town in the United States.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysteria, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada

JOB MOSES,

(late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 35 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtouitoirumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about them three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, Distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, diffusing exhilarating warmth in the frame, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, URACY, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st.; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Foster, 20 Commercial st.; J. Bell, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS,

PREPARED BY CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, M. D., NEW-YORK CITY.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills is the result of a long and extensive practice.—They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

TO MARRIED LADIES,

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills are invaluable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have been disappointed in the use of other Pills, can place the utmost confidence in Dr. Cheeseman's Pills doing all they represent to do.

NOTICE.

They should not be used during Pregnancy, as a mis-carriage would certainly result therefrom.

Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Cornelius L. Cheeseman, Box 4,581, Post Office, New York City. Sold by one Druggist in every town in the United States.

LOCAL.

☞ The large two story house on Court street, just above Chestnut street, having been purchased by M. P. Jones, Esq., was sold to be removed, to enlarge that gentleman's garden. It was moved last week—drawn by about seventy yoke of oxen, through Court and State streets, over Mason Hill, to the western side of Anthony street: where it was planted exactly so as to obstruct the continuation of State street to Cass,—and farther yet, as it must ultimately go, probably to Islington Road.—near the junction with White's Road. The moving occupied two days, instead of one, as was anticipated, and must have been a pretty expensive as well as troublesome job for somebody—with that great drove of cattle, and all the drivers and shouters.

Besides all this, which it would seem must have cost all the old house can be worth to anybody where it is; the building was so wide as to fill the whole street, and scores of shade trees, all along the route of moving were scraped and scarred, and some were cut down to allow of the passage of the house. Of course this could not could not be helped, after the moving began, and probably the movers regretted it as much as anybody else—but those who love and appreciate shade trees, would doubtless have made up a purse larger than the value of the house, to have prevented the devastation.

☞ By the report of the doings in the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday Evening, it appears that another petition was presented, to open State street to Cass Street—and without doubt this will now be done, as there is no good reason why it should not be done, but many why it should be.

☞ There are several new dwelling houses now in course of erection in the western part of this city—more than are usually seen at this season of the year—and they are of medium size and cost, the kind of dwellings which indicate the truest prosperity of a place. Now is just the time to build—and the City will never see a more fitting and judicious occasion to build a City Building. Shall we have it?

SALE.—On Saturday, Geo. W. Towle, Esq., auctioneer, sold the well known tavern stand called the Globe Tavern, at Portsmouth Plains, with new barn, bowling alleys, and six acres of land. The premises were subject to a mortgage for $750, interest due from July 24, 1856, also to the dower of the widow, and to any right she and her minor children may have in the same under the law relating to homesteads. Under these incumbrances, the premises brought $200. The purchaser was Mrs. Sherburne, widow of the late owner.

☞ The Ladies' Charitable Society, of Rye, are to hold a Social Levee, at the Surf House, near the Ocean House, Rye Beach, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Feb. 15th and 16th, if fair weather—if not, on the first fair evening thereafter. Admission 15 cents. The Hall will be decorated, and Refreshments and Fancy Articles for sale.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of this Association, for the choice of officers will be held this Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Room over the Store No. 17 Market street.

The Young Men's Prayer Meeting will be held at the Room of the Young Men's Christian Association this evening, at 7 o'clock, and continue one hour.

ROBBED IN THE CARS.—A lady from Keene, N. H., on her way to meet her husband at New York, en route for California, passed through New Haven, Thursday afternoon. While the cars were in the depot at New Haven she went into the car, and a man rose to give her a seat; she took it, and as she passed him he picked her pocket, taking all the money she had—$250. If the lady had mentioned her case at the time, the thief might have been arrested, but she did not speak to the conductor until the train had left the depot and the rascal had escaped.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

Ship Fleetwood, Dale, old Boston 4th, for Tahiti and Honolulu.

A SINGULAR PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT.—A not uncommon cause of depressed vital power, is the young sleeping with the aged. This fact has been long remarked, and is well known to every unprejudiced observer.—Young women married to very old men suffer in a similar manner, although seldom to so great an extent as children; and instances have come to my knowledge where they have suspected the cause of the debilitated state. These facts are often well known to the aged themselves, who consider the indulgence favorable to longevity, and thereby illustrate the selfishness which, in some persons, increases with their years. Every medical practitioner is well aware of the fact, and parents are generally advised not to allow their infants to sleep with aged persons.—Dr. Copeland.

CONNECTICUT.—Hartford, Feb. 3.—The Democrats held a caucus here, this evening to appoint delegates to their several Conventions. Over 400 were in attendance, and there was a lively and exciting time. Douglas delegates were elected by a vote of nearly five to one, and strong resolutions, nominating Douglas for President, were passed almost unanimously.—Julius L. Strong, Esq., one of the delegates to the State Convention, denounced the Administration in bitter terms.

LONGEVITY.—Residing on the farm formerly owned by the late Hon. John Cragin in Temple, N. H., are two persons whose united ages are near 188 years. Mr. James Walton, born, May 1st, 1760. Mrs. Hepsabeth Walton, born May 23d, 1770, sister of said James Walton It is said on this farm some years since, there lived and died the oldest person in Temple.—Milford Rep.

NOBLE SENTIMENTS.—Condemn no man for not thinking as you think. Let every one enjoy the full and free liberty of thinking for himself. Abhor every approach, in any kind or degree, to the spirit of persecution.—John Wesley.

NOT BAD.—A good story is told of Mrs. Douglas, when recently asked concerning her politics. Her reply was: "I am an Old-line Whig, with pretty strong Douglas proclivities."

A shrewd business man, who takes little interest in politics, is reported to have remarked, that the proposition to buy Cuba seemed to him "like an offer to give money that we had not got, for a thing we didn't want, to a nation that wouldn't sell!"

☞ Capt. Frank A. Brown, captain of the 4th company of the Amoskeag Veterans, died on the 30th ult., and his late associates have passed feeling resolutions respecting his memory.

In most quarrels there is a fault on both sides. A quarrel may be compared to a spark, which cannot be produced without a flint as well as a steel; either of them may hammer on wood forever, and no fire will follow.—Bacon.

BURGLAR SENTENCED TO DEATH.—Richard J. Foster, convicted at Charleston, S. C., of burglary and larceny, was, on Saturday last, sentenced to be hung on the 25th of March.

There are some pretended christians who would frighten us from the joys of this world, in order to have them all to themselves.—Ex.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale
A NEW STYLE MACHINE;
PRICE $50.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They
HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH
in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which
A CHILD OF TEN YEARS
may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of
FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,
and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.
This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.
The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.
The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.
Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.
EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE
A Carpet Sweeper.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

JOHN SULLIVAN.

The Gazette insinuates that the Attorney General had selfish motives for leaving the Democratic organization. We should as soon think of defending the father or grandfather of John Sullivan as of defending him against the attack of the Gazette.

The able and satisfactory manner in which Mr. Sullivan had performed the duties of Attorney General, the promptness, firmness and economy with which he had, for years, aided in the administration of the criminal law, had made such an impression upon the public mind, that when the Republicans came into power in 1855, (while Mr. Sullivan was believed to be acting with the Democratic party), one of their first acts was to secure the continuance of his services by increasing his salary; and the people approved of the measure

So admirably had Mr. Sullivan filled his office, that his re-appointment was as much demanded by the popular voice as the nomination of Mr. Goodwin for Governor.

We never exchanged a word with John Sullivan in reference to politics, but we know the man and his character, and we venture to say that he has not changed. He is like thousands of other honest men, who feel that they must either cooperate with the Republicans or both change and degrade their own characters. John Sullivan never could have had any sympathy with the Lecompton Democracy. He would have thought that the support of the Kansas atrocities implied too intimate a connection with knaves and knavery to be compatible with the official duties of an Attorney General.

DEATH OF MRS. ELIZA BIGELOW.—Mrs. Eliza Bigelow was born in Portsmouth, and was the daughter of Samuel Tappan, a teacher of the school in School street. Her father dying, left a young family to be provided for, and Eliza made it her home at the house of her uncle, Deacon Amos Tappan, for many years a distinguished teacher in this place. At an early age she united with the North church and married Rev. Mr. Bigelow of Rochester, Mass. Here she long lived, loved and honored by a large circle which she adorned by all the excellence of piety.

A few years since, Mr. Bigelow moved to Ohio where he shortly died, and the little property which he had acquired, having been lost in an unfortunate investment, the family were thrown upon their own resources. Bravely the mother stemmed a tide of adverse events, and, at last, with some of the avails of her own earnings succeeded in purchasing land in Pepin, on lake Pepin, in Minnesota, where she removed about three years since with two sons and daughters. In every way unprepared for life in a north-western clearing,—the privations and hardships of a stern winter, the hard and unremitting labor of a newly broken farm,—Mrs. Bigelow bore her new life with a cheerfulness and energy almost extraordinary. Nor in her own conflict with adversity did she neglect special labors for her heavenly master. One of her last communications to her friends in Portsmouth was an affecting plea in behalf of a little church struggling for existence and fostered by her prayers and love.

The next news was her death, which took place on the 15th of January. She was seized with a sudden and distressing sickness, and died at midnight in her far-off, lonely cabin, with none but a son and daughter to witness and alleviate the suffering of the dying parent. But she died in the triumphs of faith; and in contrast with the sorrow and weariness of this life, how sweet to think of that unspeakably precious rest which remains for the people of God.

The age of Mrs. Bigelow was 62 years. She was the author of a popular and valuable book entitled "The Recorded Will."—Journal.

From N. H. Gazette.

The Standard's Ticket.

Burke's paper comes to us this week with two names selected out of the whole Democratic ticket, & placed at the head of its columns, followed by an article explanatory of its reasons for advocating the election of these two men, and for opposing the balance of the ticket. The gentlemen who have received the doubtful honor of an endorsement by the Standard, are our candidates for Congress in the first and third districts. We don't know how Mr. BURNS may regard the favor of this infamous "organ," but we do know, and have the very best authority for saying, that CAPT. MARCY appreciates at its true value the friendship of Edmund Burke and the support of his Standard.—The Standard says, "we understand that CAPT. MARCY is also a strong and unqualified supporter of the Administration, and is open in his denunciations of the position and course of Senator Douglas." All Democrats who know CAPT. MARCY, understand that this statement of the Standard is a gross falsehood, designed, and if uncorrected, well calculated to injure MARCY'S prospects of an election. CAPT. MARCY is a Popular Sovereignty, Cincinnati Platform Democrat, and feels no gratitude for the support of a paper which advocates political principles abhorrent to himself and nineteen-twentieths of the Democracy of this State.—Under these circumstances, the support of the Standard is a misfortune, but we trust not of sufficient magnitude to endanger MR. MARCY'S prospects.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF TWIN BABIES.

"Two roses on a single stalk,
Two buds of beauty race."—TOM MOORE.

The freaks of nature are inexhaustable, but the latest, and we think it may prove for a long time the most remarkable on record, was the pair of Twin Babies exhibited at Washington a week or two since. The names of this precious pair are Edmund Burke, named in dishonor of an illustrious Irish statesman, and James Gordon Bennett, named after his Scottish ancestor. Notwithstanding the large size of these Twins, it is said that they snuggled themselves into the bosom of the dear old dry nurse who had charge of them, as affectionately as a couple of kittens, and drulled and dirled the old lady exceedingly. Never was the adage, "Once a man and twice a child," more beautifully illustrated than by this splendid tableau. It is said that the exhibition will be renewed at intervals, during the coming two years, after which time the parties will appear no more in public life. Burke will expire of spontaneous combustion, Bennett will return to his native heaths, and the patron of these beauties will go—God only knows where.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own locks, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have but one-third. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on the head and beard, and my hair resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one of all descriptions. Influential men you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FOUST JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

YOURS truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing good to digest well, purifying the blood, giving good health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus; and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle in the system effects of medicine after a long standing.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose taken short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form, while Summer Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

A few bottles will cure Dyspepsia by exciting the absorbents.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

We take pleasure in recommending it as a medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and Bilious fever. It operates with certainty, and Broadway and vicinity to testify to its wonderful virtues.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One teaspoonful of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD'S Proprietor. 348 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. ms31 ly

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many a year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will by fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that IT IS EQUAL TO ANY KNOWN ROOF.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or 1 in. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by mail or addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS.

These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by mercenary scoundrels who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The long practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8, 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such uninitiated proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice selected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.
R. H. EDDY.

TRUTH AND PARTY.

The Bath Times, of Feb. 5, has an able leader, from which we make the following extract.

(1.) To-day, if the only opponents of democratic truth—we discriminate between the truth or principles and the party organization—were found in the ranks of the the opposition, the success of the party would be as certain as the ebb and flow of the tides. * * * But when within the party, doctrines are cherished and sought to be grafted upon the platform, as unlike democracy as Hindooism is unlike the mildest form of Christianity; and when common sense is absolutely shocked by the definition given to terms, and all in the name of democracy, no one can safely count upon any definite measure of success. * * *

(2.) To the most casual observer it is evident that democracy is saddled with dogmas which a few years since would have been spurned as the rankest heresies. Soldiers of fortune, who would make excellent Frenchmen of the Louis Napoleon school, if on the French side of the channel, aspire to leadership in the democratic ranks. How this state of things has come about we may not definitely state, for we should thereby subject ourself, perhaps, to the charge of fault-finding;—perhaps of repelling new recruits from the party organization. This much, however, we may say,—that democracy gained nothing on the score of soundness in faith or purity in principle, by the general breaking up of the old whig party. While it had a national party in the field as an opponent, principles were most thoroughly investigated, and few errors were suffered to become chronic in the party creed. But now, in the North, the opposition had become dominant in a large majority of the states, so that instead of fighting for a majority success at the returning elections, men of "seven principles"—five loaves and two fishes—fight only for the national spoils, and are perfectly content that the opposition should rule the State if they can be put up at in the full cribbed stalls of the federal stables. In the South there has been a general tumbling into the democratic party on the part of the former whigs, not so much from any love of democratic principles, as from fear of and opposition to the republicans of the North.

(3.) But democracy is strong and recuperative, and what may have proved sufficient to disturb has not power to destroy it. Its assimilating power will work wonders, and the old time-honored foemen having come into its councils, its spirit will gradually but surely acquire complete control of them, and democracy in spirit as well as in name will once more become the governing principle of this Republic.

Perhaps the reader may perceive that in paragraph No. 1, the writer has made a most important distinction, between democratic truth or doctrine, and the democratic party. And yet that in paragraph No. 3, he does not keep that distinction so plainly in sight as would be desirable.

In this 3d paragraph, something is bound to triumph. What is it? Answer "democratic spirit." But why this may not be as readily found in one party as in another, the Times does not, because it cannot, tell us.

In the paragraph No. 2, we have some very curious information, about the great and pure democratic party being defiled and debased by the old Whigs which have fallen into it. And they fell in, forsooth, for fear the Republicans might devour them.

But we remember to have copied, from the leading paper of the democratic party in New England, within four years, many and great lamentations that the great and national whig party, such honorable foemen,—had dwindled down, and been succeeded by the wicked know nothings and black republicans.

But now, it seems, as above, that the very cream of the whigs, those who could not be blackened into republicans any way, but were afraid of contamination by contact with them,—have joined the democratic party, and by joining it, have made it so foul as to need a general fermentation to settle the discordant elements into any thing like purity or soundness.

A GOLDEN WEDDING.—A very pleasant meeting took place a few days ago, at Brooklyn, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John Hinchman. Among the persons assembled were the Rev. Mr. King, of Rockaway, N. J., who was the officiating clergyman at the marriage of the now venerable couple; and the groom and bridesmaid. Among the clergy present were the Rev. Drs. Matthew, Van Dyke and Spaulding. Dr. Van Dyke on behalf of the family, presented the "golden gifts" provided for the occasion. To Mr. Hinchman a gold watch from his sons; and a purse of gold eagles to Mrs. Hinchman, from her daughters. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

The evils of the world will continue until philosophers become rulers, or rulers become philosophers.

GREAT FIRE IN BOSTON.—A very destructive fire occurred in Boston, on Sunday morning, by which Russell's Mechanical Bakery, on Commercial street, and several surrounding buildings, were destroyed, with nearly twenty thousand barrels of flour, belonging to the establishment and to flour merchants of the city. The loss was about $300,000. By the falling of the walls a large number of persons were more or less injured, and Daniel Henson, a colored volunteer member of Cataract Engine Co., No. 4, was killed, his body being dreadfully mangled. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. This is the third destructive fire that has occurred in Boston, successively, on Sunday morning, within a few months.

The building was six stories in height, with a width of 64 feet, and a depth of 130 feet. It was surrounded, with the exception of the front, with numerous buildings mostly wooden, of inferior size and value. The front portion, with the exception of a sales-room, was occupied as a warehouse for the storage of flour, extending through the six stories; and the rear by the extensive Steam Bakery, owned by Joseph G. Russell, a gentleman well known for his wealth and enterprise.

It is a singular and important fact that in Philadelphia and in New York, where buildings connected with steam bakeries have been constructed, that within a short time after commencing, incendiaries have accomplished their destruction.

The bakery went into operation on Wednesday. The first indications of any trouble, or any evil designs on the part of people opposed to the bakery, was the explosion of a quantity of powder, which had been placed in the coal. When the fireman kindled the fire on Thursday morning, this powder exploded, slightly injuring him, and the hose was brought into requisition, and the coal thoroughly wet before he would go on with his work.

Mr. Russell had always kept a watchman and a dog in the building for its safety.—On Friday morning, a man called upon Mr. Russell, and said he wished to purchase the dog for a friend, and Mr. Russell expressed a willingness to sell him. Without coming to any bargain, the man departed, and said he would come with his friend at 10 o'clock, but he did not return, and the dog has been missing ever since, until Sunday morning, after the fire, when he was seen near the building. He was doubtless enticed away and shut up during that time. On Friday night the key to one of the principal doors was missing.—Knowing the key was gone, Mr. Russell went down to the building Saturday night and remained there until the engineman and fireman came. He left at ten minutes before one o'clock, being let out by the fireman. He had hardly been home an hour when he heard an alarm of fire, which alarm being from the district in which his building was, he turned out, and soon found that it was his own building.

A person who lived opposite was awakened by the light, and rushed out, giving the alarm. On looking into the cellar, where the engineer and fireman were at work, he saw them busily employed and unconscious of the fire in the third story.

The watchman rushed into the room, and found the fire was kindled on the top of a pile of wooden boxes. These boxes were placed near a swivel gas burner, which could be swung so as to be only a few inches above the pile. Above the boxes was a "chain-box," in which the gearing ran, and swinging from this was a wooden box, with saw dust, to catch the oil that might drop from the gearing. A basket of shavings had been upset on the top of the pile, the gas lit and the burner swung into them. The watchman caught hold of the shavings and extinguished them, burning himself slightly. But the fire had already spread to the box above, and ran to the upper stories with such speed as lead to the belief that a quantity of burning fluid had been turned down the box. The fire spread so rapidly that the roof was completely in flames in a few minutes.

Mr. Russell is of course the heaviest loser. The building and fixtures were valued at about $175,000, on which there is an insurance of $75,000.

In regard to the probabilities of the building being rebuilt as a steam bakehouse, on a similar plan with the one just destroyed, Mr. Russel is doubtful whether he again undertakes an enterprise attended with so much care and labor, although he still, doubtless, has abundant pecuniary resources for re-establishing his manufactory. But by other parties the building will be re-constructed, and the bakery re-established, as there are now owners of this description in successful operation in New York, Philadelphia, New Orleans, Chicago, Cincinnati and Baltimore.

DEMOCRATIC TARIFF MEETINGS.

In Washington, on Saturday evening, there were two democratic tariff caucuses. The Democratic members of the Pennsylvania delegation met in one of the Committee Rooms and passed the following resolutions:—

1st, Opposed to a permanent national debt.

2d, Indorsing the President's recommendations.

3d, Repudiating the acts and proceedings of the other Democratic caucus, and finally appointed a committee of three to take steps for united action with other Democrats who approved of the position they have assumed.

All the Pennsylvania delegation were present but two.

At the general Democratic caucus, after some excited discussion upon a proposition offered by Mr. Crawford, that the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to reissue the twelve million Treasury notes, and that any other deficiency should be supplied by retrenchments. Mr. Groesbeck, for the purpose of avoiding all feeling upon the subject, moved that the caucus adjourn sine die, with the understanding that a general conference of the party should be held next week. The motion was carried and the caucus adjourned.

Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, and California were not represented—New York was represented by Cochrane, Sickles, Taylor and Hatch; Indiana, Illinois, and Ohio were fully represented.—The largest number at any one time was fifty.

LIFE IN PARIS.

Spiridion, the lively Paris correspondent of the Traveller, gives many choice items, which do not get into the chip-like "Foreign News." He says in a late letter:

"The average amount of toys sold in Paris is 4,300,000f. worth; last year there were 1,400,000f. of doll babies sold at wholesale. Military toys are going out of vogue, but 750,000f. were sold; pongun pistols, which a few years ago were sold in such numbers as actually to raise the price of zinc (of which they are made) have gone entirely out of favor; in 1848 the toy dealers sold 55,000f. of drums; in 1858 they sold only 30,000f., and the drum market is "drooping with a downward tendency." Scientific toys are now most sought.

Society is busy with the marriage of the youngest son of Baron James de Rothschild. M. Gustave de Rothschild is about to marry a beggar—I speak comparatively, for the beggar bride has only a dowry of $40,000—a mere trifle, which would not furnish a drawing room in the fashionable style of the present day. He marries the daughter of Joel Anspach, a Judge of the Cour Imperiale, here. He was born at Metz, and is the only Jew on the Paris bench. Mlle. Anspach is a beautiful Jewess. This marriage has been almost as much talked of as the Emperor's marriage with Mlle. de Montejo was in its day; it being extremely rare to see anybody marry a person greatly below himself in fortune.

The Commission appointed by the Government on the African Immigration question, are in favor of continuing the slave trade. The government puts their report into its pocket, and refuses to continue the negro immigration, as likely to lead to war. Public opinion is a good deal puzzled about Laronchiere's repeated visits to Berlin. Official papers say it is on "business of great importance," but condescended to say nothing more.

The French government allows no mention to be made of the war now waging in Algeria.

☞ The jury of inquest in the case of William S. Tainter, who was murdered at the "Half Way House," near Worcester, last week, have returned a verdict charging Cornelius Dugan with being his murderer, and that Thomas Malone and Michael Brett were accomplices.

☞ By the giving way of a brick arch in the sugar house of J. B. Brown & Co., in Portland, on Thursday, two men were precipitated a distance of about sixty feet. One of them, Thomas Gately, was killed, and the other, Michael Mannahan escaped, with a crushed ancle and some severe bruises.

☞ A Hingham paper states that a Mr. Morse, while upon the shore near Green Hill, at Hull, a few days since, observed something projecting above the sand, which proved to be six plates and a platter. Mr. Morse carried them home, supposing them to be pewter, but afterwards ascertained that they were solid silver, and worth between $200 and $300.

A RELIC OF OLDEN TIME.—It is said that Col. Henry C. Harris, of Covington, Ky., carries a gold watch that was made by Williams in the year 1652, and is consequently 206 years old. It belonged to Col. Harris's grandfather, and was worn by the latter gentleman during the war of the Revolution, who was aid de camp to Gen. Washington, and one of his near relatives.

GIRLS IN WINTER.—A special plea for the girls. Make their dresses short enough to swing clear of the snow and mud, and give them good water-proof boots to wear. Yes, we insist upon it—they should have boots. Woman's shoes of the present fashion are no more fit to be put on in winter, than an Indian's birch bark canoe is fit to cross the Atlantic. Boots will not look so trim about the ancle, or step so lightly upon the floor, but they will do what is of more consequence—preserve the health to show off their graces in after life, and to take a great many elastic steps that otherwise might be fewer, and those leading directly down to the grave.

Another thing we are glad to see coming in fashion: the ladies are learning to skate, and for this they must have boots. Now girls, get each of you a pair of neat winter boots, and a pair of skates to fit, and the first ice that forms in your neighborhood, hard enough, go out with your brothers, or somebody else's brothers, and learn to skate. Be prudent about it, and do not overdo the excercise, and you will find it capital medicine—next to horseback riding.

The only way to bring about a healthy race of woman, is to attend to the physical development of the girls before they are diluted in the false system of fashionable accomplishment, that fits them for nothing but elegant imbeciles.—Ohio Cultivator.

THE QUEEN A WOMAN, AND NO MISTAKE. It is reported that her majesty has a sweet little temper of her own, and that her cara sposa, like a prudent man, generally retires before the storm, and locky himself in his private cabinet until the sky is clear and sunshine again illumes the classic shades of St. James or Windsor. After one of these little ebullitions the queen gave a "thundering knock" at the door of the room where Prince Albert had taken refuge, and upon being asked "who's there?" responded, "The queen!" "The queen cannot enter here," responded the henpecked. After the large of half an hour, a gentle tap was heard upon the door. "Who's there?" asked prince Albert. "Your wife," responded Victoria.—"My wife is always welcome," was the gallant reply.

The Great English Remedy.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by W. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth, and by Druggists in every town in the United States.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada

JOB MOSES,

(late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Mrs R., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great Remedy of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result. There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. No such a recovery is seldom heard of.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French preparation, and extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED.

THIS GIN, distilled from English Malted Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find in its adoption a sure relief from these distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted, to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. E. Pecker, 26 Union st; A. Hosmer, 116 Hanover st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS,

PREPARED BY CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, M. D.,

NEW-YORK CITY.

The combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice.—They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, Painful Menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

TO MARRIED LADIES,

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills are invaluable, as they will bring on the monthly period with regularity. Ladies who have been disappointed in the use of other Pills, can place the utmost confidence in Dr. Cheeseman's Pills doing all they represent to do.

NOTICE.

They should not be used during Pregnancy, as a miscarriage would certainly result therefrom.

Warranted purely vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Explicit directions, which should be read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box 4,581, Post Office, New York City. Sold by one Druggist in every town in the United States.

LOCAL.

☞ Our readers, we know, will be glad to learn that at last they are to have opportunity to testify in a slight measure, their approbation and appreciation of one who, while entitled to the fond home appellation of the poet of Portsmouth and New Hampshire; merits and must receive, when more widely known, a yet higher title, as one of the true poets of America and the world.

In the Oration at the Printing Centennial Celebration in this city, in 1856, Rev. Dr. Peabody said, in enumerating the literary stars whom Portsmouth claims as her sons:

"There is Laighton, whose Sybilline leaves we suffer to remain ungathered; but, were they blown to us from across the ocean, we should long ago have had the straylings impounded in gilt morocco; and they will yet give him fame equal to his modesty and commensurate with his worth."

Well, then, these leaves have at last been gathered, and are in course of publication by Messrs. Brown, Taggard & Chase, Boston. The little volume will be issued in plain, neat style, in a few weeks, under the simple title, "Poems, by Albert Laighton;" and will contain, beside most of the fugitive pieces which have appeared from the author's pen, his lecture-poem on Beauty, and several new pieces which have never appeared in print—one or two of which are of local application to Portsmouth.

The literary public everywhere will welcome the book, we are sure—and this, the native city and residence of the poet, ought alone to exhaust one edition.

☞ On Friday evening, while the Panorama of Delhi and the War in India was on exhibition in the Temple, the Porter of the Navy Yard, with two other men, all excellent boatmen, undertook a voyage from Kittery across our rapid river, in a little skiff. Soon after their embarkation their frail bark, having been froze up, started a plank and swamped. They rolled her over, bailed out, and started again, not being quite aware of her bad condition; and down she went again. This time the voyagers went ashore, procured another craft, and, nothing daunted by their double shipwreck, made their visit here in their wet clothes, and saw the sight with the rest.

☞ The magnificent ship "Shooting Star" will be launched from the ship-yard of George Raynes & Son this (Tuesday) afternoon, at half past 3 o'clock. She is about 1000 tons measurement, owned by S. G. Reid, of Boston, and others, and is to be commanded by Capt. Hotchkiss of Gloucester.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Feb. 7.

Before Justice Odell—John Sullivan, a minor, was accused of assaulting one Mary Daley. Plea not guilty. Considered guilty, and fined $10: ordered to give $30 bonds to keep the peace. Costs, $4.80.—Appealed and gave bonds.

☞ Elder Edwin Burnham will preach this eve and the evenings through the week at the Advent Chapel. Friends invited.

☞ The funeral of Mr. Joseph Harvey, will take place on Wednesday at half past 10 o'clock, A. M. from his late residence, No. 20 Deer street.

A QUESTION IN A NUTSHELL. — Col. George, in his letter whereon he hopes to go to Congress, invites all good men in New Hampshire to vote so as to please the slave power, because trade would be worse if the South was kept so angry with the abolitionists.

General Abbott, in reply to Col. George, says:—

Your proposition to them is simply that they sell their principles for their interests.

But the Manchester Union rejoins:—

What principle is at issue, which Col. George asks the people to sell? Not one. It is a prejudice—a delusion—which they are far better off without, to say nothing of its business relations.

Uncle Toby remembers that Daniel Webster said something in 1850 about conquering our prejudices, that it was our duty to do so, and so forth.—Then they were to be conquered, now to be sold!—But the independent democrats and republican freemen of 1850 did not do the one, and those of '59 and '60 perhaps may not do the other.

A condensation and epitome of the principles and policy to which a vast majority of New England people are opposed, is in the language of the Lecompton Constitution, that—

"The right of property is before and higher than any constitutional sanction; and the right of the owner of a slave to such slave and its increase is the same, and as inviolable, as the right of the owner of any property whatsoever."

MARRIED.

In Exeter, Mr. Charles C. Barrell, of York, Me, to Miss Martha J. Odlin, of Exeter, daughter of the late James Odlin.

DIED.

In this city, on Sunday morning, Feb. 6th, Mrs. Olive Rundlett, aged 74 years, wife of William Rundlett.

☞ Funeral on Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, from her late residence, No. 26 Austin St. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

CONGRESS.—Saturday, Feb. 5.—Senate. Mr. Clay, for the Committee of Commerce, reported a substitute for the Secretary of Treasury's recommendation of economy. The substitute proposes to dispense with 1000 persons employed in collection of the Revenue.

Mr. Toombs of Ga., moved a reconsideration of the vote passing the Missouri two per cent. land bill. The motion was adopted, when the discussion of the bill was deferred.

Mr. Seward presented a memorial from the Legislature of New York, instructing Representatives to oppose any increase of the rates of postage; also a memorial from the citizens of New York, in favor of the homestead law.

House.—Mr. Washburn of Illinois, gave notice that he will next Monday move to take up the River and Harbor Bill.

☞ By the latest news from Hayti, up to Jan. 16, it appears that the Black Republicans have routed the Black Emperor Soulouque and his army, beat off his ships, and are likely to make his "kingdom tumble down."

Reinforcements from all parts of the island were bound to Port au Prince to reinforce Geffrard. It was expected Soulouque would not be allowed to return to the latter place, it being surrounded by the army in camp. In Cape Haytien they have sold all the coffee belonging to the Emperor at the auction. A Danish brig, chartered by the Emperor to load coffee, called at the Cape, but, being unable to obtain a cargo, cleared under Republican colors for Port au Prince, where it was expected she would not be allowed to enter.

☞ The Ladies' Charitable Society, of Rye, are to hold a Social Levee, at the Surf House, near the Ocean House, Rye Beach, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Feb. 15th and 16th, if fair weather—if not, on the first fair evening thereafter. Admission 15 cents. The Hall will be decorated, and Refreshments and Fancy Articles for sale.

☞ The Michigan legislature has "put its foot in it" by voting land to Mrs. Rogers for producing four little Rogerses at once. Mrs. Job Burnap, of Sumpter county, who has borne nine children at four births, now puts in her claim for more prairie, and there is no telling where this business will end unless the stakes are put down somewhere.

☞ The Selma Sentinel states that a dentist of that city recently prepared a full set of artificial teeth for a lady of that vicinity, some sixty or seventy years old, and who had been quite deaf for twenty years past. As soon as the teeth were placed in her head, the hearing of the old lady became quite suddenly as good as it ever had been.

No man can tell whether he is rich or poor by turning to his ledger. It is the heart that makes a man rich. He is rich or poor, according to what he is, not according to what he has.

Utility is a prominent characteristic of truth. Whatever is true becomes of some use even when imperfectly developed; whereas error only serves to mislead, however ingeniously it may be propounded.—Dr. Andrew Combe.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will subply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

THE GROVER & BAKER
SEWING MACHINE CO.,
18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE;
PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They

HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH

in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which

A CHILD OF TEN YEARS

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING
Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE
A Carpet Sweeper.

IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and impair the vitality of the healthy, thus leading many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used, being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by prolonged indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.
Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1865.

DR. BEAGLER—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1858.

DR. BEAGLER—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told HE COULD NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He SAW a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions, and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as he believes, permanently cured.

Yours truly, H. G. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY
MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an extensive and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietors feel it a duty they owe to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, gathered from the forest, and possesses Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all those troubled with Piles, Inflammation, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" in a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a proof of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to spread a plaster and dress a sore, and all who use the Salve will apply it in proportions, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the parts smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by A. M. BECK, BURRILL & HUNTING, SOLE PROPRIETORS,

No. 6 Tremont Street,
(Two doors south of Court st.,) BOSTON.

Will be found at all Apothecaries and Family Stores in the country. o15 1y

THE GREAT WONDER
Of The Nineteenth Century.
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter from Dr. J. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1856.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, it gives me pleasure to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy! as it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am sure the public general will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the benefits of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours, A. C. HAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 20, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and will probably remain so for ever. Please use my name in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DAVIS.

Brookfield, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove a sol morbid or bad matter from the stomach, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, and effecting a radical cure.

Billious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose for nausea is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels, and a few doses cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor. 345 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. au31 1y

E. P. RUSSELL'S
Patent Mastic Roofing.
Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or I. s. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a service for many years, it will be reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, together with a complete description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which had been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are described upon his books as a perfect cure.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false or worthless medicines at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 18 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. Any one using the pills having been put up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

The Dr. will be found at his office in the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND SKILL, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond questions, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
Boston, February 8 1858.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such uninterrupted success of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their case, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1859.

BAD REPORTS FROM UTAH.—The St. Louis Republican publishes a letter from Salt Lake, 14th ult., stating that Judges Sinclair and Cradbaugh will leave the territory in the spring, satisfied that their presence as federal officers administering law, is merely farcical.

The letter adds that there is no loyalty to the government among the Mormons—that while to a certain extent they respect the forms of law, they neither recognize nor respect its spirit; neither murder nor any other crime has been or can be punished.

☞ Letters from Utah say the army is finely housed in winter quarters at Camp Floyd. The camp presents quite a city-like appearance. The houses are built of adobes (sun-dried bricks) and are laid off streets and squares.

☞ The French Spoliation bill hangs on the calendar, and doubts are entertained as to whether the President will sign it, if it can be passed in the House. He sagaciously remarked to a gentleman on Monday, who asked him the plump question, that it was an important subject which he was considering, but that he did not consider that his previous action in the Senate committed him in favor of the measure.

☞ GOV. Wise has written a letter to a gentleman in Arkansas, in which he takes ground against a Pacific Railroad by the Federal Government, especially on the grounds of the President's recommendation. He declares that if it had been known that Mr. Buchanan "would advocate a Pacific Railroad founded on the war power, he could not have gotten a single vote of this State (Virginia) for his nomination for the Presidency."

THE SALISBURY MILLS.—The Traveller learns from the Treasurer of the Salisbury Mills, that the extra time which the mills are now working is to make up the short time working some time since, which was occasioned by a deficiency of water. The wages of the operatives have been advanced ten per cent., not fifteen, as stated. When the wages were reduced last year, the operatives were assured that they should be restored the moment the ability of the company would allow it. Having made a profitable season's work, by the fortunate purchase of a large quantity of wool at a low rate, this pledge has now been redeemed.

CENSUS OF 1860.—It is estimated the census of 1860 will divide the members of Congress among the different sections about as follows: New England States 25, a loss of 4; Middle States 61, a loss of 3; Western States 75, a gain of 22; Southern States 76, a loss of 14. As between the North and South, the former will have 161 members, and the latter 76.

THE HOUSE—A Pocket Manual of Rural Architecture; or, How to Build Country Houses and Outbuildings. By the author of "The Garden," "The Farm," etc. With many valuable Original Designs. Fowler & Wells, Publishers, New York. Price, in paper, 30 cts.; in muslin, 50 cts. No one who ever expects to build, if it be only an ice house or a cistern, should fail to consult this manual. It might well have been entitled, "Every Man His Own Architect."

FACTORY STRIKE IN LOWELL.—We learn that some three or four hundred of the girls employed by the Massachusetts Corporation in Lowell, struck for higher wages, and it is expected that others will follow their example. Most of those who have struck are Irish. The fillers employed by the Prescott struck on Saturday.—The strikers on the Massachusetts corporation were spinners.

STRIKE AT LOWELL.—The Lowell News of Monday afternoon, in speaking of the strikes of the operative of several mills in that city, says that they demand that the pay be restored which was taken off upwards of a year ago.

☞ The Rev. Chas. W. Denison and his wife are the editors of a weekly paper called "The Sea," "the only one of its class in the world," says the publisher. It is mostly devoted to nautical subjects and stories, and forms a very agreeable miscellany. It is published in Boston.

☞ It is again reported that Judge McLean, of the U. S. Supreme Court, is seriously failing in health.

LETTER FROM BOSTON.

BOSTON, Feb. 7, 1859.

Dear Chronicle:—The great Boston feature of this morning is our big fire of the Steam Bakery, and, indeed, to an extent, yesterday, Sunday, it was largely the topic of excited interest.

Throngs visited the smoking scene,—the location of which is almost directly adjoining or opposite the great fire on Battery wharf of three years ago—nearly the most destructive conflagration for a long period back. This makes the locality seem a costly one, and to superstitious people, a fatal one. The building was situated opposite Battery wharf, on Commercial St., at the junction of North street, where it comes into Commercial in a slanting way—Salutation st. running directly in the rear. The remarkable part of the surroundings comes in the circumstance that a little swarm of low, wooden buildings are clustered around the immense six story Bakery. Some of these buildings are badly singed, and the wonder seems to be that they were not consumed. A few small dwellings and shops were crushed by the falling walls of one side, but the remaining ones hedge in the ruins on almost every hand except the front on Commercial street.

The steam fire-engines did much service in protecting surrounding property, and but for them, the spread of the fire must have been heavily disastrous. All the walls of the building had fallen this (Monday) morning, except a slight portion of the North-west corner, six stories high, looking ominous enough—"pokerish."

Water is still being freely poured upon the ruins by the force of Cochituate pressure, but the packing of rubbish is so close that but little penetrates to the heart of the fire. All through underneath, timbers are smouldering, ready to flame at every puff of air that penetrates any crevice.—(P. S.) The remaining corner has fallen this P. M., and accounts are current that two are killed and twelve injured.

The circumstances indicate that the fire was purposely set with both skill and care. Ill will had been amply manifested during the week past—within which time operations of the machinery had been begun—the consumption of Flour having reached only fifty barrels per day,—about one-tenth part of the capacity of the establishment. An attempt had been made to blow up the ovens with gunpowder, and a valuable watch-dog had been strangely missing. The key of the building had been also missing, and the strong ill will of many was definitely known to exist.—Other similar establishments had been destroyed in other cities; and in view of all these points it seems singular that on a Saturday, the building should have been open to all, well into the night, with only two persons about it to watch, and they busily engaged in the basements. Other nights than Saturday the establishment is nearly filled with hands.

The sympathy of the public is of course largely with the proprietor, who had once retired from business with a handsome fortune acquired in the furniture trade and manufactory. Mr. Russell some eight years ago was of the firm of Russell & Baker on Commercial st., with a chair and furniture manufactory out of the city. A very extended business was carried on, he being a man of great energy and activity.

He is remembered by many as walking our streets, pale, thin and haggard, with a sharp, glazed, glistening eye that his friends thought spoke of consumption,—wearing a shawl around his neck and mouth,—but still active at business. Bye and bye he threw the shawl away,—said he felt the better, and proved it.

After retiring from business at about middle age, with a fair fortune, he undertook this Baking enterprise, and carried it through with his old energy.

The papers say that he cannot be expected to go on and build again after this fire with so little insurance,—only $60,000 on $165,000 loss; but those who have known him long will hardly believe at present, that he is to be thwarted so easily. I am told that he says he can build the next one quite as easily, and considerably quicker. When the structure is rebuilt he will probably have it watched more closely than this one—there being only about 18 hours the week in which workmen are not constantly in every part, day and night; and it would seem much cheaper to maintain an ample extra watch over it for these few hours weekly, than to have it vexatiously fired and disastrously consumed.

A negro lost his life by the falling walls at the head of a line of Firemen, with whom he had long run as a volunteer.—Poor fellow, he was jelly the next instant after his last heavy tug at the machine.

An old man who had gone against much remonstrance to his cellar to remove some treasure, was buried by the ruins of his home. He was soon taken out and conveyed to the Hospital, where he is likely to recover.

Of the twenty odd thousand barrels of Flour in the building, some will be taken from the ruins without being ruined,—perhaps considerable of it. Most of this Flour was on storage. Various minor accidents and injuries are reported, but it was thought that no life was lost except the negro's.

The fire makes the bulk of the news for the day. The whole loss, buildings, machinery, flour, &c., on storage, and all, will be from $250,000 to $300,000.

Theodore Parker has left Boston for the South and Havana. His condition warrants some hope of his recovery, and he has promised to take better care of himself than has been his habit. He has long almost recklessly wasted his vitality by excessive study.

An immense audience gathered at the National theatre, on Sunday night, for religious services. Hundreds were unable to enter at all, so great was the rush.—Many sad pranks were played. Shouts and show-bills circulated freely among the unprepared audience.—showing the presence of some scoffers.

The political market here is acted upon considerably by the present condition at Washington, and it is thought that a good deal of party and other Ice will be broken the coming six months. BERNARDE.

From Bonner's New York Ledger.

THE "COMING" WOMAN.

BY FANNY FERN.

Men often say, "when I marry, my wife must be this, that or the other," enumerating all physical, mental, and moral perfections. One cannot but smile to look at the men who say these things; smile to think of the equivalent they will bring for all the amiability, beauty, health, intellectuality, domesticity and faithfulness they so modestly require; smile to think of the perforated hearts, damaged morals, broken-down constitutions, and irritable temper, which this bright, pure, innocent girl is to receive with her wedding ring. If one-half the girls know the previous life of the men they marry, the list of old maids would be wonderfully increased.

Doubted? Well, if there is room for a doubt now, thank God the "coming" woman's Alpha and Omega will not be matrimony. She will not of necessity sour into a pink-nosed old maid, or throw herself at any rickety old shell of humanity, whose clothes are as much out of repair as his morals. No, the future man has got to "step lively;" this wife is not to be had for the whistling. He will have a long canter round the pasture for her, and then she will leap the fence and leave him limping on the ground.

Thick-soled boots and skating are coming in, and "nerves," novels and sentiment (by consequence) are going out. The coming woman, as I see her, is not to throw aside her needle; neither is she to sit embroidering worsted dogs and cats, or singing doubtful ditties, and rolling up her eyes to "the chaste moon."

Heaven forbid she should stamp round with a cigar in her mouth, elbowing her fellows, and puffing smoke in their faces; or stand on the free-love platform, public or private—call it by what specious name you will—wooing men who, low as they may have sunk in their own self-respect, would die before they would introduce her to the unsullied sister who shared their own cradle.

Heaven forbid the coming woman should not have warm blood in her veins, quick to rush to her cheek, or tingle at her fingers' ends when her heart is astir. No, the coming woman shall be no cold, angular, flat-chested, narrow-shouldered, skimpy, sharp-visaged Betsey; but she shall be a bright-eyed full-chested, broad-shouldered, large-souled, intellectual being; able to walk, able to eat, able to fulfill her maternal destiny; and able, if so please God, to go to her grave happy, self-poised and serene, though unwedded; for this world, though it may do for men, is, after all, but a narrow place for a woman's heart to beat in. That many die and make no sign, is no proof that martyrdom died out with John Rogers.

BE TRUTHFUL WITH CHILDREN.—Some people tell lies to children with a view of enjoying a laugh at their credulity. This is to make a mock at sin, and they are fools who do it. The tendency in a child to believe whatever is told, is of God for good. It is lovely. It seems a shadow of primeval innocence glancing by. We should reverence a child's simplicity. Touch it only with truth. Be not the first to quench that lovely truthfulness by falsehoods.

BURNS AND HIS WIFE.—At the Burns celebration in New York, Dr. Francis thus related his interview with bonnie Jean:—"Madame," said the Doctor, "your husband was a great man." "So they all tell me," said the good wife, "but Robert never said a word to me about it, and he was seldom at home."

PUNCH'S LAST.—At Quarter Sessions one of the magistrates slept and snored; a young barrister sent up this note to the senior counsel:

"Q.—Why is Sir Tunbelly like the first ship on record?

A.—Because he snores, hark!"

For the Chronicle.

SONG OF THE SKATERS.

BY ALBERT LAIGHTON.

Though winter winds are whistling loud,
And skies look cold and gray;
Though earth lies mute beneath her shroud,
The skaters! what care they?
A happy throng,
With mirth and song,
O'er fields of ice we swiftly glide,
As sea-birds sail above the tide.

O, well we know the winter hours
Fly faster as we sing;
That sooner come the birds and flowers,
And loveliness of Spring!
So night or day,
Away! away!
O'er crystal plains, with laugh and song,
We speed, we speed like the wind along.

The heated room, the crowded hall,
Where pride and fashion meet;
Where waves of music rise and fall,
In time to dancing feet—
We ask not these;
Give us the breeze
And the gleaming floor o'er which we go,
Like arrows shot from the Hunter's bow.

Then loud the stormy winds may blow,
And skies look cold and gray;
Then Earth may wear her robe of snow,
We'll laugh the hours away!
With mirth and song,
A merry throng,
O'er fields of ice we'll swiftly glide,
As sea-birds sail above the tide.

THE WHEELER & WILSON
Medal Family Sewing Machine.

GOOD NEWS.—A reduction in the price of Sewing Machines is announced. Their utility is established beyond question, and at the present prices we see no reason why they should not be found, as they ought to be, in every household.—Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

R. R. R.
By its speedy assistance, Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day this lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

W. R. PRESTON agent for Portsmouth.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian, artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.
Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh acrid taste which makes the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

The Gin is intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE SECRETARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts, pints and half pints, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is genuine.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. F. Foster, 24 Hanover st.; J. Morse, 116 Blackstone st.; M. Davis & Co., 57 Blackstone st.; R. Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st.; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 75 Broad st.; Dolan & Snow, 24 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. Mitchell & Son.

DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand lives who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely on.

☞ News seven days letter from Europe, comes by the Asia, from Liverpool Jan. 22.

The political rumors are conflicting.—There was less confidence in peace, and a partial revival of the panic on the Paris Bourse.

The Swiss National Council voted half a million to immediately convert all guns into the percussion principle.

The British Minister at Washington is instructed to urge the opening of American coasting trade to British vessels, in return for a like concession by Britain.

Bombay dates of Dec. 24, have been received. The subjugation of disturbed districts is rapidly progressing, Ismael Kann, a rebel chief, has surrendered. Nena Sahib had fled to the jungle.

The U. S. frigate Macedonian was at Alexandria Jan. 6.

The widow of the poet Wordsworth died Jan. 27.

The Paris Debates thinks there are excellent reasons for trusting in the preservation of a general peace.

Steam engines at Vincennes are still making rifled canon.

The French garrison at Rome is shortly to be reinforced by two regiments of the line.

Miss Remond of Salem, Mass., has delivered a strong anti-slavery lecture before a large audience at Liverpool. Rev. W. H. Channing presided, and introduced the lady, who was received with much enthusiasm.

FROM CALIFONIA.—New Orleans, Feb. 6. The Steamship Quaker City, with 110 passengers, and San Francisco dates of the 20th ult., has arrived.

The Pacific mail steamer Sonora takes out 175 passengers and over a million and a half of specie, of which $1,296,000 is for New York.

The French had taken possession of the Clifferton Guano Island.

The dates from the city of Mexico, are to the 29th ult. Gen. Miramon reached the Capitol on the 26th ult. with a thousand cavalry. He disapproved of the acts of Gen. Robles, and displaced him, after which he placed Gen. Sales at the head of the army and reinstalled Zuloaga.

The liberals had routed Gen. Nerette near Jalapa.

The Picayune's correspondent says that the Mexican war schooner Iturbide had been captured by an American and six foreigners, who killed five of the crew and escaped with the vessel. The correspondent does not mention the time that this took place.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The Postmaster will to-morrow send to Congress his estimates of receipts for the next fiscal year, amounting to seven and a half millions.—Estimated expenditures seventeen and a half millions; leaving a deficiency for the next year, of ten millions in that one department.

FROM HAVANA.—New Orleans, Feb. 7.—The steamship Black Warrior, with Havana dates of Feb. 3, has arrived. The first action on the Cuba question created great excitement on the Island.

A French steamer with 850 coolies had arrived at Havana.

☞ In the U. S. Senate, Monday, Feb. 7, the Agricultural College Bill was then taken up, when Mr. Clay commenced a speech against it showing its unconstitutionality.

The bill was passed with some amendments, which will require it to go back to the House.

Mr. Hunter then tried ineffectually to call up the civil appropriation Bill.

Mr. Slidell desired to take up the bill for the acquisition of Cuba. He said attention to that measure, which had been confided to his care, required that he should urge it on the notice of the Senate, and rather than have it set aside for less important business, he would move that its provisions be added as an amendment to the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill. Finally, he gave notice he would call up the subject to-morrow.

The House, under suspension of the rules, passed, severally, the joint resolution for payment of the balance of $7000 to Georgia, on account of Indian wars; the Senate Bill paying Maine $6000 for expenses incurred in organizing a regiment of Volunteers for the Mexican war—and the Senate bill, authorizing the Attorney General to act in the pending Equity case between Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—A paper was circulated in the House to-day, calling a conference on Wednesday evening, of Democrats from all sections, for a general interchanging of views on the tariff question. The Pennsylvania, and other Democrats, absent on Saturday, will unite with them. A proposition was started to-day by Mr. Taylor of La. to introduce a bill suspending for two years the tariff of 1857, thus revising the tariff of 1846. A good many Southern members heretofore opposed to any measure looking to a modification of the tariff, have agreed to this proposition of Mr. Taylor. It is understood that the President will veto the Agricultural College bill.

THE RAW HIDE AND THE PRIEST.—A converted Catholic said that it was a fact which ought to brand the Catholic priesthood with everlasting disgrace infamy, that the priest literally used the raw-hide to whip dependent, defenceless women—to whip the heresy out of them. It is almost incredible that the scourge, the instrument of tyrants, in this land of liberty, is the torture employed by men who profess to be the only ministers of our Lord Jesus Christ. The raw-hide is the means of salvation used in all parts of the land, to an incredible extent, upon all who are suspected of heresy. These minions of despotic power dare not deny that they use the raw hide to flog women.

The speaker said he knew, from sad experience, in every part of our land this enormity is practised, of flogging with the raw-hide, for the good of the soul. It is done in secret often times, and the poor sufferer dares not open her mouth.—Christian Intelligencer.

This seems incredible.

A poor young man once fell in love with an heiress, and the passion being returned, it only wanted the parent's consent to make him happy. At length meeting the father, he asked for his daughter's hand. "How much money can you command?" asked the millionaire gruffly. "I cannot command much," was the reply. "What are your expectations?" "Well, to tell the truth, I expect to run away with your daughter and marry her, if you don't give your consent."

THE VANDERBILT STEAMER.—The steamer Vanderbilt, which was partly got off, owing to the wind shifting to the west, went on again. The prospect of now getting her off, is very unfavorable.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their CELEBRATED FAMILY MACHINES, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale

A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.

It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

Particular Notice. The subscriber having made arrangements to engage in business in a distant State, has disposed of his Stock and Trade to Mr. E. A. STEVENS, and solicits for him, from his friends and patrons, a continuance of their favors. In retiring from business in Portsmouth, he tenders to his Fellow Citizens his most grateful acknowledgements, not only for their liberal patronage during his residence here, but for the many acts of kindness of which he has been the recipient. Those having demands against him are requested to present them for settlement, and those indebted to him to make payment. Portsmouth, Dec. 28th, 1858. G. N. CARLETON, 15 Daniel St.

A Card. The Subscriber, who has been Foreman of the Stove Manufactory of Mr. Carleton and his predecessor, Mr. Morrison, for more than twenty years past, would inform his friends that he may be hereafter found at the Store of Mr. E. A. Stevens, No. 46 Market Street, where he will endeavor to execute all orders in his line of business promptly and faithfully as in times past. Dec. 31, 1858. ISAAC DOW.

STEVENS' House Furnishing Establishment. The Subscriber having purchased MR. G. N. CARLETON'S entire Stock of Stoves, &c., and removed the same to his own Store, NO. 46 MARKET STREET, offers to the public a complete assortment of Furnaces, Ranges, Parlor Grates, Stoves, Tin Ware, —AND— KITCHEN FURNISHING GOODS Of All Kinds, AT GOOD BARGAINS FOR CASH. Repairing pieces for all Ranges, Furnaces, and formerly sold by MR. CARLETON, kept constantly on hand.

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING Carpet Sweeper. This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard. The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping. The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep. Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied. EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE A Carpet Sweeper.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

Astonishing Cures of Consumption.

Two cases pronounced beyond the reach of Medical Aid.

AUGUSTA, Me., May 27, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—The Hungarian Balsam, has been of the most infinite service to me. I have been cured of an affection of the Lungs, which was thought to be incurable by all my friends, by the use of a few bottles. One of my children was also restored to health, after being pronounced BEYOND THE REACH OF MEDICAL AID, and this medicine is now my constant resort in case of any difficulty in the Throat and Lungs.

Yours truly, FRANCIS J. WEEKS.

BELFAST, Me., June, 1845.

DR. BRADLEE—SIR—Mr. Clark of Palmyra, Me., a friend of mine, was taken sick about a year ago with bad Cough, Pain in the side, general debility, &c. He consulted several doctors, who prescribed for him—but was finally told HE COULD NOT GET WELL! He stopped taking medicine, but continued to grow worse, until he was so weak that he could scarcely sit up. He saw a notice of the Hungarian Balsam, procured a bottle, and continued to take it according to the directions—and, strange to say, in a few months he was a strong man, and as he believes permanently cured.

Yours ret'y, H. G. O. WASHBURN, Bookseller.

YOU HAD BETTER TRY

MY MOTHER'S SALVE

This celebrated preparation has obtained an enviable and WORLD-WIDE reputation for its GREAT CURATIVE PROPERTIES, and has been the agent of relieving so many sufferers, restoring them to health and usefulness, that the proprietor feels it a duty she owes to the public for their generous patronage bestowed upon this Salve, to make it accessible to rich and poor, that all afflicted may avail themselves of its healing qualities.

"My Mother's Salve" is a Perfect Chemical Compound, prepared from Roots, Herbs and Gums, combined from Nature's Great Healing, Soothing and Pain-Relieving Virtues never before combined in a Salve or Ointment.

"My Mother's Salve" is safe and effectual, and all troubled with RHEUMATISM, SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, GOUT, PILES, and such like diseases, will find in its use great relief, and in most cases a Permanent Cure.

"My Mother's Salve" is a BURN or SCALD, takes out the fire, soothes the irritating pain, and heals the wound more speedily and effectually than any other preparation.

"My Mother's Salve" is worthy of confidence, and thousands having used it and recommended it to their friends is a test of its worth.

Directions for using "My Mother's Salve" are simple. Every mother and nurse knows how to apply a plaster and direct others to do so. Use the Salve will apply it in proportion, renewed at times, as good judgment may direct. For Rheumatism and other pains, rub the part smartly with Salve. In cases of Cough, Tightness of the Lungs, Sore Throat, and such like ails, rub as in rheumatism. In any case of pain a good result follows the use of this Salve. Prepared by M. B. DEAN.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemen in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the wonderful virtues of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. It certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press.

BATH, ME., Jan. 20, 1858.

PROFESSOR O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I was doubtful it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

To the public I owe it to say this much for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to complain of my recommend. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of this above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, JAN. 28, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose first portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orchodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DREW.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 50 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid matter from the system, supplying their place with a healthy action, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving a healthy tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve a headache and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of mercurious medicines after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its severest form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by expelling the water.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

One dose in the month with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Imperious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many year to combine articles which would answer the above purposes, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of the practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN.

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or 1 in. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice, is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and inclosing $1, in any part of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE PILLS.

UNRIVALLED IN EFFICACY. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure to find it. This is the place, the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 6ly

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a beautiful Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy caps to cover her gray hair.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents.
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, not surpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.)
Boston, February 3 1858.
Mr R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.
From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1859.

THE CUBA QUESTION.

To this question there are two sides.—Those who desire to annex it, most, are Southern States Rights Democrats, or in other words slavery propagandists.

The bill embodying their views, which Miles Taylor of Louisiana is ready to introduce into the House, authorizes the President to enter into negotiations for the purchase of Cuba, at a cost not to exceed one hundred and twenty millions of dollars, and empowers him to have issued from the Federal Treasury, (whenever Spain ratifies a quit-claim treaty of sale) five per cent. bonds for the amount of purchase money, redeemable within thirty years, in six annual installments. And it is further provided that the President shall thereupon, by proclamation, declare Cuba a sovereign State of this Union, with two Senators and four Representatives, until the next succeeding census and subsequent apportionment of Representatives.

Such is the plain, unvarnished position assumed by those who are determined to absorb the "Key to the Antilles," and the National Era considers the issue far more pressing and momentous than the tariff or the Loan Bill. It asks:

Is the North willing to have Cuba with six hundred thousand slaves? Is the South willing to have Cuba with eight hundred thousand free colored people? Is the commercial interest anxious for Cuba at the expense of a war with Spain, France and England? Are the people of the Free States willing to give thirty millions to be expended at the discretion of James Buchanan, who signed the Ostend manifesto and endorsed the Lecompton fraud? Are the people willing to put the army and navy at the discretion of James Buchanan, for the purpose of despoiling Mexico and subjecting the territories torn from them to the dominion of slavery? These are the questions to be met by the Representatives of the people.

☞ The Saco Democrat contains a very satisfactory and pleasant notice of the Maine State Reform School, and says, "we are pleased to learn taat the institution is in successful operation, and is tulfilling satisfactorily the purposes for which the State intended it."

The trustees say, in their report, that they find great encouragement in the instances which are constantly coming before them of boys awakened to better purposes and a higher life through the influences which the School has brought to bear upon them. The School is designed to combine in its operation both the legal and the moral power, and, appealing for aid to each of these principles, they would seem to commend themselves to every one's sympathy.

There are 214 boys at the school, and the State last year appropriated $15,000 for the support of the institution.

The Democrat does not intimate that anybody thinks of selling the school!

☞ A paragraph, originating in a Philadelphia paper, stating that persons sending newspapers and pamphlets to Europe, should be careful not to enclose them in wrappers, as it subjects them to letter postage, has been widely copied by the press. It is very well known, however, to newspaper publishers, who are in the habit of sending newspapers to Europe, that the above statement is not correct. All that is required by the foreign regulations is that the wrapper should not cover so much of the newspaper as is customary with people here. The wrapper should be small—about one third of the length of the folded paper—thus leaving the ends of the paper free from any covering, so that it can easily be examined by the post office officials.

OFF THE TRACK.—The Bath Times says: "The unskillful and selfish engineers who undertook to run the democratic engine have got the train off the track, spilt passengers and baggage, and allowed the fire to go out and the boiler to freeze up; and because the people thus scattered on the track are not willing to lie still and allow the opposition train to run over them, but have gathered in their might and majesty to lift the ponderous wheels into place again, the fellows who have caused all this trouble stand off and swear, and smite their fists because those who don't understand engineering have undertaken to repair their own wrongs and secure their own safety."

☞ The Providence Journal wants to know it the Bankrupt bill, which Senator Toombs is to introduce into the Senate, includes in its provisions the National Treasury.

LAWSUITS AVOIDED.—At a late session of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire, the Sullivan Republican says, the charge of Judge French to the Grand Jury was an able and lucid exposition of the Trial by Jury. He made careful enquiries whether the expense and delay incident upon this mode of settling suits, do not warrant a modification of the proceedings. His observations upon the practice of courts in England, taken while there in person, throw much light upon the subject. In the County Courts there, when the sum in suit is less than $25, the parties may appear without attornies, each may make a statement of his case, and the court give a decision—parties may, however, elect to give the matter to a jury. In 1855, of 285,178 actions, 685 were tried by jury, or 1 in 487. In our State the proportion is 1 to 20 1-2. Thus it will be seen that this mode of proceeding greatly diminishes the expense of litigation, both in time and money, to individuals and to the public.

He also enquired whether a less number than 12, or whether a majority of the whole number, may not give as substantial and satisfactory justice, as the common course of requiring unanimity. It is as reasonable to suppose that the deliberate opinion of the jurors will be as equitable and just, as a unanimous opinion extorted by confinement and hunger. The suggestions of Judge French were of great practical importance; and many of them it adopted, would, we doubt not, greatly improve our judicial system.

A BRITISH REGIMENT IN NEW YORK.—The Gothamite military are on the qui vive in regard to the expected arrival in that city at an early day of the 42d Highlanders, of the British army, en route for Fraser river, by way of the Isthmus.—With the exception of the Montreal company, present at the Cable celebration last fall, this will be the first appearance of British troops in New York, since the evacuation in 1783. The 42d Highlanders is a crack regiment in the British army, and has borne the British flag in battle and victory in all parts of the world, where the hardest fighting has been done—under Marlborough, at Waterloo, in Spain, in India and the Crimea. The officers of the Seventh Regiment have already taken the initial steps to give the famous visitors a suitable reception, which it is hoped they will not decline

A BRIGHT GIRL.—The Manchester Mirror tells us, that in that city last Sunday afternoon, about a quarter to 12 o'clock, while Wm. White was at church, a well dressed young man, tall, of dark complexion, brandishing a white-headed cane, called at his house, and rang the bell which was answered by a well-informed servant girl. He said to her that Mr. White had sent him for his overcoat and shawl. She replied that he could not have them till Mr. White returned, but that if he would leave his name she would hand it to Mr. White. He turned and walked off, remarking indignantly, "I am a man without a name." The coat and shawl both were hanging in sight as the door opened, and hence he asked for them. If the door had not been fastened he would probably have walked in and taken them.

Common servant girls would have given up the coat and shawl.

DEATH OF A VALUABLE STALLION.—We learn from the Barre Gazette that the splendid six year old stallion "Black Morgan," owned by Mr. A. C. Stowell of Petersham, died on Wednesday. The horse was unwell and his owner intended to dose him with linseed oil, but through some mistake of the clerk in the store where the purchase was made, the horse got a bottle full of either resin oil, or spirits of turpentine. The animal died in great agony in about seven hours.

☞ The first cargo of wheat which has arrived at Newburyport for a great many years arrived on Sunday last, in the brig Ann M. Weeks. It is designed for the Glen Mills, and will speedily be converted into flour. The flour from this mill is rapidly coming into use. Grocers find a ready sale for all they can obtain.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Dr. Solomon Allen of Westbrook, Me., returning home Monday evening from a professional visit, went to his stable to put up his horse. Being gone an usual length of time, the family became alarmed, and on going into the stable found that he had fallen into the horse's crib, and that his neck was broken.

☞ Mrs. Mary Hartung, a young woman, tried at Albany, for killing her husband with poison, has been convicted of murder.

☞ A young lad while skating on the Connecticut river, between Springfield and Chicopee, and drawing a girl on a sled after him, skated into an air hole and both went under water. By their own presence of mind, and with the assistance of some companions, they were rescued. The little girl kept her mouth shut, as she remembered her mother told her people in the water should, and although senseless when rescued, thus avoided any material ill effects.

☞ In Philadelphia, on Sunday evening, John Sloan had a bitter altercation of words with John Alexander, keeper of a tavern on Second street, and not long after approached him with a double-barreled pistol and discharged both barrels at him. The balls took effect in the top of Alexander's head, scattering his brains upon the pavement, and killing him. The murderer was arrested.

☞ The Merrimac Hat Company at Salisbury, Mass., has declared a stock dividend of 20 per cent. This is better than cash, since the new stock is above par.—Since they commenced running in July, they have cleared off a debt of five or six thousand dollars, and actually made 20 per cent besides. The business is very prosperous, and they are running their machinery to the utmost of its power, and there is talk of their putting up a new building.

DEATH OF A VETERAN EDITOR.—Ebenezer Eaton, the senior editor of the Danville, Vt., North Star, died in that town on Monday, Jan. 31, at the advanced age of 82 years. Mr. Eaton was born at Mansfield, Ct., and served his apprenticeship in the Worcester Spy office. He was brother to the celebrated Gen. Eaton, whose exploits in the war of Tripoli are so well known.

☞ The startling fact was announced to the members of the New York Assembly at Albany, on Friday, by Gen. Duryea, that the building they occupy is unsafe, and that at any moment the heavy iron roof of the Capitol might come crashing through the chamber. A thorough examination of the roof is to be made, and in the mean time the Assembly continue to sit under it.

☞ Dr. Willard stated in a paper read before the New York Medical Society, that since last April there had been 2000 cases of the "Albany disease," or diptuenite, 176 of which proved fatal, all but three of whom were children, and most of them children under twelve years of age. A false membrane is formed in the throat, which gradually extends downward, obstructs breathing, and suffocates the patient.

☞ The Sussex (N. J.) Register says that on the night of the 10th January, (the coldest for many years,) Aaron Vanaiker, aged 60, attempted to cross the Delaware in a skiff, and getting caught in the ice, he lost his oars, and drifted until after after daylight next morning, when he was rescued near the Water Gap, after fifteen hours' exposure to a regular Arctic temperature, without so much as a frozen toe or finger.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Robert Piper of Newburyport, was found dead in the privy connected with his house, at an early hour on Monday morning. Mr. Piper was apparently in good health, had attended church as usual on the Sabbath, and made no complaint of being unwell during the morning. His death was probably owing to some organic disease of the heart. He was 73 years of age.

☞ Mr. Spurgeon, as we learn from "Burleigh" of the Boston Journal, is coming to this country, and will preach in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, &c., and the proceeds of the collections will be divided equally—one half to build the great Spurgeon Chapel in London, and the other to build a great "Evangelical" Chapel for the poor in New York.

☞ Henry Jumpertz, who has been on trial at Chicago during the past ten days for the murder of Sophia Werner, whose remains were found in a barrel at the Hudson River Railroad depot, New York, about a year since, has been found guilty. His counsel has made application for a new trial.

☞ The New York Times states that the causes of the Divorce suit of Dr. Wm. F. Channing of Boston, "date back to a period long anterior to the excitements of 'Spiritualism,' and are of a nature so purely private and and personal as should exempt them from public inquisition."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.

SENATE.—Mr. Green, from the Committee on Territories reported against the organization of Jefferson.

Mr. Bigler attempted to bring up the resolution that, in the opinion of the Senate, a large public debt in time of peace is inconsistent with the true policy of this country, and that Congress should, without delay, proceed to adjust the revenue and expenditures.

Messrs. Mason and Bayard objected, but the motion was carried 23 against 13.

Mr. Bigler then addressed the Senate, advocating the mixed specific and ad valorem duties.

Mr. Bigler spoke at length on the Tariff.

Mr. Johnson, of Tenn., offered a resolution to the effect that the President be requested to call on the heads of the departments to submit estimates, so as to bring the expenses of the government within $50,000,000 annually, exclusive of the public debt.

At this point the further consideration of the subject was postponed.

Messrs. Hunter and Brown tried to call up their respective bills—the former, the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation bill, and the latter the Pennsylvania Avenue Horse Railroad bill. The motion of Mr. Brown prevailed—23 against 20.

The Pennsylvania Avenue Railroad bill thereupon was again considered, but, having been overlaid with amendments, which changed its original object, it was defeated without much debate, and partially by the vote of its friends—yeas 22, nays 25.

Mr. Hunter then succeeded in calling up his Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation bill and handed in several amendments, that they might be printed.

HOUSE.

Mr. Lovejoy of Ill., moved to strike out the appropriation for the safe keeping of prisoners, remarking that it was for fugitive slaves till their trial came on, and characterized their capture as odious and abhorrent to the free States.

Mr. Singleton of Miss., said he would be glad if Mr. Lovejoy would return the negro he had stolen from one of his constituents.

Mr. Lovejoy replied—his constituent never owned a negro, for every being God made belonged to himself. He had no hesitation to declare that he did help the fugitive slave, and would always give food and shelter to necessitous whites or blacks.

Mr. Singleton asked—What is that but stealing?

Mr. Lovejoy—Stealing is taking a man and keeping him as a slave.

Mr. Phelps of Mo., said if the amendment prevail, every man arrested as a criminal, would be turned loose, and Mr. Lovejoy would be the general jail deliverer of many infamous persons.

Mr. John Cochrane of N. Y., humorously remarked that Mr. Lovejoy's objection might be obviated by making the clause read "free prisoners." (Laughter.)

Mr. Lovejoy's amendment was rejected.

Mr. Singleton subsequently said as Mr. Lovejoy had admitted he had participated in slave stealing, he regarded him as a disgrace to the nation.

The chairman (Mr. Barksdale of Miss.,) declared him out of order.

Exclamations from the Republican side—"Let him go on!"

Mr. Giddings of O.—"He is perfectly in order, and I move he be permitted to proceed." (Laughter.)

The Committee rose, and the House concurred, by the casting vote of the Speaker, in an amendment striking out $67,379, for the Congressional Globe, and binding the same, and reporting the proceedings.

The vote was then reconsidered, and the amendment rejected by nine majority.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Senator Fitch intends introducing a bill authorizing the government to use American iron for ships and public buildings, in lieu of other solid materials. The Committee on Ways and Means, at their meeting this morning took no action on the tariff.

It is said the call for the Democratic caucus for to-morrow night, is signed by about 75 members of the House.

The Senate to-day confirmed the appointment of Samuel W. Black as Governor of Nebraska; Wilson McCandless, to the vacant Pennsylvania Judgeship; and Mr. Ammidown, as Navy Agent at Boston.

FOUND.—A friend of ours, while strolling over the White Mountains lately, found a letter, of which the following are extracts:

"I have not been out to see viany since i got back tell father i have not been to see his wife yet and i do not know when i shall rosillar is not married yet but i expect she will before a grait while my pen is poor

my ink is pale my hand quivers like a little dogs tail poor paper poor pen poor writing amen"

The owner of the above can have it by proving property.—Tri-Weekly Publisher.

☞ A steamboat arrived at New Orleans a few days since, from the Red River, with a large pleasure party on board, among whom, says the Delta, were eight widows, whose aggregate wealth amounted to five millions of dollars. One of the said ladies is the owner of six hundred slaves, and the others make a crop of three thousand bales of cotton.

COLLEGE BURNT.—Petersburg, (Va.,) Feb. 8.—The William and Mary College, at Williamsburg, including the Library and Laboratory, was destroyed by fire at three o'clock this morning. The students all escaped. Insurance $22,000. It was the oldest institution in the country.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 8.—In consequence of the corruption discovered at the Health and Poor departments of the city, the State Senate has passed a bill abolishing both boards, and authorizing the appointment of new boards by the Courts.

☞ Several gentlemen of Bethel, Me., last week caught, in one day and a half, nine deer, in the vicinity of Wild River.

GOOD NEWS.—A reduction in the prices of Sewing Machines is announced. Their utility is established beyond question, and at the present prices we see no reason why they should not be found, as they ought to be, in every household.—Several varieties are manufactured, adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler & Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material.

If the pilferer who was seen to take two whips from a sleigh near the Universalist Church, on the two last Sundays, will leave them in the same sleigh next Sunday, or send them to the Sexton, no questions will be asked. Otherwise, he may look for exposure and punishment. feb10

TESTIMONY.—Des. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

Henry Bowen, Librarian of Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association Rooms, School street, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters are a very valuable medicine—the best he ever used.—All medicine dealers sell them.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was in a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitorumenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Potsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand perspiratory tubes to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible cure. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris, also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods dealers.

Charles's London Cordial Gin.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, distilled in London, from sound Barley, under the surveillance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the separable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS, the KIDNEYS and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., which the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounced Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER is imported.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. K. Foster, 99 Elm st; J. Wilson & Son, 114 Blackstone st; M. French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will subply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

"A Paper for Sensible People."—Some one, in speaking of the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette, has bestowed upon it the compliment which is adopted as the caption of this article, and we believe the editors, Messrs. Wm. W. Clapp, Jr., Ben. P. Shillaber, (Mrs. Partington,) and A. Wallace Thaxter, could ask no prouder distinction than to cater for sensible people.

The Gazette for this week will bear comparison with any weekly published. Its contents are entirely original. "A Life's Fortunes, and How They Turned Out," from the pen of Ben. P. Shillaber, is one of his best efforts, and his column of "Responsibilities" is always up to the mark. The veteran editor, Joseph T. Buckingham is also a contributor to this week's issue, and there are several side dishes more or less spicey to please the appetites of the humorous. The Gazette is for sale at Mr. Morse's Portsmouth ought to make up a club of fifty for the Gazette.

☞ The Rockingham County Musical Association" are to hold their Fourth Musical Convention at the Town Hall in New Market, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 15th, 16th and 17th:—and to give one of their popular concerts on Thursday evening, 17th. The "Gloria in Excelsis" is the book to be used.

We are pleased to learn that the musical people in New Market are much interested in having the Convention held there; and it will without doubt be an occasion of much attraction to all who really feel any interest in our home music, especially church singing—as, indeed, these meetings of the Association have always proved, when held in Portsmouth.

Navy Yard Matters.—A Portsmouth letter to the Boston Courier contains the following item:

I learn that the new steam sloop-of-war at the Navy Yard will be launched on some day next week. During the past fortnight, a few incompetent workmen and disappointed bidders for contracts have endeavored to revive some stale charges against persons in the Y rd, which long since were investigated and found to be groundless by the proper authorities at Washington. The plan has been to get up ex parte affidavits and send them to the Naval Investigating Committee of the House, and thus Portsmouth men of leisure get summoned upon a profitable journey to Washington at the rate of 10 cents per mile, costing the government a liberal sum, the result of all which can only be to lessen the amount of appropriations for the Yard.

☞ Elder Edwin Burnham will preach this eve and the evenings through the week at the Advent Chapel. Friends invited.

☞ Three confederates in the recent murder of Mr. Tainter, at Millbury, have been arrested and committed for trial, viz.: Malone, who was with Doggan; Dennis Murphy of Sutton, who concealed Malone, and assisted him in an attempt to escape; and Kate Hill of Millbury, who bought hair dye for Doggan, and otherwise aided his escape.

☞ A few days since, a clerk in the store of John Metty, in Mackinac, Wisconsin, mistaking a can of powder for one of oil, put it in the stove to warm. The can exploded, blowing the building to atoms, and burning and bruising Peter and Louis Metty and Joseph Chovereux very severely.

☞ It is stated that Rev. Mr. Spurgeon will soon visit America as an independent preacher, without any pecuniary engagement; and whatever means he may take to raise money for the building of his new chapel, will be taken after he reaches New York.

☞ The weather in Barbadoes, for the fortnight ending 27th Decemaer, had been so beneficial to the growing canes that it is estimated the approaching crop has been thereby augmented to the extent of about ten thousand hogsheads.

☞ Advices from Oregon say that the portion of the President's message relating to Kansas affairs, is unfavorably received there, on the ground tha the policy advocated would retard the admission of Oregon into the Union.

☞ The John Chinamen in San Francisco collect and pack in casks broken glassware of every description for shipment to China. It pays them more than two hundred per cent. profit.

☞ The Concord Patriot states that 13 indictments for illegal sales of liquor, have been found by the Grand Jury in Merrimack county.

☞ The New York State Prisons are overflowing. At Sing Sing there are 1170 prisoners, and Clinton and Auburn prisons are crowded.

If youth is a blunder, manhood is a struggle, and age a regret.

More Birch.—We continue to get rich items about Mr. Birch, who tells bad stories, first about his wife, and then about himself.

The Bangor Times says this Mr. B. once lived in Bangor, and for the manner in which he treated his wife, he richly deserved the birch.

Prospects.—The Concord Patriot of Feb. 9, after finding fault with the Courts, the Reform School, the liquor and pedler laws, the "Black Republicans," &c.,—concludes in the following hopeful yet doubtful strain.

Nothing but their wonderful success in keeping public attention upon other matters has saved them from utter and indignant repudiation by the people before this time. But they cannot longer keep the people's minds from a proper consideration of these important matters. The people are considering them, and the result will be the utter overthrow of this party of false promises and violated pledges, and the restoration of the good old Democratic party to power.

The same paper, speaking of Mr. Alexander's removal from the Custom House, says:—

There is no truer or more zealous and efficient supporter of the Democratic cause than Mr. Alexander, and although this act of gross injustice can have no effect to abate his zeal in or to impair his attachment to that cause, yet it is to be deprecated both as a personal wrong to him, as injurious to the party, and as indicating a spirit of indifference if not of absolute hostility to the success of the Democratic party in this State.

Sayed by a Newspaper.—A few days since Mr. R. H. Martin, one of the superintendents of the laborers at work at the new Washington Springs, at Saratoga, N. Y., being engaged near the steam pump, by some means slipped so that the skirt of his coat caught in the cogs of the pump. One bite of the cogs in the coat and it commenced drawing him in pretty fast. He had no time to give an alarm before he was brought up with the prospect of being maimed by the cogs; but fortunately he had in his pocket a newspaper tightly folded together, and when the cogs came to that they stopped, throwing the band off the pullies.

☞ The Worcester Transcript says that the selection of the Republican candidate for the Presidency in 1860, ought not to be left to the politicians.

"They have too much personal interest in the stake to decide honestly. Let the people—the farmers, the artizans, the tradesmen—think over and discuss this subject in all its relations. It is worthy of their consideration. Momentous results hang upon the next Presidential election and every true pacriot must feel a responsibility which should not be evaded."

☞ The Boston Traveller says that steps are to be immediately taken to rebuild the Mechanical Bakery. It is proposed to organize a stock company with a capital of which $200,000 of Mr. Russell has subscribed $25,000.

The Negro Race in New York.—It is estimated that the colored population amounts to 10,000. There are 204 colored waiters and 144 colored porters, 150 colored men are whitewashers, 80 are coachmen, 64 cooks, 48 barbers, 182 laborers, and 124 sailors.

Rev. Sidney Smith, in speaking of the prosy nature of some sermons said, "They are written as if sin were to be taken out of man, like Eve out of Adam, by putting him to sleep."

"Oh, she was a jewel of a wife," said Pat, mourning over the loss of his better half, "she always struck me with the soft end of the mop."

Liberty is the soul's right to breath, and when it cannot take a long breath, laws are girded too tight.—Beecher.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO., 18 SUMMER STREET, BOSTON.

Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacturing their Celebrated Family Machines, with all the recent improvements, have reduced their prices, and offer for sale A NEW STYLE MACHINE; PRICE $50.
It is no longer questioned that these Machines are the best in use for family sewing. They HEM, FELL, GATHER, AND STITCH in the most superior manner, and are the only machines in the market that are so well and simply made,—that they may be sent into families with no other instructions than are contained in a circular which accompanies each machine, and from which A CHILD OF TEN YEARS may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE, and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can do it, even if the works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.
Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?

EDSON'S PATENT SELF-ADJUSTING

Carpet Sweeper.

This is an original and perfect arrangement of the best material, in the most compact form,—combing strength and durability with neatness and efficiency. It has an eccentric slide, by which the brush may be lowered until it is worn entirely out, and also kept in gear, so that it will not run loose and rattle, or so close as to run hard.

The end of the machine is small;—the brush extends to the extreme edge. The handle is wound or padded, so that a child can sweep a carpet clean,—sweeping the corners and edges of the room, and under the furniture, without raising dust, injuring the furniture, or marring the finish. The handle is connected at such a point between the driving-wheel and brush as to render the instrument self-adjusting—so that it adapts itself to any condition of surface, as well as to light or heavy sweeping.

The bristles in the brush are arranged like the arms of a propeller, forming a five-threaded screw. When in operation, it is a spiral advancing rotary motion that produces a clean sweep.

Another invoice of these celebrated sweepers have just been received and those persons who have been waiting for them, can now be supplied.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE

A Carpet Sweeper.

THE GREAT WONDER

Of The Nineteenth Century.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

Bath, Me., Jan. 20, 1856.

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.:

Gentlemen:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy; it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my age and wife's at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city, and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service. I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly yours,

A. C. Raymond.

Baltimore, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood | Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

Finley Johnson.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.

W. Dyer.

Brookfield, Jan 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood: and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.

Yours truly, J. K. Bragg.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds a pint, and retails for $1; the medium holds at least 20 per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for $2; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

The Liver Invigorator!

PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,

Compounded Entirely from GUMS.

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of many diseases, effecting a radical cure.

Bilious Attacks are cured, and when better prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, as a dose costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor. 345 Broadway, N. Y.

Sold by THACHER, PRESTON, HUTCHINGS, and all Druggists everywhere. su31 ly

One dose cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst form. In the Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

A few doses will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take great pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It opens the secretions, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

Patent Mastic Roofing.

Impervious to Water, and a Sure Protection against Destruction by Fire.

THE Inventor of this Roofing labored many years to combine articles which would answer the above purpose, and obviate the difficulties of Rust and Decay attendant upon Tin and Shingles, and the destruction by Sun and Frost of the Pitch and other Cements now in use; this he succeeded in doing, and now after Five Years of the severest trial, we would invite the careful attention of all interested in such matters, believing that they will be fully convinced of its practical value, both for durability and cheapness, in which respects we do most strongly assert that ITS EQUAL IS NOT KNOWN!

This Roofing can be readily applied to roofs of every description, either Steep or Flat, and can be put on over Shingles or 1 in. at much less expense than the first, and at about half the cost of the latter.

We are aware that the public have had many kinds of roofing brought to their notice within the last few years, and that most of them have proved complete failures; but we do most candidly and unhesitatingly assert that the article which we would bring to your notice is far superior to anything of the kind yet discovered, and after a severe test of many years, it stands as reliable and as good as when first put on, without change or decay.

DR. J. B. HUGHES,

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.

DR. HUGHES can with safety say during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics, have been under his care; and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Hughes, post paid, and medicines sent all over the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing eyes.

Be particular in finding Dr. Hughes. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of decency or health, the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. HUGHES, 13 Howard street, Boston.

DR. J. B. HUGHES UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS.

These pills are unrivalled for their superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—13 Howard street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 diy

Dye your Hair and Whiskers.

BY using Hutchins' Liquid HAIR DYE, you can color Red or Gray Hair to a fine Auburn, Brown or Black. This is the best article in use. A lady says it is cheaper to use it than to buy paper to cover her gray hair.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

AFTER an extensive practic of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Boston, February 8 1858.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such uninstakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept. 17, 1857, to June 17, 1858, the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1859.

OUR KANSAS CORRESPONDENCE.

LEAVENWORTH, K. T., Jan. 31.

We are quite on the confines of civilization; but Providence seems to have ordained that we shall remain the theatre of bitter collision on that question which the Democratic party has so faithfully (?) striven to settle—the question of slavery. For the last six months, there has been a feeling of comparitive amity between the citizens of Kansas and Missouri. The whisky-loving Borderers sullenly acquiesced in inevitable fate, ceased to vote at Oxford and Kickapoo, and returned to their useful vocation of hemp-raising. The troubles in Linn county have been so distant and so confused as to produce no very violent effects upon the public mind. Not so with the case of the kidnapped negro, Charley Fisher. The most vehement outbursts of feeling have arisen over this affair; and deep animosities between the citizens of Missouri and Kansas, as well as between the people of Leavenworth, have been created.

It appears that with the laudable design of getting an honest living, Charley was working at the Planter's House in this city. There he was seized one night by a brace of infamous scoundrels, formerly connected with our police—enjoying the cooperation of quite a gang of demons, and the advice of the proprietors of the hotel. With brutal violence suppressing his cries, they hurried him into a skiff, and pushed across to the congenial clime of Missouri. Secure of their prey, the ruffians slept, and the negro, all handcuffed as he was, escaping to the skiff, contrived to reach the Kansas shore.

As bad luck would have it, the poor fellow again fell into unfriendly hands, and this time was placed under a strong guard. For a day or two a collision seemed imminent. At last the writ of habeas corpus was issued by Judge Gardner, and served by our City Marshal. The door was barricaded against the Marshal's posse. They hesitated. Champion Vaughan, the noble editor of the Times, was waiting at the door with horses. The hesitancy of the Marshal's posse was made known to him. Collected and resolute, he declared that it must be done. The door was broken in pieces, and the kidnapped man brought forth. He was soon beyond the reach of his enemies.

Over this escape of a human being from unrighteous bondage, there arose one long and savage howl from the lowest depths of the city—that is, the lowest depths of the city did the howling. They assembled in uproarious conclave, and perfuming their assemblage with a few mismamed "solid men," (which is now understood to mean some old fellows with a ton of gold and a pennyweight of conscience,) gave utterance to sentiments disgraceful to the nineteenth century. The Times and its editors were denounced in the most pungent terms of their acrid and foul vocabulary. Characteristic threats were made of attacking the office. The slave's claimant, on appearing, was greeted with nine cheers. In these heartless orgies the friends of the Fugitive Slave Bill expended their zeal for the Constitution and the laws.

The gathering of the succeeding night was a crushing demonstration against the slave-hunters and slave-hunting. Resolutions were adopted, denying the legal existence of slavery in the territories, under the Constitution; rebuking the insolence of slave-claimants; endorsing the Times; reaffirming the independence of the press; and declaring the meeting of the slavery propagandists an outrage on public sentiment. Mr. Vaughan finds his subscription list diminished by fifteen, but has received more than that number of new subscribers. He follows up the wrathful withdrawal of the patriotic fifteen, by requesting one firm to take out their advertisement from his columns, and give way to more respectable houses.

While these events were transpiring, an audacious outrage was planned and executed by a party from Weston, Missouri, headed by the Mayor and City Marshal.—Thirteen negroes, who had secreted themselves near Lawrence, were carried back over the river, under cover of the night, together with Dr. Day and son, formerly of Rochester, N. Y., charged by these lawless ruffians with aiding the escape of the blacks. They were taken first to Weston, then to Platte City, the seat of the Court of Platte county. There, amid the wildest expressions of popular ferocity, they endured the greatest insults, were almost entirely deprived of food, and chained in a foul dungeon. For a while there was imminent danger of their being murdered; but the more moderate prevailed, and they will be tried according to such law as is enjoyed on the benighted border. One thing is certain—Kansas will not submit to such outrages. She has the power in her right arm to protect herself, and she will use it.

Don't, for Heaven's sake, send anybody to Congress from your District, who will vote right straight along with the very representative of these Platte county ruffians, when he gets to Washington.

PORTSMOUTH ABROAD.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—St. Louis, Feb. 9.—The California overland mail of the 17th ult., arrived here this evening.

An immense mass meeting of Hebrews and Protestants had been held at San Francisco to express their indignation at the abduction of the Jewish boy Mortara by the Popish authorities at Rome.

The deposit of gold in the mint for the week ending Jan. 15, was nearly 12,000 ounces.

Martin Gallagher, one of the victims of the Vigilance Committee, had recovered $3000 damages from Capt. Smith of the barque Yankee, for deporting him from the Sandwich Islands, under a decree of banishment issued by the committee.

☞ Gen. William Walker, of fillibuster memory, has been admitted as a member of the Catholic church. The ceremony took place in the cathedral at Mobile.—The Mercury of that city notices the fact, and adds:—

"We cannot give details of what occurred, but suffice it to say, that Gen. Walker is now a member of the Catholic church, to whose fold he had been led, we have no doubt by overwhelming conviction, as he was reared after the straightest sect a Presbyterian, and, we have heard prepared himself for the services of the pulpit in that denomination."

PROSCRIPTION OF DOUGLAS MEN.—The following is from the Concord, N. H., Democratic Standard:

Contemplated Removal.—We learn from a friend who has just returned from Washington, that H. W. Reding, of the Haverhill Republican, will soon be removed from the post office in that town. He has been violent enemy of the Administration, doing some service as one of the brawling Douglas screechers in the back woods.

☞ At the Supreme Court in Concord, one J. Robbins, for breaking into a shop and stealing wagon springs, was sent to the State Prison for 3 years; and Lovett, a young burglar, who plead guilty of breaking into several houses last summer, was sent to the same prison for 6 years.

☞ Washington papers state that Mr. Cobb, Secretary of the Treasury, facetiously accuses Mr. Buchanan of having left the Democratic party on the tariff question. The Bath Times hopes no one will attempt to read him out.

SAILOR DROWNED.—Tuesday morning, an unknown man, apparently a sailor, while in a state of intoxication, walked overboard from one of the East Boston ferry slips, and was drowned. The body has not yet been recovered.

THE STRIKE among the Lowell female operatives is confined to the spinners, and they are all foreigners. The number engaged is supposed to be from three to five hundred. They demanded the wages paid before the crisis of 1857. Every honorable means has been used to induce them to return to their work, but without success, and their places will be supplied as soon as practicable with American girls from the rural districts.—Courier.

FIRE IN BOW.—Early this (Monday) morning, the barn of Mr. Elisha Upton in Bow was entirely destroyed by fire, with all its contents except live stock. The loss is covered by insurance in the Bow Co. The fire took from the breaking of a lantern. Mr. Upton was harnessing his horse, who kicked the lantern over and broke it. He left the barn without noticing any fire, but a few minutes afterwards it broke out and was beyond control.—Daily Patriot.

☞ The despotism which caused our fathers to make a tea-pot of Boston harbor, and to take up arms, was not to be named the same day with the iron control which a few pensioned presses would impose upon the democracy of the Northern States of this Union.—Bath Times.

GOLD DIGGINGS DISCOVERED IN MISSOURI.—St. Louis, Feb. 3.—New gold diggings have been discovered near the head waters of the Missouri, in the neighborhood of Stearn's Pass. Gold is said to be very plentiful, but of inferior quality.—The mines can be very nearly reached by steamboat navigation.

☞ The number of deaths in Hampton in 1858, was 28. The average number per year for the past one hundred and twenty-four years, has been 15.

☞ The Rev. John Long delivered a lecture in Lynchburg, Va., on Sunday last, against lager beer, and attributed the intellectual decay of the German race to the use of that liquid.

CHESHIRE TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the Washington Total Abstinence Society, of Cheshire County, was holden at the Town Hall in Keene, on Wednesday, the second day of February.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Barstow.

S. Hastings, Esq., Keene; Rev. Mr. Perkins, Winchester; Rev. J. M. Stow, Walpole; Rev. Mr. Searle, Richmond; Rev. Mr. Chase, Rindge; were appointed a committee to prepare business for the meeting. The following officers were elected:—

President, S. W. Buffum, Esq., Winchester.

Vice Presidents, Rev. Leonard Tracy, Keene; C. F. Brooks, Esq., Westmoreland; Jairus Collins, Esq., Marlboro'; Rev. D. G. Mason, Keene; Barton Skinner, Esq., Chesterfield.

Secretary, Noah R. Cooke, Esq., Keene.

Executive Committee, George H. Richards, Esq., Keene; Milan Harris, Esq., Harrisville; Edwin P. Tenney, Esq., Winchester; Amasa May, Esq., Gilsum; Asa Maynard, Esq., Marlboro'.

Corresponding Secretary, Marshall Kingman, Winchester.

County Committee, Alstead, Whitney Breed, Oliver Webster; Chesterfield Factory Village, John M. Richardson; Dublin, Thomas Fiske; Fitzwilliam, John J. Allen, Jr, Joel Whittemore; Gilsum, Abijah W. Kingsbury, Daniel Howard, Solomon Mack; Hinsdale, Hollis Taylor, Horace F. Evans; Jaffrey, Rev. J. E. B. Jewett, J. D. Gibbs; Keene, John Clark, Joseph Foster, Stewart Hastings, Joseph Knowlton, Isaac Rand; Marlboro', Jairus Collins; Marlow, Amos Fiske; Nelson, George G. Hardy, Noah W. Hardy; Rindge, J. B. Breed, Amos D. Converse; Richmond, George W. Herrick; Roxbury, Brigham Nims; Surry, George K. Harvey; Swanzey, Alonzo A. Ware, William Reed; Stoddard, John Stevens, Luther Abbott; Troy, Jotham H. Holt; Walpole, J. W. Lovejoy; Westmoreland, Charles Butterfield, John Mason; Winchester, S. W. Buffum, Charles Mansfield, E. M. Forbes, E. P. Tenney; Ashuelot, Oliver Holman; Harrisville, Milan Harris; Westport, Henry Holbrook.

The delegates of the several towns represented, being called upon, gave statistics of the progress of the Temperance cause in their respective towns; and it is a matter of rejoicing to the friends of Temperance that the cause is onward and progressing.

The Report of the County Committee of last year was read and accepted.

The committee on business reported the following resolutions, which were read, accepted, and after debate, unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That one of our chief needs at present, is a stronger public sentiment in favor of our Temperance Law, and that the best way to secure this is by practically testing the virtue of that Law.

Resolved, That the experience of the past year has increased our confidence in the efficiency of the New Hampshire Liquor Law; that we approve the action of the County Committee, and hope their efforts may be continued till no place shall remain where intoxicating liquors are unlawfully sold.

Resolved, That it is the highest duty, and should be the greatest pleasure of every man and woman in the community, to throw around our youth and children a restraining and powerful influence against every form of intemperance; an influence never more needed than at this present time; when the abundant sale of intoxicating drinks, and the strong temptations of gambling "saloons" are luring them on to entire ruin.

Resolved, That we need and should cultivate a deeper sympathy for the poor Inebriate; who is surrounded by temptations which he has not power to resist, and who will perish unless benevolent men come to his rescue.

Resolved, That there is a moral obligation upon all classes of men, without distinction of party or sect, to unite in abolishing the sale of a poison, which is destroying not only the bodies, but the souls of the people, and which is causing the American character to be degraded in the eyes of all nations.

Resolved, That the christian influence on this subject should be a unit, and there is need of concerted and increased efforts in our Churches of all denominations.

Resolved, That the cause in which we are engaged, requires "eternal vigilance," —"line upon line, and precept upon precept;"—that no momentum, even of a Gough, or his compeers in zeal and eloquence will be permanently available in the cause, independent of that perpetual motion which must spring from unwearied and devoted hearts.

Resolved, That we disclaim all political connection with this movement to suppress the evils of intemperance.

Resolved, That through the devoted and energetic services of a few friends of the cause, and the public addresses which have been given, we have reason to believe that the cause of Temperance in Cheshire County is steadily going forward.

The meeting continued through the day, and there was a session in the evening, which was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Chase of Rindge.

Addresses of much interest were delivered in afternoon and evening, by Rev. Edwin Thompson of Massachusetts,—and remarks were made by Rev. Messrs. Chase and Stubbs; all of which were well received; and after requesting a publication of proceedings, the meeting adjourned.

S. W. BUFFUM, President.
N. R. COOKE, Secretary.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Democratic Tariff Caucus met on Wednesday night—Mr. Jones of Tennessee in the chair.

Mr. Phelps of Missouri offered a resolution that the temporary necessities of the government should be met by an extension of the law authorizing the issue and receiving of Treasury notes for the period of two years—that the appropriation bills ought to be acted on as speedily as possible, and that the expenditures of the Government ought to be reduced to the lowest point consistent with the wants of an economical administration of the Government.

A debate took place on the various propositions, and finally the resolutions of Mr. Phelps were adopted.

A noticeable feature of the proceeding was the defeat by 27 against 25 of Mr. Crawford's resolution declaring it inexpedient to alter the tariff of 1857.

It was understood that the members were not to be bound by the action of the caucus.

In the U. S. Senate on Wednesday, Mr. Toombs spoke on the tariff and retrenchment.

Mr. Hunter at Virginia attempted to bring up the Consular and Diplomatic bill, and Mr. Slidell of Louisiana, was equally anxious to have up the Cuban question. A lengthy discussion ensued, in which the leading Republican Senators expressed themselves against taking up the latter, though ready at any time, when required, to discuss all its bearings.

The Cuban bill was finally taken up by a vote of 27 against 18, when Mr. Slidell, by consent made a textal correction of the bill providing for five per cent. bonds, payable semi-annually.

Mr. Doolittle of Wisconsin made some remarks, and offered a substitute appropriating fifty millions to enable the President to purchase in Yucatan, Central or South America, territory on which a free negro nation can be located, under the guarantee of the United States.

In the House, a reply was received from the Secretary of the Treasury, in answer to a resolution asking why the building of a court house at Baltimore had been delayed. The Secretary says he has postponed all authorized public buildings which had not been commenced previous to the late revulsion, and should continue postponement until Congress provides the funds.

The Executive Appropriation was considered, and the striking out of the following items concurred in:—Two hundred thousand dollars for mileage of next Congress. Ten thousand for repair of furniture and boxes for members. Upwards of seventy thousand for the Congressional Globe. One hundred thousand for San Francisco mint. Twenty-three thousand for New York Assay Office. Two hundred and twenty-five thousand for purchasing property now leased by New York District Courts, and a few smaller items, and adding one hundred and seventy-five thousand to supply deficiencies in printing appropriations. The bill then passed by sixteen majority.

Mr. Branch, from the Foreign Committee, reported back the Cuba thirty millions bill. Referred to Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Davis of Miss. gave notice that when the bill comes up, he should move to strike out the word "purchase," and substitute "take."

Mr. Phelps of Mo. reported the Post Office appropriation bill.

TESTIMONY.—Dea. J. B. N. Gould, Niles' Block Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters have done his family more good than any others they ever used. They are essentially a very valuable medicine. Mr. J. H. Thacher has a fresh stock. d24

Henry Bowen, Librarian of Mass. Charitable Mechanic Association Rooms, School street, Boston, says Dr. Clarke's Sherry Wine Bitters are a very valuable medicine—the best he ever used.—All medicine dealers sell them.

Mathes & Varrell sell Dr. Clarke's Bitters.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FLATULENCE.—Many persons are annoyed, and even distressed, by the occurrence of flatulence, or wind in the stomach and bowels.—This arises from impaired digestion, and loss of tone in the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal. By restoring the necessary tone to the stomach, the PERUVIAN SYRUP renders the painful symptoms impossible, and permits the food to go through its natural process of digestion.

R. R. R.

By its speedy assistance to Nature, restored a sickly young lady to robust health. Miss H., aged 22, in the month of February caught a severe cold—a cough soon followed—then weakness and lassitude—then pains in the back and loins, aching along the thighs, with a complete depletion of the body and depression of spirits; nature became tardy in performing her monthly duties, and the young lady was like a shadow of her former self. She was advised to take Radway's Ready Relief, a teaspoonful in a little water, to cure her headache, also to bathe the head with the Relief; likewise to take a dose or two of Radway's Regulators to regulate her system. They operated briskly—the following morning she ate a good breakfast, and enjoyed a good dinner.

The great cause of all her misery was removed, and a healthy flow of the menses was the result.—There is no remedy so certain in insuring the natural duties of all the organs in the male or female system, as Radway's Ready Relief, and Radway's Regulators. In one month from the day the lady first used R. R. R. she gained 25 lbs. in weight. So rapid a recovery is seldom heard of.

R. R. R. Office, 162 Fulton street, New York.

N. B.—For Scrofula, Syphilis, Female Complaints, use R. R. Resolvent. For Irregularity, use Radway's Regulators.

☞ Why will people go and have a poor miserable picture taken of themselves? Because, all those do not know that they can procure for the same money, a fine finished picture, faithful and true as life itself, at

SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,

in Congress Block, where the most superior likenesses are taken, and in all cases perfect satisfaction given.

N. B.—The beautiful little "give away" (cheap) pictures, are taken at this establishment, with a double lens Camera, (100 per day) by the celebrated Parisian artist—Monsieur Heavtontitoramenos.

AN ENEMY CONQUERED.—John B. Jones, of Seekonk, Mass., was cured of Consumption, after three years' standing, by using Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup. There was no mistake about this case—it was a great victory. Every hour in the day Mathes & Varrell, Portsmouth, supply the invalid with the same article.

THE LION HAS ROARED FOR THE LAST TIME.—J. H. Thacher and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth, have just received a gross of Dr. Clarke's Potent Cherry Syrup, which has never failed of curing all Throat and Lung Diseases as yet. Consumption can no longer claim its prey.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES.

Many ladies are suffering a disfigurement of their beauty arising from eruptions or pimples upon the skin. They have about three thousand pungent pores to every square inch of the skin, which, becoming diseased, prevents them from discharging their contents—thus causing the various pimples and eruptions. These can be easily removed by an application of GARDNER'S PARISIAN PIMPLE DESTROYER, which has been used by thousands, and is considered as an infallible article. This is a celebrated French compound, extensively used by the ladies of Paris; also in all cases previous to attending operas and parties.

The original recipe has been purchased by the present proprietors, and is guaranteed to the ladies of America to be the original "Parisian Pimple Destroyer." It also removes in a few hours Ring Worms, Barber's Itch, Boils, Bites and Stings, and all eruptions upon the Skin. For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY LONDON GIN IMPORTED. THIS GIN, Distilled in London, rom sound Rye, under the strictest observance of the British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom, rendering it in the opinion of the most eminent men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic thing in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended solely as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of DYSPEPSIA, GOUT, RHEUMATISM, COLIC, DROPSY, GRAVEL, CHOLERA, FEVER and AGUE, STRICTURE, DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS, BRIGHT'S and the BOWELS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing maladies which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin, "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to residents in the Northern and Eastern States, as well as to travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and in pints thirty eight cents, by all druggists, grocers, traiteers and country merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'.—NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Boston of G. C. Goodwin & Co., 11 Marshall st; M. S. Burr & Co., 1 Cornhill; S. F. Peck, 20 Elm st; J. Moran, 116 Blackstone st; M. Dale, Cor. Hanover & Richmond st; Smith & Co., 20 Exchange st; Gilbert, Abbott & Co., 78 Broad st., Deland & Snow, 34 Elm st. and others. In Portland, Me., of H. H. Hay & Co., C. W. Atwell, and C. C. French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by Joseph H. Thacher, in Dover by Chas A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for "Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills." Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ Music in Old Rockingham County seems not to have quite died out, after all. Miss Holland, soprano at St. Mary's (Catholic) Church in this city; with Miss Mary Harking, a powerful and popular vocalist, and her sister, alto, of Portland; and Karl Krebs, a celebrated instrumental performer; and Mr. Milliken, pianist, of Portland,—are to give a Concert at the Temple, on Tuesday Evening next—and with so strong and talented a company, it would seem they can hardly fail of drawing a large house, with tickets at 15 cents.

Then the Old Folks Choir have in rehearsal a Charity Concert to aid the poor through the Howard Benevolent Society, —which entertainment is announced for Sunday Evening, Feb. 27th. Their rehearsals are also held on Sunday Evenings; as besides the especial appropriateness and propriety of engaging in "the sacred songs our fathers sung," on this day of rest,—it has been found that a much larger number of the choir prefer this to any other evening for meetings, and a better audience can be gathered at the concerts. The price of tickets ought to be double what it is—for the concert certainly is worth "a quarter," and there should be something thrown in for charity. However, those who pass their dollars in at the ticket-office, need'nt call for their change back—or if they do, can hardly credit themselves with having done much for the cause.

Besides these, we publish this morning, the order of exercises for the Musical Convention to be held at New Market in March—which will be one of the most important Conventions ever held in the County, and without doubt one of the most satisfactory to all who attend.

Honor to Whom Honor is due.—A writer in the Bath Times, giving an account of a voyage from London to India, says:—

"It was my fortune, in January, 1858, to secure a passage to India in the Boston ship 'Benares,' commanded by Capt. George B. Wendell, of Portsmouth, N. H. Having met with one of the owners in London, in December, '57, I concluded to make this ship my 'prison house,' for the India passage, and consequently started for Cork, Ireland, where she was fitting for sea. I was not disappointed in finding this splendid ship 'a perfect beauty;' the hull and spars were very symmetrical, while the cabin, and in fact all the interior arrangements were unexceptionable.—Her generous owners had spared no expense to render the 'Benares' a model ship, and an ornament to the merchant service of the United States. While in Cork she attracted universal attention; and such was the influx of visitors from Queenstown, Passage, &c., that the captain was compelled to forbid but a select few from her decks!

"But, if my disposition does not tend seaward, I nevertheless can admire the hardy band of men who brave its dangers, and who so resolutely strive from a foremast hand to the less laborious, yet more harrassing post of master.

"The captain, at sea, has great power over the comfort of his passengers, officers or crew; and it becomes them not to rouse the slumbering lion. Sometimes this is done, however, either through dissimilarity of disposition, or boorishness on his part; but generally our American masters are gentlemen. Such at least was Captain Wendell, who combined urbanity of manners, with kindness of heart, and a fine understanding. I heartily pray he may yet be spared many years, and that his voyages to far off India may ever prove successful, which his skill as a navigator, and tact as a financier, would seem to warrant."

"A Paper for Sensible People."—Some one, in speaking of the Boston Saturday Evening Gazette, has bestowed upon it the compliment which is adopted as the caption of this article, and we believe the editors, Messrs. Wm. W. Clapp, Jr., Ben. P. Shillabor, (Mrs. Partington,) and A. Wallace Thaxter, could ask no prouder distinction than to cater for sensible people.

The Gazette for this week will bear comparison with any weekly published. Its contents are entirely original. "A Life's Fortunes, and How They Turned Out," from the pen of Ben. P. Shillaber, is one of his best efforts, and his column of "Responsibilities" is always up to the mark. The veteran editor, Joseph T. Buckingham is also a contributor to this week's issue, and there are several side dishes more or less spicy to please the appetites of the humorous. The Gazette is for sale at Mr. Morse's. Portsmouth ought to make up a club of fifty for the Gazette.

☞ A "Consistent" correspondent wants to know, where the great moral difference lies, between the New York Weekly Press lottery, advertised in the Journal, and the other forms of lottery gambling so bitterly denounced by that paper? We can't tell him. P.

☞ Elder Edwin Burnham will preach this eve and the evenings through the week at the Advent Chapel. Friends invited.

Washington, Feb. 9.—In Senate executive session, yesterday, an exciting debate arose on the appointment of Benj. Wiggin of Maine, as Commissioner under the Reciprocity treaty with Great Britain. The Senate declined to confirm the appointment, and the case was laid aside for future action.

☞ Mr. John J. Babson, a Representative to the Massachusetts Legislature from Gloucester, left his cat in charge of a relative during the absence of himself and family from home, but the feline quadruped proved to be a most inveterate thief, and was therefore ejected from the house of his new guardian. Not liking this treatment the cat climbed to the top of the house,—a three story dwelling,—smashed a pane of glass in the sky-light, and made a successful entrance into the house.

New York, Feb. 10.—Private advices from Jacksonville, Fla., state that a vessel left that port a few weeks ago for Africa, to take in a cargo of slaves; and that a brig sailed the day previous to meet her at sea and transfer the cargo.

A newly imported "help," after being established in a Fifth Avenue palace as maid of all work, was seen shortly after with a pail full of slops from the kitchen, carefully exploring the parlors, the drawing room, the library, the boudoir, the music room, and other places, as if in search of something which she could not find. At last, meeting the lady of the house, she inquired, seriously, "if you plase, mistress, where's the pig?"

may readily learn how to use them, and keep them in order. They make upwards of

FIFTEEN HUNDRED STITCHES A MINUTE,

and will do the sewing of a family cheaper than a seamstress can sew it, even if she works at the rate of ONE CENT AN HOUR.

Is there a husband, father, or brother in the United States, who will permit the drudgery of hand sewing in his family, when a Grover & Baker Machine will do it better, more expeditiously, and cheaper than can possibly be done by hand?
